By Louisa Gonzales

Ginnifer Goodwin and costar Josh Dallas take the next step toward happily ever after! According to UsMagazine.com, the couple exchanged vows in a private and low-key wedding ceremony on Saturday, April 12. This is the Something Borrowed star, first marriage and her now husband second. The Once Upon a Time newlyweds look happier than ever and were all smiles for the photographers, spotted at a friend's house in L.A. the day after they tied the knot. Goodwin, 35, is currently pregnant with their first child and Dallas, 32, reportedly said on Good Morning America that they both "can't wait" to welcome their child to the world.

How do you decide the right time to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is considered to be a big milestone and significant moment in a couples relationship. Deciding if you are ready to take that next big step and get hitched comes at different times for every person. Cupid has some advice on how to decide if it's the right time to get married.

1. It's something you both want: If you and your partner have discussed the topic of marriage before, chances are you are both thinking about it. Another thing you hopefully discussed when it came to marriage, is if it's something you can both potentially see in your future. Getting married is a big deal, so to make sure you are both ready and be sure to talk about it and see if your views and ideals on marriage are the same and if not if you can work through them.

2. The timing is right: You know what they say, timing is everything. When you decide to get married it should be at the right time in your lives, where you are both stable and in a happy relationship. Other things you might want to think about are, if you are both financially secure and are at points in your life where you're ready to make the move from dating to engaged to married.

3. You can see yourself growing old with them: If you are thinking about long term plans with your lover, chances are you know that person is it for you. Much like love, when you know you know, and you can just feel it. Have you sat and thought about it you can bring it up to your significant other and see if they feel the same way and if they do, getting married could be just the right thing for your relationship to grow and evolve further.

Jamie Chung and Bryan Greenberg Show Some Poolside PDA

By April Littleton

Jamie Chung and her new fiance Bryan Greenberg attended this year's Coachella Music and Arts Festival together. "They were hugging from the side and holding hands while sitting on neighboring floaties in the water," an insider told People. "They would often give each other forehead kisses. They were cute."

How do you show the one you love you care?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to show the person you care about how much they mean to you. You don't want them to feel unappreciated, or alone in a relationship. You don't have to spend an incredible amount of money to prove your love and loyalty. After all, it's the little things that count. Cupid has some advice:

1. Spend some time: Make an effort to spend as much time with your significant other as possible. Take the initiative and plan a few dates – especially if your partner is always the one who ends up setting up the activity schedule.

3. Support: Show your significant other you support all of their life goals and dreams. Push them to go after what they want, and be by their side when they're feeling down. Be their number one fan. Nothing says how much you care more than by showing your partner you'll always be in their corner rooting for them.

Inexpensive Ways to Say 'I Love You'

By Maria Darbenzio

You don't have to break the bank to show your significant other how much you truly care about them. When it comes to money, let's face it, not everyone has a chunk of extra spending money on hold for elaborate gifts. There are plenty of ways to say 'I love you' inexpensively or without spending anything at all. Keep your relationship and bank account in check with some of these ways to express your love and appreciation.

1. Alphabet of appreciation: Take the time to write down the ABCs of love for your partner. All you need is a pen and a piece of paper. For each letter, list something that you love about your sweetie until you've gone through all 26 letters. At the end, sign it with a kiss and leave it somewhere you know he'll see it.

Related: 5 Ways to Have a Stress-Free First Date

2. Mirror messages: Before your sweetie wakes up to take a shower, take a q-tip and Rain-x anti-fog to write a cute message on the mirror. When they step out, the fog will form everywhere except your little note, leaving them with a nice little surprise to start their day. If you have no use for the Rain-x afterwards, you can go a more traditional route instead with the use of lipstick writing. It may be a bit on the messier side, but it gets the point across just the same.

3. Post-it notes: Much like the alphabet of appreciation, write down what you love about your partner or how much you can't wait for them to get home from work. Slip them into their wallet, in their car, or into their briefcase. Spread them around so they can keep finding them throughout the day. It's an easy way to keep a smile on their face all day long.

4. Romantic dinner: Everyone loves a nice romantic home cooked meal. The time and effort alone shows just how much you're willing to do for your significant other. Whether you chose to cook together as a couple, or you surprise you hunny with a hot meal as they walk in from work, it's a classic way to show your love. Don't forget to light some candles and grab a bottle of wine to tie it all together.

5. Rent a movie: In the age of Netflix and On Demand television, “renting” a movie has never been easier. Cuddle up with a blanket, and your sweetheart, on the couch and pick a movie you’ve both dying to see. If you’re up to date with the latest films, why not take a jump back in time to watch some of the romantic must-see movies. Grab some popcorn and watch the romance between Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan blossom in You’ve Got Mail.

Scarlett Johansson Reveals Why Romain Dauriac Is Right for Her

By Sanetra Richards

Dating someone with a different career than yours is exactly what Scarlett Johansson has chosen to do. The Vanity Fair cover girl made it known things are much easier dating a non-actor. According to UsMagazine.com, the Captain America starlet discussed her relationship with French journalist Romain Dauriac, saying, "It is [easier], but it's more than that. We do different things. He's in the whole art-scene world. So it's nice, because we can enjoy each other's worlds, but we don't have our crazy conflicting schedules and all that other stuff to contend with." Johansson went onto joke about her beau: "And, you know, of course, actors, in general, they're obsessed with emotions. Although, [Romain is] French, so he's also probably overly into his emotions." The couple is expecting their first child in August.

How do you know when you've found 'the one'?

Cupid's Advice:

Stumbling upon love is one of the greatest feelings of all time. Admit it, your head is up in the clouds and you have uncontrollable stomach flutters. And if you have not experienced this yet, you are patiently waiting on the moment. However, knowing when you have met that special person that is the reason for your insane feelings always brings up the question “Is he/she the one?” Search no further, because Cupid has some advice:

1. You can be yourself: Finding someone who completely accepts you for just being you is similar to finding a needle in a haystack. Fortunately, when that person comes around it is hard to pass up. He or she will laugh at your corny and witty humor, accept your lifestyle, and so on. If you are never hesitant to say what is on your mind or do something completely out of the norm and they value it, chances are you are a step closer to recognizing ‘the one.’

Related: Scarlett Johansson Is Expecting!

2. Everlasting romance: The googly eyes and butterflies are not meant to end after a couple of months into the relationship. A connection should always be felt between you and your partner, even if it is years down the line. ‘The one’ will continuously shower you with affection and appreciation.

Related: Scarlett Johansson Is Engaged to Romain Dauriac

3. Mutual understanding: A confirmation usually comes about in certain situations when you and your partner would rather talk out a problem instead of arguing and going at each other’s throats; even when conversations begin to evolve and begin to include “we” or “us” instead of “I” and “me” all of the time. If you notice more growth individually and as a couple, guess what? You have probably found ‘the one.’

Famous Couple Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie Enjoy a Weekend Celebrity Getaway Without Kids

By Louisa Gonzales

Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt went on a weekend celebrity getaway, just the two of them. According to UsMagazine.com, the famous couple were spotted at a hotel in Beverly Hills having a lovely time together on Saturday, Apr. 5, without their six children, Pax, 10, Zahaa, 9, Shiloh, 7, twins

Vivienne and Knox, 5, and Maddox, 12. The engaged twosome were not shy about showing their affection towards one another, even entering the hotel arm-in-arm. This much-needed private outing is well-deserved, as it comes after Jolie, 38, and Pitt, 50 had been a part for a few months because of work.

Famous couple Pitt and Jolie recognize the value of alone time with each other. What are some reasons it's important to spend quality time with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're part of a famous couple or not, finding time to spend with your lover can be difficult. After all, life gets in the way! However, no matter how chaotic and hectic your schedule may be, it's important to get that much-needed private time with your other half. Cupid has some love advice on why you need to spend one-on-one time with your partner:

1. It keeps the spark alive: Every relationship needs a strong emotional and physical connection. Physical separation leads to emotional separation, so if you're not spending time in each other's company, it can lead to a break-up. Plan some date ideas together and do something fun or new; that way, you will be making time for each and satisfying each others needs.

By Louisa Gonzales

Lovebirds Kaley Cuoco and Ryan Sweeting continue to show off their love and commitment toward one another. The couple have had a whirl wind romance ever since they first met. Starting with them quickly dating and then soon after becoming engaged and even sooner married. According to UsMagazine.com Cuoco, 28, recently showed off her new tattoo of her wedding date in between her shoulder blades in three rows of large Roman numerals, including the numbers that read, 12-31-13, at a charity tennis event in Calabasas, California on Saturday, March 22. The numbers tattooed on her back are the date of when the lovers said their vows to one another on New Year's Eve last year in Southern California, just four months after getting engaged.

What are some ways to publicly show you love your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Love is a beautiful thing and sometimes when you are in love you want to shout it from the rooftops! Expressing and showing off your love doesn't have to be a negative thing, it can be a good thing, especially when you really mean it. Cupid has some advice on ways to publicly show your love toward yours partner:

1. Show some PDA: Showing some public displays of affection every now then is not going to kill your relationship in fact it can make it stronger. Don't be afraid to grab your partner's hand when they're feeling overwhelmed or give them a quick kiss to show you care, or pull them into a hug for reassurance. Love is both emotional and physical it's important to have strong connections in both.

Stacy Keibler Is Pregnant

By April Littleton

According to People, newlyweds Stacy Keibler and Jared Pobre are expecting their first child together. “More blessings!! We’re an elated family-to-be!” the couple told the magazine. The lovebirds married March 8 on a beach in Punta Mita. They were friends for five years before starting up a relationship with each other. “I’m so excited for the new chapter in my life,” Keibler said. “I’m so ready for it. I feel for the first time like I’m really fulfilled and at peace.”

How do you announce your pregnancy to loved ones?

Cupid's Advice:

Congratulations on your pregnancy. Now you have to decide how and when you're going to tell your loved ones about the excited baby news. A pregnancy announcement might seem intimidating, but just think about how excited your family and friends will be once you finally reveal the big surprise. Cupid has some tips:

1. Tell your honey first: Before you go around telling your friends and family the good news, you need to tell your partner you're expecting first. You can choose to tell him right away, or think of a creative way to announce the news. Maybe you can tell your significant other over dinner or leave clever, little clues all over the house that lead up to the big reveal.

Mandy Moore and Ryan Adams Celebrate 5-Year Anniversary

By Louisa Gonzales

Mandy Moore and long-term partner Ryan Adams marked their fifth wedding anniversary with a huge celebration on Sunday with family and friends. The star posted pictures of the evening's festivities on Instagram, with everyone looking lovely and in smiles. According to People, everyone who attended the party dressed up for the monumental occasion, with the guys wearing '50s looks and the gals wearing party dresses along with fun accessories. Moore, 29, herself sported a sombrero, while her good celebrity friend Minka Kelly wore a clown bow-tie. The fashionable couple got engaged back in 2009 and are now happily married. Moore even posted a photo of her marriage certificate the week before with a caption that read, "The best 5 years...". Congrats to the married couple!

How do you make your wedding anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a special thing that signifies a bond and love between two people. Once you're married they are a lot of hardship, but also a lot of good times. When you love someone you want to make them feel special, loved and appreciated. This is even more important come your wedding anniversary. Cupid has some advice on how to make your wedding anniversary memorable:

1. Plan a celebration: What better way to celebrate your love and marriage with your lover than to plan something special like a celebration. Celebrating your anniversary doesn't have to be a huge extravagant thing, it can be as big as a party filled with family and friends or as simple as a romantic evening in. The point is you are celebration the day you decided you wanted to be with your lover forever. However you plan to mark the special occasion is up to you, just make it memorable and perfect for the both of you.

How do you keep the romance in your relationship alive?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a long-term relationship, keeping things fresh and exciting can prove to be a little difficult. A passionate, intense romance is difficult to maintain, but if you put in the work, you'll be able to keep that special spark alive. Cupid has some tips:

1. Do things together: Forget about staying home all the time. Go out for a date every now and then. Take your partner out for dinner, or go see a movie together. If you rather plan your activities during the day, try a picnic lunch or something both of you would enjoy doing together.

What are some things to consider before dating a coworker?

Cupid's Advice:

There are both positive and negatives to dating a coworker. Getting into a relationship with someone you work with can be tricky, but sometimes you can't help who you have a love connection with and you can only fight it for so long. Cupid shares some advice on things to consider before you start-up something romantic with a coworker:

1. Be ready for gossip: Once you get involved with someone you work with, be prepared to have people talk about it, especially if you're an actor like Josh Brolin. There is going to be gossip and rumors surrounding the two of you and some of it may or not be true, so you have to decide if this is something you're okay with. If you don't like people knowing about your personal life dating a coworker might be tricky. Even if you try to keep it a secret there is no guarantee it won't get out and eventually spread around the workplace.

Related: Josh Brolin and Diane Lane Are Officially Divorced

2. You will see them a lot: The next thing you will have to consider is how will you handle seeing this person daily for a lot of hours at a time. You will potentially be spending a lot of time with them not just at the work place, but outside as well. Think about how being in relationship with a fellow employee will affect your job and work ethics. Will getting involved with a coworker cause any distractions or get in the way of you achieving your goals? If you're both professionals and are able to handle juggling both your personal and work lives separately and together you should be fine.

Related: Looking for Love Is Like a Job Search

3. Are they worth the risk: One of the first things you will have to look into before dating a coworker are the work rules, policies or restrictions. Whether it is or isn't allowed you have to ask yourself if you are willing to risk your job to date the person. Another important thing to think about is if things go sour between the two of you are you able to handle still working with them? If you really want to be with the person make sure you both really want to be in a relationship and are willing to potentially sacrifice your jobs.

Where are some quick honeymoon destinations?

Cupid's Advice:

Honeymoons are a great way to spend the first moments of your new marriage with your honey. What type of honeymoon you decide to go on depends on your personality, what your partner enjoys doing and what the two of you agree on as a couple. Cupid has some tips:

1. The islands: Most couples love the idea of going on a romantic, island honeymoon getaway. You and your honey can rush off to Hawaii or another island of your choice. You can soak up some sun, learn how to surf or go shark diving. The memories you create with your partner during a honeymoon like this will be unforgettable.

Beware of Sweetheart Scammers This Valentine's Day

By Becky Frost

Rumor has it that many celebrities have dabbled in online dating. And they're not alone. A recent study has determined that one in ten Americans has used online dating or a mobile dating app in their quest for love. It has steadily gained popularity as many find it an ideal way to meet people and discover a good match for themselves versus more traditional means of dating.

Most online daters have the best intentions to simply find their soul mate but beware there are unscrupulous suitors who are out to do more than steal your heart. If online dating is on your agenda this Valentine's Day season it's important to be aware of these individuals, labeled by the FBI and others as "sweetheart scammers."

Their goal is to swindle money or bank account information from unsuspecting online daters by creating a fake profile designed to match a certain type of person: employed, affluent and trusting. As time goes on the sweetheart scammer will scheme to seem perfect in every way, even down to the same likes and dislikes as the target. Once trust has been established, the scam usually escalates to the thief's unveiling of a problem involving money. Typical scenarios include the request for funds to be able to travel to meet the target or to help the thief's sick relative. Love can often blind the victim to only think and act with their heart rather than their head in what otherwise may appear as an obvious scam.

Related: 7 Ways to Know If It's Really Love

So what can you do to avoid sweetheart scammers? ProtectMyID, a leading provider of identity theft detection, protection and resolution offers up these valuable tips to help protect your online identity and steer clear of fraudulent schemes in the online dating world:

Don't give away too much: Don't disclose personally identifiable information with a prospective dating match until there is an established level of familiarity and trust. This also includes your hometown, home addresses, work specifics, phone numbers, educational background and information about children via profiles and through photo identification.

Related: Technology, Social Media and Dating – The Good, the Bad and the Oops!

Play detective: Don't assume that a prospective dating match always will be truthful. Ask a person to tell you about him or herself; you then can conduct a little background work on websites and see if conflicting information exists. Also, be wary of any requests for financial loans or assistance of any kind.

Create the perfect password: For online dating profiles, do not use passwords that incorporate publicly known information.

Related: Twitter Dating 101: Actions Speak Louder Than Tweets!

While sweetheart scammers definitely operate all year long, they are particularly noticeable this time of year when everyone wants to celebrate romance. These scams are a double whammy for the victim because they are affected both fiscally and emotionally. Online dating can open up your world to true love but approaching it with your eyes wide open is critical to avoid not only heartache, but also becoming a victim of fraud.

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is fast approaching, but you still haven't found that special "thing" that will make your wedding a one-of-a-kind experience. Don't worry, Cupid has your back:

1. The decorations: Don't pick the same old boring decor every other couple has picked before you. Think outside of the box. Try different color schemes, different flower arrangements. Better yet, create some of your own decorations for the ceremony and reception so that they are truly unique. If you have a creative eye, you can come up with something nobody has ever seen before.

2. Plan it yourself: This option might be a little tough to do. When it comes to your special day, plan the whole event yourself. This will allow you to have more freedom of thought and ideas as you go. It can be extremely stressful so we do not recommend this for just anyone. Obviously, you can ask for help whenever you need it, but for the most part, doing it by yourself can feel like a huge accomplishment.

3. The little things: The music. The food. The guest list. Think long and hard about ways you can make the small details creative and fun. Ask your partner to help out. Maybe he/she joked about having chicken nuggets at the reception? You don't have to order fancy filet mignon just because that's considered to be a "normal" entree. Do your own thing. If you want a personal friend to DJ at your wedding, let them. After all, this is YOUR wedding day.

Queen Latifah Officiates Mass Weddings at Grammy's

By April Littleton

According to People, Queen Latifah officiated 33 marriages during the Grammy performance of “Same Love” by Macklemore and Ryan Lewis. The couples joined together were a mix of gay and straight sexual orientation. Afterward, Madonna serenaded the newlyweds with her 1986 hit “Open Your Heart.”

What are some advantages of mass weddings?

Cupid's Advice:

Congratulations on your big day! However, this day isn't just about you – it's about the group of other couples who decide to get married at the same time as you. Mass weddings shouldn't be something you're afraid to experience. If you're still on the fence about participating in one, Cupid has some tips:

1. Celebration: If you choose to participate in a mass wedding, you get to celebrate your special day with multiply people who are feeling the exact same thing you're feeling. A wedding is a joyous occasion, and the love and happiness of it all should be shared with others.

Emma Watson's Boyfriend's 'Second Family' Is 'Thrilled' They're Dating

By Louisa Gonzales

New couple Emma Watson and Oxford rugby star, Matthew Janney may not have hit the “meet the parents” milestone of their relationship yet, but Janney’s ‘second family’ already offers warm welcomes and congratulations for his new girlfriend. Janney adopted into husband and wife James and Coralie Day’s family unofficially after the passing of his biological mother Jill, who died of breast cancer in 2008, when Janney was 16. His father passed away long before that when he was just a toddler. According to UsMagazine.com, the Days reportedly shared their thoughts about the new item, recently spotted at the beginning of January in the Caribbean looking sweet and chummy on the beach. They said they're "thrilled" the two are dating, and a source also revealed that Janney was "excited" when telling them about him and Emma.

What do you do if your partner's family doesn't approve of you?

Cupid's Advice:

"Meeting the parents" is a stressful part of your relationship as you want to make a good impression and get your romantic mate's guardians to like you. What do you do if you or fail to make a great first impression or don't succeed in getting them to like you? Cupid has some advice on what you can do if your partner's family doesn't approve of you being in relationship with their child:

1. See what your partner has to say: What does your other half think about their family not approving? Share your concern with them. Maybe they have the answers or can give you some insight about why their family didn't approve of you, after all no one knows their family better than them. Finding out what went wrong or what the problem was together can help with the two of you finding a solution or understanding.

2. Ask your lover to talk with their family: Maybe the first time meeting your partners parents didn't go as planned or as smoothly as you had both hoped. Ask your sweetie if they could talk with their family and see why they don't think you are a good fit for their child. Give your significant other a chance to talk with their family to explain and defend you as well as your relationship. It might be easier to find out why the family doesn't approve or convince them to give you a second chance by letting your honey talk to them alone.

3. Give yourself a second chance: Maybe during your first meeting you were trying to be someone you weren't or you acted how you thought your partner and his family wanted you to be, which may have resulted in you coming off as fake or awkward. Your best bet is to arrange a second meeting and let them see your true personality and give them a glimpse of the positive side of you and your lovebirds union. It doesn't have to be extreme, but showing affection to your significant other and his family can go a long way. If in the end they still don't like you, don't let them phase you as the only opinions that truly matter are yours and your better half, there could be a number of reasons about why they don't approve, none of them necessarily having to do with you.

Celebrity Couples Who Keep Their Relationships Out of the Spotlight

By April Littleton

Most of the famous and wealthy individuals we see on our TV screens and in the magazines enjoy having their love life on display for the whole world to see. However, there are a select few who prefer to keep their relationship out of harm's way. Cupid has a list of celebrities who manage to keep their private life – private:

1. Dolly Parton and Carl Thomas Dean: The country singer has been married to Dean since May, 30, 1996. They met at a Wishy-Washy laundromat on her first day in Nashville with his first words to her being, “Y’all gonna get sunburnt out there, little lady.” Since marrying, Dean has only seen Parton perform once and he rarely makes any public appearances with his wife. Parton and Dean have no children together, but she commented on his romantic side in an interview stating that Dean does spontaneous things to surprise her and sometimes writes her poems.

2. Beyonce and Jay-Z: This couple kept their relationship under wraps for quite a while. It was rumored that the couple began dating after collaborating together on the hit single "03 Bonnie and Clyde". The lovebirds took it a step further by secretly marrying on April 4, 2008. When it comes to the status of their relationship, the couple have since eased up on their privacy, especially when Beyonce publicly announced her pregnancy during a live performance on the 2011 MTV Video Music Awards.

3. Morris Chestnut and Pam Byse: Who knew that The Best Man Holiday co-star was married? Well he is – and has been for 18 years now. Chestnut and his wife Pam have two children together, Grant and Paige. In an interview with Upscale magazine, the actor explained what makes their marriage successful. "I let my wife be the woman. You know? I let her be the woman.... And she, in turn, when it comes down to it, she lets me be the man," Chestnut said.

How do you support your partner's career aspirations?

Cupid's Advice:

Being supportive of your significant other's aspirations and goals is important if you want to have a successful relationship. Regardless of how hard it will be at times to understand your partner's motivation, it's your job to show them you're there for them through it all. Cupid has some tips:

1. Act interested: When your partner wants to discuss his/her career goals, listen to them with an eager ear. Be encouraging and add some useful advice when it's necessarily. Your significant other doesn't want to hear negativity coming from the person they love. Suggest new ideas, but never appear as if you don't believe in their dreams.

2. Help them make it: What better way to show your support by acting helping your partner make their dreams come true? Instead of just listening, go a step farther and take an active role in their aspirations. Do whatever it is they ask of you. They'll be more than appreciative and when they do finally make it to where they want to be, they'll remember who got them there in the first place.

3. Be understanding: Sometimes you'll have to make a few sacrifices in your relationship if you want your significant other to be successful in pursuing their dreams. If they're late coming home for dinner a couple of times a week or if they can't call you every second of the day like they used, just realize what they're trying to achieve and try to understand that the lack of communication won't last forever.

How do you support your partner through a serious illness?

Cupid’s Advice:

A partner’s illness can put a strain on the relationship, especially if you’ve never had to go through something like this before. But there are plenty of ways to help your love through a rough moment in their live without losing them romantically in the process. Cupid has some tips:

1. Communicate: When it comes to a serious illness, both of you need to help each other come to terms with what's going on. Your partner will have good days and some bad ones as well. All you really need to do is just be there for them – through it all. Maintain an open line of communication. When you're feeling down, let your significant other know and vice versa. You'll only have each other during this difficult time and the illness will surely test the strength of your relationship.

2. Space: Sometimes, you and your honey will want some time alone and that's OK. Plan one day out of the week where you and your partner (as long as they're feeling up to it) can go out and do things on your own. Even if it's just a short visit to the nail salon or to see a matinee movie, the space will do you both some good.

3. Distractions: Don't avoid the illness altogether, but it is a good idea to work on some other activities that kind of distract from the bad situation. Spend some time with mutual friends or maybe go for a few walks every once in a while. Whatever makes your partner happy will also make them feel better physically.

Are Ashley Benson and Ex-Boyfriend Ryan Good Dating Again?

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Ashley Benson and former flame Ryan Good might be dating again. The pair were seen together Friday, Dec. 20. at the Boom Boom Room in New York City. "Ryan and Ashley were kissing each other all night," an insider said.

How do you know whether to get back with your ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your ex might have mixed feelings about each other, especially if the two of you are still in each other's lives. Should you try to rekindle the flame? Would giving love a second chance hurt the friendship the two of you managed to develop? Cupid has some tips:

1. Still on good terms: The breakup between you and your ex wasn't too bad. In fact, you and your former flame are still really good friends. If things ended on a good note, there is still a chance the two of you can make things work. You know where it went wrong, so you should be able to fix it.

Kris Jenner Says Kim Kardashian and Kanye West's Wedding Will Be Big

By April Littleton

Looks like Kim Kardashian might be planning another huge wedding extravaganza. “We have a pretty big family,” Kris Jenner told People. “I don’t think it will be two people in a chapel, if you know what I mean!” The couple, who got engaged at a San Francisco stadium in October, haven’t set a wedding date yet. They currently live with Jenner, along with their daughter, North West.

What are some ways to decide how big your wedding should be?

Cupid's Advice:

Big or small? Simple or extravagant? The overall style of your wedding is ultimately up to you and your partner, but there are some things you should keep in mind before you make your special day a free-for-all to all of your family and friends. Cupid has some tips:

1. Budget: How big your wedding is should be based on how much you're willing to spend. If you plan on going all out, then the obvious choice would be to invite as many people as you want. However, if you're on a tight budget, a small ceremony and reception might be the only thing you can afford after you add up the rest of the wedding expenses.

2. Family and friends: Think about how many loved ones you and your partner have altogether. Whether it be because of personal or money issues, not everyone will be able to attend your wedding. Make sure you and your honey create a priority invite list for people who are close to you and immediate family. Fill up the guest list as needed, but you don't need to invite acquaintances or co-workers you barely speak to.

Florida Georgia Line's Brian Kelley Marries Brittany Cole

By April Littleton

Florida Georgia Line's Brian Kelley secretly wed his serious girlfriend, Brittney Marie Cole, Monday in an outdoor ceremony at his Nashville home. "The whole process has been non-traditional," Kelley told People about his surprise wedding. "There was no official proposal or exchanging of rings. We had just fallen in love, and I knew I couldn't live without her. It sounds like a terrible cheesy movie, but when you know, you know!" Before tying the knot, the couple dated for seven months, but have known each other for over three years.

How do you know when you've found "the one"?

Cupid's Advice:

You've been seeing someone for awhile now, and you're starting to believe you may have finally found the person you're supposed to be with forever. How do you know if your feelings are true? What are some signs to look for when you're thinking you found someone special? Cupid has some tips:

1. Great communication: If you and your new love can talk for hours without getting bored of each other, then you might have found something special. Good communication is essential for a long-lasting relationship.

Related: 'Glee' Star Naya Rivera Says She and Fiancé Are 'On the Same Page' About Wedding Plans

2. New feelings: Compared to all of your other past relationships, you can sit back and honestly say that you've never felt the way you do about your current partner with anyone else. When you're with your girlfriend/boyfriend, you can't imagine living the rest of your life with another individual. You can picture a future with your honey, and inside of your head and heart, you know there isn't any other option for you.
