Cupid's Advice:

Relationships come and go, but some former flames remain special in your heart. At times you may question whether it might be a good decision to give them another chance. Cupid is here to help you figure out whether you should get back with your ex:

1. Think it through: Before you rush to contact your ex, you should carefully consider the reasons why you want to see them again. Celebrity News: Pregnant Holly Madison Talks Celebrity

Baby No. 2

By E! News

Holly Madison is all about moving onward and upward. According to E! News, the pregnant star has been quite the busy bee between preparing for her second celebrity baby with hubby Pasquale Rotella and releasing her latest book The Vegas Diaries, but Madison was able to sit down with E! News' Maria Menounos and Jason Kennedy to chat about everything going on in her life—including that ongoing feud with former Girls Next Door co-star Kendra Wilkinson-Baskett. But first, babies. In latest celebrity news, Madison, who is expecting a baby boy very soon, tells us that she and Rotella are still trying to decide on a name for their little one. "My husband and I are still debating. We're kind of waiting for that last-minute epiphany for a name we really love." The couple's 2-year-old daughter Rainbow Aurora is also anticipating her little brother's arrival, even if she wasn't exactly stoked about the news at first. "She's ready. When she first heard she was having a brother, she was like, 'No, I want a sister.' But now she's kinda come around and she's happy about having a brother." LOL!

Madison has always been very candid about her life with the public, from her time in the Playboy mansion to her books and family life, and when it comes to sharing her stories with her children, she's grateful that she has a way for them to know her entire story.

"I think that's the great thing about having the books. If for some reason I'm not around, they can have those stories there and know why I made the decisions I made, and what I learned from my mistakes and different things like that," she tells us. "I think it's about age-appropriateness too, so I'll play that by ear."

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Seth Meyers and Wife Alexi Ashe Announce the Birth of Baby Boy

One thing she'll definitely be able to share with her children is the need to let go of worrying about everyone else, something she tells E! News would be her advice to her younger self.

"I would just tell myself to be more confident and not worry about constantly pleasing other people or being scared of what other people are gonna think because I feel like I lived so much of my life in fear of other people's opinions and what other people were gonna think about me that it held me back from moving forward for so long."

Madison touched on a bit of that in her latest book, which focuses on her life after leaving the mansion and ending her long-term relationship with Hugh Hefner.

"It was really when I got to know myself and it was my journey. It ends right before I meet my husband in real life. And I think my biggest lesson I learned was that we spend so much time looking for that other perfect person when we should really be looking for ourselves."

Holly has also been recently targeted by former co-star Kendra, who took to Twitter to say some vulgar things about Madison (which she later deleted), and while the author could go on attack to defend herself, she's just choosing not to.

"I don't necessarily wanna clear things up specifically because I wrote my story about my time in the mansion and that's there for everybody to read and it speaks for itself," Madison tells E! News of the Kendra debacle. "And as far as any ongoing feuds, it's just not something I engage in because some people wanna drag it on forever and I've moved on."

However, Holly admits that Kendra's remarks were "definitely hurtful. It got to the point where I know I can say just as mean things about her, but why would I want to?"

Former 'Bachelorette' Ashley Hebert Is Expecting Celebrity Baby No. 2 with JP Rosenbaum

By Nicole Caico

Ashley Hebert and JP Rosenbaum, the celebrity couple who got their start on season 7 of The Bachelorette in 2011, are now expecting their second celebrity baby. According to UsMagazine.com, the two are already parents to one celebrity baby, a son named Fordham, but this time the couple is preparing to welcome a baby girl. They announced the happy celebrity news on Monday, May 23, with posts on Twitter and Instagram, revealing both the pregnancy and gender with a pair of pink baby booties.

This 'Bachelorette' alum is set to expand her family again! What are some ways to prepare differently for a second child?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many things that set celebrity couples apart from normal couples, but parenthood is one aspect that does not discriminate. Whether you're famous or not, welcoming a baby is life changing and, not to mention, a little difficult:

1. Should have, could have, would have: Make a list of any items you wish you had had with baby number one, and make sure to go out and get them. With your first child, you're following advice from other mothers and baby books, but no one knows your baby experience better than you do. Now, awaiting the arrival of your second bundle of joy, it's your opportunity to perfect your mom-skills—or at least stock up on diapers.

2. Hand-me-downs: Sift through all the baby items you were given or had bought for your first baby, and see if anything is salvageable for baby number two. This might save you and your significant other time and money in the way of baby-prep. Anything from bibs to furniture can be considered fair game for reuse. This will be especially easy if your are expecting a baby of the same gender.

3. Communicate: This is the golden rule for any change in a relationship. Welcoming one baby is life changing, and welcoming a second even more. The routine you've adjusted to as parents of one may have to change a lot depending on the age of your first born. To really prepare your relationship for a second child, it is important to share fears and excitement. Go in with a game plan that fits your family dynamic, and baby number 2 will be a breeze.

Not everyone can be as cute as Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton. Sometimes the song your man writes you is a turn-off and dating them no longer seems like the best option. Cupid is here with some red flags:

1. Not paying attention: It's such a turn-off if your partner isn't looking you in the eye or remembering important information. He's either being sketchy or unresponsive. You deserve more from a partner so if he's acting like this, dump him!

Family

By Mary DeMaio

In the premiere season, the women are all very open and honest with the struggles they encounter every day. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Stephanie Hollman shares her secrets of being a stay at home mom, how she balances and brings harmony to her marriage, and reveals her best relationship advice.

Stephanie Hollman Reveals Best

Relationship Advice

In order to stay connected and create closeness, Hollman, and her husband go to therapy once a week. They talk and pray about anything that is bothering them. They also have date nights every Friday to catch up with each other and have some alone time. "Our kids are respectful of that, you have to make your marriage important," she says. Children can sense when everything is not okay, so it is imperative to set a good example. "Harmony in the household makes a difference in the child's life," Hollman says.

At the end of the day, it all comes down to her children and husband, which are her utmost priority. Hollman and her husband are on the board of the domestic violence agency and they really hope that their children will follow in their footsteps. "I want my sons to treat women respectfully, be chivalrous, and open doors," she says. "I feel like that is lost now. People should make phone calls, not texts." She wants her sons' wives to look at her one day and say thank you for raising such great men. "My life is my children and my family, and as boring as it sounds, it's what makes me happy."

Reality TV Star Talks About Authenticity In Celebrity Interview

New to the reality TV scene, Hollman wants viewers to walk away understanding that no one is perfect. She is a stay at home mom with a six-year-old and a four-year-old and she works hard to juggle their lives with the expectations of her husband, Travis Hollman. "I have little breakdowns, my husband and I argue. People need to see we aren't all perfect," she says. Giving up her career as a social worker to have babies, Hollman wouldn't change a thing. "I have always been the girl who never tried to do anything out of my comfort zone," she revealed in our celebrity interview.

She was approached out of the blue to do 'RHOD' and wasn't looking for it. "I wanted to see what I was made of because if I didn't do it, I would have always wondered, what if," she adds. Her friend Amanda Ward had suggested her and Brandi Redmond to the producers, saying she had two girlfriends that are really goofy and always making people laugh. Within six weeks they were cast. Hollman and Redmond had been friends 10 years prior to the show. "I don't feel like I have to try. Sometimes it takes so much effort to have a conversation. It's not like that with Brandi," she adds. In their friendship, they are dedicated to talking everything out before it leads to a fight. "Our relationship is better than other people's marriages," Hollman says. The reality TV star hopes that it stays that way because she would never want to damage their friendship over a show. In terms of where she sees her career going next, the celebrity mom says that she just wants to live the journey God has for her. "If something comes out 'RHOD' career wise, that would be amazing," she says. Hollman hopes to use this experience to learn more about herself.

Philanthropically, giving back has always been in her heart and she wants to be able to make a difference in the world. "I was born in a small town in Oklahoma and wasn't raised with the luxuries I have now," she shares. At times, her family members would struggle, but people reached out and supplied them with food when they needed it most. "I am now able to give back in a different light. I have the resources to financially make a difference for these charities," she says. Hollman leads the charitable contribution efforts for her husband's company, Hollman Inc., but she doesn't work directly under him. "Bravo is very colorful. I appreciate that they have to be,” she says. Her husband is obsessed with to-do lists and when he goes out of town he writes down what needs to be done. “He is such a great provider. He doesn’t care what I spend. I think they were trying to make it like I had an allowance, but it’s not like that at all,” she says.

The Real Housewives of Dallas airs Mondays on Bravo at 10 p.m. EST.

Cupid’s Advice:

Drama is fun to watch, but experiencing it can be exhausting! There are times when drama is inevitable in a relationship though. Cupid is here to offer some relationship advice that will keep your love life drama-free:
