B y Rhodesia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Carrie Underwood is expecting celebrity baby number two. According to UsMagazine.com, celebrity couple Carrie Underwood and Mike Fisher are excited to welcome their child, but also have plans to potentially adopt in the future. It looks like this family just keeps getting bigger and bigger.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood and Mike Fischer are expecting their second child. What are some ways to prepare differently for a second child versus for your first?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as it can be having a second child, it is a little more calming. There are things you did with your first child that you probably won't do with your second. Cupid has some ways to prepare differently for your second child versus your first:

1. The registry: Whether you planned on having a second baby or not, carefully choose the items on your registry. If you have anything left over from your first child, it doesn't hurt to use it again. When making up the registry, pick the items you know you will use and/or need. Adding different items you didn't really use with your first baby will probably go unused with your second. This will save you money in the long run and you will have everything that you will need. You can never have too many diapers and wipes.

2. Make room: Time to make room for your new bundle of joy. It doesn't hurt to get a head start on arranging the sleeping arrangements. Planning ahead makes things so much easier rather than just waiting for the baby to come. Also with that, you can pretty much know what to expect in terms of where things will go. As exciting as it is to have a new baby, save some money on building a new room. Depending on the arrangements made, it may just be easier to keep the kids together.

3. Get some sleep: After your first child, you pick up on when you can get some rest. While with your first child, you probably ran every time you heard a coo or a cry, this time is different. Knowing what you know now will prepare you to be able to finally get some rest. Granted you will have two kids, but your other child will already have a set routine which helps.

Why Celebrity Couple Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Ignoring Royal Rules

y Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle are apparently ignoring some big royal rules. A source told People that Meghan “has found certain rules in the royal household difficult to understand, like the fact that the Queen prefers women in dresses or skirts rather than trouser suits, and is often asking Harry why things have to be done a certain way. I think she finds it a little frustrating at times, but this is her new life, and she has to deal with it.” It appears Meghan is willing to challenge some of the rules of the monarchy, such as public displays of affection. According to EOnline.com, Meghan held on tightly to Harry when they made their first public appearance at the 2017 Invictus Games. Meghan has also made it clear she’s not afraid to voice her political opinions, proclaiming that she is proud to be a woman and a feminist on her page of the official British monarchy website. She also voiced her opinions at the first-ever Royal Foundation Forum this past winter, “I hear a lot of people speaking about girls’ empowerment and women’s empowerment; you will hear people saying they are helping women find their voices. I fundamentally disagree with that because women don't need to find their voices, they need to be empowered to use it and people need to be urged to listen. I think right now in the climate we're seeing with so many campaigns, with #MeToo and Time's Up, there's no better time than to really continue to shine a light on women feeling empowered and people really helping to support them—men included in that." Meghan also hasn't shied away from more modest clothing, opting to bear a sliver of her shoulder at her Trooping of Colour debut in June and often wearing suits instead of only wearing the traditional attire of a skirt or dress. Meghan and Harry also chose to make personal decisions regarding their wedding in May. The couple personalized their wedding vows, had a lemon elderflower cake instead of a traditional fruitcake and chose Reverend Michael Bruce Curry, a Chicago native and the first black presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, to deliver a sermon on their special day.

This royal celebrity couple isn't all about the royal rules. What are some ways to define your own path as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Want to define your own path as a couple with your partner? Cupid has some tips on how to do it:

1. Stick to your morals: Just like Meghan, it's important that you hold on to your morals even while being in a relationship with someone. Don't be afraid to voice your opinions and be proud of what you value.

That’s how it starts.” Kunis added, “Eight hours into our RV trip ... our air conditioner breaks in Bakersfield in 110 degree weather. We almost died on the side of the road when Apple Maps took us on a road ... It was a fire road on the side of a mountain. We all had to jump out of the vehicle and walk like, three miles while my father-in-law drove the van and Ashton navigated him over massive boulders because there had just been a massive flood. Guys, this was like, day two.” Kunis then went on to say that she eventually gave up on the disastrous honeymoon, saying, “Long story short, my wonderful, beautiful mother-in-law picked the RV parks that we were staying in, but she didn’t use the internet. She used books. She’s like, ‘We’ll end in Napa, it’ll be beautiful,’ and I was like, ‘You know what, what can go wrong?’ Let me tell you. An RV park not in Napa, but an hour outside of Napa with two prisons, OK ... and my husband looked at me and goes, ‘I quit,’ and I’m like, ‘Me too.’”

Bella told EOnline.com in a statement, "After I called off the engagement, we tried to work on our relationship to get back to where it was, and in order to move forward with our wedding. After much time and soul-searching alone and together, we have decided to officially part ways. I had a beautiful and loving 6-year relationship with a wonderful man. I have the utmost respect for John, but I know what is best for me." A source said Bella is doing well and moving on with her life after the breakup. This news comes after Bella's representative said she and Cena were "working on their relationship" after the two initially called off their engagement just over three months ago. The couple began dating in 2012 and their relationship has been documented on Total Divas and Total Bellas.

It looks like John and Nikki are experiencing a celebrity break-up yet again. What are some factors to consider before reconciling with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Are you feeling like you might want to reconcile with an ex? Cupid has some factors for you to consider:

1. Will it last?: Before getting back together with an ex, you want to make sure that the reconciliation will actually last. For Bella and Cena, their reunion was short-lived. Getting back together just to break up again shortly after can cause you more pain than the initial break up did. If you reunite with your ex, make sure you are completely committed to doing so and you are sure things will last for the long term.

2. Have things changed?: You shouldn't get back together with someone if all the problems that made you two break up are still there. If you choose to reconcile with your ex, all former arguments should be quelled and you two need to have worked through your problems. If a past issue is still present, it's likely to cause more trouble for you further on in your relationship.

3. Are you ready?: It's important you make sure that you are emotionally ready to be in a relationship again after already Don't get back with your ex if you think you won't be able to handle a potential negative outcome from it.

In celebrity couple news, Robert Pattinson and Suki Waterhouse may be exploring the waters of a relationship. What are some signs that you should move your casual relationship to more of a serious thing?

Cupid's Advice:

This potential new celebrity couple hit the town for a movie date night over the weekend, but the relationship is likely still casual. Cupid has some advice on when it's time to move your casual relationship to something more serious:

1. You've had enough time to get to know each other: It may seem obvious, but you don't want to get too serious about someone until you truly know them. The "getting to know you" process can take a long time, sometimes even years, but the initial phase of it should be complete before you invest too much in the relationship. Make sure you spend quality time with your potential partner and share the things that are important to you.

2. You've gotten over any past relationship hang-ups: It's important that you're fully over your ex before you move on to something serious with someone else. It's okay to casually date if you're still getting over someone (sometimes it even helps you move on), but don't get too close to someone before you're sure he/she isn't a rebound.

3. You've decided it's worth it: Don't just get serious about someone because you want to be in a relationship and it's convenient. Make sure that the person you're considering getting close with has long-term potential. Otherwise, it's simply not worth it!

her health and recovery is the most important thing right now.”

These celebrity exes still clearly hold love for one another. What are some ways to support your ex during a trying time?

Cupid's Advice:

In difficult times, sometimes the right thing to do is to be there for your ex. Cupid has some tips on how to support them:

1. Show up: Just like Valderrama did, sometimes the best thing you can do when your ex is struggling is to show up and be there for them. Just because you are no longer in a relationship doesn't mean you don't have to be supportive of them when they are going through something difficult. Just going to them to offer your support and presence is a huge help.

2. Keep it platonic: One thing to remember when supporting your ex during a trying time is to not let things go too far and end up getting romantic. Your ex is going through a lot and a past relationship is easily something they can turn to for comfort, but you could end up getting hurt in the end if it doesn't work out. Make sure to support your ex only as a friend and make your boundaries clear.

3. Rally their friends: If you actually being around your ex might be too stressful for them, maybe try supporting your ex in a different way. If you still have mutual friends, contact them and let them know they should reach out to them. You can also try to organize a get together where you all can be there for him, without things being as awkward as meeting with just the two of you.

Lindsay also wrote that she thinks "It is clear that Blake is truly in love with Becca and she is smitten with him. It is clear he does not want to lose her. So it is also clear that he is insecure about the fact that there are two other men in her life. This is a very real moment for me. I appreciated that he was vulnerable enough to express that to her rather than hiding behind a smile." Lindsay also appreciated when Hortsman said "I look for reasons to stay and not reasons to leave." Regarding Kufrin's date with contestant Garrett Yrigoyen, Lindsay said, "He tells Becca he loves her and I have to say I did not feel it. I heard the man, but I did not feel him. It did not come out as smoothly or as sincerely as Jason and Blake's 'I love you' did. Garrett also just doesn't seem like a smoother operator so there's that." Lindsay also said, "I feel like there is something we are missing from Garrett."

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay is hoping Blake wins Becca's Heart on The Bachelorette. What are some ways to know you're choosing the right partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Having trouble knowing if you're choosing the right partner? Cupid has some ways to help you know if it's right:

- 1. You only have eyes for them: If you are really in love with someone, then you should only be interested in being with them and no one else. If you think you've got a wandering eye or

Celebrity News: Celebrities Knock Millions Off the Asking Prices of Their Homes

When a celebrity sells their home, it typically goes for millions of dollars. However, there's a rising trend in that celebrities are first slashing hundreds of thousands, and in some cases millions, off of the asking price first. Earlier this year, according to The Observer, former One Direction member, Harry Styles, slashed $500,000 off the asking price of his LA mansion, while actor, Mel Gibson, recently knocked $2.3 million off his Malibu mansion's listing price. Often, a well-publicized celebrity break-up is the cause for the swift drop in price in order to secure a fast sale, but in other instances celebs just don't seem to want to hang around for a buyer.

In celebrity news, check out more instances where celebs are dropping the prices of their homes.

A quick drop in price

Since putting their luxury New York City penthouse on the market, Justin Timberlake and Jessica Biel have dropped the asking price by almost $1.25 million. In fact, the couple seem so eager to shift the property that just a week after taking $1 million off, they opted to drop the price further by $245,000. According to The Daily Mail, the penthouse isn't Timberlake and Biel's only property. The pair reportedly spent more than $20 million on a penthouse in the 443 Greenwich Street building last year. While celebs such as Justin and Jessica sell up because they require larger homes, there are others who stay put and opt to utilize the money invested in their homes by refinancing their mortgage and expanding their property.

Slicing off millions

Demi Moore is another star who found herself slicing millions off her home in order to attract a buyer. Her New York property which was once home to both her and her ex-husband Bruce Willis, originally hit the market for $75 million. Realising that the asking price was significantly over-inflated, it dropped to $59 million. However, after 2 years on the market it was sold for just $45 million. You might think that Moore would be disheartened at the 40% drop, but considering she picked the property up for a mere $7 million, she still made a fortune from shifting the penthouse.

Asking over the odds

When Harry Styles's pad hit the market for $8.45 million, his listing broker justified the price by stating that renovations had taken place and that there was a strong housing market in LA. Despite owning the property for less than a year, it was significantly marked up compared to the $6.87 million it was originally purchased for. This therefore begs the question whether celeb homes are purposefully overpriced in the hope that the agents selling them will make a bigger commission out of the sale.

Celebrity homes usually sell for a small fortune, however, it's worth remembering that many of them are over priced when they hit the market. Therefore, while, taking off millions might sound extreme, it's usually only done to bring the price back in line with similar properties.
