"As long as she's happy in a relationship, that's all we want." Safai said sweetly, "So I'm just happy that she's happy."

This celebrity couple is happy as can be! What are some things you can do about an unhappy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to famous celebrity couples, it's great to see ones like Hadid and Malik who have officially achieved romantic bliss. But sometimes in relationships, things don't go as smoothly. Here are Cupid's top tips for dealing with an unhappy relationship in your own life:

1. Talk it out: First things first, prioritize communicating clearly with your partner. If there's building resentment, frustration or some issue that's become a roadblock to your happiness as a couple, sit them down and hash it out. It may be painful or angering in the moment, but ultimately it will do nothing but benefit your relationship and each other to know where both of you stand and that you're both seeking resolution.

2. See a counselor: While many couples cringe when they think about sharing their problems with a relationship expert and therapist, there are many upsides to bringing an unbiased third party into your discussions. Try to see this not as a sign that your relationship is not going as planned, but that you and your partner are both committed to talking your feelings out in healthy and fair ways. If anything, it's an indicator of how dedicated you both are to preserving your relationship, not the other way around.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gigi Hadid & Zayn Malik Are Back Together

3. Know when it's time to walk away: As painful as break-ups can be, there is nothing so painful as spending all your time trying to repair something that will simply never be truly fixed. If your partner isn't doing their share to deal with your issues as a couple or if you feel that they've permanently damaged your trust in them, don't be afraid to just say the words out loud; “It’s not working.” It may seem scary and sad in the moment, but ultimately you’ll be happier on your own and eventually with someone else than you would be staying in a relationship that isn’t meant for you.

There may be a new celebrity couple soon enough! What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard getting yourself out back out there following a failed longtime relationship, especially if the tabloids are following your every move. How do you keep your relationship under wraps to avoid this? Cupid's here with relationship advice:

1. Stay away from the PDA: The easiest way to get the news out there about your relationship is to indulge in some PDA in front of others. Because you never know who might see you while in public, stay away from any PDA while out and about. It's the only sure-fire way to keep things under wraps.

2. Stay away from social media: Social media can be both a blessing and a curse. Tell them not to post anything with you and your new flame in it.

3. Seize date opportunities, but stay discrete: Of course you want to get to know your new partner, so you should absolutely go on dates. Or, consider going out of town, even if it's just to a neighboring one.
