In celebrity news, Demi Moore opened up about a miscarriage she suffered with Ashton Kutcher in her memoir. What are some ways to support your partner who has gone through a miscarriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Seeing the “positive” come up on a pregnancy test for many women can be very exciting. Welcoming a bundle of joy to the family can be the happiest time in a woman's life. However, some pregnancies result in a miscarriage and can leave a heavy impact behind. It's not easy to uplift a person who has just encountered something traumatic. Cupid has some advice that will help you and your partner get through this difficult time:

1. Don't expect them to tell you how they are feeling right away: Everyone has a different way of processing hurtful situations. It's important that you keep an open heart and be mindful of the situation. Avoid saying insensitive things like, “You can have another one”. Not everyone is able to conceive right away or it might be hard for them to do so. Be there for them and offer any help they will allow.

2. Offer to attend therapy sessions with them: Therapy can help bring ease to the situation if your partner is willing. The therapist will be able to discuss the “root” of the problem and give you ways to make appropriate approaches to help with conversations at home. This also may take several sessions for them to be comfortable about telling you how they really feel. Don't force or rush them to talk.

3. Find ways to take their mind off of the situation: A good distraction is always a way to alleviate the mind. Start a new hobby with your lover. Take them to a cooking class or Yoga. Doing something relaxing will help them release all their stress and breathe in positive vibrations.

2. Pick a vibe: If you want to go for a more subtle approach to matching with your partner an easy way to do so is to pick a vibe or an aesthetic. You don't necessarily have to match colors or specific articles of clothing, but as long as you both go for the same general idea you'll both look chic!

1. Remove the rose-colored glasses: Sometimes, it's easy to forget that we are all just human. It's natural to almost idealize an ex-partner after a break-up, experiencing insecurities and wondering if you'll ever find someone that matches up to them. But, it's important to make an effort to see the limitations of this person. They have flaws, doubts, and insecurities, themselves. They were never perfect, and it's better to find the logic in the realistic nature and incompatibilities of the break-up to be able to properly move on.

2. Surround yourself with good friends: Good friendships are important for many things, but they are especially important when life-altering situations occur like intense break-ups. 3. Find a great therapist: Therapy is a very helpful tool when going through hardship. It acts as a safe space to open up about feelings and communication without being judged. Working through loss, like a relationship, in a setting where you can freely talk and further your introspection is significant in easing the pain. A lot of people feel more comfortable speaking out about these kinds of issues with someone they hold no personal attachment to than those they know. Find a therapist you can trust being vulnerable around, and you might have a healthier time moving on from your past relationship.

Pete Davidson and Margaret Qualley are taking their relationship to the next level with their first official appearance as a celebrity couple. While this is a big and sometimes scary step, Cupid has some relationship advice that will help you figure out if you're ready:

1. You both want to go public: This may seem obvious, but if you and your partner aren't on the same page, then going public will only add fuel to the fire. Talking about your relationship with your partner in the early stages will allow your relationship to be more honest.

1. Intimacy: There's a lot from a past relationship that can cause anxiety in future partnerships. For example, being cheating on may make you jealous and paranoid as a future partner. This is a normal reaction, but it's something to learn from. Take your trauma and turn it into intimacy by confiding in your new significant other about your concerns.

Celebrity Couple Kelly Ripa & Mark Consuelos Send Daughter Off to College

By Katie

Sotack

It's off to school season, and celebrity parents are not immune to their nests becoming smaller. Live! host Kelly Ripa and Riverdale actor Mark Consuelos recently sent their second oldest and only daughter off to college. Consuelos uploaded a photo with the caption "2 down... 1 to go", referring to the couple's third child. Using the same picture, Ripa shared the news via Instagram, where many celebrity friends were sympathetic to the news. Lisa Rinna, Real Housewives of Beverly Hills star, who recently sent her daughter off to college as well, commented several sobbing emojis in solidarity.

This celebrity couple's nest just got a little bit smaller. What are some ways to deal with an empty nest when your children leave home?

Cupid's Advice:

It's college season in America! Parents cry and young adults rejoice as they ship off to schools across the country. Empty nesting may seem daunting at first, but think about all the perks of your children leaving home:

1. Reconnect as a couple: It's likely that you and your partner have not lived alone since before your child was born. Once your baby moves out, recommit to your relationship. Being home alone with your partner means date nights in and walking around in your underwear again. A child leaving is nothing lost; it's readjusting to a life you once had.

2. A new relationship: When your child moves away, your relationship will morph. Likely, it'll get better. The saying "absence makes the heart grow fonder" is absolutely true in this case. Instead of relying on you for their needs, they will learn to care for themselves. In doing so, your relationship will become more balanced and less demanding on your end.

3. It may not be permanent: In today's economy, moving out is not always permanent. It's very possible your child will be moving back in after college or if their job goes south. This is both totally normal and hope for you to have your baby under your roof again.

Celebrity Wedding: 'Bachelorette' JoJo Fletcher & Jordan Rodgers Get Engaged ... Again

By Katie

Sotack

Almost a year after his initial proposal on The Bachelorette, Jordan Rodgers proposed to JoJo Fletcher all over again. The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. However, as they began planning their wedding, they wanted to do it their own way, in private. Cue proposal number two!

Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. While the details may be tempting to take over your life (and all your conversations), share a world with your partner outside of your wedding. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

By Ashley

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Katie Holmes officially made solidified her split from Jamie Foxx after six years, on Monday, August 19. Just four days earlier, Foxx had been spotted out with a mysterious blonde, and then not too long after was spotted with singer Sela Vave in Hollywood. According to UsMagazine.com, a source said, “It has been many years of him stepping out with other women. He’s disrespectful and their lives were different. His partying ways don’t fit with hers as she’s focused on raising her daughter and working.”

In celebrity break-up news, Katie Holmes had her reasons for breaking things off with “disrespectful” Jamie Foxx. What are some ways to know your partner is respectful?

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups can be hard, especially when it involves Hollywood couples in the spotlight. Luckily, Cupid is here to give you relationship advice on how to know if your partner is respectful, so you can avoid having relationship problems like Katie Holmes and Jamie Foxx:

1. Makes room for ‘quality time’: Everyone has busy lives and a multitude of responsibilities to deal with on a daily basis. However, if you and your partner can prioritize your relationship and make time for each other, that shows you two truly respect the relationship. You can tell your partner really makes an effort to spend quality time with you when they stick to important plans and don’t constantly try to reschedule, or when they make an effort to show up on time for special events.

2. Appreciates your differences: Each and every one of us are different: we all have different personalities, pet peeves, needs, desires, etc. While it is unlikely that you and your partner are going to agree on everything or have the same exact perspective, it is important that you and your partner embrace the differences between each other. If your partner really respects you they will try to understand your way of thinking, if not completely agree with it... they may even learn something new if they are willing to appreciate the differences between you two, rather than discourage them.

3. Supports your goals: Your partner should be your #1 supporter, and if they are not, maybe they are not the best person for you to share your life and dreams with. Having a support system and someone who believes in you is essential in any relationship. If your partner doesn't rain on your parade and does nothing but shower you in love and support, then they are probably a keeper.

Celebrity News: Jennifer Garner Has Found a 'True

Partner' in John Miller

By Katie

Sotack

In celebrity news, Jen and Ben are officially over. Jennifer Garner announced she has found solace with her new partner John Miller, a Cali Group CEO. After a hectic year divorcing Ben Affleck and supporting him through two stints in rehab, a source told UsMagazine.com, "John is the complete opposite of Ben. Jen feels like she's finally found a true partner." Both Garner and Miller are committed to keeping their relationship low-key as well as being successful co-parents to their kids from previous marriages.

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner feels like she's finally met her match. What are some ways to know you've met your "true partner"?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you just know you've found the one. Butterflies flutter in your gut, and your heart swells just looking at them. But, a true partner goes far beyond falling in love. Here are relationship tips to be sure your significant other is the one:

1. You want the same things: A partner should share your goals. When it comes to spending your life with someone, they should generally want the same things. If kids, a suburban house, and a steady career are in your future, love won't save your relationship with a kid-hating, apartment-renting, daredevil.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-up: Miley Cyrus & Liam Hemsworth Split Less Than 8 Months After Wedding

2. They support you: Of course not all goals need to be share. However they should stand by your individual goals and root you on as you achieve them. For example, if you want to eat healthy and get fit your partner doesn't need to do the same. However a partner that undermines your attempts to stay on track by offering you ice cream every night is not trying to help you succeed.

3. You're both willing to work: Aside from goals, communication is the key to a healthy relationship. A partnership likely won't have to same communication styles. But true significant others should be willing to compromise and workshop communication for a healthy relationship.

Celebrity Couple News: Kaley Cuoco & Karl Cook Still Don't Live Together 1 Year Into Marriage

By Ashley

Johnson

Kaley Cuoco and Karl Cook gained attention in the latest celebrity news by rejecting traditional marriage norms. According to UsMagazine.com, they are still living separately after an entire year of marriage. Their lives and celebrity

style keep them traveling and working in different locations, and ultimately apart from each other. While the celebrity couple has a rather unconventional living arrangement, it proves to have been successful, and the stars say that having their own space has worked well for them and their relationship.

In celebrity couple news, Kaley Cuoco is taking “unconventional” to the next level. What are some ways living with your partner can change your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

While Kaley Cuoco and Karl Cook may be living separately, for now, they eventually plan on moving into their dream house, which is currently in the works. Living together can be a whole new world and a big step for a relationship, but Cupid has some relationship advice on how to deal with the ways living with your partner can change your relationship:

1. No privacy: You are perhaps going from seeing your partner at least once a week to seeing them at least once a day. Co-habitation means you and your partner will be sharing multiple spaces together, whether it is the kitchen, bathroom, or bedroom. It is essential that you not only get comfortable sharing space and materials with your partner but also get comfortable sharing yourself with your partner. With a new lack of privacy, you and your partner will only learn more about each other and each other’s most personal habits, for better or for worse. Of course, no privacy does not mean you cannot set some boundaries for each other if you need to... and that can easily be done through honest communication!

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Bradley Cooper & Irina Shayk Split After 4 Years Together

2. New fights: A new living arrangement means new rules. While you may be used to living one way, that is certainly not the only way to live. You and your partner may have different cleaning habits, sleep habits, monetary habits, etc., and it can take some time to adjust to. It is unlikely you two are going to agree on every single thing, but you can learn to find common ground. Whether it is figuring out household chores or household finances, you are going to have to sit down with your partner to make a reasonable plan for both of your well-being.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Adele and Simon Koneckis Call It Quits

3. More intimacy: Going to bed every night with your partner and waking up every morning together can create an important bond. Living together means your partner is going to be your “go-to” person. If you need a hug or just someone to sit and listen to a problem you are having, your partner is probably the first person you will run to. Whether it is through physical comfort or intimate conversations with each other throughout the day, you and your partner are definitely going to feel a whole lot closer to each other.

was missing now.” Young recently met Moussa’s two children, but has yet to meet his celebrity ex, Christina Anstead.

This celebrity couple is coming into the public eye after much speculation. What are some ways to know when it’s time to bring your relationship public?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be hard to decide when you make your relationship public, especially if you and your new partner are private and want to enjoy your new love together. But, eventually, it will need to happen! Cupid has some ideas on how to know when to make your relationship public:

1. You don’t mind them meeting your family: You know it’s time to bring your relationship public when you’re okay with your new partner meeting your parents, siblings, or even your kids (if you have them), and you’ve met their family.

Celebrity News: 'BiP' Star Caelynn Responds to Blake Releasing Their Texts

By Ashley

Johnson

In a celebrity interview with UsMagazine.com, Bachelor in Paradise star Caelynn Miller-Keyes opened up about the scandalous text messages between her and Blake Horstmann. She says she thought that she and the reality TV star were on the same page and explains how mortified she feels.

In celebrity news, the Bachelor drama is heating up! What are some ways to make sure you're on the same page with a potential partner before getting involved?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all couples are perfect (not even Hollywood relationships). Sometimes people are on the same page, and other times they are on completely different books. Since budding relationships can be confusing sometimes, Cupid has some relationship advice on how to make sure you're on the same page with a potential partner before getting involved:

1. Communicate: In every and any relationship communication is necessary. By having frequent and honest conversations with each other, you and your partner can learn more about each other and each other's feelings, thoughts, intentions, and so much more.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Brooks Laich Says He's Proud of Wife Julianne Hough For Saying She's 'Not Straight'

2. Share goals: In your honest conversations with your partner you should also be sharing your goals with them. Their goals do not have to be the same exact as your own, but they do have to be similar. For example, you both may have completely different career goals, but it is important that your romantic goals are the same, in that they want the same thing as you out of the relationship.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Shia Labeouf & FKA Twig's Relationship Is On Hold

3. Prioritize: Relationships can be a big commitment and it can be tricky trying to prioritize them at times with busy schedules, and lives in general. Sometimes people are ready to make that serious commitment, and sometimes they are not. Check in with your partner to understand all their priorities and see how much of a commitment they can, or are willing, to make to you and the relationship.

Celebrity News: 'BiP' Star Blake Horstmann Releases Texts with Caelynn Miller-Keyes After Intimate Night

By Ashley

Johnson

Bachelor in Paradise star Blake Horstmann has proven that he is not afraid to share the most intimate details of his romantic life with the world. According to UsMagazine.com, just a few days ago, the reality TV star revealed scandalous text messages sent from Caelynn Miller-Keyes on his Instagram story and has gotten backlash ever since.

In celebrity news, things are being clarified after the drama with Blake and Caelynn was shown on the first episode of Bachelor in Paradise. What are some reasons to keep your intimate life private?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone has the luxury of keeping their relationships private (especially celebrity couples), but if you do have the choice, Cupid has some relationship advice on reasons to keep your intimate life private, unlike Blake Horstmann and Caelynn

Miller-Keyes:

1. Too many opinions: Everyone is going to have an opinion about your relationship whether you like it or not. A lot of those opinions will be unsolicited and can be detrimental to your relationship if you dwell on them. However many opinions people may share on the Internet or social media, no one will ever know the facts of the relationship simply because they are not in it, only you and your partner are.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Cardi B Gets New Tattoo of Husband Offset's Name

2. Social pressure: Social media allows you to share the version of yourself you want to share with the public, and never all versions of yourself. This being said, your followers and subscribers only see one version of your relationship with your partner, which can put pressure on you to only show the best parts of your relationship rather than the worst. Having to live up to a certain standard for your relationship can be exhausting and strain your relationship if you start doing more things to look happy in your relationship and less things to be happy in your relationship. It's more important to be present in your relationship rather than get lost in your relationship's social media presence.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Scott Disick Is 'Really Happy' Kylie Jenner Is Close to Girlfriend Sofia Richie

3. Safety: By making your relationship public, you could be letting in the wrong people. Hollywood relationships are often subject to aggressive paparazzi and stalkers. While you may not necessarily be swarmed by paparazzi everyday, you are still subject to others having too many intimate details about your relationship. This includes jealous exes, or other people who may not wish the best for you and your partner. When the wrong people know the whereabouts of you and your partner at all times, it only gives them the opportunity to troll you, making you feel the opposite of secure in your relationship, and at times unsafe.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Says 'Thank You, Next' to Questions about Tyler Cameron & Gigi Hadid

Johnson

By Ashley

In a celebrity interview with UsMagazine.com, Hannah Brown made it clear that she is ready to take on life as a single woman after her celebrity break-up with Tyler Cameron. The reality TV star says she is focused on exploring her new opportunities as a single woman and is ready to move forward from The Bachelorette with or without a man.

In celebrity news, Hannah isn't letting anyone draw her into talks surrounding Tyler Cameron's dating life. What are some ways to move on when you see your ex moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

While all celebrity relationships do not last, the relationship you have with yourself does. We are rooting for Hannah in her new journey! Cupid has some advice on how to move on from an ex like Hannah Brown and many other single celebrities:

1. Focus on yourself: Self-care is always the best way to go. When we take care of ourselves and give ourselves all the love and affection for a change, we realize just how much we needed it and realize that self love is enough. Focusing on yourself and taking the time to heal on your own can help you rediscover yourself and learn more about who you are. You can learn more about your likes, dislikes, and everything in between.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Shia Lebeouf and FKA Twig's Relationship Is On Hold

2. Enjoy your hobbies and friends: Just taking the time to do things you enjoy again can remind you what you really value in life. You can now focus all your time and energy on everything you have ever wanted to do, whether it be painting, going to concerts, traveling the world, or spending more time with friends. Friends are there for you when you need them the most. They can help distract you from your ex and past relationship and can be a shoulder to lean on when you just need to vent.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Bradley Cooper Enjoys a Boys' Night in L.A. After Irina Shayk Split

3. Take a break from social media: Focusing on yourself means you can't have any distractions. Social media is the easiest way to stay up to date with your friends, and unfortunately, your ex. With just one click you can get lost in your ex's feed. Being single means you now have time to focus on yourself, not your ex and their whereabouts. Embrace the distance from your ex... this may even mean blocking or unfollowing them on all social media for the time being.
