By Megan McIntosh

It looks like Colton Underwood is officially off the market! According to UsMagazine.com, Underwood reunited with Cassie Rudolph on the season finale of The Bachelor. Though it was

Though they're not planning a celebrity wedding just yet, the couple was presented with an engagement ring for future use.

In celebrity news, Colton is no longer a bachelor! What are some ways to know you've found "the one"?

Cupid's Advice

Sometimes it takes a while to figure out that you've got a keeper, like Liam Hemsworth and Miley Cyrus who had their share of celebrity break ups before they finally wed. Sometimes you figure it out right away that you're meant to be with someone like Chris Pratt and fiancé Katherine Schwarzenegger, who had only gone public with their relationship a month before their engagement. Whether you're getting married or moving in together, how do you know that you're with "the one?"

1. They really listen: Remember when you said you hated being late, and your partner made sure you always had time to get where you needed to go? That's because your partner listened to you. Whether it's big or small, habits or life goals, your lover knows and understands what's going on with you.

2. You don't drive each other crazy: Or if you do, it's in a good way like butterflies and corny jokes. Your partner should be adding to your life and making your life easier. If you find that while living together, you just click; that's probably because your partner is considerate of your needs. But even if you haven't moved in together just yet, you could try going on a trip so that you can see just how well you do when it's just you two together.

partner has been cheating, especially if you thought you were both somewhere early in the relationship but your partner didn't have the same understanding. Cupid has some advice on how to handle things when you find out your partner has been cheating:

1. Don't publicly blast them: If there is any chance of saving your relationship, publicly announcing your partner's behavior is a sure way to destroy any chance you may have at fixing it. Slip-ups happen. Don't immediately turn them into the bad guy. Plus, it makes you look bad in the process.

2. Try to understand why it happened: Give your partner a chance to explain. Were they caught up in the moment at a party with friends? Did they not understand the grounds of the relationship? Don't let them off the hook too easily, but also don't immediately write them off.
