

Reality TV Star Lea Black Says, “Once You Find the Right Person, You’ve Really Got to be Committed to Having Equal Power”

By Sarah Batcheller

The ever-glamorous Lea Black has appeared on The Real Housewives of Miami since season 1. Her charm and sass – not to mention her whirlwind lifestyle among Florida’s elite – have drawn audiences in. With a steady celebrity marriage and beloved thirteen-year-old son, the reality TV star has also balanced a cherished domestic life with all the glitz. She hosts an annual charity gala to raise money for troubled teens and, in addition to her philanthropic efforts, is the president and CEO of The World of Lea Black, a multi-brand company that offers everything from jewelry and handbags to beauty products.

Now, in her upcoming novel Red Carpets & White Lies, Black has penned a fictional depiction of the scandalous, unpredictable lives of Miami's top socialites. In this exclusive celebrity interview, we had the chance to speak with the newly-minted author about her book, the Housewives, and her best love advice.

Reality TV Star Discusses Her Glamour-Filled Upcoming Novel

The spunky Texas native believes that the city of Miami is one of the best in the world, so it's no surprise that she wanted to capture its essence in her novel. "Miami is a very complex city, and it's very international – there's a very diverse crowd," she explains. "So I think it is one of the most exciting cities in the world because it really is a gateway to Central and South America. It's so multi-cultural; you get everything from the really serious intellectuals to the people who came here wanting to live the American Dream to the riff-raff who come and go and sort of reinvent who they are."

Of course, the best people to inspire the characters in Black's novel were none other than herself and her intriguing social circle. So we had to ask: Are her characters based off of real people? "They all are in a way," she confirms. "But they're compositions of people. I would take the personality traits of one person along with the character of another and kind of camouflage them.”

Whether or not we’ll see the The Real Housewives of Miami stars, whom readers may be able to identify in Red Carpets & White Lies, grace the small screen again is still up for debate. The reality TV star says, “Bravo continues to say they haven’t made any decisions, and I think that’s totally true. Our ratings were certainly close to some of the other shows that were renewed, so they could justify bringing the show back.”

The network may be rethinking the cast too. “I think that some of the personalities on the show weren’t as well-received by the audience as they would’ve hoped...and that may include me!” she adds. Having formed friendships with other Housewives, including Lisa Vanderpump, whom she did business with in Los Angeles, and Kathy Wakile, it’s safe to conclude that Black won’t be falling off the radar anytime soon.

Despite her busy career, her number one focus is always her family. Not only do the jewelry designer and her husband Roy love to have date nights when they travel, but they work to raise their son to be a respectable young man. “It’s funny; I’ve sent my son twice now to etiquette and charm school! As for my husband, he does good and bad, so I point it out to my son when he does something that’s not acceptable!” she reveals with a laugh. “I put a big effort into teaching my son manners. I think if you don’t have an ounce of manners, then later in life, people will view you differently.” As for their summer vacation plans, the family of three are planning to travel to Los Angeles, something they do each year.

Lea Black Shares Best Love Advice

The reality TV star’s happy celebrity marriage can be attributed to her commitment to working at her relationship every day. She believes that communication is key. “You should communicate before things escalate, not after,” she insists. “And you need to be on the same page in life. If you focus on the ‘me’ instead of ‘we’, then that relationship is not going in the right direction.”

The beauty guru believes that, after you find the right person, you need balance. “Once you find the right person, you’ve really got to be committed to having equal power, an equal balance,” she asserts. “That’s why I’m so against guys who make girls sign prenups – because it situates the guy to have more power through money. You have to go in expecting both people to have an equal say.”

Black also thinks that, if you’re facing disapproval from your friends and family, you need to make a decision about who’s worth keeping in your life. “You have to tell your friends to support you unconditionally. If not, you can be friends with them at a distance and be amicable, but they can’t be in your daily life,” she believes. “If they’re judging your relationship, then it’ll just cause problems. If they’re going to be in your life, they need to be supportive. They don’t get to criticize your spouse unless it’s something very serious that requires an intervention.”

Cupid's Advice:

Dave Abrams and Jennie Garth have been sharing their celebrity engagement with the public and we could not be more thrilled! Here are some ways to surprise your partner with a perfect proposal:

1. Lead them away from the trail: If you've been together for awhile your partner might be expecting a proposal any day now which really throws off any element of surprise. ‘Married at First Sight’ Couple Jamie Otis and Doug Hehner Share Love Advice: “A Strong Foundation is Key”

By Jenna Bagcal

We've all heard the phrase "love at first sight," but the reality TV show Married at First Sight takes this concept to a whole new level. During the first season of the show, viewers saw Jamie Otis and Doug Hehner say "I do" on their wedding day – which was also the first time that they met each other. The "social experiment" takes six singles and matches them up with their perfect partner with help from a team of experts, including a sexologist, a spiritualist, a psychologist, and a sociologist. In this exclusive celebrity interview, the married celebrity couple discusses their experiences on reality TV and give us the inside scoop on their first year of marriage.

Married Celebrity Couple Discuss Their Experience on Married at First Sight

The Married at First Sight alums recently celebrated their one-year anniversary by renewing their vows in St. Thomas, where they honeymooned, for Doug and Jamie's Wedding Special on FYI. Still, they remember their first wedding as if it were yesterday. "I was so scared before I got Married At First Sight," says Otis. "I've never been the one to believe in love at first sight, but I was hoping to have chemistry and butterflies – which, looking back now, I realize is so unrealistic. He was a complete stranger! I was hoping to find my soul mate – and honestly, I believe I have."

Hehner adds, "I usually go into everything with an open mind, no expectations, and a positive energy. I was hoping to find my soul mate too."

Before they embarked on the marriage social experiment, they had to share their big plans with their loved ones. "When I first introduced the idea to my parents, they kind of brushed it off as another one of 'Doug's Ideas and Adventures' that would eventually play itself out. When I told my friends about it, they all had the same reaction," Hehner explains. "However, no matter how random or bizarre I get, my family and friends have always been super supportive, and they really do trust my judgment enough to just be there for me, no matter what."

Otis says that it was getting the approval of her siblings that mattered most to her. "They said I was crazy, but they'd support me if I believed in it," she reveals. "And then they instantly loved Doug – so much so that they encouraged me to give him a chance when I began to doubt it. I was shocked to hear them encouraging me!"

Otis is no stranger to the world of reality TV: Fans may recognize her from The Bachelor season 16 with Ben Flajnik and Bachelor Pad season 3, where she had a short-lived relationship with Chris Bukowski. “If you saw The Bachelor and Bachelor Pad, then you know I am pretty miserable at dating,” she says with a laugh. “After Bachelor Pad, I had no intention of ever being vulnerable on TV again.” But despite her negative dating experiences on these shows, she was willing to give reality TV dating another try after she received a phone call that changed her mind: “When The Love Experiment called me (that was the original name of the show) and told me there were four experts who would help me along, it definitely caught my attention.”

Related Link: ‘The Bachelorette’ Contestant Chris Bukowski Wants His “Fairytale Ending”

Hehner, who describes himself as “a leap of faith type of guy,” elaborates, “After meeting the experts and trusting that they were taking this experiment as seriously as if they were arranging a marriage for their own child, I had peace of mind knowing that, if they did match me with someone, it was going to be someone that I dreamed about. That is why I was very specific and honest about what I wanted in a mate!”

Reality TV Stars Jamie Otis and Doug Hehner Share Best Love Advice

Their first year of marriage has been full of surprises, and it only makes sense that the celebrity couple says they “still feel like they’re dating.” Hehner shares, “I think that, with any relationship, a strong foundation is key. So building a solid friendship was first on our list, and then, we needed to quickly learn how to be great roommates.”

Otis adds, “Although it’s been an emotional roller coaster, it’s also so awesome to have a teammate in life. It’s amazing to have someone you can count on.”

The reality TV stars obviously know a thing or two about maintaining a healthy and happy marriage, no matter the circumstances. “I attribute the success of our relationship to taking the time to learn about each other and also being open and honest about everything from day one,” says Hehner. “In my opinion, you should never stop dating your spouse. That’s what keeps your relationship and love for one another fresh and exciting.”

The pair believes that “it definitely takes a special kind of person to get Married At First Sight,” and they have some valuable love advice to share with the three couples participating in the second season of the show. “There are a lot of variables. If you don’t tell them exactly what you’re about and who you want, then they can’t do their job right,” Otis explains. “After they pair you, it’s really up to you to be open to it. It’s easy to be scared and feel weird about it because it’s the most bizarre feeling, but you have to trust the experts and trust the process.”

So what’s next for the adorable celebrity couple? They hope to one day have children but share that they have some things to work on before that happens. “Doug has a ‘Before Becoming a Daddy’ bucket list, and I want to really focus on my relationship with my mom and learn to forgive and heal,” Otis divulges. “Also, I want to be patient for Doug. We won’t have babies until we’re both ready.”

Love Advice: Can Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper's Work Marriage Work?

By Dr. Jane Greer

The on-screen chemistry shared by actors Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper is so true to life, it's hard to believe it isn't real. The two can be seen everywhere from Silver Linings Playbook to American Hustle to their upcoming project, Serena. Both admit to being each other's work spouses, but insist there is no sex in their faux celebrity marriage. Having a close relationship with someone at work can happen to anyone, not just celebs. You don't actually have to be "playing" husband and wife on screen to feel like you are just that, to an extent. It can happen in any job setting.

The love advice question is, how entangled can you become with a work spouse, and where do you draw the line so the relationship doesn't negatively affect other parts of your life?

Define Boundaries

Defining the boundaries and being clear about how far and where you can take the connection can, in fact, make the friendship better and allow you to fall into the zone where flirting can be fun, but safe. It also makes room for your chemistry to kick in because it eliminates the constant question of whether or not you're going to take this relationship to the next level. You know the answer is "no," so that gives you room to express yourself more freely.

Attraction is Good

Many friendships between men and women are punctuated by attraction which is never acted on, but keeps the relationship exciting and alive. In the end, though, it isn't just about that energy and flirtation. It is more about knowing each other well, working well together, having each other's backs, and especially experiencing the security of the trust you share. While people often joke that the relationship has the dimensions of a marriage, it is, in fact, really about the camaraderie.

Know the Limits

The most important piece of love advice when it comes to work marriages is if you aren't in a romantic relationship outside of work, knowing the limits of your "work marriage" is important so you won't end up disappointed if it never goes beyond what it already is. If you are dating or married to another person, knowing those limits is even more important so it doesn't spill over the walls of the office and create jealousy or a perceived threat to your partner. With that in mind, if you are spending time with your "work spouse" outside of work, invite your significant others to join you. That way they will feel included in your friendship instead of excluded. Along those lines, if you spend personal time together, make sure it is work-related, rather than simply going out to have a good time, so that there is no question about what you are doing when you're together.

As "work spouses" and actors, Jennifer and Bradley might be put in more questionable situations than most who are close and share an office because of the specific roles they are playing. Even so, as long as they hold onto the agreed upon boundaries, they will be able to leave their "work marriage" on the set and live their personal lives without complications.

The pair tied the knot at the Park Plaza Hotel and had a quick ceremony. How do you decide how long to make your wedding ceremony?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding ceremony is just that: yours! That being said, timing is a major decision you have to make when confirming the details of your big day. Cupid has some factors to consider:

1. Who will be: Keep in mind the amount of guests when deciding on the ceremony length. If there are a ton of people or a very small group, that may change the way you plan your ceremony. Think about who you want involved with the ceremony too; if you have one speaker versus three, that'll impact the amount of time it takes to say your vows.

2. Where it is: If it's a hot August afternoon or a windy beach day, make sure to take that into account. Having guests who are uncomfortable – or a bride or groom who is uncomfortable, for that matter! – will spoil the mood.

3. What traditions you want to include: If you have plans to do something religious or traditional with your bridal party, don't get caught up on time. This is your one opportunity to have the celebration of love that you want, so do what makes you happy.

What are some other factors to consider about your wedding ceremony? Share your thoughts below.

Elton John and Partner David Furnish Marry in England

By Katie Gray

Music legend and superstar, Elton John, tied the knot this weekend with his longtime partner, David Furnish! The duo got a civil partnership in 2005 and have been together for 21 years. They married in England, where same-sex marriage was recently legalized. According to UsMagazine.com, John said, "We'll do it very quietly. But we will do it, and it will be a joyous occasion, and we will have our children [there]. For this legislation to come through is joyous, and we should celebrate it. We shouldn't just say, 'Oh well, we have a civil partnership; we're not going to bother to get married'. We will get married."

How do you incorporate your kids in your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

If you have children, you'll no doubt want to include them in wedding festivities. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Tie the knot with family ties: When tying the knot, it's wonderful to be able to include children in the celebrations! Whether that means your own children or children of family members, it's a beautiful thing. Include the children in the wedding by simply inviting them to all of the events and festivities on the big day as well as the parties leading up to it. They'll simply be happy they're there with the adults.

2. Walk it out: A great way to involve kids in a wedding is by letting them be in the wedding party! Let them hold the bride's bouquet during the ceremony or have another kind of task to make them feel important.

Kanye West Sends a Public Message for Kim Kardashian's Birthday

By Maggie Manfredi

Happy belated Kim! According to Usmagazine.com, Kanye West sent out two tweets in honor of the reality star's 34th birthday on Oct. 21. The rapper stated, "Happy Birthday baby! Thank you for being the dopest wife & mom!" He followed it up with, "Sometimes I feel like just saying I love you isn't strong enough to express how much I love you..." This birthday was low maintenance compared to last year's baseball field with fireworks proposal. But the little family seems to happy and very much in love.

How do you make your partner feel special on his/her birthday?

Cupid's Pulse:

Can't think of how to send the love to your partner on their birthday? Cupid has some ideas for how to make it a birthday to remember:

1. A year ago today: This one takes a year of planning, so you will have plenty of time. On your partner's birthday write a letter about what they mean to you and what this letter will symbolize a year from now. All you have to do is keep it safe and hidden. You could frame it if you like and it will be a gift that reminds each of you of your life together and how you've grown as a couple.

Whether it be a butterfly tattoo/telescope like A Walk To Remember, or a shopping spree/chocolate strawberries like Pretty Woman...you have lots of cheesy to chose from.

Celebrity Couples Who Rocked the Cradle

By Emily Meyer

It's not a secret that there are quite a few cradle robbers in Hollywood. Although these celebrity couples span multiple generations, so far they have stood the test of time in the limelight. These couples sure aren't letting age get in the way of their relationships. Below, Cupid has five celebrity couples who are continuing to live happily in ageless love:

1. Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green: This handsome couple certainly does not mind their 13-year age gap. Although both actors have stayed busy, since getting hitched in 2010, the couple has also welcomed two little boys. The Greens continue to be in marital bliss and only seem to be growing stronger as a pair.

2. Ellen DeGeneres and Portia de Rossi: Even though their 2008 marriage caused quite a stir, most people don't even realize that this famous couple has a large age difference. However, their 15-year age gap has not stopped the couple from being together since 2004. This power duo has led the way for other same-sex couples to also take a trip down the aisle.

3. Harrison Ford and Calista Flockhart: After meeting at the 2002 Golden Globes, not only did sparks fly, but so did a glass of wine. Even if it was a spilled glass of wine that brought these two together, it seems to have worked because the pair has been together ever since. The strong and talented couple is not dwelling on their 22-year age gap.

4. Johnny Depp and Amber Heard: After meeting on set in 2010, this mysterious and timeless couple was not actually romantically linked until 2012. The couple has since gotten engaged earlier this year. Nonetheless, the 23-year age difference sure looks good on them.

5. This couple takes the crown for having the biggest age gap in Hollywood – 6 decades to be exact. Hefner and Harris did not let their 60-year age difference prevent them from getting married and starting a life together. Hefner once tweeted wise words: “When you're in love, age is just a number.”
