This latest celebrity couple news is surprising, given that Spiegel is 25 years old. What are some ways to know if your partner is mature for her or her age?

Cupid’s Advice:

Age is just a number, like the saying goes. Sometimes older adults can be immature and in other cases younger adults can be mature for their age. The way your partner behaves and their actions, is what ultimately determines if your partner is mature for their age. Cupid has some tips on determining if your partner is mature for their age:

1. Behavior: The way a person behaves declares their level of maturity. If they are loyal, honest and follow through with their promises, then they are mature. If they are flakey, unorganized and don’t take things seriously, then they may be on the immature side still. However; everyone grows as a person. Just because your partner may be immature for their age doesn’t mean they can’t improve!

2. Actions: Actions speak louder than words. Your partner can tell you whatever they want, but it’s important to base their maturity on their actions. If they follow through with promises, call when they say they will, are consistent and so forth. Pay attention to these details!

3. On the same page: The most important way to tell if your partner is mature for their age is to determine if you are on the same page in terms of your relationship. If you want something more serious, then it's vital that they do, too. If you are both just having fun and taking things slow, then that's another option. Just make sure that the maturity of the relationship is the same level of maturity of each partner.

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships do endure the good and bad times, but you have to know whether you should stay in them. Here's some tips to help you decide if you should stay or not:

1. The mixed signals: If your partner is constantly giving you mixed signals, it may be time to move on. You shouldn't have to worry about whether your partner truly cares for you, because he shies away from you often. If your partner doesn't show conflicting actions, you should stay.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Season 20 Premieres with Ben Higgins Fending Off a Drunk Contestant

By Myesha Cobb

The Bachelor season 20 kicked off earlier this week with all of the drama that fans have grown to love on the realityTV show. The premiere episode included leading man Ben Higgins handing out the First Impression Rose, engaging in drunk exchanges, and, of course, breaking some hearts during eliminations. According to the latest celebrity news in UsMagazine.com, one of the contestants, Lace Morris, was so drunk that she went in for a second kiss. Not only was she rejected, but she was also interrupted by another contestant, Mandi Kremer, who she threatened to punch. There's no doubt that there will be more fights and jealousy as Higgins looks for a relationship and love on The Bachelor season 20!

This celebrity news is not lacking in the drama department. What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship and love?

Cupid's Advice:

Drama inevitably works its way into most relationships. As we read in this celebrity news story about The Bachelor season 20, Higgins is already dealing with his fair share, thanks to Morris and her fight with Kremer. Fortunately, drama can be avoided. Below, Cupid shares some love advice:

1. Remember that you love each other: Sometimes, your relationship gets so heated and cluttered with drama that you forget that you love each other. You let the things you dislike overpower your love, and everything goes south. Perhaps revisiting the restaurant where you had your first date or cooking a special meal together will remind you why you fell in love with each other in the first place.

2. Try counseling: If you don't feel like you can deal with the drama on your own, seek outside help. It's okay to call for reinforcements! Seeing a therapist shows that you both care about your relationship and love and want to save it by any means necessary.

3. Focus on communicating: Drama is often caused by miscommunication...or maybe no communication at all. Sit down and talk through your issues. Don't yell at or argue with each other. Be sure to listen to your partner too – their perspective is equally important to your own!

In the latest celebrity news, the hunk showed off his new look in a January/February issue at a photo shoot for Men's Health. The Office star got his inspiration from Blunt and her intense training for movie roles.
