

Alison Sweeney Talks Relationships And Love in Exclusive Celebrity Interview: “Love Is a Two-Way Street, and Even Though It Can Be Messy, It’s Worth It!”

By Rebecca White

Alison Sweeney has done it all when it comes to the small screen, working as an actress, director, and even producer. From soap operas and TV movies to hosting a reality TV competition show, she gracefully balances motherhood while also managing her booming career. While her time on The Biggest Loser is now over, the celebrity mom is using her open schedule to pursue other passions. In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chatted with Sweeney about her relationship and love life, her best love advice when it comes to balancing a family and career, and her upcoming Hallmark movie Love on the Air.

Alison Sweeney Talks Relationships and Love

For Sweeney and husband David Sanov, balance is key. When you have two kids and are constantly working on new projects, it's important for each spouse to manage their time effectively. "Dave is my partner," the actress says. "We have been married for 15 years, and each day, we take time to ensure we are there for one another and our children."

She also notes the importance of taking time to relax as a couple. For her and her husband, that means "cooking dinner together and, after putting the kids to sleep, having a glass of wine or some popcorn while watching a movie or catching up on our favorite TV shows." Yes, that is easier said than done, but finding time to spend together is essential. "At the end of the day, your relationship and love is the anchor of your busy lifestyle, and if you make that a priority, you'll be able to tackle all else together," she shares. "We find ways to schedule meetings and playdates, so make the point to schedule quality time with your partner too."

Sweeney encourages her kids to take risks by setting a positive example. "I always push myself with new challenges, and producing, directing, and starring in different projects enables me to do just that," she reveals. She encourages busy moms to explore other passions as well. “Like Nike says, just do it! You don’t want to always wonder what might have been,” she says.

Of course, handling a full schedule can be hard. Her advice is to “focus on the moment and do your best.” Try to manage your time hourly rather than weekly, so it’s not as daunting. “At the end of the week, take a moment to evaluate your accomplishments and what you hope to improve in the next week: focus at work, attention to kids, quality time with partner, time for yourself...it all matters,” she shares.

New Hallmark Movie Teaches Love Advice

One of the projects keeping the celebrity mom busy is the upcoming Hallmark movie Love on the Air, which marks Sweeney’s debut on the channel as both a star and executive producer. Her character Sonia seems to have it all. “She has a great radio show for female empowerment and a successful fiancé, but when she is forced to work with a rival DJ, she’s pushed to look at her world and herself in a new way,” the actress explains. “The lesson about love that Sonia learns is such a good one to share. Love is a two-way street, and even though it can be messy, it’s worth it!”

Sweeney recently realized how much she loves storytelling and making romantic comedies. Thanks to her new partnership with Hallmark, she can do both! As far as her future projects, Sweeney says to “follow me on social media to find out what’s next and then let me know what you think!”

You don't have to worry about paparazzi or unwanted party crashers. You don't have to worry about people being offended for not getting an invite or stressing over which entrée guests should choose from. It takes away the aspect of stressing over every little detail. In the end, it's all about the bride and groom to be, because that's all that matters.

2. More intimate: Often, if you are throwing a surprise wedding it is going to be more intimate and romantic. That is the most important component of a wedding. Focus on making your wedding special and a true celebration of love. It's not about getting everybody else's opinions, all that matters is what you want as a newlywed couple. It's your big day, not everyone else's. You have the freedom to make it perfect for you and your spouse!

3. Love is the focus: When it all comes down to it, a wedding is not about the cake or the flowers or the dress. What it truly is about is love and two people making a commitment to spend the rest of their lives together. That is what really matters. When you are doing a surprise wedding, love is at the center of attention – just as it should always be whether you throw a surprise wedding or not.

Mariah Carey: Moving Quickly in a Celebrity Relationship?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Singer Mariah Carey is already talking celebrity marriage with her new boyfriend, James Packer. Typically, it's the woman who's eager to start talking marriage, sometimes even early in the relationship. Although they've only been dating for a matter of days, James already believes he wants to marry Mariah. The duo in a new celebrity relationship have visited several countries together since last week.

Deciding to get married is a big step for so many reasons, and thinking about doing it when you are just beginning to get to know each other might not always be the best idea.

Consider reality.

When two people fall in love, anything seems possible. You might quickly begin to think about spending the rest of your life with that person, and even fantasize about how wonderful it could be. That is what love does – it makes everything look wonderful. The trouble is, a lasting relationship is made up of much more than the immediate chemistry and romance people experience when they first come together and the rest of the world falls away. That world doesn't stay away forever, and when it creeps back in with finances, job responsibilities, the possibility of having children, and other things that take place during daily life, it is helpful and important to have a strong foundation underneath you to know how to deal with these things as a unit.

Related Link: Mariah Carey Reunites with Celebrity Ex-Husband Nick Cannon for Easter with Twins

Understand each other fully.

If you have time to get to know each other, allowing you to establish and understand your commonalities, shared goals and values, methods of communication, and ability to compromise and problem solve, you will be in a much better place to make your joint life work. These are the nuts and bolts that determine whether or not you will be able to go the distance together. Too often when you lead with love, moving too quickly, you eliminate and edit out the opportunity to experience your partner in the real world and you might not be equipped to deal with the curve balls that life sends your way.

Take time.

Time also allows you to establish a good balance between the me and the we, which is necessary in sharing a healthy relationship. The risk of rushing in to making the decision to spend your life with someone you don't know well enough, despite the fact that you think you do, is that you can wind up in a situation that requires making concessions that feel more like sacrifice rather than compromise. If it starts to seem that you are giving up what is important to you, it can be the beginning of your partnership no longer working effectively. So unless you have had the time to navigate your shared life and the demands that it entails, you might want to slow down a little.

Related Link: Nick Cannon Opens Up About Split From Mariah Carey

Move forward when it makes sense.

When, then, is it okay to start that conversation about happily ever after? It's probably best to begin once you've determined you're exclusive and your individual worlds are clearly merging into a joint world. That's the point at which you can look toward creating a future together and therefore discuss marriage, whereby you and your partner can see yourselves continuing together over the course of your lives. Look to avoid bringing marriage up out of the blue because if there's nothing concrete to attach it to, then the relationship may not be at that point and you may scare your partner off by being too premature with the idea. He or she may completely push back as a result. Sometimes talking about moving in together before bringing up the subject of tying the knot is a good starting point. There are times, however, when people are forced to talk about marriage sooner than they might otherwise – if one person has to move to another part of the country (or even the world) for a career opportunity, for example.

Don't get too caught up in the excitement.

The bottom line is that everything looks great at the beginning of a relationship and it is easy to get caught up in the excitement and fanfare. Be aware though of looking too far ahead. Give yourself a chance to be sure you are truly compatible before you walk down the aisle. Keep in mind also that if you are just coming out of a relationship and dealing with the aftermath of rejection, it can make this new relationship even more attractive and can be a way to put the pain in the past. If that is the case it is even more important that you take a deep breath and leave yourself the time you need to make sure this is right for you, so that you don't wind up getting blinded by love and perhaps make another mistake.

It seems that Mariah and James don't have these qualms and are ready to get serious and move forward with a shared life together. Only time will tell if they are moving too fast.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Leighton Meester, Sofia Vergara and Taylor Swift

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with juicy relationship gossip, including a celebrity pregnancy announcement, a famous couple prepping for their celebrity wedding, and a singer finally settling down. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love lives!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Celebrity Couples

Leighton Meester and Adam Brody: It was recently announced that Leighton Meester and Adam Brody are expecting their first celebrity baby together, sending Gossip Girl and The O.C. fans into a tizzy. I predict that their little bundle of joy will be a very cute baby, though one doesn't have to be a psychic to see that.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Leighton Meester Says She's Never Been Dumped

I have to admit that I see something in their celebrity marriage that says that this famous couple won't be together for the long haul – that's something that I've noticed since they first got married. What I see could also be a rough patch down the road that leads to a little time apart; they may find their way back to each other. Only time will reveal the outcome of this relationship and love!

This celebrity couple has let it be known that they want a bunch of kids, and I see four children circling Meester. Once this baby comes, it's possible that the actress will focus on being a mother for a while – a bummer to her fans but a bonus to her baby.

Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello: I can't help but still give this famous couple the side eye. For some reason, I keep seeing Vergara and Manganiello thrown together for publicity purposes. My psychic juices say "staged." While they make one dynamite-looking couple, there is something that is a bit off about them. Their body language doesn't read like a couple crazy in love. Maybe the need for companionship is what brought them together.

Now, Vergara is saying that she would like to have celebrity babies with Manganiello, even though she previously said that having more kids was not a priority. I don't see any more kids in her future, at least not any that she'll give birth to. Until Vergara and Manganiello walk down the aisle together, I can't see them as a serious pair. If they do go through with it, their celebrity marriage will be short-lived. May they prove me wrong! I do wish them the best.

Taylor Swift and Calvin Harris: I love to see Taylor Swift stepping out with her new man, DJ and music producer Calvin Harris. They make a nice-looking couple. Harris is known for being a bit of a playboy, but it looks like things are progressing well with the songstress. Cheating rumors have surfaced over the past few days – and they won't be the last ones. We can expect more gossip and women throwing themselves at Harris because they want to cause trouble between him and Swift.

When I first saw them together, I didn't see this relationship lasting for more than a few minutes, but it looks like the tide has turned. In fact, it seems like it could go longer than most of Swift's romances. As you probably know, the singer's past relationships have lasted for about ten minutes, and people have often wondered why she can't seem to keep a man around. I see Swift and Harris in a relationship for about a year and a half to two years. I don't see wedding bells, but you can expect for Swift to write nice songs about her new guy.

Famous Couple Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie: When is it Time to Seek Help?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Famous couple Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's celebrity marriage has been reinvigorated by couples' counseling. Although things are on the mend now, there was trouble in paradise less than a year after they tied the knot. Not only did Brad see ex Jennifer Aniston alone, but he also didn't accompany Angelina to the Critics' Choice Awards in January. After months of fighting, they decided to seek the help of a therapist.

Now they plan to always keep counseling in their lives, because they say it has transformed their marriage and helped them fall in love with each other again. And they are not alone.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden have enlisted some outside support after just five months of marriage, as they work to put a strong foundation beneath them. This proves that it is never too early to get help.

The secret to having a lasting relationship and love life is to not let the anger and resentment build up to the point where it drives you apart. A lot of people don't realize that a lasting union is full of angry and questioning feelings which go hand in hand with the adoring ones, not unlike a seesaw. I call them "love you, mean it" and "hate you, mean it" moments, which I talk about in my book What About Me? Stop Selfishness From Ruining Your Relationship.

It is natural to shift in and out of these emotions. The challenge is to make sure the positive ones always balance the negative ones so that they don't consume you. The goal is always to continue to or to get back to loving and feeling connected to your partner. What happens, though, when that becomes more and more difficult to do, and you aren't able to get past the anger anymore? How do you know when it is time to bring in a trained professional to help you sort out the issues?

Even in today's sophisticated age, people are often reluctant to air their marital problems with an outsider, especially when it comes to sexual troubles. There are many reasons for this which include feeling embarrassed, the fear that you think something is really wrong with you or your partner, the concern that you will be told there is something wrong with your relationship that is unfixable, or maybe you do want to go but your partner doesn't. There are also those people who think that because the idea of divorce hasn't come up things can't be that bad, so you don't really need help.

It is terrific that Brad and Angelina realize and appreciate that they have a big relationship, sometimes even bigger than the two of them, and they were able to seek assistance from a counselor who can help them deal with their issues. The same is true for Cameron and Benji. You certainly don't have to be a celebrity to have issues that can weigh down your relationship and start to interfere with the love you share, but they are good examples to follow. If you are resisting therapy, try to shift your way of thinking. Know that there isn't anything wrong with you or your partner, but there is something in your connection that warrants finding help and relief. Allow your fears to propel you forward instead of holding you back. Your seeking help is not a sign of weakness in any way, but rather a measure of strength, courage, and commitment to your relationship. It proves that you care enough to not give up and find what it takes to make things better.

Keep in mind that making a relationship successful is work. If you don't do that work now, you will have to do it later either by taking your marriage apart or learning to live with unhappiness. Why not spend that energy working to find a way to stay together and live happily? A therapist can help a couple learn to communicate and identify the problem areas in their relationship, so that they can learn how to compromise and put the pieces back together. Brad and Angelina seem to be doing just that. They appear strong and are a positive testimony to the value of knowing when to get help and getting it. Hopefully the same will be true for Cameron and Benji.

Reality Star Bill Rancic
Defends Wife Giuliana Rancic
After 'Fashion Police' Controversy

By Maggie Manfredi

They don't call them partners for nothing! According to UsMagazine.com, The season one Apprentice winner Bill Rancic spoke out on the recent drama pertaining to the comments made by his celebrity wife on Fashion Police. Reality star Giuliana Rancic got some serious heat for her comments made around Zendaya's hair at the Oscars. She said that the dreadlock look might smell like patchouli oil...or weed. Later she came forward clarifying this was a hippie joke, but ultimately the damage was done and the Rancics decided to ride out the storm. Bill spoke to their celebrity marriage during the chaos, saying, "We made a plan. We were gonna just kinda weather it. We've got a strong marriage. We love each other. And we knew that she didn't do anything wrong. And obviously these situations bring us closer together. They can either tear you apart or bring you closer together, and we're a team."

These reality stars are sticking up for one another. How do you stand up for your partner in important situations?

Cupid's Advice:

This reality star power couple really shows how partners can be stronger together. Cupid has some ideas on how you can be there for your partner:

1. Be a listener: Whether it's a bad day at work or family problems it is important to be the rock for your partner. Let them vent, let them release fully so they know you are there and supporting.

A vampire's love is forever! According to UsMagazine.com, Twilight star Nikki Reed and Vampire Diaries stud Ian Somerhalder had a sunset celebrity wedding on April 26th in Topanga, California. Reed wore a couture Claire Pettibone gown, and their guests enjoyed pretty white flowers and a live band. An insider said, "Nikki originally wanted a small wedding. But Ian envisioned a big wedding, she was happy to let him call the shots.” Instead of gifts at this celebrity wedding, the cute Hollywood couple asked for donations to the Ian Somerhalder Foundation for rescued animals.

This celebrity wedding went down with the sun! What are some advantages of tying the knot outside?

Cupid’s Advice:

Weddings are a wonderful celebration, and you get to call all the shots! If you are choosing an outdoor location, here are some ideas for you:

1. Use what you got: Have fun with nature’s natural wedding aids. Whether that be for seating (tree stumps or hay bails), center pieces (twigs and wild flowers), or party favors (seeds to grow your own nature!)

Bruce Jenner's Ex-Celebrity Wife Reacts to ABC Special

By Jessica DeRubbo

Bruce Jenner left it all on the table in the recent ABC special where he confirmed the truth about his gender identity. In the highly anticipated 20/20 episode with Diane Sawyer, the Olympic athlete discussed his transition from male to female. According to UsMagazine.com, his ex-celebrity wife, Chrystie Crowover, was by his side during the airing of the special. Crowover spoke to Good Morning America on April 27th about her thoughts on his transition, saying, "It was just kind of surreal. It was great because the family was together and that's what I'm most proud of." Jenner told Sawyer that Crowover was the first to know about his gender identity issues. "Understandably, I was speechless. I didn't really know what to say. I was really pleased that he shared that intimacy with me, that he trusted me with his deepest darkest secret."

Bruce Jenner kept his gender identity a secret from celebrity ex-wife Chrystie Crowover for quite some time. What are some reasons to keep a secret from your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes keeping a secret is good in a relationship and love, while other times it can destroy a good thing. Cupid has some reasons to keep a secret from your partner:

1. It would unnecessarily hurt them: If by keeping a secret, you're avoiding hurting your partner, sometimes it's okay to do so ... of course depending on what that secret is. For instance, if your partner asks if she looks heavy in a white pair of skinny jeans, it's probably in your best interest to avoid affirming the concern. This type of secret doesn't hurt your partner; whereas telling her may hurt her feelings.

2. It has nothing to do with them: If you have a secret that does not affect your partner, then you may want to simply keep it. Perhaps a secret pertaining to your family comes out; it's not your responsibility to enlighten your partner unless you want to do so.

3. It's someone else's secret: If a friend tells you something in confidence, you're not obligated to tell your partner. In fact, it's probably best not to do so, as things like that easily spread. If the secret doesn't affect them and is someone else's secret to tell, don't feel bad about keeping your partner in the dark.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Bobby Flay, Robert Pattinson and Miley Cyrus

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with hot relationship gossip, including a celebrity marriage coming to an end, a famous couple finding true love, and a pop star who won't be settling down any time soon. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love lives!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Celebrity Couples

Bobby Flay and Stephanie March: It looks like the celebrity marriage of Chef Bobby Flay and actress Stephanie March is going up in flames. On television, Flay seems like a nice guy, especially when he's standing behind the grill wearing an apron. On the flipside of that, I have only heard negative things about him that make him sound like a real douche (for lack of a better word). Therefore, some of the claims about him from March are no surprise. If memory serves me right, she left acting to help him with his restaurants.

A “close source” to him says he’s heartbroken about his celebrity divorce. When I look at this relationship and love, it looks like he can’t get out of it soon enough. Word on the street is that March is not happy with the prenup. Of course, she isn’t! When you’re in love, money doesn’t matter as much, but when the love is over, you want to take them for all that you can. That doesn’t make her a bad person; it makes her human. I see other female energy around Flay. I’m not saying he has a mistress, but maybe he put his utensils in someone else’s kitchen, if you know what I mean.

Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs: Word on the streets is that singer FKA Twigs and actor Robert Pattinson are engaged. One thing’s for sure: Pattinson never looked so happy until this whirlwind celebrity romance. If you look back at some of his photos when he was with Kristen Stewart, he looked a bit miserable.

This famous couple is on a roll and won’t be slowing down anytime soon. They are both equally invested in their relationship and love, and I see them going to the chapel and getting married soon. Pattinson knew that she was The One immediately. When a man finds what he is looking for, he doesn’t waste time. They could tie the knot by the end of this year. There is also a bit of baby energy swirling around these two. Within the first year of their celebrity marriage, a little girl just might show up.

Miley Cyrus Will Not Announce

Celebrity Engagement Anytime Soon

Miley Cyrus and Patrick Schwarzenegger: Where do I begin with this celebrity relationship? It seems like Patrick Schwarzenegger has been spending more time with his “friends” than with Miley Cyrus. Does he only know women? I don’t see this relationship ever getting serious. If it does, Cyrus will always be questioning what he is doing with his so-called friends. It’s not that Schwarzenegger should stop having women friends, but does he have to always look so cuddly with all of them?

Schwarzenegger doesn’t seem to want to settle down at all, and Cyrus isn’t ready to be married with kids either. They have a relationship that is kind of like the ones you may have had in high school, where the loves lines are always kind of blurry.

For now, the two of them are getting what they need from each other: some fun and frolic. No need to wait for a celebrity engagement announcement from them. This will fizzle out sooner rather than later. The next guy Cyrus dates will be a long-term relationship. As for Schwarzenegger, until he falls in love, he will go through girlfriend after girlfriend.

David Arquette Celebrates

Celebrity Wedding with Christina McLarty with Intimate Ceremony

By Jenna Bagcal

Celebrity weddings are seen on gossip websites and magazines, and many of them are extravagant events with tons of well dressed A-listers gathered in an exotic location. But some Hollywood couples prefer to keep their ceremonies a bit more low-key. In the latest celebrity news from UsMagazine.com, famous couple David Arquette and Christina McLarty celebrated their celebrity wedding in Los Angeles this past Sunday, April 12. The newly married celebrity couple held an intimate nuptial ceremony in front of their families and closest friends. The couple got engaged in July of 2014, and have an 11 month old son, Charlie West.

There was no lack of intimacy in this celebrity wedding! What are some advantages to keeping your wedding small?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not a millionaire or part of a Hollywood couple, a lavish and expensive wedding may be pretty difficult to pull off. Plus, small and intimate weddings definitely have their perks. Here is Cupid's advice for why you should keep your wedding small:

1. Save money for the honeymoon: Not only will your special day be more intimate, but cutting down on the cost of the wedding will allow for you and your significant other to splurge on an awesome romantic honeymoon. Spend a week soaking up the sun in Bora Bora, or explore a whole host of European cities while drinking expensive wine and feasting on the local cuisine.

2. Give your guests awesome wedding favors: It's the end of the wedding reception and you're saying your goodbyes, when the bride hands you a set of personalized coasters commemorating "Jessica & David's Everlasting Love," which will probably gather dust in a junk drawer at home. But having a smaller wedding will allow you to give your guests thoughtful and cool gifts they'll actually use. Wrap up the supplies for your guests to make a delicious cocktail, or gift them some beautifully scented candles in mason jars.

3. Have food that's actually delicious: You've probably been a guest at a wedding where the standard fare was dry and less than appetizing. Instead of serving your guests the regular steak, chicken, or fish options, a small wedding will allow you to feed your guests some really delicious and unique food. If you know that your guests like Japanese food, get a variety of sushi and sashimi and make a DIY sushi bar, or serve up some fancy mini sliders and french fries in paper cones.
