This celebrity break-up really wasn't that shocking. What are some ways to know you're not a good match with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak is real, but it comes as a result of realizing the person you're dating just isn't for you. If you're wondering whether or not your partner is a good match, check out some of Cupid's advice below:

1. Differences and similarities: Although they say opposites attract, there is such a thing as too many differences. If it gets to a point where you realize that the differences between you two are starting to take a toll on your relationship (and result in frequent arguments), it might be a sign that you're not the best match. Differences in morals, attitudes, and personalities can be an on-going conflict in relationships, so make sure to pay attention.

2. Comfort level: Ideally, you would like to feel completely comfortable around your significant other, right? But... what if this isn't the case, and you can't imagine yourself ever getting particularly comfortable around them? This would be a cause for concern. Your partner should be someone that never judges you, so if you feel like this isn't the case, it may be something you need to think about.

3. Think forward: Do you see yourself having a future with this person? If you are dating seriously, it's important to think forward about whether or not you think things will last.

If they have qualities that you personally don't want in a longterm partner, this could be a sign that you two aren't a great match. Although it's fun to casually date as well, you need to keep in mind what you would like to get out of the relationship.

Celebrity Couple News: Channing Tatum Recalls 'Cruel' Proposal Tactic

By Melissa Lee

Channing Tatum recently reflected on his plan to propose to his now wife, Jenna Dewan Tatum, which ended up being... well, pretty cruel. According to UsMagazine.com, Tatum wanted to propose in 2008 but when he thought his wife was onto him, he tried to throw her off. "I basically told her I never wanted to get married," Tatum reveals. "I told her, 'I don't believe in the institution of marriage and I don't think I ever want to get married.'" She basically broke down crying." Apparently Dewan Tatum's reaction broke his heart, because he realized he had to propose sooner than later. Thankfully, she said yes, and the celebrity couple have been married since 2009.

This celebrity couple news has us shaking our heads at Channing Tatum. What are some ways to throw your partner off the scent when you're about to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're attempting to keep your proposal a secret, there are better ways to do so instead of taking your partner on an emotional rollercoaster (sorry, Channing!). Head below for some of Cupid's advice on throwing your lover off when it comes to the big proposal:

1. Stay quiet: Instead of bringing up any hints of marriage or proposing, just stay silent about the topic. This way you aren't even bringing the thought to their attention, plus it'll make it seem like you aren't even thinking about it. Don't do this for too long, though – you don't want to pull a Channing and have your partner think that you're not even interested in getting married!

2. Make it a complete surprise: Try to surprise your partner with the proposal by having them think you're doing something simple. For example, take them out on a date night and then propose at the end of the night, making it a memorable yet quaint night. You could also go on a weekend getaway and plan a romantic surprise, catching them off guard entirely.

3. Do it when they're least expecting: On the other hand, you could also propose when they're least expecting it. Make your partner breakfast in bed and pop the question just as they're done digging in. If your lover is into a more simple approach, surprise proposals would be picture perfect.

Plus, when the time is right, it'll open an opportunity to becoming friends again.

According to EOnline.com, Frankel and Shields started dating back in 2015, and even though Frankel has been since romantically linked to business owner Russ Theriot, it seems like nothing could tear this celebrity couple apart.

This celebrity couple news proves that exes can rekindle their relationship! What are some factors to consider before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Before you bite the bullet and start dating your former ex-partner, there are a few things you should be considering. If you're in the same position as Bethenny or Dennis, check out Cupid's advice to help you make the right choice:

1. So, why'd you break up in the first place?: It's important to reflect on the former relationship as a whole and weigh the pros and cons. More importantly, why did you break up before? Is the issue something that has been solved, or is it still on-going? Everyone understands how tough break-ups can be (and how, in some cases, you may just want to skip it altogether and start dating again) but you should definitely make sure that the problems from the first relationship aren't going to continue.

2. Right reasons: Ask yourself this – are you getting back together for the right reasons? Is it because you're sad and you miss having a partner, or is it because you're deeply in love with this person and you believe you belong together? Don't misinterpret sadness or hurt as reasoning to begin dating again.

3. Is it what you truly, really want?: The most crucial factor to remember – and reflect on – is if this is really what you want. When getting back together with someone, you have to have the upmost trust that this time it will work. If you don't feel that this will be a lasting relationship due to occurring issues from the last time, then maybe it isn't right. As cheesy as it may be sound, listen to your instincts and go with your gut.

2. Enforce boundaries: At the same time, it’s crucial to have some limits when being friends with an ex. Lines can get blurred at times, especially if you’re just trying to stay friends. An example of an important boundary to have is not hanging out one-on-one all the time. Base these limitations on your comfort levels with one another, and you should be good to go.

Celebrity Break-Up: Anna Faris Opens Up About Split from Chris Pratt

By Melissa Lee

Earlier in the week, former Hollywood celebrity couple Anna Faris and Chris Pratt announced that they were separating from one another. Though the news was revealed via social media, Faris finally broke her silence after opening up on her podcast, Unqualified. She offered relationship advice to one heartbroken listener, eventually hinting at her own situation with Pratt. People.com reported that Faris found herself feeling lost in relationships, explaining that one should always know their worth and independence.

This celebrity break-up has left Hollywood shocked and sad. What are some factors to consider when it comes to independence in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

After eight years of marriage, coming to terms with divorce must have been a hard pill to swallow for both Anna and Chris. It seems like a lot of the issues stemmed from Anna's struggle to understand her independence in the relationship. If this situation sounds familiar to you, head below to read some of Cupid's tips:

1. Try not to lose yourself: In serious relationships, it can become increasingly difficult not to lose sight of the person you are at heart. At times, we may find ourselves changing our likes and dislikes (among other things) simply due to our partner. While there's nothing wrong with change, you should always remember who you are. You should know your boundaries, in addition to knowing when you've changed too much. At the end of the day, you should always recognize the person you are.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Carly Waddell & Evan Bass Discuss Surprise Pregnancy

2. Do things on your own: Going out to eat, trips to the super market, and walks in the park are always fun to do with your sweetheart, but that doesn't mean you should do everything with them. If you are constantly performing tasks and going places with your partner – and find yourself having difficulty doing the same things by yourself – you may be losing your independence as a human being. While it's enjoyable to have company when doing mundane tasks, you should still be taking the time to embrace your independence by doing things on your own as well.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: 'Flip or Flop' Star Christina El Moussa Officially Files for Divorce from Tarek

3. Never stop working on yourself: A common misconception is that it's harder to grow as a person when you are in a relationship. This can be true at times, but that's usually because you're not putting the work in. Regardless of the relationship you find yourself in, you should never stop working on yourself. You should always take the time to do beneficial things for yourself, along with putting yourself first every now and then.
