In celebrity news, Kendra Wilkinson is appealing to her fans for advice one month after filing for divorce from Hank Baskett. What are some ways to know you're ready to move on after a split.

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding when to move on after a split is tough, because you want to make sure your heart is ready. Cupid has some tips:

1. You've stopped internet stalking your ex: It's okay to admit it, we all do it. After a tough break-up, it's natural to be checking up on your former lover on social media. A surefire way of knowing if you're over your ex is if you lose the urge to see your old flame's latest picture on Instagram or their most recent tweet. If you've moved on, you shouldn't care about what your ex is up to.

2. You're okay on your own: After a break-up, you can often feel pretty lonely and isolated without having your significant other around all the time. Before hopping into another relationship, it's important that you're able to be independent and are confident in yourself. This way, you can make sure your next relationship is a genuine one and not a rebound from your last!

Cupid's Advice:

We all know that having a baby is a huge responsibility – imagine more than one! Therefore, there are many factors to consider. Here are a few:

1. Are you financially stable enough?: Having a baby costs tens of thousands of dollars because there is so much they need. You probably considered all this with your other child or children, but by adding another member to your family, you are obviously increasing your expenses. Make a financial assessment of your income, expenses, assets, etc. Be sure to be as precise as possible and not over or underestimate.

2. Do you have enough time?: The more children you have, the more time you need. They all require time, and sometimes some children will need more time from you than others. Are you and your partner able to afford giving so much time to your kids? If so, great, let the baby making begin. If not, reconsider, maybe it's best to hold off for a bit.

Every person is different and so is every situation, so think hard about whether someone is right for you or not. Cupid has some relationship advice on things to consider before deciding whether you're better off without someone or not:

1. Have they done unforgivable things?: Forgiving them means accepting the situation and their apology, and moving on from it. There is no point in saying you will forgive your partner, if the problem will just keep popping up in the future. So, analyze and evaluate whether what they did is something you can move on from.

Every couple needs space, some more than others. It really all depends on who the people are. Missing someone can actually be a good thing though. Cupid has some benefits to missing your other half:

1. Distance does make the heart grow fonder: When you miss someone, you get that warm feeling inside that makes you think about how much you love them. This can stir up some cute and/or sexy texts, phone calls, or video chats. Embrace the distance instead of completely hating it. And when you see each other again, it's on, let the in-person loving resume.

2. You'll have more to talk about: Don't get us wrong, when the right people are together, they never run out of things to discuss. However, when you're away from the other person, you obviously have more to tell. This is a good opportunity to also work on your story-telling skills!

Cupid's Advice:

We are in the age of social media, and our relationships are many times heavily involved with it. Cupid has some suggestions for your relationship when it comes to those of you who want to embrace social media:

1. Couple photos: Share photos of you love birds doing things that are you or that show off your personality. Some couples post photos, some do not. Some post lots, some post a few, some post none. That's just how it is. But if you want your relationship to embrace social media, then sharing couple photos or even a photo of your partner helps.

There is no right or wrong answer, but here are some signs that it might not be too bad if you got back together with your ex:

1. Your relationship was not toxic: After you have had enough time to reflect on your past relationship, you may come to the conclusion that it was truly a wonderful time. If you have a clear view that maybe it just wasn't the right time to be together with your partner but you want to try again now, then go for it.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes us longer than others to fall out of love with someone. It can depend on who that ex is, how the relationship was, or how it ended. However, cupid has some love advice on how to deal with still loving your ex:

1. Analyze your feelings and the situation: Be sure of what you feel. Sometimes we think we feel one thing when in reality we actually feel another. We are only human, so we do make mistakes. Also, evaluate the situation, think with your mind and not your heart. Only because you love an ex does not mean that you should be with them, or even have them in your life for that matter. Evaluate everything carefully.

2. Keep busy: Be productive. Keep yourself distracted while bettering yourself, that's the best thing you can do after all. This can also detain you from taking any decisions that you may regret later. Give your mind some time away from your ex and do what you have to do. After giving it some time, take it from there.

Why Sam 'Sammi Sweetheart' Giancola Avoided 'Jersey Shore: Family Vacation'

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, “Sammi Sweetheart” did not go back to Jersey Shore: Family Vacation because she was afraid that celebrity ex Ronnie Ortiz-Magro would try to get back together with her, according to UsMagazine.com. On Thursday’s episode, Ronnie went off about not caring about Sam not showing up because he has a baby on the way with his girlfriend Jen Harley. Deena Cortese, another Jersey Shore member and Sam’s close friend had something to say in a confessional on the show: “Ron needs to stop talking about Sam and move the f–k on ... Sam told me that he used to call her on blocked numbers, and used to like, be really weird. She was afraid she was gonna get in the house and he would get drunk and spiral and try and get back with her or something.” Arguments about Sam have erupted in the Jersey Shore house regardless of her not being present. The former celebrity couple are a topic of discussion because of their dramatic roller coaster relationship that kept fans watching. Let’s see if Sam decides to make an appearance after all.

In celebrity news, it seems Sam knows what she wants, and she doesn't want to get back with her ex. What are some ways you know you should not get back together with an old flame?

Cupid's Advice:

A lot of the time we think of reasons to get back together with an ex, but neglect to reflect on the reasons we shouldn't. Cupid has some love advice:

1. They're involved with someone else: This is something that may seem obvious. However, there are some people that decide it's time to compete and win their former lover back. This is not the best idea. Once someone is involved with someone else, it will most likely just bring problems into a relationship that you may rekindle. Just remember, if it's meant to happen between you guys, it will.

2. You have not forgiven them: If you have yet to forgive your ex for any wrongdoings, then getting back together won't be the brightest idea. You will just have the same problems all over again, which is something you want to avoid. If you can't forgive, then it's time to move on – avoid yourself all the stress.

3. They're still not trustworthy: If you can't trust them, then why go back to them? You would not want to enter a relationship with distrust, it just won't end well. It would be a different story if you didn't trust them before, but you feel like you can now. Remember, when there is no trust (for a good reason), it's best to keep things pushing.
