

Celebrity Couple News: Jennifer Lawrence Opens Up About Relationship with Darren Aronofsky

By

Marissa Donovan

Jennifer Lawrence recently shared her feelings towards director and boyfriend Darren Aronofsky. According to an interview with Vogue.com, she felt connected to the director immediately and explained that she does not feel confused while dating him as she did in past relationships. The Hunger Games star seems to be in love with the Mother! director.

This celebrity couple has a 22-year age difference. What are some things to consider about age when it comes to dating?

Cupid's Advice:

For some people age is just a number, but others find that a difference may come with challenges. Here are some things to consider when there's an age difference between you and your partner:

1. Different outlooks: Age gaps in relationships may define each of your perspectives when it comes to life. The older person in the relationship may see the world from a different lens than the younger person. Outlook can shape a relationship and hopefully you and your partner can sometimes see eye to eye.

2. Separate tastes in humor: Like an outlook, humor might be different between you and your partner when it comes to age. Sometimes you or your partner may laugh at something that the other person may feel is insensitive or not amusing. Laughter helps a relationship, but surely you can both find something to giggle over.

3. Criticism from others: The most popular problem of an age difference while dating is what others say. It's up to you and your partner to decide whether it will effect your relationship negatively or not. As long as you both care for each other, then to try make it work!

Celebrity Vacation: Kourtney Kardashian & Younes Benjima Vacation in Egypt

By

Marissa Donovan

Kourtney Kardashian went on another vacation with her boyfriend Younes Benjima. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple traveled to Cairo, Egypt and enjoyed riding camels and basking in the sun. The celebrity couple have previously been seen together in Cannes in May. Who knows where the couple will travel to next!

This celebrity vacation is one for the books! What are some unique places to vacation with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many options when it comes to traveling with your partner. For a unique experience, try visiting these locations:

1. Sardinia, Italy: People often visit Florence, Verona, and other popular cities in Italy, but try visiting this island for beautiful landscapes and hiking adventures. You might even enjoy some chocolate on your visit.

Celebrity Exes Rob Kardashian & Blac Chyna Are 'Working Toward a Resolution'

By

Marissa Donovan

Will the drama finally end for Rob Kardashian and Blac Chyna? It sound like things might be turning around for these celebrity exes! According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity parents are trying to coparent their daughter Dream. It has been challenging due to the restraining order Chyna has against Kardashian. The celebrity parents both have nannies that take turns watching their daughter, which makes the situation a bit easier. Chyna's attorney is currently trying to help find a agreement that the two can agree to.

These celebrity exes and parents to daughter Dream are trying to get on the same page. What are some ways to keep things civil for the sake of your children?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to put your kids first, no matter how you get along with your ex. Cupid has some advice:

1. Don't bring up personal issues: Even though you may be on bad terms with your ex, do not bad mouth them to your child. Save your upset feeling for private chats with friends. Trying to let your child be on "your side" will make things unfair in the long run.

Celebrity News : 'Bachelorette' Rachel Lindsay Picks Her Man in Finale

By

Marissa Donovan

Rachel Lindsay has chosen her final guy! During the last episode of The Bachelorette, Bryan Abasolo proposed to Lindsay on a hill and then repurposed during the live final. According to UsMagazine.com, Lindsay confessed that she had been confused and trying to find flaws in her relationship with Abasolo. The two seem very happy and are currently trying to build a future together.

In this celebrity news, a Bachelorette wedding may be in the works down the line. What are some ways to know you've chosen the right partner for you?

Cupid's Advice:

Like Lindsay, it sometimes takes many dates to find the one for you. Here are some signs you have met your match:

1. You feel comfortable and excited at the same time: If the person you are dating makes you feel a mixture of comfort and excitement all at once, then you have found someone that could be a good fit for you! These two emotions can fuel chemistry between the both of you, which can help make dates last for hours.

Relationship Advice: Are Guilty Pleasures Okay?

By

Dr. Jane Greer

The pursuit of happiness is an inherent right, as stated in the Declaration of Independence. And yet, everyone grapples with pleasure in one way or another, encountering stumbling blocks along the way. Gina Rodriguez, star of the popular television show Jane The Virgin, recently admitted in celebrity news that she used to feel extremely guilty about masturbating. While masturbating is a natural and healthy activity, many people do experience guilt, especially if their religion indicates it is something to stay away from. They might also feel guilty if they are in a relationship, and worry it might be taking away from their being intimate with their partner.

We all want pleasure, but so often feel we “shouldn’t” have it for one reason or another. Guilt and anxiety can become barriers that make finding it elusive, and that is true whether someone is thinking of masturbating, or indulging in a good meal or a favorite dessert, or even taking time away from work and family to go to the spa. Generally, people have a hard time giving themselves permission to participate in self-gratification.

The question is, why does feeling good make so many people feel bad? And even more important, how can you handle the negative feelings so that they don’t spoil the positive ones? Here is some relationship advice:

Of all the pleasures people feel sheepish about, certainly masturbation is one that carries perceived taboos. By the time people have reached sexual maturity, most have explored and discovered what feels good. If they aren’t in a relationship, masturbation will give them the chance to satisfy their sexual desires. If they are, masturbating does not have to take away from the bond they have with their partner but can instead heighten their shared intimacy. But even with this in mind there is often a shameful element to it, as there is with other indulgences. There is this idea of what you should and should not be doing, when in fact, as long as you aren't hurting another person, there is no reason to deny yourself happiness. In fact, it is important to revel in it. We all deal with so many responsibilities and tasks we have to do on a daily basis, from paying the bills to feeding the family to going to work. With that in mind, it is all the more reason to seek out pockets of pleasure that can rejuvenate you and give you the stamina to tolerate all the rest. Here are a few tips for tackling the guilt that may be thwarting your joy.

Related Link: Celebrity Women Who Built Business Empires With Their Husbands

First of all, question the source of your guilt. Are you listening to someone else's voice in your head? Whether it be a parent or a religious figure or someone else, take time to figure out who is telling you that you shouldn't do whatever it is you want to do. Stop that voice in midsentence and replace it with your own beliefs and convictions. Speak up and out for what you deserve and want, as Gina is doing in challenging the social stigma by talking about masturbation.

Next, give yourself permission to find pleasure. Again, as long as you aren't completely shirking your responsibilities or causing harm to another, you have every right to pursue whatever healthy passion calls to you.

Finally, take responsibility for your well-being with the understanding that if you want to indulge it's helpful to set parameters so that you can feel in charge. Consider what you are hoping to do, and set a middle ground that will make you feel better. Meaning, if you engage in behavior that's triggering your guilt – a delicious dessert or masturbating – know that you will do these things and plan ahead so that you have intention, though you may not know when, you know that they will happen. In this way, rather than doing something impulsively where you feel controlled by it, you are making the decisions.

It isn't easy to tackle guilt, but it is possible. In the end, it is important to remember it is okay to feel good. Just as Gina is speaking out and moving beyond the taboos, you can too. In the end though, keep in mind that treating yourself well will have a positive effect on everything you do, and will give you the energy and grounding you need to keep your life running and give back to others.

Celebrity Couple News: Selena Gomez Believes The Weekend Adds Positivity To Her Life

By

Marissa Donovan

Selena Gomez considers boyfriend The Weeknd to be her best friend. According to an interview with Instyle.com, the former Disney star shares that she was easily influenced before when it came to making choices about her life, but those choices were not based on who she was dating. She shares that she dates someone to add to her life, not to complete her. Over the summer, the celebrity couple has been seen at Coachella and celebrating Gomez's 25th birthday. It looks like the music loving couple are really in love!

This happy celebrity couple isn't looking to change each other! What are some ways you can support your partner choices instead of influencing them?

Cupid's Advice:

While being in a relationship, you might come across situations when your partner needs support instead of your input. It's very tricky to be both supportive and honest for your partner, but there are ways to make it work! Check out these ideas for how to be supportive instead of influencing your partner:

1. Hear them out: Your partner may want to change their career path or not want to change their plans for the day. Before responding with your thoughts, ask why and listen to what they have to say. This better your communication skills in your relationship instead of jumping to conclusion about their ideas.

Celebrity Break-Up? 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Amanda Stanton & Robby Hayes Are Still Dating Despite Rumors

By

Melissa Lee

Could there be trouble in Paradise? Despite rumors of Robby Hayes being spotted with another girl, UsMagazine.com reported that this meant nothing when it comes to his relationship with Amanda Stanton. False rumors on social media led people to believe that Hayes had taken a mystery girl to a Zac Brown Band concert, which then led to a celebrity break-up with girlfriend and Bachelor in Paradise co-star Amanda Stanton. The celebrity couple starting dating when they were filming season four of the show.

There's no celebrity break-up where these rumors came from! What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors come and go, but you should never let them affect your relationship, especially if there's no truth to them. Luckily, this couple was able to move past these apparent cheating rumors. If you have a hard time preventing rumors impacting your relationship, check out some of these tips:

1. Talk it out: If you've heard a rumor about your partner, the best thing to do is to simply communicate with them. Try your hardest not to be angry or upset, but rather calmly talk it out and ask where these allegations came from. At that point, it's up to you whether or not to believe them, but above all, it's best not to jump to conclusions.

Celebrity News: Source Says 'Bachelorette' Rachel Lindsay's Break-Up with Runner-Up on Finale Was 'Brutal'

By

Melissa Lee

The finale of The Bachelorette is going to be a tear-jerker for sure. UsMagazine.com reported that Rachel Lindsay, this season's Bachelorette, was torn up until the very end. Even after she broke up with the runner-up, they couldn't say goodbye, and they were both hysterically crying. It was also revealed that it was the worst break-up the show has seen in years, so make sure you grab your tissues before sitting down to watch next week!

This celebrity news has us grabbing the tissues for next week's finale of The Bachelorette. What are some things to keep in mind when it comes to breaking up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The saying, "breaking up is hard to do" isn't a cliché for nothing. Things can get really tough when trying to end things with your partner, so check out some of these tips from Cupid if you've found yourself in the same spot:

1. Be honest: If you have specific reasons for breaking things off with your significant other, the least you can do is be honest with them. By giving them the true reasoning behind the break-up, they will at least be aware of what they did wrong so they can work on it in the future. Plus, it'll help both of you by receiving closure.

Hart has dismissed rumors and is still loyal to Parris. The celebrity parents are expecting their first child together soon and have no plans on parting ways.

In celebrity news, it looks like rumors aren't phasing Kevin and Eniko! What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Like this celebrity couple, try not to let relationship rumors get the best of your relationship. Here are some tips on how you can brush them off as a couple:

1. Find humor in the rumor: Like funny man Kevin Hart, make jokes about how ridiculous the rumor is about your relationship. Making jokes will allow the rumor to not ruin your mood and let you move on from the negativity it tried to cause the both of you.

Celebrity Couple News: Robert Pattinson Says He & FKA Twigs

Are Still 'Kind Of' Engaged

By

Marissa Donovan

Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs are still engaged..."yeah, kind of." According to UsMagazine.com, that was the Twilight star's response when Howard Stern asked about their relationship on his radio broadcast. Pattison praised the singer and also explained that it's been difficult to keep their relationship private due to his fans. Hopefully the two can stay together in hopes of someday having a celebrity wedding!

This celebrity couple news isn't exactly reassuring. What are some ways to know you're ready to get engaged to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Due to some circumstances in your relationship, you may be second guessing if you're ready to get engaged. Here are some signs to reassure that you are ready:

1. You've talked about the future as a couple: Getting engaged is the big step to making future plans become reality. If you have already agreed as a couple on what the future could be for the both of you then getting engaged may a good choice for your relationship.

By

EOnline.com has reported of a speculated romance between

Bachelor in Paradise stars Amanda Stanton and Robby Hayes! The two were spotted in West Hollywood on Saturday night, where they were holding hands as they entered a restaurant. They also attended a Los Angeles Dodgers game alongside Ashley “I” Iaconetti and Jason Treece, before heading to co-star Raven Gates’ birthday party on Sunday. This potential relationship comes after Stanton’s break-up with Josh Murray, which she described as “really, really hard.”

There might be a new celebrity couple in Bachelor Nation! What are some ways to know you’re ready to move on from a volatile relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

After getting out of an emotionally tolling relationship, it can be tough when deciding you’re finally ready to get back in the dating game. Luckily, Stanton is in a place where she is able to find love after her rollercoaster romance with her ex-fiance. Check out some of these tips from Cupid if you’re in a similar position:

1. Take time for yourself: Before jumping into any new romances, take some time to focus on yourself. After being in a frustrating relationship, you owe it to yourself to spend your time improving yourself, whether that be mentally or physically. You need to give yourself the opportunity to healthily move on from this relationship before even thinking about finding someone new to date.

Celebrity News : 'Bachelorette' Rachel Lindsay Debates Between Three Suitors

By

Melissa Lee

In Bachelorette news, Rachel has been picking between her last three suitors, Peter, Eric and Bryan. UsMagazine.com reported that the men met her family, each having a completely different experience. Peter, who openly expressed his objection with proposing to Rachel at the end of the series, found respect from her family, but the episode took a turn when the two were on their date. They found that they couldn't agree on common ground in terms of commitment, causing Rachel to shed some tears. However, when Eric met Rachel's family, he asked her mother for her blessing to propose – and she reluctantly said yes. Eric ended up sweet-talking Rachel on their date, claiming that she was everything he wanted in a wife, and she invited him to the Fantasy Suite that night. And as for Bryan... while Rachel's friends approved, her family did not, and Rachel's mom showed her distaste by assuming his words are insincere.

In this celebrity news, it's down to Rachel's final three suitors! What are some ways to decide between two of your crushes?

Cupid's Advice:

When you feel yourself falling for more than one person, it can be a little tough making a decision. If this situation sounds familiar to you, check out some of this advice from Cupid:

1. Do some self-reflecting: Before taking action, take some time to reflect and think about your situation. Do you already know which one you like more? Have you been leading both people on? Analyze the circumstances before you make a choice, and try to come up with a civil solution that would be most beneficial for all people included.

There's a new Glee-tastic celebrity couple in Hollywood! What are some ways to know you're attracted enough to someone to date them?

Cupid's Advice:

When keeping a guarded heart, it may take a little bit to know whether or not you're attracted enough to someone to date them. If this situation sounds familiar, look over these tips from Cupid to see if you're ready to date that person you've been chatting with:

1. How well do you get along?: Okay, so you've established the fact that you're interested in this person. Before making any decisions, it's important to reflect on the relationship you currently have with them. The first thing to think about is how well you two get along. Do you fight often? Are you able to spend hours on end with each other? Do you go weeks without speaking, or do you talk all day every day?

2. Do you see a future with them?: This question may seem a little irrational, but let yourself be realistic for a moment. If you were to date this person, do you see yourself staying with them or having a future with them? Or does this just seem like a fun little fling? If you're able to imagine yourself being with them for awhile, then this may mean you're ready to date them – otherwise, you may want to think this one through.

3. How do they make you feel?: Most importantly, this potential relationship is most likely going to come down to how they make you feel. If they give you butterflies and make you smile – well, you can assume the answer there. But if you don't feel particularly attached or attracted to them, then maybe dating them just isn't the right decision for your friendship.

The two apparently met nearly three years ago, while they were both married to their respective spouses – both couples ended up getting divorced later that year.

This newly announced celebrity couple are definitely making an impact. What are some ways to work on the strength of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

This celeb couple seems to be going steady after a few months of casual dating. If you're looking to make your new relationship strong, check out some of these tips from Cupid:

1. No pressure: Putting pressure on a young relationship will only cause unnecessary stress, especially if it's still in the early stages. By keeping things fun, light and casual, the avoidance of pressure will eventually work to your advantage by letting the more serious stuff come at the right time. Besides, who wants to be getting serious in a relationship that's only a few months old?

3. Communication is always key: Regardless of how long you've been with your partner, communication will always be crucial to a strong relationship. It's even more important to implement this behavior early on, so you two get in the habit of expressing your concerns, bothers or appreciations. By starting to do this when the relationship is young, it won't be as much of an issue later on.
