Celebrity Divorce: Matt Lauer

Moves Out of Family Home Amid Divorce

By Rachel Sparks

Former Today anchor Matt Lauer was forced out of his family home in the Hamptons by current wife Annette Roque amid their ongoing divorce. An insider told UsMagazine.com that Roque threatened legal action due to Lauer's hesitation, stating that Lauer was more concerned with how the press would view his new living arrangements after being fired for sexual harassment. This celebrity divorce, a result of the #MeToo movement, is worrisome for the affect it has on their three children.

Amid this celebrity divorce, Matt Lauer finally moved out of the family home after initially refusing. What are some ways to make your divorce more amicable?

Cupid's Advice:

A celebrity divorce is just as volatile as what we deal with when we endure divorces ourselves. There will always be collateral damage; children will have emotional backlashes, sometimes after everything has calmed down. Living situations change, oftentimes with financial hardship amongst the legalities of the split. While your divorce may not be the latest celebrity news, Cupid's relationship advice will help you navigate those choppy divorce waters in order for a more amicable split:

1. Evaluate your goals: Within any action, there is a primary end result that we would like to see. In a divorce, it may be that you want to keep the house or the kids, that you want shared custody or holiday visitation rights. Recognizing what it is that you want most out of a divorce will help alleviate the minute details. There will be enough stress already, so choose what's worth fighting for.

2. Evaluate your priorities: Similar to knowing what you want, you need to evaluate what really matters. Like Matt Lauer, is public appeal worth costing your family more stress? In emotionally-intense situations, it's easy to lose sight of your priorities. Remind yourself what matters, and fight for whatever that may be.

3. Respect your family: Lauer and Roque were married for 19 years, and now their familiar family structure is crumbling. No matter the length of time you and your spouse spent together, at some point, it was built on mutual love and respect. It's much harder to see this amidst a divorce, but realizing that you once loved your ex and still love the children you raised together means that you should be willing to make sacrifices for the greater good of everyone involved.

The relationship you have with your partner should just feel natural. You may love the idea of someone, but yet they are not completely right for you. Here are some ways to know if it is not a perfect match:

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break-up can be extremely difficult sometimes. What can be even worse is deciding whether to move on or not. Here are some things you should consider before moving on:

1. Why did you both break up?: Was the break-up over something not worth it or was it over something that was? Sometimes we break-up out of anger or over something that we think we cannot move past, but do. Evaluate things, make sure that the break-up happened for the right reasons and you're okay with that decision.

Are we sensing a celebrity divorce coming, or is Melania Trump going to tough it out? We'll keep you posted!

In celebrity news, it looks like the First Lady isn't very happy with her life at the moment. What are some ways to communicate that you are unhappy to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Effective communication is essential in all relationships. When you're unhappy, you must talk to your partner in order for you both to move forward. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Speak in person: Do not talk about something this serious over text message or on the phone. If you have no other choice, then talk on the phone. The reason why speaking in person is better is not only because it's intimate, but also because you get to see their face while hearing their tone at the same time. Speaking on the phone, and texting especially, can cause miscommunication.

2. Choose the right time and go for it: Don't beat around the bush. You have to say how you feel, and try to choose the right time. A time when neither of you are in a bad mood works best because the conversation will most likely be productive. Also, you have to make sure that there is enough time to have a discussion. When it comes to a problem like being unhappy, that is no 10-minute conversation.

3. Don't sugar coat: You have to be straight up if you intend on getting anywhere. If you try to make things nicer and sweeter than they really are, you'll just be misleading your partner. You need them to understand exactly how you feel if there's going to be any chance of you both fixing the issue at hand. Don't be aggressive and mean either. Just find a good in between and go for it. Don't be scared or shy.

Cupid's Advice:

When going through legal disagreements with your ex-partner, it is important to still keep your children's best interests in mind. It is easy to become consumed in all of the stress that is being caused by things that are over their head. Hopefully these tips will serve well in keeping your children happy during these taxing times:

1. Get your feelings out somewhere else: It is perfectly normal to be upset and angry when disagreements are occurring. You don't have to completely shut down your feelings because you want to look put-together in front of your kids. Rather, get your feelings out to a therapist or close friend so that you don't feel the need to vent to your children.

2. Apologize if you do slip up: We are not asking you to be perfect. You may have a slip up in front of your children which may cause them to be upset. Just apologize! This will also teach your children how to deal with conflict and demonstrate that if they mess up, they should apologize. After that, continue to give them the love that they need right now during this time.

3. Give genuine care: A common mistake in situations like this is giving your children material items in hopes that this will make them happy. It may make them joyful for a short period of time, but what really counts is the actual love that you give them. Try not to fill that void by buying your children multiple items. Instead, take them for a walk on the beach and just enjoy this world with them by your side.

In celebrity news, Bella Thorne and Patrick Schwarzenegger shared their thoughts on what makes and breaks a relationship, and it's good advice! Thorne and Schwarzenegger, who star in Midnight Sun which premiered on Friday, opened up about how their first crushes were the ones that taught them about their relationship wants and deal breakers. According to UsMagazine.com, Thorne said: "If you're dating someone that's not going to motivate you or encourage you, don't date them. You should straight up just be out of the relationship right then and there. I dated somebody and sent him a song that I recorded and he was like, 'This is honestly not very good at all. I'm sorry. I kind of hate this song. You sound awful.' I was like, 'That feels like s-t. That hurts on the inside, man.'" "It's the worst thing when you're dating somebody who is just like, 'You're sh-t.'" Schwarzenegger agrees. "I think that having a significant other is meant to make you a better person and bring out the best in you and you bring out the best in them, he explains. "It's about surrounding yourself with people that root for you and expect more from you. I think those are the types of people you want to surround yourself with.” Yep, that is good love advice!

In celebrity news, ‘Midnight Sun’ actors Bella and Patrick talk things that make or break relationships. What are three things that can be considered a relationship deal breaker?

Cupid’s Advice:

Many things can break a relationship, here are three we think are on the top of the list:

1. Cheating: Infidelity is a big one. It is a big betrayal, and it is deceitful as well. It ruins trusts, too. However, some couples are able to work through an indiscretion like cheating – but then again, many others can’t. Cheating is a big deal breaker that many of us choose to not deal with.

2. Lack of trust: Cheating is not the only thing that can break trust. And sometimes, trust is just not there from the beginning either. In any relationship, it is important to have trust, if there isn’t any you’re headed for an extremely rocky road. Do yourself a favor, and work on this big issue before it gets worse, because it can definitely be a deal breaker.

3. No common ground: In a romantic relationship, you need to have things in common. No, you do not need to have everything or even most things in common, but you do need a base for the foundation you're building. It's okay to have differences, but after everything, you should have things in common to keep the relationship going. There isn't a choice for "inconsolable differences" on divorce papers for nothing!

Cupid's Advice:

We know that divorce is not easy. And unfortunately, for some of us, it's a time where we undergo a deep sadness. Cupid has some tips on getting through a hard divorce, and most of it is mental:

1. Know that you are sure about the divorce: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for the divorce and that it is in fact the right decision. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Think things through, analyze and examine your situation. But don't overdo it to the point you're blaming yourself or driving yourself crazy.

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on from a past relationship can be hard. However, when it's done, it's done, and you have to move on. Cupid has some ideas on how to know when it's time to not look back and carry on from a former relationship:

1. There is no future with the relationship: If you no longer see a future with an ex flame, it's time to ditch them and move on. If you know this valuable piece of information, then you're just waiting for the inevitable at this point. Why waste more time on the relationship when you can spend that time moving on and actually doing things that will benefit the future you have without that person?

2. The other person has moved on: If your ex has moved on, then it is probably safe to say that you should too. It may hurt to see them with someone else, but things happen for a reason. If you gave it your best shot, that's what matters. If your relationship still doesn't work after all your efforts, you may be seeing a dead end, and so it is time to carry on without your ex.

In celebrity news, America Ferrera celebrated her celebrity baby's shower with NBC costars and Ugly Betty alum over the weekend, according to UsMagazine.com. This celebrity baby will be her and husband Ryan Piers Williams' first child, so we bet the celebrity couple is super excited. The baby shower was a fun one at that, as it looks on the photos posted on Instagram. “No poopie diaper games here. Just dancing, drinking (water for me ☐), and some of the people we love to celebrate the little human we can’t wait to meet,” Ferrera captioned her Instagram photos on Sunday.

In celebrity baby news, America Ferrara is celebrating the soon-to-be arrival of her first child. What are some ways to prepare yourself and your relationship for a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

The way to prepare your relationship for a child is for you and your partner to be in it together. You both must be on the same page. With that being said, Cupid has a few suggestions on how you both can prepare together for your child:

1. Learn about the birthing process and about life with a baby: You both can do research or read books, then discuss. Learning about the way your child will be born into the world and the things after is not something that’s just for the mom who’s carrying. This is something your partner should not stay behind on – they must learn it as well. It is important to know things like what to do during labor and what to expect after the baby is born.

2. Build the nursery together: Put both of your ideas together to create the perfect nursery. Both of you should have an input. Besides being productive by getting it done before the baby arrives, it can also be a bonding experience. You can also baby proof your home while you're at it.

3. Go over your finances: This is something you should definitely do together. Lack of money or shortage of money can hinder both a relationship and the way you're able to raise and accommodate your child. So, sit down with a pencil, paper, and calculator, and begin. Look through everything and see what you're dealing with. This is something that you guys can do more than once, since finances can change without warning and at anytime.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor Winter Games' Winners Ashley Iaconetti & Kevin Wendt Split

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, a celebrity break-up went down! Celebrity couple Ashley Iaconetti and Kevin Wendt have split. According to EOnline.com, Iaconetti confirmed that the couple broke up less than a month after the Bachelor Winter Games finale. The reason behind the split was recently discussed on Iaconetti's iHeartRadio podcast. She said, "It sounds a little harsh, but it's just that lack of – there's magic. We get along very well, it's just there's a little something missing and you can't really pinpoint what it is. That's just how I feel." Wendt confirmed, saying, "I feel like that's normal and I feel like you get those connections all the time where if you take away our outside world and just put Ashley and me on an island together, we'd probably get along really well. And that's what Vermont was."

This celebrity break-up happened after a very short relationship.

What are some ways to know your relationship doesn't have longevity early on?

Cupid's Advice:

For the most part, we want the relationships we enter to last. Sometimes there are signs to look out for to tell if the relationship is most likely going to hit a dead end down the line. Cupid has a few red flags to share, get ready for some relationship advice:

1. Lack of trust: Trust is built overtime, but if there is no amount of trust, then the relationship will likely end soon. Trust is essential and can make or break a relationship. Consider the following: do you not trust them because of your own issues or actually because of them? Sometimes we have trouble trusting people, not because of what they do or the way they are, but because of what we've been through before them. This is something to consider before you go crazy over not trusting them, and thinking your relationship won't last. However, at the end, you need to learn to trust those who have earned it.

2. You can't agree on anything: There are certain things you should be agreeing on. It's okay to have differences in opinion, but if you can't agree on things like goals and the future, then this is a red flag. There should be some similarities when it comes to the important stuff. To add on, when disagreeing on things, the situation shouldn't get out of hand. You should be able to approach and get through the conversation calmly, not always ending in a fight— so this is something else to also look out for.

3. Commitment issues: The inability to fully commit to you and the relationship is an obvious red flag. But that is not the only thing we mean when we say commitment issues. There are other things to look out for. If you notice that your partner in general has an inability to commit to things, then that's a possible red flag that you guys won't work out. In a successful relationship, we need consistency and devotion. If your partner isn't dedicated, responsible, or is unable to pull through with their obligations, then it's a definite bad sign. We need someone we can count on at the end of the day.

Harry & Meghan Markle to Marry

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, the Queen has spoken! According to UsMagazine.com, Queen Elizabeth II gave her formal approval for royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle to tie the knot. In a formal statement on Wednesday, the Queen said: "I declare my consent to a contract of matrimony between my most dearly beloved grandson Prince Henry Charles Albert David of Wales and Rachel Meghan Markle, which I consent I am causing to be signified under the Great Seal and to be entered in the books of the Privy Council." So yeah, it's official! We are as excited as you are about this upcoming celebrity wedding.

It looks like this royal celebrity wedding has been blessed by the Queen! What are some ways to get your family on board with your choice in a partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're serious about your partner, you definitely want your fam's approval. Cupid has a few ways on how to go about that:

1. Discuss your relationship with them: Communication is always essential in any situation. And it goes both ways. Not only should you speak to your family about your partner, your relationship, and the future, but you should also listen to what they have to say in response. If you want them to consider what you're saying, then you should do the same. And remember, express yourself as clearly as possible.

2. Avoid being defensive: This isn't always easy, but not being defensive can help avoid a fight. Remain calm and grounded, even if they are being unreasonable. Why? Because you shouldn't stoop down to that level – it won't lead anywhere good. Take deep breaths if necessary. Your family should not be putting you down, and you shouldn't be putting them down either. Respond to their concerns, and don't make them feel like their opinions aren't valid.

3. Have them spend quality time with your partner: You can all part-take in activities together, especially ones your family loves. Also, make sure your partner understands how important it is for your family and them to get along. The time spent together should be respectful and fun. Give your family the chance to get to know your boyfriend or girlfriend, and vice versa.

Celebrity Wedding? Michael Cera Sparks Wedding Rumors with Gold Band

By Jessica Gomez

Making celebrity news is Michael Cera. According to EOnline.com, he was spotted over the weekend along side a woman named Nadine, both wearing gold bands. Is this celebrity

couple married? Did we miss their celebrity wedding? And, according to UsMagazine.com, a source said that Cera is indeed now married. Cera keeps his personal life private, so of course his rep had no comment on the marriage speculations.

We're not sure if a celebrity wedding has happened or not in this case. What are some reasons to keep your wedding under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Some people are more private than others, and it may not make sense to open up your marriage to public scrutiny. Cupid has some reasons to keep it quiet:

1. You just don't want people in your biz: Some people are really private about their lives and want precious moments like these to be kept within closed doors at first, whether they're famous or not. So if you're on the end of not receiving wedding news, don't take offense. Some people are just real private about their business! And if you're the type of person that wants to keep things on the down-low, have no shame, it's your big day.

2. You're shy or an introvert: Shy and introverted people sometimes cannot handle being in a room full of people being the center of attention – it's too much for them. If this is the case, you may not want a lot of attention, so you would keep your wedding quiet for a bit. So yeah, it makes sense for you to keep your wedding quiet.

3. You're eloping: Secrecy is sometimes romantic? Sometimes we do find ourselves in a situation we never thought we would be in. Maybe the fam doesn't approve? Maybe you just can't wait to get married? Or maybe you're trying to get out of testifying in court against your lover like Blair did with Chuck in Gossip Girl! Winks

Celebrity News: Find Out Why Amy Schumer Is Not Changing Her Last Name Post-Marriage

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Amy Schumer is not taking her hubby's last name. According to UsMagazine.com, the comedian decided to not take Chris Fischer's last name sometime after their celebrity wedding last month. "I'm not Amy Fischer! Do you remember who Amy Fisher is? The Long Island Lolita. No, I'm keeping my last name. I'm keeping your last name," Schumer said after her new husband asked her if she was changing her last name. The conversation was posted on her Instagram story, which involved her father – seems Schumer keeps a joking mind for everything, even when it comes to the newlywed celebrity couple. According to UsMagazine.com, she was referring to Amy Fisher, a then-17-year-old who shot her lover Joey Buttafuoco's wife, Mary Jo Buttafuoco, in the face in Long Island in May 1992. Mary Jo survived and Amy Fisher was sentenced to five to 15 years in prison. After six years in prison, she was granted parole.

In celebrity news, Amy Schumer has decided against changing her last name to match her husband's. What are some things to consider before you change your name?

It just happens that way. Some people want to be traditional and take their spouses last name, others don't, while others are on the fence. For those of you who are undecided or are up to be swayed, here are options to consider before changing your last name to your spouse's in order to keep your identity and have your family name live on:

1. Consider all the paperwork: The paperwork process can possibly make you want to pull your hair out. It is extremely tedious. The process involves going to the Social Security Office and the DMV. You would also have to make lots of phone calls, and no, not to your friends and fam. You would have to call your credit card's companies and any other accounts you have open with your current name. This is not to scare you, just keep this in mind.

Related Link: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

2. Consider adding their last name instead of just changing yours: Many people opt out for this option. Instead of completely changing their last name, they just meet somewhere in the middle and add their spouse's last name to theirs with a hyphen, or use their last name as a middle name and their partner's last name as that. This is a good option for people who are on the fence. Paperwork still has to be done of course, but if you don't care about it, then this may be for you.

Their Wedding Day

3. Consider creating a new last name for the both of you: This could be a good option for couples who want to either be super fair or just hate both of their last names. This is something that can be made legal. Either both come up with a last name together or mix both of yours together somehow. And again, paperwork needs to get done for this and any type of changes in name.

Celebrity Baby News: Khloe Kardashian Celebrates Tristan Thompson's Birthday After Lavish Baby Shower

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Khloe Kardashian and Tristan Thompson had a fun, busy Saturday. The baby shower took place at the Bel Air Hotel's Garden Ballroom, joined by friends and family. A source confirmed that the parents-to-be of a new celebrity baby girl were joined by Kendall and Kylie Jenner, Kylie's best friend Jordyn Woods, Kourtney Kardashian and her boyfriend Younes Bendjima, mom Kris Jenner and her boyfriend Corey Gamble, Tristan's teammates LeBron James (who showed up with his wife Savannah) and Kevin Love and Jordan Clarkson, singer Justine Skye, family friends Kyle Richards and husband Mauricio Umansky, and Thompson's mom Andrea Thompson. What a celebration!

In celebrity baby news, Khloe enjoyed a baby shower while also celebrating her partner's birthday. What are some ways to balance celebrations in your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating two events in a day can create some very busy energy, but that doesn't make it any less fun! Cupid has some ideas on ways to maintain the balance between both family celebrations:

1. Plan ahead and thoroughly: One event takes time to plan, so imagine two. You don't want to stress yourself out. Ask for help planning if needed. There are many things to consider when planning, so make an agenda and get started when possible. When planning both events side by side, you are more likely to keep them balanced as well.

Related Link: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

2. Make the events equal in size: Of course this depends on what type of events you are coordinating, but if you want to create two balanced ones on the same day, without one event outshining the other, it could be a good idea to make them the same size. When thinking of size, you should consider guest lists, themes, decorations, amount of food, etc. Again, this depends on the type of events.

Related Link: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

3. Schedule properly: Time management is important. One event should be during the day and the other in the evening, ideally. Plan accordingly by scheduling the events at specific times for specific time periods, with enough room to change clothes if necessary and traveling. There should be a reasonable gap in between, so in order to consider this properly, the events should be on a somewhat tight schedule for the best, stress free results.

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez put their relationship on hold due to her family's disapproval of Bieber, according to UsMagazine.com. "Selena and Justin decided to take a break mainly because of Selena's mom and her disapproval of Justin," a source said. "Justin's family loves Selena, but Selena's family has put her in a very conflicting spot because they still don't trust Justin. Selena has tried to convince her family that Justin has changed ... but her family just isn't budging right now." Because Gomez's relationship with Mommy Dearest was affected after she got back with Bieber, there is tons of pressure and negativity in the air. "It's been hard for her because she is super close with her mom. Her mom was her rock when she was having her health complications," the source added. "Justin and Selena decided to take a break to give her family some more time to heal and take in the idea of her and Justin being a couple again." Let's see what happens in this messy situation.

This celebrity break-up is said to be sparked by Selena's mom. What are some ways to deal with a parent who doesn't like your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Being with and loving someone who your fam does not approve of can be stressful and just plain hard. Cupid has some love

advice on things to consider and how to deal with a parent not liking your partner:

1. Consider if your partner is worth the fight: This may sound harsh, but if you're close to your family, you have to evaluate this. Is this person for right now or are you guys both thinking long-term? You have to assess the seriousness of your relationship before you go jumping through hoops for a person that may not be there in the not-so-distant future.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Justin Bieber Celebrates 24th Birthday Without Selena Gomez

2. Communicate with your family and partner: If you're serious about your partner, then you have to talk with both parties about the situation. First talk to your fam. Express to them your feelings about the person and relationship, and don't forget to include how the disapproval is affecting you. Do the same with your partner –discuss your feelings about them and your family, along with the way their disapproval of them is affecting you and your relationship. Sometimes it will take more than communicating, but communicating constantly is important.

3. Take some time apart if needed: This may not work for everyone, but it may work for Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber, we'll see. Taking a break isn't ideal for every relationship, so you must know if it is something that is convenient and can help yours. Taking time apart may show your family that you really care about their opinions and it can even show them how you are affected by not being with your partner. This should not be taken as a sign of submission, but as a way to cope in the meantime.

Cupid's Advice:

No relationship is perfect, we must know this. When problems arise, we must face them head on in order to make our relationship work. Cupid has some love advice on how to get past those rough patches:

1. Communicate effectively: You will always get this dandy piece of advice when it comes to relationships! Communicating effectively is essential. The important thing is to listen intently, process what your partner is saying, consider their stance and feelings, and discuss your side of it as clearly and patiently as possible.

2. Never disrespect: Respect is similar to trust in the fact that once you disrespect someone, it opens up a whole world of problems like when you no longer trust someone. Always be considerate of your partner's point of view and feelings. If you care about someone deeply, why disrespect them. Sometimes this is easier said than done, because things can get heated. The key is to stay as relaxed as humanly possible and try to work things out with your other half.

3. Take space if needed: Jelena has the right idea here. Sometimes a couple just needs space. If this is the case, it is important that you both agree on it before taking this step. Create “guidelines” so that you are both on the same page and know what to expect during this period.
