

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Doesn't Know Relationship Status with Garrett Yrigoyen After His Pro-Cop Remarks

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Becca Kufrin reveals fiancé Garrett Yrigoyen's controversial Instagram post may be the end of their celebrity relationship. In a recent episode of the Bachelor Happy Hour podcast, Kufrin said, "All I can say right now is that I don't know ... about my relationship with Garrett at this point." The reality TV star initially spoke out about Yrigoyen's post, which included a lengthy statement that said he "couldn't sit back and not support" his "many friends and family in law enforcement." Kufrin initially condemned the post, but she didn't think it was "meant in a malicious way." On the podcast, she apologizes to Rachel Lindsay, the franchise's only black Bachelorette, for her initial response, saying, "That conversation deserved my complete, undivided attention. It deserved much more care and thoughtfulness on my end."

In celebrity news, Bachelorette couple Becca and Garrett may not be living happily ever after. What do you do if you discover a difference in morals between yourself and your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your partner won't always see eye-to-eye, but there are some things that are harder to compromise on. If you've recently realized you and your partner have different moral values and don't know how to approach that, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Understand where they're coming from: It's easier to understand your partner's opinions if you understand why they think that way. Consider how they grew up: heir family, their neighborhood, their education. Have productive conversations with your partner to better understand their values.

2. Find common ground: Even if you and your partner are disagreeing about a topic overall, there is bound to be something you agree on. Try to focus on these agreements and don't force each other to change. You're likely trying to both educate each other, but that doesn't mean it will change how either of you think.

3. Know your boundaries: It's important to communicate, but there's only so much you can compromise on. If you feel like you and your partner are disagreeing on something that's fundamentally important to you, you'll need to think about how this will affect your future relationship. If this disagreement is really a deal-breaker, it isn't going to go away.

Celebrity Divorce: What Went Wrong for Kelly Clarkson & Brandon Blackstock?

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Kelly Clarkson and soon-to-be ex-husband Brandon Blackstock have filed for divorce. A source close to Clarkson revealed that issues have been plaguing the celebrity couple's marriage for a long time. "They clashed on so many levels and being in quarantine together heightened their problems to the point of no return," the source told UsMagazine.com. Hosting her own talk show and coaching on The Voice required Clarkson to spend a lot of her time in Hollywood. However, the source reveals that the singer's celebrity ex "prefers their quiet life in Nashville."

In celebrity divorce news, quarantine heightened Kelly Clarkson and her husband's relationship issues. What are some ways to work on your relationship in quarantine?

Cupid's Advice:

Quarantine can be hard on any relationship, but it can take an especially heavy toll on those who are already having issues. If you're worried about COVID-19 ending your relationship for you, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Make sure you're on the same page: Everyone is extra stressed out right now. Take time to discuss what is troubling you both most. Once you're both aware of what about the pandemic is worrying you most, you can work as a team to find ways to deal with it.

2. Find an activity to do together: You and your partner are probably spending much more time together. While every waking moment doesn't need to be spent together, find something you and your partner can do together that lets the two of you have quality time together. Do a puzzle, have movie nights, anything to make quarantine still feel like dating.

Celebrity Break-Up: Kaitlyn Bristowe & Nick Viall React to Nick's Past Proposal on 'The Bachelor GOAT'

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Nick Viall posted a video on social media of reality TV star Kaitlyn Bristowe rejecting his Bachelorette proposal. According to EOnline.com, Viall captioned the post, "It was like waiving at someone who's waiving at the person behind...but million times worse." That said, he's made it clear that he has nothing, but positive memories. Bristowe commented, "WHY DIDN'T YOU PUSH ME IN THE POOL?" and then later said, "Also, so glad we are friends now, too."

In celebrity break-up news, Kaitlyn and Nick called it quits on The Bachelorette a long time ago, but were forced to relive it on The Bachelor Greatest of All Time. What are some ways to move on when you've been humiliated in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can get really messy which leads to some embarrassing moments that you later regret. If you've been humiliated in a relationship and you're looking for ways to move on, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Joke about it: If you take a lighter mood to your embarrassing moment then so will everybody else. Make fun of yourself whenever someone else brings it up and you won't feel embarrassed at all.

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Megan Fox and Machine Gun Kelly confirmed their relationship with a kiss after Fox's split from Brian Austin Green. According to UsMagazine.com, the new celebrity couple was spotted holding hands and kissing for the first time in the public eye.

In celebrity couple news, Megan Fox has moved on from Brian Austin Green with Machine Gun Kelly. What are some ways to keep hurting your ex to a minimum when you move on with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you break up with someone, it can take your ex a little bit longer to get over the relationship than it did for you.

If you've moved on with someone else after a break-up, but you don't want to hurt your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just tell them: Although this may seem like a hurtful tactic, letting your ex know before they find out from social media or a mutual friend is going to work out in their favor. This way they have time to adjust to your new relationship and when someone else brings it up to them, they won't be surprised at all.

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, reality TV star Stassi Schroeder is expecting her first celebrity baby with fiancé Beau Clark amid Schroeder's recent firing from Vanderpump Rules. According to UsMagazine.com, the news of the couple's baby came out four days after she was fired from Vanderpump Rules after eight seasons. Bravo cut ties with Schroeder after racially insensitive comments and actions from her past resurfaced. Although she's recently been fired, that doesn't stop her life from going on.

In celebrity baby news, Stassi Shroeder is no doubt overwhelm with all that's happening in her life. How do you support your partner during an unexpected pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Unplanned pregnancies can come as a surprise, but it can also be really overwhelming. If you're looking for ways to support your partner through an unexpected pregnancy, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Make your partner feel comfortable: Unexpected pregnancy comes with a lot of questions once the truth hits home. Keep your partner from panicking, and reassure them that everything is going to be okay. Focus their attention to the most important thing: the new baby.

Celebrity Getaway: Scheana Shay & BF Vacation With James & Raquel Amid 'Pump Rules' Firings

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, reality TV star Scheana Shay and her boyfriend Brock Davies vacationed with James Kennedy and Raquel Leviss in San Diego days after their Vanderpump Rules costars were fired. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity vacation was to celebrate Davies' 30th birthday, and they had an "epic weekend," as Shay described it. The group didn't hesitate to post pictures from their vacation to their social media platforms. The photos included extravagant dinners and the go-to bikini shots.

In celebrity getaway news, Pump Rules stars Sheana, James and Raquel are vacationing in San Diego. What are some ways double dates or couples getaways can bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice

Double dates or couple getaways can be unpredictable and you don't always know what to expect. If you are considering going on a double date or a couple getaway and you're not sure if you should go, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. It's good to have someone to relate to: Couples usually go through similar if not the same issues that you and your partner have. Spending time with another couple gives you a chance to relate to each others issues. Once you know that other couples struggle with the same thing that you struggle with in your relationship, it becomes less of an issue to know that you guys aren't the only ones.

Celebrity Divorce: Kelly Clarkson Files for Divorce from Husband After 7 Years

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Kelly Clarkson and husband Brandon Blackstock file for divorce. The celebrity couple were married in 2013 and have two kids together, five-year-old River and four-year-old Remington. The singer cited irreconcilable differences when filing for divorce in Los Angeles. Despite these differences, the celebrity exes have been quarantining with their children at the pair's ranch in Montana.

In celebrity divorce news, Kelly Clarkson has decided to part ways with her husband after seven years of marriage. How do you know your relationship is over and not fixable?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard to come to terms with things when your relationship is ending. Is it something you can work through or is it over? If you're thinking about calling it quits with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. They're no longer your go-to: You just got amazing news, but your partner isn't the first to know. You want to go to a concert, but you don't think to bring them as your plus one. While this might not seem like major problems, it shows that your partner is losing importance to you. You're feeling closed-off from your partner, which could show that your relationship isn't working as well as it was.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Names Matt James as First Black Male Lead

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, The Bachelor announced its next season lead, and it's Matt James. James will be the reality TV show's first black male lead in its 25-season history. James said he was honored to hold the title and hopes the audience can see "that I'm not much different from them and they see that diverse love stories are beautiful." The franchise has had one other black lead, Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay, in 2017. Lindsay has been advocating for a more diverse cast since her season ended. In a recent blog post, Lindsay wrote, "These changes have to extend beyond casting a lead of color. The whole franchise needs a diversity makeover."

In celebrity news, The Bachelor listened to recent criticism from fans and franchise alums, and has selected a black male lead for the next season of the long-running show. What are some ways to meet a diverse dating pool in the “real world”?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to stay inside your current social circle. Depending on where you live and where you work, that social circle might only be filled with people that look like you. It's important to put yourself out there whenever trying to find a new partner, so why not put yourself into more diverse spaces? If you're not sure where to start, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Start volunteering: Find a cause you're passionate about and volunteer at a local organization. Volunteering brings different people together for a common passion. Not only will you meet new people but you already know you have something in common!

Celebrity News: Arie Luyendyk Jr. Says 'Bachelor' Concept 'Barely Works' for Finding Love

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelor Arie Luyendyk Jr. says the reality TV show's concept "barely works" when it comes to finding love off-camera. On a recent episode of the Couple Things With Shawn and Andrew podcast, Luyendyk Jr. reveals how he feels the show is unrealistic: "It's not natural to have two people that you [have], at the end, and then have to break up with one person and get engaged to another person an hour later." The Bachelor alum isn't completely writing off the show as he married his runner-up, Lauren Burnham. Despite not giving his wife the final rose, Lyendyke Jr. and Burnham tied the knot at their celebrity wedding in January 2019. Burnham also told the podcast, "it's so hard to [build trust] in such a short amount of time."

In celebrity news, Arie Luyendyk came out saying that The Bachelor is 'unnatural' when it comes to finding love. What are some unique ways to go about finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Most couples meet a partner through mutual friends or dating apps. We can't all sign up for The Bachelor, but there's always other ways to meet a new partner. If you've given up on blind dates and Tinder conversations, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Throw a singles party: Crowded singles events can be uncomfortable and overwhelming. Instead, throw a party and ask all your invitees to bring one single friend. Do something you enjoy—like a karaoke night or a cocktail party—to take the pressure off finding a potential partner.

Celebrity Divorce: Ewan McGregor Settles Divorce from Eve Mavrakis 2 Years After Filing

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Ewan McGregor and Eve Mavrakis have finalized their divorce more than two years after filing. The celebrity couple was married for 22 years, with McGregor filing for divorce in January 2018, citing inconsolable differences. There were rumors of this celebrity divorce before it was filed, with McGregor spotted kissing Fargo costar Mary Elizabeth Winstead in October 2017. The couple went public with their relationship after McGregor's divorce was filed and are still together today.

In celebrity divorce news, it's officially over for Ewan McGregor and his now ex-wife Eve. What are some ways to get through tough divorce proceedings?

Cupid's Advice:

No one is expecting to get divorced on their wedding day. Even if your divorce was a long time coming, it can be hard to come to terms with the end of your marriage. If you need help getting through your divorce, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Let yourself mourn: Your marriage is over and you're supposed to be upset about it. Whether you're heartbroken over betrayal or just bummed it didn't work out, you need to let yourself feel your emotions. Let yourself be upset.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Speaks Out About Garrett Yrigoyen's Controversial Police Support

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Becca Kufrin disagrees with fiancé Garrett Yrigoyen's recent Instagram post. Yrigoyen posted a photo of the "Thin Blue Line," a symbol showing support for police officers. "With so many friends and family in law enforcement, I couldn't sit back and not support them," said Yrigoyen on the post. On a recent episode of the Bachelor Happy Hour podcast, the reality TV star spoke out: "I believe that he is a good person... I do think [the post] was tone-deaf, and it was the wrong time and message and sentiment." Kufrin's co-host, Rachel Lindsay, was more critical of his silence about the Black Lives Matter movement: "I don't think Garrett is malicious, but Garrett is what the problem is."

In celebrity news, Becca Kufrin opened up about her fiancé

Garrett's recent social media posts supporting the police during the Black Lives Matter movement. What do you do if you disagree with your partner's social views?

Cupid's Advice:

It's impossible to agree with your partner on everything. However, differences in political and social beliefs can feel harder to find a compromise. If you're not sure how to talk to your partner when you disagree on these views, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Acknowledge each other's views: You don't have to agree, but you both need to understand where the other is coming from. Acknowledging and understand your partner's views will let you understand their thought process. Being able to have healthy conversations will prevent misunderstanding their views.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Is Engaged to Garrett

2. Be specific: Focus on the issues you're discussing. Don't diminish each other's beliefs to political parties or candidates. Even if you're registered to different parties, there are still issues you might have similar views about. Having pointed discussions about the issues you care about will prevent you or your partner from generalizing.

Celebrity Wedding News: Gwen Stefani & Blake Shelton Want to Get Married Post-Pandemic

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton are waiting until after the COVID-19 pandemic ends to tie the knot. The celebrity couple has been secretive about their wedding plans, leaving fans in the dark about their engagement. A source close to the couple told UsMagazine.com that Stefani had begun the process to annul her previous marriage in the Catholic church in March of last year. However, the current global crisis has “changed Gwen’s feelings about getting the annulment and getting married.” Now Stefani and Shelton’s celebrity wedding will take place after social distancing restrictions are lifted. “She didn’t wait this long to get married with family watching on Zoom,” the source reveals.

In celebrity wedding news, Gwen and Blake want to take the next step in their relationship and tie the knot, but they want to wait until after the pandemic. What are some ways to have a special wedding celebration during the pandemic?

Cupid's Advice:

Quarantine has put a halt to a lot of weddings. Whether you pushed back your ceremony or decided to get married without the reception (for now), you'll still want to do something special. Whether you want to celebrate your actual marriage or your would-have-been wedding date, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Virtual reception: While a Zoom-sponsored wedding reception may not have been your first choice, being able to talk to your closest friends is worth it. Get dressed up and make speeches with your wedding party and others close to you!

Celebrity News: Brooks Laich Still Wants Kids After Split from Julianne Hough

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Brooks Laich expressed his desire for kids following his recent split from Julianne Hough. According to UsMagazine.com, the former professional hockey player was discussing his “journey” to learn more about racism on a “How Men Think With Brooks Laich and Gavin DeGraw” podcast episode when he said, “It’s important to me. I hope to be a father one day.” The celebrity exes split in May, but that doesn’t change the way he feels about one day having children.

In celebrity news, Brooks Laich isn’t letting his split from Julianne Hough keep him from having kids in the future. What do you do if your partner isn’t interested in having kids, and you are?

Cupid’s Advice:

Figuring out if you want to be a parent is such a big decision and even though you may have found who you think is “the one” they might not have the same plans as you to become a parent. If your partner isn’t interested in having kids and you are, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Figure out if there’s an underlying issue: A lot of the time if someone doesn’t want to have kids, it’s not necessarily because they don’t want to be a parent, but because of something that they think may prevent them from being the best parent they can be. For instance, lack of time, lack of money, or lack of space could be factors. Talk to your partner and see if this is an issue that can be resolved before starting a family.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor' Alum Colton Underwood Jokes About Split from Cassie Randolph

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, former reality TV star Colton Underwood joked about his split from Cassie Randolph with the help of Sean Lowe ahead of the premiere of The Bachelor. According to UsMagazine.com, Lowe took to Instagram the night before ABC is set to air condensed version of season 17 of The Bachelor. Underneath the photo of Lowe and his now wife Catherine Giudici, Underwood commented, "Hopefully you are still with her." Many fans responded, complaining how it's too soon to joke about his break-up with Randolph. Underwood then stated, "Sometimes people are just meant to be friends and that's okay. We both have grown immensely and been through so much together so this isn't the end of our story, it's the start of a whole new chapter for us."

In celebrity break-up news, Colton Underwood is already joking about his recent split from Cassie Randolph. What are some ways to use humor in the healing process after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Although break-ups can be difficult, laughing about it can really take the edge off. If you want to be able to use humor in the healing process after a break-up, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Develop a smarter sense of humor: Using humor in tense situations can be hard to pull off. You want to be sensitive your ex's feeling but still make light of everything. Avoid mean spirited jokes. Saying something hurtful in a joke form could come of even worse than just being hurtful.

In celebrity break-up news, Jordana and Andrew have separated, but are co-parenting their kids as a team. What are some tips for co-parenting successfully?

Cupid's Advice:

Co-parenting isn't anyone's ideal situation, but it's a lot of people's reality. It can be hard to maneuver the best way to co-parent with your ex. Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Always communicate: It can be difficult to keep talking to your ex after you break-up, but if you have children together it's so important to keep communicating. You are both still parents whether you're together or not, and that means you still need to make decisions together pertaining to your kids. Keep your ex informed, and they should do the same with you.

2. Have a plan: Once you and your partner break up, you need to create a plan when it comes to the kids. Sit down with your ex and figure out who the kids are going to live with, when the kids are going to visit the other parent, who's going to have the kids on which holidays, who's going to take the kids to school and all of the other little details. Agree on the details, and stick to them for consistency in your kids' lives.

3. Try not to involve to kids: You and your ex broke up for a reason. Whatever that reason may be, try not involve your kids in your adult business. Don't talk negatively about your ex to your children, because that's their parent and you wouldn't want that done to you. Try to portray you ex in the best light possible in front of your kids.

Celebrity Couple News: Pregnant Sophie Turner & Joe Jonas Attend Black Lives Matter Protest

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Sophie Turner and her husband, Joe Jonas, protested police brutality and racial inequality at a Black Lives Matter demonstration. According to UsMagazine.com, while their celebrity baby is on the way, this celebrity couple posted photos and a video of them protesting in California. They included a photo of protesters lying face down in the grass, and in another, Turner holds a sign that reads, "White silence is violence."

In celebrity couple news, pregnancy isn't keeping Sophie Turner from protesting racism with her hubby, Joe Jonas. How do you know you've found a partner with values that align with your own?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding “The One” is always going to be a long process, but finding someone who shares similar values as yours is especially difficult to find. If you’re wondering if you and your partner have similar beliefs and ethics, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just simply ask: Don’t be afraid to ask your partner how they feel about current events, politics, and social issues. It shouldn’t be an interrogation session, but just you just casually asking your partner a question. This is so much easier than trying to figure out on your own, and you’re bound to get a more real and authentic answer.

2. Are they just as excited as you are?: Whatever makes you excited when it comes to your values, whether it’s protesting, donating, or a post on Instagram, should make your partner feel the same way. Typically, if you both feel the same way about something, you’ll both want to help. On the side, the things that make you angry or upset in society, should make them feel the same way.

3. Do you both see eye to eye on the simple things?: If you two are disagreeing on something simple in the grand scheme of things, then you probably don’t have similar ethics and values. Pay attention to the small things you may be bickering about and take a birds eye view to it. You may be able to see your partner’s values more clearly.

Celebrity News: Kourtney Kardashian Says She Has 'Responsibility' to Teach Kids About White Privilege

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity baby news, Kourtney Kardashian shares that she's committed to teaching her children about white privilege. In a recent Instagram post, Kardashian shares the importance of allowing "conversation without judgement" with your kids. In the wake of George Floyd's death and Black Lives Matter protests, it's easy to turn away from these conversations because they're uncomfortable. "As a mother, there is a natural instinct to protect my children from anything that might make them feel sad or unsafe," said Kardashian. However, that's not stopping the reality TV star: "I bare the responsibility to speak with my kids honestly and often about it, even when the truth is uncomfortable." Kardashian set an example for her children by donating to the NAACP and the Bail Project through her lifestyle and wellness brand Poosh.

In celebrity news, Kourtney Kardashian is speaking out about teaching her kids about racism and white privilege. What are ways to come to terms with your partner on which values to instill in your children?

Cupid's Advice:

As much as we love our partners, we won't always see eye to eye. This becomes especially challenging when it comes to raising your children. If you need help deciding what values to teach your kids, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Decide what's important: Have a conversation with your partner. Decide what values are non-negotiable and what's most important to actively teach your kids. Remember that your kids will model their behavior after your own, so not every lesson will be verbal!

2. Delegate “teachable moments”: While you should both be teaching your children values, one of you might have a stronger connection to a particular issue. If your partner has a personal experience that makes them passionate about a subject, you might want to take the backseat for those conversations.

3. Adapt your views: As your child (and you and your partner!) ages, what's most important to teach them will change. Outside forces, like experiences at school and current events, might require you and your partner to have discussions you hadn't planned on before. Flexibility is important to best teach your child in a changing world.

Celebrity Wedding News: Sienna Miller 'Can't Wait' to Make Lucas Zwirner Her Husband

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, actress Sienna Miller is excited to tie the knot with fiancé Lucas Zwirner. The celebrity couple got engaged in February after meeting in December 2018. A source close to the pair told UsMagazine.com that Miller “can’t wait” to turn her fiancé into her husband. “They’re so in love. They’re so excited for this new chapter,” revealed the source. The couple hasn’t announced a date for their celebrity wedding yet.

In celebrity wedding news, Sienna Miller is in planning mode for her marriage to Lucas Zwirner. What are some ways to incorporate both of your personalities into your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding should be a great day for both you and your spouse. It's easy to get caught up in your ideas on how the day should go, but it's just as much your partner's special day as it is yours. If you're not sure how to involve your future spouse in the wedding process, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Start on the same page: Set the tone for your wedding planning process. Let your partner know that their ideas are just as valid as yours and that you want their help. A good jumping-off point is making a list of must-haves for each of you and coming together to see what's most important to the other.

Celebrity Babies: Carrie Underwood Said She 'Considered Adoption' Following Multiple Miscarriages

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Carrie Underwood shared that she and husband Mike Fisher “considered adoption” before the birth of their second son. Underwood recently revealed that the celebrity couple had three miscarriages in two years. According to UsMagazine.com, on the latest episode of Mike and Carrie: God & Country, the singer said, “We needed to have a baby or not ever. Because I couldn’t keep going down that road anymore.” The pair considered adopting to bring celebrity baby #2 into the world, but they were then able to conceive their second son Jacob, whom they welcomed in January 2019.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood considered adoption after having multiple miscarriages. What are some ways to decide if adoption is right for you and your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you and your partner are ready to start a family, consider adopting kids! Adoption comes with its own set of challenges, but it’s just as rewarding (if not more) as having your biological children. If you’re not sure if adoption is right for you and your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You are unable to have biological children: Many couples who are unable to conceive on their own turn to adoption. Whether you have fertility issues or have a same-sex partner, adoption is the perfect way to expand your family.

2. You want to help the foster system: Many people feel that they should adopt children, not because they are physically unable to do so, but because they want to lighten the burden of the foster system. You and your partner have love to give and there are thousands of children who need a loving home.

Celebrity Babies: Kristen Bell Vows to Raise Her and Dax Shepard's Kids to Be 'Anti-Racists'

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Kristen Bell shared her and husband Dax Shepard's commitment to teaching their daughters about racial inequality. In the wake of George Floyd's death and Black Lives Matter protests, the celebrity couple is working toward raising "anti-racist" children. In an interview with The Morning Beat, Bell said, "I have been having a lot of conversations with my children about what's happening right now because I think part of the problem is discomfort." Bell continues to say that while these conversations are hard, they need to occur within white communities: "Bring it to your dinner table, don't look away because it's uncomfortable."

In celebrity baby news, Kristen and Dax's kids will be raised as anti-racists. How do you instill good values in your children?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want our kids to grow up to be good people but toeing the line of informative and lecturing can be difficult. If you're not sure where to start, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Be a good role model: You need to set a good example for your children. No matter what you teach them, it will be undone if they see you acting differently from what you've taught them. Don't undermine yourself! Apologize to your kids when you mess up. Share your experiences with them so they can understand why the values you teach them are so important.

2. Relate the issue to their life: Relating a value back to your child's life will make it easier for them to understand it and why it's important. You can use anything to teach them—an issue at school, an event you witness at the store, or even an incident on the news. These make great spontaneous lessons. Ask your kids what they would've done.

Celebrity Couple News: Kim Kardashian & Kanye West Are on 'Different Pages' Amid Quarantine

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, things between Kim Kardashian and Kanye West are rocky during quarantine. A source told UsMagazine.com that the celebrity couple has different routines: “Kim is working out nonstop and doing her thing. Kanye is having a harder time because he does not have a regimented routine like Kim.” Despite their opposing schedules, the duo is “doing well” and trying to get back on the same page.

In celebrity couple news, Kim and Kanye aren't seeing eye to eye during quarantine. What are some ways to adapt to quarantine with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Being stuck at home can cause a strain on your relationship, but it doesn't have to! Turn quarantine into a time to strengthen your relationship with your partner. Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Have alone time: Being unable to leave your house means you're spending 100% of your time with your partner. It's healthy to have time for yourself. Plan for you and your partner to have time without the other. It doesn't matter what you do as long as you focus on yourself.

Celebrity News: Ben Affleck & GF Ana De Armas Join California Black Lives Matter Protests

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Ben Affleck and Ana De Armas participated in the #BlackLivesMatter protests in Venice, Calif. last Tuesday. The celebrity couple was spotted holding signs that read “Black Lives Matter” and “Save First Baptist Church of Venice.” Affleck and De Armas showed their support of the historic black church built in 1910 that faces the possibility of demolition. The famous couple are only two of the many Hollywood stars who are speaking out against the recent death of George Floyd.

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck and his new girlfriend are joining forces to protest racism. What are some ways to support a worthy cause with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Activism is important and there are countless causes that need your support. Find out what topics you're passionate about! If you're not sure where to start or how to support these causes with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Protest in your city: No matter what cause is close to your heart, there's sure to be an upcoming demonstration for it. You and your partner can attend these together. You two can also spend the day before preparing for them together: making signs and packing the necessary supplies.

Celebrity News: Thomas Rhett & Wife Lauren Speak Out Against Racism for Adopted Daughter

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, country star Thomas Rhett and his wife Lauren Akins have spoken out against racism. According to EOnline.com, this celebrity couple expressed their concern for their oldest daughter, whom they adopted from Uganda. “As the father of a black daughter and also two white daughters, I have struggled with what to say today,” Rhett stated. “I get scared when I think about my daughters and what kind of world they will be growing up in.”

In celebrity news, Thomas Rhett and Lauren are standing up for their adopted black daughter. What are some ways to stand up for what you believe with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you and your partner have the same views on social issues, it's important that you both stand together. If you need some ways to stand up for what you believe in with your partner then, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Take a stand on social media together: Social media is a great way to support something that you truly believe in. When you and partner are posted together helping to support a great cause, it's extremely impactful to everyone who sees it.

Celebrity Exes: Scott Disick

is 'Always Flirting' With 'Best Friend' Kourtney Kardashian

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Scott Disick and Kourtney Kardashian spent some time in Utah with all three of their kids for Disick's 37th birthday. According to UsMagazine.com these celebrity exes have been through so many ups and downs since the beginning of their relationship, but after their celebrity break-up, they seem to get along much better, especially when it comes to co-parenting. Recently, Disick and Sofia Richie called their relationship quits after three years. Many wonder if Kardashian is the reason they broke up, so that she and Disick can get back together.

These celebrity exes are keeping things way above and beyond friendly. How do you know if you're still hung up on your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a long relationship ends, it's incredibly easy to get held up on the idea that you guys might get back together. If you think you are still hung up on your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Do you stalk them on social media?: If you constantly find yourself going to your ex's social media pages a few times a day, then you are definitely still hung up on them. Trying to look on their pages to see what they're doing, who they're hanging out with, and if they're seeing anyone else, just isn't healthy. Try deleting the apps from your phone to stop yourself from going to their pages. The longer you go without thinking about them, the better.

Related Link: Celebrity Exes: Khloe Kardashian & Tristan Thompson Reunite at True's 1st Birthday Party

2. Do you still refer to them as your partner?: When you're talking to someone else about your ex partner and you refer to them as your boyfriend, girlfriend, husband, or wife accidentally, then you are still not over them. This can be really hard to correct, especially when you're fresh out of a relationship, but after a few months you should be looking to correct yourself. Have your friends and family point it out to you every time you say it. Or, you can use the swear jar method, expect only put a dollar in the jar when you refer to your ex as your partner.

3. You're not interested in dating again: If you find yourself not finding anyone attractive or not wanting to get back out there and go on dates, then you are still holding on to your past relationship. You don't want to go on dates because you're still in a "relationship" kind of head space, when you should be in a single state of mind. Try to get back out there in the dating world and go a little out of your comfort zone; consider someone completely different than your ex.
