Cupid's Advice

Double dates or couple getaways can be unpredictable and you don't always know what to expect. If you are considering going on a double date or a couple getaway and you're not sure if you should go, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. It's good to have someone to relate to: Couples usually go through similar if not the same issues that you and your partner have. Spending time with another couple gives you a chance to relate to each others issues. Once you know that other couples struggle with the same thing that you struggle with in your relationship, it becomes less of an issue to know that you guys aren't the only ones.

2. Get to know the people in your partners life: Double dating or couple getaways is a great way to meet your partners family and friends without it being awkward. Get to know the people that your partner is around when they're not with you.

3. See your partner in a different light: For the most part you see your partner when you both are alone. Seeing how your partner acts and gets along with other couples is an indication of they act around other people that's not you. Learn how your partner acts around you vs. how they are around other people. Learning each other behaviors and actions will make you both closer as a couple.

Celebrity Getaway: Scott Disick & Sofia Richie Enjoy PDA on Mexican Vacation

By Jessica Gomez

Kourtney Kardashian's ex Scott Disick and girlfriend Sofia Richie were all lovey dovey during their celebrity vacation in Mexico, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple posted photos on Instagram. Both were having fun and a ton of PDA was going on. According to a source, the couple is very happy, always have fun, and were making out and all over one another often during the vacay.

This celebrity getaway is getting steamy. What are some things to consider when it comes to public displays of affection?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is a controversial topic. Some people are fine with it, and some people are hardcore against it. There are different levels of PDA, from holding hands to make out sessions and butt grabbing – so different levels call for different measures. Cupid has some tips on things you should consider when it comes to public displays of affection:

1. Are there kids around?: This matters depending on the level of PDA of course. Are you just kissing one another innocently or is it to the point of someone telling you to get a room? Children are innocent and you wouldn't want to influence them in a particular way, especially if they aren't your kids.

2. Are you making others uncomfortable?: Generally, we are told to not care about what others think. However, it can be annoying when a group of friends are hanging out, and there's that couple all over each other the whole time. Do as you please, but try to keep in mind whether or not you're overdoing it. Everything in moderation.

3. The place: PDA stands for public displays of attention (as we all know), but certain public places may be more acceptable than others. For example: work, school, a funeral home, children's playgrounds, and hospitals are obvious places where most people would agree couples should stray away from intense PDA. So just keep your eyes open and be aware of your surroundings, and of course pay attention to the level of PDA.

Cupid’s Advice:

Who needs to spend all that money when “stay-cations” are a thing! You don’t need to go abroad to have a good time, everything you need for a good vacation is right at home. If a stay-at-home vacation is something you’re interested in, then try one of these great ideas Cupid has lined up for you:

1. Disconnect: The first thing you should do is turn off the wifi. When you’re on vacation, you’re outside doing things instead of staring at a computer screen all day. Take this time to kick your technology addictions. Experience the world again without cell phones, tablets and laptops. You’ll be surprised how refreshed you’ll feel without these items.

2. Go camping: This can be done whether you have a backyard or not. Just get your hands on a tent and set it up outside or in your living room. Grill up the food of your choice and roast marshmallows while you engage in camp-like activities. It will feel like you've escaped to the great outdoors without all the traveling.

3. Pamper yourself: The best part of a vacation is the relaxation. Take a nap, make some cucumber water and sip it throughout the day like you're at the spa. You'll feel even better if you give yourself a makeover, because when you look your best, you'll feel your best. Top the night off with a dinner date, and it'll almost be like you've gone on a real vacation.
