Cupid's Advice:

One of the earliest decisions you make during pregnancy is whether or not to find out the sex of the baby. Cupid has some advice as to why you would want to find out whether your baby is a boy or a girl:

1. Decorating the nursery: You can go with neutral colors (white or yellow) if you'd like, but many people like to go traditional (pink or blue). A nursery is a place you want to have done and prepared by the time your baby arrives. Therefore, you want to finish it early, well before the due date. When deciding on decorating options, you may be one of those parents who would want to take the sex of your baby into consideration, so be sure before making final decisions.

However, when creating a registry, you may need to know the baby's sex in order to choose the items you want or need to add. onto the list. Also, you may not want to keep your baby shower attendees in the dark when they're celebrating and showering your bundle of joy with presents – the suspense may make them go nuts, you never know!

3. Choosing a baby name will take longer: And it would be harder, too. You can save yourself half the time by finding out the sex of your baby – And also save yourself half the hassle. Imagine not knowing, therefore having to choose both a boy name and girl name. It's already hard enough coming to an agreement with your partner. Cupid's Advice:

A new relationship is exciting, and although many of us want privacy, we don't want secrecy. In a world where social media is what seems to connect us the most, it is one of the main platforms where people share big news. Cupid has some tips on cute, creative ways to announce your new relationship via social media:

1. PDA post of an awesome date: Showing some PDA during a creative date with your girl or beau is super cute! And it's a creative way to briefly show the type of couple you are, so pick the right "stage" for your photo. Some fun adorable dates to choose from are: going for a romantic swim or boat ride, camping, a picnic, taking a class together (any kind), a getaway or road trip, and DIY project you are both working on. The list is endless! If the pressure of a photo of you both on a date is a little too much for you, you can also try taking an adorable, endearing photo or a stunning one of you both side by side looking your best – talk about couple goals! Ariana Grande and Mac Miller took the endearing approach, posting a cuddled up photo, while Elon Musk and Amber Heard went for the looking beautiful together.

2. A photo of your other half taken by you: You can also post a random photo you've taken of your lover for a shocking affect, have your followers like "What?!" Imagine, a random photo of someone else popping up on your news feed, to then realize who it was posted by – Cute. Celebrity couple Zachary Quinto and Miles McMillan took a similar approach when Quinto posted a photo of McMillan staring right at the camera along with a caption on missing him. Adorbs!

Other ways to do it are to snap photos of your hands or a photo taken of your back sides, let people guess who you're with, if you're into it.

Celebrity News: Larry Nassar Sentenced to 175 Years In Prison in Sexual Abuse Case

By

Jessica Gomez

In latest celebrity news, Larry Nassar, former USA Gymnastics doctor, has been sentenced to 175 years in prison in his sexual abuse case, according to UsMagazine.com.com. Nassar appeared in court on Wednesday, January 25 for this sentencing hearing. More than 150 victims came forward to describe the abuse and manipulation they endured from him. Nassar said the following before his sentencing: “Your words these past several days have had a significant emotional effect on myself,” he said, speaking to his victims. “I recognize that what I’m feeling pales in comparison to the pain, trauma and emotional destruction that all of you have felt. There are no words to describe the depth and breadth of how sorry I am for what has occurred. I will carry your words with me for the rest of my days.” However, last week he said that the painful recalls of the women he abused are harmful to his health. The judge dismissed his statement, saying, “You may find it harsh that you are here listening. But nothing is as harsh as what your victims endured for thousands of hours at your hands.”

This celebrity news has our hearts heavy that so many women were abused. What are some ways to take action if you feel you've been abused?

Cupid's Advice:

Every 98 seconds, an American is sexually assaulted. Nine out of 10 victims are female, and one out of every six American women has been the victim of an attempted or completed rape in her lifetime – every eight minutes, that victim is a child. Meanwhile, only six out of every 1,000 perpetrators will end up in prison. These statistics are from RAINN, and they only include cases in United States. Sexual violence is a horrific issue all over the globe. Cupid has some advice on how to fight all sorts of sexual violence including sexual abuse, sexual assault, and rape:

1. Do not blame yourself: Many women believe that they could have done something differently to avoid what happened to them. Blaming yourself only perpetuates rape culture. It is not okay for anyone to touch anyone that doesn't want to be touched. Women have harmed themselves emotionally and physically after facing sexual violence. Victims must brave through their trauma and know that the only person to blame is the abuser.

Related Link: Harvey Weinstein Lied About Having Intimate Relations with Gwyneth Paltrow

2. Don't be afraid, speak up: If you stay quiet, your abuser will get away with their vicious act. Some women just want to forget that it happened, and so they stay silent and carry on with their lives. This approach does not work for many, and it for sure will not stop your abuser from doing it to someone else. Reach out to authority figures if you've experienced sexual violence. It's time that all victims come forward with their stories in order to fight these heinous crimes that have been occurring globally, since the dawn of time.

3. Ask for help: There is no shame in reaching out for help. Therapy and support groups are there to help victims. Having friends and family as support is also important. Having trouble coping with your experience is normal. Sometimes having a support system is crucial in a time of need, so get the help you need without any embarrassment or shame.

Celebrity news reveals that Miranda Lambert still has some things to say in regards to her celebrity ex Blake Shelton. According to UsMagazine.com, during the opening night of her Livin' Like Hippies tour, Lambert deliberately changed the lyrics in her song "Little Red Wagon" from "I live in Oklahoma" to "I got the hell out of Oklahoma". Luckily, they seem to be happy with each other.

In this celebrity news, Miranda Lambert is moving on, even in her lyrics. What are some steps you can take to move on from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on from your ex can be tough, especially because they used to be such a big part of your life. For some people, it's hard to get over that quickly. If you are one of those people, Cupid has some tips that can help you to move on from your ex:

1. Cut off contact: First and foremost, make sure that you have cut off all contact from your ex. Delete their number so you don't have the urge to text them. Don't spend time longingly stalking their Instagram page. It makes it so much harder to get over your ex if you're still in contact with them, because the whole point of trying to get over them means you are trying to get them out of your mind.

2. Make peace: Accept what happened. Truly accept it. Even if the relationship ended badly, try to be happy about the good experiences that you got from it. Then, accept that this chapter of your life is over and there are more amazing pages to turn in your book that will surprise you with further happiness and love.

3. Love yourself more: The perfect time to better yourself is when you are going through a break-up. Realize that you are amazing and begin to enjoy the time that you get to spend with yourself. Self-forgiveness is also very important to embrace during the time of a break-up. Relationships help us to uncover aspects of ourselves that we may not have shown before. Take time to examine some great personal achievements from this time. Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Alum Rachel Lindsay Reveals the Most Awkward Part of Finding Love on Reality TV

By

Jessica Gomez

Bachelorette alum Rachel Lindsay opened up about the most awkward part of finding love on a reality TV show, according to EOnline.com. And, it's not necessarily what you would expect. Lindsay got engaged to Bryan Abasolo in 2017 on the finale of her Bachelorette season. The celebrity couple do not have a definite date for their celebrity wedding as of yet, but what Lindsay believes is the weirdest part of the process is the moment the show is over and the cameras stop rolling. "I tell people the most awkward day is the day the cameras go off. Not even your first date. It's like, 'I've been proposed to.' It's this amazing experience. And then they're like, 'That's a wrap.' Like, show's done, and then you're just standing with each other," the bride-to-be explained. "And once we got past that, everything else was a breeze... Because you don't know if the person is really the same person they showed you on camera – and I think that's what's scary."

This celebrity news shows that there are awkward moments even when it comes to finding love on TV. What are some ways to reduce those awkward moments on your quest to finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Oh, the journey of finding love, how wonderful and scary it can be. Alas, not to worry, Cupid has some advice on reducing awkward moments that could be avoided with a few steps:

1. Don't rush: Take things at a good pace – not too fast, not too slow. When rushing into things, we often miss signs that we should be looking out for in order to avoid making the mistake of further pursuing a relationship or to avoid certain awkward moments. Things should happen in their own time and not be rushed by you or the other person. Love isn't a race, it takes time. You need to learn the way the person is and the way your new relationship is in order to avoid negativity and awkwardness. After that, then the trust needs to roll in, which is why taking things steady is many times a good idea.

Related Link: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Couple Carly Waddell & Evan Bass Reveal Name of Baby-to-Be

2. Don't try too hard: Impress others, but don't stop being yourself. Pretending to be someone you're not is bound to end in an awkward moment. It's important to put energy into trying to putting your best foot forward and being the best version of yourself. However, in the process, make sure to stay true to yourself. Don't let your mind roam too far, causing you to act out of desperation. It's understandable to maybe not want to be your whole, total self – just remember to not stray away from what really makes you you. Insecurities can easily pop up when you're playing a role that isn't like you.

3. Don't worry: Like said before, love and relationships take time. Sometimes certain concerns creep up on us and we become worrywarts. The unknown can be terrifying, and you may not feel completely comfortable because of that. However, don't let unvalidated feelings take over. Get to know the person without judging them from past experiences you've had that have nothing to do with them. As time passes by, you will also build emotional intimacy, which should ease the worrying due to having a more open relationship with one another.

Celebrity Getaway: Scott Disick & Sofia Richie Enjoy PDA on Mexican Vacation

By

Jessica Gomez

Kourtney Kardashian's ex Scott Disick and girlfriend Sofia Richie were all lovey dovey during their celebrity vacation in Mexico, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple posted photos on Instagram. Both were having fun and a ton of PDA was going on. According to a source, the couple is very happy, always have fun, and were making out and all over one another often during the vacay.

This celebrity getaway is getting steamy. What are some things to consider when it comes to public displays of affection?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is a controversial topic. Some people are fine with it, and some people are hardcore against it. There are different levels of PDA, from holding hands to make out sessions and butt grabbing – so different levels call for different measures. Cupid has some tips on things you should consider when it comes to public displays of affection:

1. Are there kids around?: This matters depending on the level of PDA of course. Are you just kissing one another innocently or is it to the point of someone telling you to get a room? Children are innocent and you wouldn't want to influence them in a particular way, especially if they aren't your kids.

2. Are you making others uncomfortable?: Generally, we are told to not care about what others think. However, it can be annoying when a group of friends are hanging out, and there's that couple all over each other the whole time. Do as you please, but try to keep in mind whether or not you're overdoing it. Everything in moderation.

3. The place: PDA stands for public displays of affection (as we all know), but certain public places may be more acceptable than others. For example: work, school, a funeral home, children's playgrounds, and hospitals are obvious places where most people would agree couples should stray away from intense PDA. So just keep your eyes open and be aware of your surroundings, and of course pay attention to the level of PDA.

1. Delete, delete, delete: In this digital age, we are connected to everyone digitally. Do yourself a favor and unfollow, delete, and/or even block your ex on all social media platforms. 2. Establish roles: Establish expectations. Parents play many roles, but one of the most important roles that should be decided is the disciplinary role. We all dream of being on the 'Bachelor' and being handed that rose, but like Arie, there are many times we can doubt the true intentions of someone. A lot of people will try and use someone in Arie's situation for their own personal gain, so how can you remain secure in others' advances? Read Cupid's dating advice:

1. They seek you out often: Arie was driven by Chelsea's relentless pursuit of him. It's confidence-boosting when someone keeps coming after you. There's another Fixer Upper celebrity baby on the way! What are some ways to be sure you give attention to each of your children when you have a big family?

Cupid's Advice:

Big families are tons of fun! At times, it can be overwhelming, but there's never a lack of excitement. It's normal for children to feel deprived of attention in larger families, so if you're looking for ways to help find the balance, check out these tips from Cupid:

1. One-on-one time: Sometimes, all your kids really want is some quality time with you and your partner. Consider giving each of your children one day a month (or whatever works for your schedule) to spend the whole day with you. Make the day about them and give them the chance to choose what they want to do! They'll totally appreciate the quality time with you or with your partner.

2. Emphasize group activities: Group activities are always a wonderful way to include everyone! Whether you play a game together, bake a bunch of cookies, or visit a local park, there are plenty of ways to spend equal amounts of time with all of your kids. Plus, these activities are big memory makers that are cherished long down the road.

3. Manage your schedules: If you have a large family, it's important to figure out a schedule that works. You should always encourage your kids to try new things and be ambitious, though you also have to be practical. Too many extracurricular commitments will hinder the time spent with each of your children. If your schedule seems overwhelming, perhaps one activity at a time is a good option!

According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple is “praising God for this beautiful gift” and hopes that fans and supporters will “join us in praying for a safe and healthy pregnancy.” Though Jinger comes from a large family, the reality star and her husband have both kept quiet on how big they want their family to be! Regardless, we are very excited about this celebrity baby news. Congratulations to the Vuolo family!

This celebrity baby news isn't exactly surprising, but we're happy for the couple! What are some ways your relationship changes when you have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

A baby brings lots of changes to you and your partner's relationship. If you're apprehensive about the jump from two to three, you're not alone! Being aware of the changes is helpful, so here's what Cupid has to say:

1. Imbalanced effort: You and your partner might experience growing pains when it comes to divvying up your parental duties. The laundry and bottle washing will seem endless at times! With two of you and one of them, it's certainly challenging to figure out a system that works for each other. It can be done, though!

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amy Duggar's Parents Are Divorcing

2. Drained energy: Your new bundle of joy doesn't come with a concept of time, so late-late nights and early mornings are inevitable. Both you and your partner will have a lack of energy when it comes to your relationship. While you know what you should be doing for each other, sometimes you just won't feel up to it. Recognize the importance of affirmations and making time for each other, though! You two need to lean on each other in this new chapter of your lives.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Jessa Duggar and Ben Seewald Reveal Newborn Son's Name

3. Hindered intimacy: Similar to strained energy, there will certainly be hindered intimacy between you and your partner. The desire to sleep will sometimes (okay, more than sometimes) overpower your desire for intimacy. That is normal – most couples struggle with this! Try your best to keep the romance alive. Start small, and you'll be back to your pre-baby selves in no time at all!

Celebrity News: Brad Pitt is Casually Dating as He Adjusts to Single Life as a Dad

By

Rachel Sparks

According to E!Online.com, the celebrity news is that Brad Pitt is slowly dipping his toes into the celebrity dating pool. The 46-year old actor is adapting to being single and seeing his family. Pitt stays busy by meeting with his large group of guy friends, none of them in the business, riding his motorcycle, and having regular dinner and lunch meetings. Though Pitt doesn't see his six kids as much as he wants, he has been filling his time with family, including going back to his Missouri and Oklahoma roots. As far as dating? This recently divorced celebrity says it's complicated and not a priority.

This celebrity news shows us celebs aren't immune to having to adjust. What are some ways to know you're ready to get back into the dating scene when you have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Balance is key when you're a single parent. You have to make sure you balance the demands of your career with the demands of your family. Maintaining a house, both the operations and finances, alone can be a challenge. Somewhere in there, of course, you need to be able to take care of yourself. Here's Cupid's dating advice to help you get ready for dating again:

1. Balance career: If you were the main bread-winner, maintaining the house and investing in your family was on the back burner because you had someone else helping you. When suddenly your support is gone, having the mental and physical energy to still invest in your career in addition to your new responsibilities can be daunting. Make sure your career is in a place where you can take some focus away and instead invest in yourself and a relationship.

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt Agree to Seal Divorce Documents

2. Are your kids ready: With a large brood of kids like Brad Pitt, getting back into dating can be a lot harder. Each age range of childhood processes divorce differently, so each child will vary on their resistance to a parent returning to dating. As a parent, be ready for that resistance, but make sure you're caring for your children, too.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt Are Talking Again

3. Length of relationship: Depending on the length of your marriage, you may need more time to cope post-divorce. Shared affairs, such as mortgages and finances, can be hard to unravel and separate. Aside from that, the emotional aspect of becoming suddenly single can be a shock. As fun as dating can be again, if you're looking for something more serious, consider giving yourself the adequate amount of time to heal and the appropriate length of courting before claiming a relationship is serious.

As a single parent, how have you decided when it was the right time to start dating again? Share your dating advice below!
