

Celebrity Couples Who Rocked the Cradle

y Emily Meyer

It's not a secret that there are quite a few cradle robbers in Hollywood. Although these celebrity couples span multiple generations, so far they have stood the test of time in the limelight. These couples sure aren't letting age get in the way of their relationships. Below, Cupid has five celebrity couples who are continuing to live happily in ageless love:

1. Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green: This handsome couple certainly does not mind their 13-year age gap. Although both actors have stayed busy, since getting hitched in 2010, the couple has also welcomed two little boys. The Greens continue to be in marital bliss and only seem to be growing stronger as a pair.

2. Ellen DeGeneres and Portia de Rossi: Even though their 2008 marriage caused quite a stir, most people don't even realize that this famous couple has a large age difference. However, their 15-year age gap has not stopped the couple from being together since 2004. This power duo has led the way for other same-sex couples to also take a trip down the aisle.

3. Harrison Ford and Calista Flockhart: After meeting at the 2002 Golden Globes, not only did sparks fly, but so did a glass of wine. Even if it was a spilled glass of wine that brought these two together, it seems to have worked because the pair has been together ever since. The strong and talented couple is not dwelling on their 22-year age gap.

4. Johnny Depp and Amber Heard: After meeting on set in 2010, this mysterious and timeless couple was not actually romantically linked until 2012. The couple has since gotten engaged earlier this year. Nonetheless, the 23-year age difference sure looks good on them.

5. This couple takes the crown for having the biggest age gap in Hollywood – 6 decades to be exact. Hefner and Harris did not let their 60-year age difference prevent them from getting married and starting a life together. Hefner once tweeted wise words: “When you're in love, age is just a number.”

Does Your Dating Radar Need Some Tuning?

y Maggie Manfredi

Swimming through the 21st century dating pool can be a complicated endeavor. Not only are you searching for a soulmate but you have to doggy paddle your way through cringeworthy dating apps, dating websites with a price tag or crowded bars with minimal lighting. It's no easy feat and according to psychologytoday.com, "It's been found that 81 percent of people lie on their online dating profiles, most often about their age, height, weight, and earning power—and that doesn't include photo shopping." So before you go out there with all the liars and the dirty, dirty cheats of the world, you need to make sure your dating radar is as active as your tinder inbox.

1. Be honest with yourself and with others: You can't prevent people from telling you falsities to make themselves look better but you do have control over your own actions. Everyone has experienced that moment where your finger hovers over the send button as you over analyze every single word in the conversation. Make it easier on yourself and simply make sure your words are truthful.

2. Don't get stuck in the cyber limbo: So you've started chatting with a cutie on OkCupid. You're chatting, and chatting some more...Warning: you are getting caught in the cyber limbo. If you don't feel a spark don't drag along a boring conversation. If you get butterflies every time you get a notification, do not be afraid to make the first move. (Dating app tip, make sure the first in person encounter is at a public place that you are comfortable at or have been to before.)

3. Be prepared for rejection: If you are lucky you will get some dates with some interesting people. Not every date is going to be a love connection, that's a fact. Sometimes you may be thinking there is something there but the other person is just not that into you, remember that this is okay. For a monogamous relationship to work there has to be mutual adoration and respect. When you go for drinks or grab a coffee don't set your expectations too high. Dating is supposed to be fun and if someone says thanks but no thanks, think of it positively, as one step closer to love.

4. Keep it simple: With all the different dating resources you might find yourself getting caught up in the many ways to meet people. Dating app tip number two, limit yourself to one or two apps/websites so that you do not drown in eligible bachelors or bachelorettes. Though these apps are the greatest because you can find a date while sipping wine in your pajamas, remember that there are plenty of singles out there right now just waiting to meet you in person. So get out there!

5 Reasons Why You Should Date Someone Who's Older Than You

y Shannon Seibert

An age gap doesn't necessarily mean that there is something missing from the relationship, in fact sometimes it brings a couple closer together. It may be cheesy but the phrase "Age is only a number" is actually quite accurate. Who you fall in love with isn't your choice, it's a matter of the heart and soul. If you find someone who you just instantly click with, it shouldn't matter what decade you were born in. Check out our top five reasons why you should date someone who is older than you and feel confident about your loving relationship:

- 1. You can offer each other a new perspective: Your significant other is someone who you can confide in, and sometimes an age gap allows you to receive a different reaction to a situation other than your own. This way you can use your significant other for guidance and support in your decision-making. As they have generally had more life-experiences you will be able to feel confident that they know what they're talking about. In turn, you can also "keep him young" by being adventurous with him. Try out new date ideas, travel together, or anything else that he may not have done on his own.

Related: Date Idea: Redecorate

2. He will have a sense of maturity: It seems to be a rare trait that is hard to find, and just because he's a man, it doesn't mean that there isn't a little boy underneath. Women naturally mature faster than men, they experience more rapid brain growth and development. This is why women traditionally date older. Sometimes we are faced with serious circumstances in life that you'll need to lean on your partner.

3. He will most likely be more financially stable: When you're young, it's easy to make whimsical purchases on pay day. With your older guy, he may know a thing or two about having a large savings account. This gives your man a lot of credibility because balancing your finances is a good quality to look for. This means he will be able to provide for you and support you if your relationship were to take the next step. Also, your dates will probably a lot nicer than just dinner and a movie.

4. An older man knows chivalry: Chivalry isn't dead, ladies, it just may be a few years ahead. He's been in the dating game for a quite a while and now he knows what he wants. There won't be any games, or second guessing, he will treat you like the lady you are. In your generation you may not have a lot of doors opened for you, but when you date older this simple gesture of feminine appreciation is the first of many.

Related: Zac Efron and Michelle Rodriguez Amp Up PDA in Spain

5. They're better at sex: Not that these criteria are in any particular order, but this is definitely one of the important ones. People neglect sexual chemistry as an important quality of a relationship, saying "It's not all about the sex," but in reality, sex is pretty significant. Sex allows you to reach a whole new level of intimacy that just emotional attachments cannot equate to. It's the synchronization of the emotional and physical chemistry that can mold the most beautiful forms of love. Older men are generally more experienced in the bedroom, so let him spoil you. This being said, you could also learn a thing or two from him!

y Jessica DeRubbo

Jason Aldean is speaking up for his new girlfriend and former mistress Brittany Kerr, according to UsMagazine.com. The country singer recently posted on Instagram, and the caption says, "So sick of people judging me and @brittanylkerr over things they know nothing about. I have made mistakes but i am a better person because of it, and wouldnt change a thing. Im happier than i have ever been, so thank u to all the people who support us. We are happy and life goes on. Its time to move on people." The duo has been together since Aldean filed for divorce from his wife of nearly 12 years, Jessica Ussery, in 2013. They went public with their relationship in April 2014 while walking the red carpet together at the 2014 CMT Music Awards.

What are some reasons to defend your relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Defending your relationship is never something you want to have to do, but some situations simply call for it. Cupid has some scenarios in which it might be not only okay, but necessary, to step up to the plate to defend the one you love:

1. Inaccurate accusations designed to hurt: Some rumors aren't worth addressing, but when an accusation or assumption is hurting your significant other, it's time to take action.

How to Show Love Through SMS

by Courtney Omernick

Since technology has evolved, it's also taken over our love lives. And, with more and more individuals leading busier lives, or resorting to long-distance relationships, sometimes, showing your love through a text message is the easiest and simplest way to get the job done. But, showing emotions through texting can be tricky. So, Cupid has come up with a few ways on how you can show your love through SMS.

1. Focus on the WHY: Couples tend to go back and forth with saying the phrase, "I love you." But, stating the reasons why you love someone seems to happen less and less. Try sending your partner a text stating why you're in love with them or why you fell in love with them.

The caption simply stated, "Hallelujah," with her new husband showing his flexibility while posing with one foot on the balcony edge and the other on the roof. The 34-year-old athlete was dressed in shorts and T-shirt, and wore a smile as an accessory while standing still for his wife to capture the moment.

What are some ways to capture romantic memories outside of pictures?

Cupid's Advice:

For decades, pictures have been one of the most common ways to have an actual tangible memory. Lately, you have been wanting to think outside of the box when it comes to capturing those special times with your partner, but nothing is coming to mind. Well, Cupid has some romantic ways to capture those sweet, precious memories other than by using photographs:

1. Love letters: Express your affection through a letter. May seem old-fashioned, but it takes time and thought to actually compose a few sentences in which you are telling your inner most feeling, AKA pouring your heart out on a piece of paper that can last a lifetime. Those words will leave an everlasting memory on your partner.

Your significant other will also have this to look back at if they are ever missing your face AND voice. Record one of your silly moments together, for those times when they may need a good laugh. Record a time during one of your weekend dates, for those times when you want to reminisce. Cute idea, right?

them know you haven't forgotten the little things. . . and neither will they.

How to Turn a Friendship into a Relationship

by Courtney Omernick

You're out and about with your friend, and you start to notice a funny feeling in the pit of your stomach. No, don't worry, it has nothing to do with what you ate; it's probably butterflies. If you've been thinking about your interactions with this person for awhile, it's probably a good idea to assess whether or not you want to turn what you have into something more. And, if you do, Cupid has some food for thought.

1. Increase the physical contact: You might already be affectionate towards one another, but now it's time to dial up the flirtation without being too physical. For example, set a goal to touch the other person at least three times when you're together. Make sure that the touch lasts no longer than two to three seconds and that you're only touching the shoulder, neck, or hand.

2. Leave them wanting more: Spending a lot of time with them lately? Try intervals. For example, spend a lot of time with them, then none for awhile, then more again. While you're gone, your friend has a chance to think about and miss you. Also, remember to include the flirtation and physical contact while you're with them.

1. Everything they do is perfect: From the way they dance to how they brush their teeth in the morning, there is no flaw in any action they make whatsoever. And, you're completely smitten while watching their every single move. Seriously, this person can do no wrong!

2. They've consumed your thoughts: Can't figure out what to eat for breakfast? Finding it hard to study? If the person you're with is starting to cloud your thoughts, you might be in love.

3. You slowly retreat from society: Before your partner, it was all about your friends, family, and having "me" time. Now that you're together, you've started to spend less and less time with others and more time with your "other." It's not that you hate your friends and family, it's just that being away from your partner feels so...wrong.

4. Being with them is what matters: You could be scuba diving, at the movies, hiking, grocery shopping, or just lying in bed; it doesn't matter. As long as you have them by your side, one activity is just as great as the next.

5. You don't mind having to compromise sometimes: If you can't be flexible regarding something simple, you should probably start packing your bags. However, if you don't mind a little give and take, it's probably a good sign that you're in love.

6. You've forgotten about your ex: John who? If you're in love, you're no longer wondering about whether or not you made the right decision to break it off with your ex. In fact, the thought is the furthest thing from your mind. You might not even remember why you were with your ex to begin with.

7. You're happy...about everything: Your life feels like it's all rainbows and butterflies. Nothing can bring you down. Stuck in a traffic jam on the way to work? No problem! This only gives you more time to think about your partner.

8. You're reordering your priorities: Let's face it, you've started to put your partner's needs before your own. You might have even changed your clothing, habits, mannerisms, or values in order for them to better match your partners. Guess what? Love is in the air!

9. You feel the words slipping out of your mouth: It could happen when the two of you are simply walking down the street. Your partner looks at you, and without saying anything, you feel the phrase, "I love you" on the tip of your tongue. If those words are crying to leave your lips, it could be love.

10. You'd do anything for them: If you're in love, you generally feel a sense of empathy and think of the other person's pain as their own. Because of this, you feel that you'd be willing to sacrifice anything for the other person.

Cupid’s Advice:

For some people their ideal wedding location is in their backyard. But for a few, their dreams lie beyond their country’s borders. International weddings have become increasingly popular and we’ve discovered the reasons why.

1. You are basically creating your own fairytale: This is your love story, so therefore, it’s only right if you get to pick the setting. Places such as Spain, Greece, and Italy are growing in popularity for destination weddings. The exotic feel about being somewhere new brings about a whole new essence of romance. 2. You get to choose your guests: International flights are expensive, therefore you have to be extremely selective when it comes to picking out who gets the plane tickets. This can also allow you to get the intimate feel that you may be searching for. Your friends and family are more likely to understand you not being able to drop thousands on numerous international flights than not receiving an invite to your local church ceremony. Those who are invited to experience this day with you will also recognize how much they mean to you, making your wedding even more wonderful.
