1. Plan ahead: Make plans to have date nights. If you really are committed to each other then you will make time for these kinds of nights. It could be a night in where you watch movies on the couch or a night out on the town. But whatever it is, plan ahead and make sure you have an actual date set so neither of you can flake.

Celebrity News: Blake Shelton Says There Are 'So Many Great Things Happening in My Life'

By Mackenzie Scibetta

You don't often hear of country music mixing with pop successfully, but The Voice co-stars Blake Shelton and Gwen Stefani are apparently making it work just fine. According to UsMagazine.com, just a few hours before the 2015 Country Music Association Awards began, celebrity news broke that Shelton and Stefani are officially a new Hollywood couple. Following the awards ceremony Shelton took to Twitter to confirm his happiness saying that “Awesome night tonight. So many great things happening in my life...” On the other hand, single celebrity, and ex-wife to Shelton, Miranda Lambert is taking the divorce much harder saying that she “needed a bright spot this year”.

We’re pretty sure this celebrity news may have something to do with new love Gwen Stefani. How do you know if your new relationship has staying power?

Cupid’s Advice:

The unconditional bliss of a new relationship can make it hard to tell whether you’re happy because your significant other is the one, or just because it is something new and fresh. While the future of a relationship can be unpredictable, if you look hard enough there are signs that can help reveal the success of your budding romance. Cupid is here to help you decide if your new partner will be a lasting one:

1. You always laugh together: Laughter stimulates the release of feel-good hormones, thus pushing us towards a happier mood. Being in a significantly good mood around your new love will surely reap many benefits. Also, if you and your partner have the same sense of humor then that’s a good sign your relationship will never get boring.

2. You openly communicate: The first few fights of a relationship can be awkward, but if you both are willing to fully express yourself and feel comfortable arguing with each other respectfully then that will make your love last. You're guaranteed to argue so if you can figure out a way to politely oppose each other you are on a good track. If you find your partner intentionally saying things to hurt you then that's a recipe for disaster.

3. You're comfortable in silence: A healthy relationship means two people who can function separately without hindering the success of the other person. You both need to be able to relax and read in the same room as one another, without feeling forced to make conversation. Silence allows you to balance your life and grow as an individual.

Soules has been on a roller coaster ride for the past year when it comes to his love life. The celeb went from trying to win the heart of Andi Dorfman on The Bachelorette to having his pick of 30 women on The Bachelor to being engaged to Bischoff...to being single again. He's a stand-up guy, and he's what the show is all about, I think. He's truly trying to find somebody, so hopefully, that happens for him."

Of course, the former Bachelor had some dating advice to share with Higgins: "The main advice that I gave him was to make sure you take each relationship that you have with those girls very seriously and make sure they feel as comfortable as possible... In order to have a real relationship develop, those girls need to feel like they're the only ones involved in the relationship."

Kaley Cuoco and Ryan Sweeting File for Celebrity Divorce

By Kyanah Murphy

2015 seems to be the year of celebrity divorce. Kaley Cuoco and Ryan Sweeting are the next celebrity couple to be calling it quits on their marriage. After 21 months of marriage, this celebrity breakup comes as a bit of a shock! UsMagazine.com reports that in April, Cuoco was defending Sweeting, making statements that she was proud to be Sweeting's wife and that all the negative talk about their relationship was just making them stronger. Now, here we are at the end of September and these two are celebrity exes. Perhaps the former celebrity couple moved too fast as they became engaged after three months of dating. Either way, another one bites the dust!

Celebrity divorce strikes again! What do you do if you realize personality differences after you get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Personality differences don't have to be a bad thing. In fact, you don't want to date a mirror of yourself – that has divorce written all over it. Cupid has some tips on how to handle your relationship when you notice differences between you and your significant other.

1. Accept that your significant other is different than you: Remember, you don't want to date yourself (no matter how fabulous you are). Your partner brings different qualities and traits to the relationship and odds are you'll balance each other out.

January Jones and Will Forte Are Celebrity Exes After 5 Months of Dating

By Mackenzie Scibetta

Hollywood relationships are notorious for how short they usually are, but this celebrity couple called it quits after only five months together! UsMagazine.com reported that January Jones and Will Forte have ended their relationship and love life, which started in April on the set of their show The Last Man on Earth. The celebrity exes successfully avoided each other at the 67th Emmy Awards. It is rumored that the cause of the break-up was because Jones is not looking for commitment.

Time to add another pair of celebrity exes to the Hollywood mix. What do you do if the person you're dating is afraid of commitment?

Cupid's Advice:

Commitment issues are more prevalent than ever as our society is becoming more care-free and individualistic. If you truly want your partner to come to terms with the idea of a relationship, then don't be afraid to speak your mind. Cupid has three tips to help get your loved one committed:

1. Have fun: It's possible that your significant other is scared of commitment because they associate relationships with rules, routine and constant nagging. Try focusing less on getting them committed and more on enjoying each other's company. This laid-back, fun atmosphere might change their definition of what a relationship consists of.

2. Don't ask for too much too soon: Don't scare away your partner with high demands and lavish plans. Ease into a relationship slowly so they have time to adjust and get a feel for what you want. Hold off on meeting the parents and visiting Europe until the terms of the relationship have been fully discussed and accepted.

3. Show them respect: Hopefully this one is obvious, however, if you act superior and dominant this could intimidate them. Don't demand to be treated like a princess, rather treat your lover as your equal. Receiving respect can open their eyes to the caring, concerned person you can be.

Is Tyga Feuding with Celebrity Ex Blac Chyna Over Kylie Jenner's Ferrari?

By Kyanah Murphy

Could you imagine feuding with your ex over luxurious cars while flaunting said cars over Instagram? That's exactly what's happening with Tyga and his celebrity ex Blac Chyna! According to UsMagazine.com, this fiery, flashy feud began with Tyga and his ex celebrity love when Tyga posted an image of himself on Instagram and Blac Chyna's best friend, Amber Rose responded with a picture of her pink Ferrari! This, in turn, prompted Tyga to post an image of his own flashy car, a black and gold Bentley. Apparently the heated exchange began due to the fact that Tyga believes Blac Chyna is involved with spreading the rumor that Tyga is leasing Kylie Jenner's Ferrari rather than having bought it outright.

These celebrity exes aren't happy with each other. What are some ways to keep drama with your ex at bay?

Cupid's Advice:

While you may not be feuding over Ferraris like these celebrity exes, you will probably run into your own drama with your ex. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Know yourself and what will get under your skin: your ex knows what will bother you so hopefully you will too. Your ex may bait you in with things that'll bother you to start a fight. When you know what bothers you and winds you up, you can better avoid the bait they may lay out for you. Be the bigger person.

2. Set communication boundaries: depending on your situation, you may not be able to cut your ex entirely out of your life. If that's the case, set yourself boundaries. Don't answer phone calls from them (let it go to voice mail) and give your ex and yourself a time frame of when to respond when it's important for you to respond (like if you have kids and it's about your kids).

3. Give yourself space: really you shouldn't be talking to your ex unless absolutely necessary (i.e. kids). They shouldn't exist in your world anymore. So stick to that – they aren't around. Don't talk to them and don't fall for bait. Surround yourself by positive things and busy yourself so the temptation isn't there.

Even celebrity marriages encounter issues. What are some ways to identify the issues you're having in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're having issues, it's not always easy to identify them. You may be tempted to ignore them and move forward without facing them. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Awareness: The key to identifying and resolving issues in a relationship and love is by being aware of them. If you are always arguing with your partner, raising your voice, avoiding them and find yourself frequently irritated, then there are obviously issues. The first step is to be aware of these things and then work on them immediately.

3. Work it out: If you never change your routine and actions, you will never gain different results. To get the outcome you hope for and to resolve issues, work on these problems with your partner. If you have a tendency of yelling at one another, go to a public place to discuss things where you will each be forced to keep your voices down because you won't want to get embarrassed.

Comedian Wayne Brady On His Modern Family and Celebrity Ex: "We Truly Love Each Other – Like Back to the Wall, Fight Anybody"

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Katelyn Di Salvo.

Actor, improv artist, and comedian Wayne Brady was in New York City this week to team up with Charmin to host the “Keep it Clean Comedy Show.” The event gave young comedians from schools all over the city a platform to deliver five minutes of their best, clean potty humor routines in front of a live audience. In our exclusive celebrity interview with the television host, he opens up about the show, his upcoming role as Lola in Kinky Boots on Broadway, and his modern family dynamic!

Wayne Brady Discusses Charmin’s “Keep it Clean Comedy Show”

Brady has a lot on his plate these days. He is best known for hosting Let’s Make a Deal on CBS as well as being on the very popular Who’s Line Is It Anyway? Additionally, the actor is developing an improv game show with Ryan Seacrest and a sitcom with his producing partner – who also happens to be his celebrity ex – Mandie Taketa.

Even with his full schedule, the busy celeb still made time to give back and help out the future of comedy for Charmin's "Keep It Clean Comedy Show." Brady opened up the show with classic interactive improv and even brought his daughter Maile on stage for some father-daughter comedy. He says getting involved with the event was a "no-brainer" because he was excited about helping these young, aspiring comedians. Plus, Charmin offered to donate to his favorite charity, Ronald McDonald House Charities. He was so impressed with the young talent at the event that he thought he could cast a baby Saturday Night Live!

Comedian Shares His Excitement for His Latest Gig on Broadway

NYC will be seeing a lot more of Brady come November. The actor will be the next star of Kinky Boots, playing the role of Lola. He's performed on Broadway before, acting as Billy Flynn in Chicago. However, the Emmy winner believes that being on Broadway will be different this time around because "Lola is an amazing role." It's no surprise that it'll take a lot of discipline to "sing those songs, wear those heels, walk that walk, and be the guy that helps to hold the entire show up." The celeb explains that his role as Billy Flynn was "cool and poppin'," a very different character to play. "For my money, this Lola is one of the best roles on Broadway," he shares.

Brady also clears up the belief that he is his work, saying, "It's a job. I think that there's this weird misconception that I believe most people carry around that, if you're a stand-up comedian or if you do improv, whatever you do on stage is how you should be in life.” He explains that he isn’t a wind-up doll and is a different person in real life. “When I’m on stage, I let out all the stops – that’s why I started acting,” he reveals. “When I was a kid, you got to use your imagination and be whoever you wanted to be...and then come back to real life and just chill.”

The Dynamic of His Modern Celebrity Family

As fans know, Brady went through a celebrity divorce with Mandie Taketa in 2007. But unlike many celebrity exes, the two managed to stay close, parenting and working together. Last fall, he went through some tough times and battled depression, and the comedian credits his ex-wife for helping him get through it.

Brady confirms that his relationship with Taketa (who was sitting next to him with daughter Maile during our interview) works for a simple reason: “We love each other. We truly love each other – like back to the wall, fight anybody, like I can say something about her, but you can’t because I will fight you, and she will kill you for me,” he explains. “So we have love and friendship. Add to that that we are parents together and business partners in this beautiful venture of a child.” Given his experience, he doesn’t understand the people who can’t be friends, love each other, and happily co-exist because, at the end of the day, they are still a family.

The comedian shares that he’s happily single at the moment. “I tried dating in the past, and it’s not that I don’t want to or won’t, but now is not the time,” he says. “I’m enjoying my life. I’ve got my daughter; I get to hang out with my best friend; and I get to do amazing work. I’ll get around to it at some point.”

The celebrity father didn't hesitate when asked to give his daughter dating advice, quoting his daughter's mother and saying, "Don't give anybody your time that won't respect your boundaries and respect you as a person. You've got to be willing and ready to do what you have to do to back that up. I wouldn't want her to be with someone who doesn't pay attention to those things."
