Cupid's Advice:

Haylie Duff named her baby girl Ryan, this could work for both boy babies and girls alike! Here are some advantages to giving your child a universal name:

1. Name them early: Having a gender neutral name gives you the opportunity to have the name ready, even before a baby is in the belly! It will make it tangible for you and your partner, and you will be able to speak to the baby the second you know he/she is there.

By

Kirk and Laura Knight

Kirk: Since Laura and I made the big decision to have a baby, we have been working hard at being healthy, including clean eating and workouts at the gym. Laura's workout regimen is frequent and very advanced. It's going to take everything I've got to keep up with her pace! Her motivation and drive encourages me to stay focused and incorporate some sort of physical activity every day.

Laura: I understand that healthy living can lead to a healthy pregnancy – I’m trying my best to keep Kirk motivated at the gym in hopes that this will help us on our path while trying to conceive. Plus, when your body feels good, sex is more fun!

K: In preparation to get pregnant, Laura stopped taking birth control pills. Within a few weeks, my super sperm did not disappoint, and Laura surprised me with a positive pregnancy test. Although my confidence was extremely high, I did not expect her to get pregnant this quickly – my boys can swim!!! We were so excited for this to have happened and couldn’t wait to share this big news about our relationship and love with our family and friends. Everyone was thrilled for us.

L: One day, I was feeling unusually queasy, so I took a pregnancy test, and to my surprise, I was indeed pregnant! I wanted to tell Kirk the happy news in a sweet and clever way but couldn’t come up with anything. He was in the living room, and there was no way that I could wait a day to put something together. I grabbed our video camera and called him into the bathroom, so I could capture his reaction – it was priceless! I was feeling two strong emotions at this point: First, it was complete and utter joy. And second, I only have nine months to learn everything I can about pregnancy and motherhood. So we went to the bookstore, and I bought the five best books I could find and began my research.

K & L: We were on cloud nine – feeling very happy and in a great place. We had decided to have a child, and we were blessed with a pregnancy. For the moment, everything seemed to be perfect. The morning of the sonogram, we were excited to see the heart beat and first images of our little bundle of joy. As the sonogram began, our excitement immediately turned into fear as the tech could only see the pregnancy sack and not the embryo. We were emotionally panicked and felt like our happiness and joy was instantly deflated – only left with fear and anxiety, wondering what this meant. What we discover puts us on an emotional roller coaster. Watch our reality TV show tonight and find out what happens and how we deal with it...

Reality TV Stars Kirk and Laura Knight Talk About Staying in Shape and the Possibility of Parenthood

By

Kirk and Laura Knight

Kirk: Oh my gosh, what an awakening this week! After looking through our wedding photos, my wife so cleverly picked out a picture that happened to show me at my heaviest weight. This was her subtle hint to tell me about my weight gain -- and I'm glad she did. Since Laura and I began our relationship and love, I have gained forty pounds. It seems like the traveling, eating out, and drinking have finally caught up with me. So I immediately needed to go into workout mode.

Celebrity Couple Kirk and Laura Knight Work on Getting Healthy

Laura: I am a certified pilates instructor and felt that Kirk would greatly benefit from taking my classes. He needed to get his body moving, and I was hopeful that he would embrace this type of exercise since I was coaching him through the sessions. Next on the agenda was getting him to start eating healthy. As you saw on this week's episode of the reality TV show Newlyweds: The First Year, I set up a "food intervention" with our good friend and personal trainer Biani. The goal is to bring a little more awareness to what Kirk was eating and help him make some healthy alternative food choices.

K: Being so out of shape really made it difficult to get through the pilates class. I'm even more out of shape than I thought – this is going to take a lot of work! During the intervention, I was trying to make light of the situation by stealing some candy and requesting that the girls cook with their shirts off. In order to get healthy, I think I'm going to have to take this more seriously!

Reality TV Stars Talk About Becoming Parents

K: On top of all the pressure I feel to lose weight and get into shape, Laura is really ready to start a family and have a baby. She brought up the “baby” discussion over dinner, and I just feel like I need a little more time. We have a very free life filled with traveling and having fun, and I know that a baby will change all of that. So I want to make sure that we are both on the same page. To add to the current pressure, we attended a family party where everybody in attendance had only one goal: to make sure that we are planning on having a baby.

L: Kirk and I have spoken many times about starting a family, but it seems that we are a little off on our time frames. Hopefully, we can get on the same page soon because I want to be a mommy...

Kevin Federline Reminisces About Celebrity Ex Britney Spears

By

Maggie Manfredi

If Britney Spears can make it through 2007, you can make it through today. However, according to UsMagazine.com, Spears' celebrity ex-husband Kevin Federline says that mess is behind them. The celebrity exes are making it work and have got their co-parenting down to a science. Federline said, "I had to work this weekend and go to Orange County...so they went to Vegas, and when she has to do something and I need to keep the kids, it just works out well." Federline and Spears had a short but, dramatic relationship and love life, from a surprise wedding to two baby boys and even a reality television show. Early on, there were intense custody issues between the celebrity exes, which culminated in Britney's breakdown in 2007. But, the former famous couple are on track now and have a good system where their children always come first.

Celebrity ex or not, it can be tough to look back on your past relationship and love life with fond memories. What three memories are hard to let go when you break up with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Cupid knows it can be tricky to cope with a break-up, and sometimes that has to do with lingering memories. Cupid has memories that are particularly hard to let go of post-break-up:

1. Intimacy: Of course, the first thing that comes to mind is letting go of your memories surrounding the intimacy in your past relationship. If you were with someone for a long time, it probably means you were very much attracted to them. Those flashbacks can be tough to release.

2. Special dates: Whether it was an anniversary extravaganza or a surprise birthday bash made for the tabloids, you'll be hard pressed to forget those good times. They will always remind you of your ex. That being said, don't let them become tainted. Just because you aren't with your ex now, doesn't mean you should regret the whole relationship.

3. Pets: If you and your former partner got a pet together, and you ended up getting to keep said pet, it's going to be difficult to move on from all memories pertaining to your former "family." As they say, "Time heals all wounds." This may or may not be true, but hang in there, because things are bound to get better! Memories fade.

Carson Daly and Wife Siri Pinter Welcome Third Child

By Ann

Luther

London Rose Daly has officially arrived! Carson Daly and Siri Pinter welcomed their third child on Wednesday, August 20th. London Rose is joining her two older siblings, Jackson James,

5 and Etta Jones, 23 months. Daly told UsMagazine.com, "Watching Jack and Etta meet their new sister was like watching a scene in a movie, directed by God." It's a wonderful life in the Daly-Pinter household!

How do you introduce your new child to your older children?

Cupid's Advice:

Bringing home a new baby is both exciting and nerve-racking, especially if there is another child in the mix. It's a delicate situation to introduce a new addition to an already-established family dynamic. Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Explain what's happening: For younger children, a new baby can be hard to understand. Before the baby arrives, sit your children down and have a talk with them. Tell them what's going to happen and ask if they have any questions. Knowing what to expect will take the edge off of their initial meeting.

2. Affirm your love: Jealousy happens. As a parent, you must be sure your child knows that they are loved. You can explain the concept of infinite love. Even with this new bundle arriving, you won't love your older children any less than you did the moment they were born.

3: Make it fun: Your children are going to become big brothers or sisters! That comes with some responsibility and a ton of fun. Knowing that they, too, have a role in this new baby's life will make your children feel important and get them excited.

Christian Bale and Wife Sibi Welcome a Baby Batboy

By Ann

Luther

Christian Bale and his wife, Sibi Bale, just welcomed their second baby, a son, into the world. A source told UsMagazine.com, "They are truly a supportive couple, he and Sibi are thrilled." The newest Bale addition joins his nine-year-old sister, Emmeline. Congratulations to the whole family!

What are three ways to be supportive of your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The support we get from our partners is unmatched by any other kind. Big or small, their encouragements means the world to us. To that end, we've compiled three of the most important ways you can support yours:

1. Reminders: An "I love you" in the morning goes a long way. Your partner may know that you care, but it's always sweet to hear. It is important to affirm the important things in your relationship. It's too easy to fall into a rhythm and forget how special your consort really is.

Related: Christian Bale Gets Choked Up While Praising His Wife

2. Dedicate time: Set aside an amount of time per day, week, or month that you can focus all of your attention on your partner's needs and wants. Put down your phone, turn off the television, and plunge yourself into the life of your love. This special time when you're not thinking of anyone else, not even yourself, will show how much you care and take some burden away from your beau.

3. Make a promise: Even if you aren't at the stage in your relationship to where you would want to get married, you can still promise things to your guy and he can promise things to you. It can be little promises like swearing to do the dishes if the other cooked. Or it can be big promises like vowing to follow him to wherever his career places him. Pledging whatever you can will make your partner feel secure and supported.

Celebrity Interview: Maternity Expert Rosie Pope Encourages Moms “To Be Really Present in the Moment”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Laura Seaman.

Rosie Pope knows all things related to pregnancy and parenting, bringing child care and fashion advice to mothers and mothers-to-be everywhere. She owns Rosie Pope Maternity and Rosie Pope Baby, runs MomPrep classes, and is often featured on television for her mothering expertise. Fans may also recognize her from the Bravo reality TV show Pregnant in Heels. As if that's not enough to keep her busy, she's also the author of Mommy IQ: The Complete Guide to Pregnancy.

Celebrity Interview with Reality TV Star Rosie Pope

The maternity expert and celebrity mom welcomed her fourth child, daughter Bridget Monroe, in March, and luckily, her older kids – son James Roderick, almost 6, son Wellington Reade, 3, and daughter Vivienne Madison, 2 – are happy to have a new baby sister. “The sweetest thing about bringing Bridget into the world is that her siblings are so attentive to her. They want to do everything for her and just be really involved,” she explains in our celebrity interview. This new baby didn't bring the jealousy and clambering for attention like the previous children did, so maybe the fourth time is the charm!

Of course, with summer coming to a close, we asked the London-born star about how having a big family affects their celebrity vacations and time together. They like to keep it local, though she says they're a “pretty adventurous” bunch. When it comes to transportation, driving is the only option, as you can imagine the hassle of a family of six at the airport. “We're all about the minivan!”

There's one mother that we'll never see driving a minivan, and that's Kate Middleton, the beautiful Duchess of Cambridge. Middleton and Prince William recently celebrated their son Prince George's first birthday, and the media didn't miss a second of the celebration. So how will the royal lifestyle impact the adorable prince's upbringing? “As he gets older, he's going to start being more and more aware of what's going on around him. As a baby, he doesn't realize that there are paparazzi everywhere and that everyone wants to know everything about him.” Of course, his father was also brought up in the public eye, and he can help his son every step of the way.

Celebrity Mom Shares Best Relationship Advice

Whether you're the future queen of England or a mother of two in a small town, you can bet that your marriage will change after you have children. A growing family means more stress and responsibility, but it also brings a new happiness that you didn't have before. Sometimes, it's hard to remember how to be a couple with your partner, but Pope has some relationship advice for every parent to follow.

First, you have to make good communication a priority in your relationship. "It's really, really difficult to communicate with each other when so much is going on. You have to be honest about the things that aren't working and the things that are working," she shares in our celebrity interview. "If you dish it out, you have to be able to take it too. So if you want your partner to be honest with you about things that aren't quite right, you have to be able to handle that."

Next, she encourages you to not wait until Friday night to have a date night. Take advantage of any free time and do something spontaneously! Pope's favorite date night is when her and her husband enjoy some alone time at home. After all of the kids are in bed, her husband cooks a delicious meal, she makes cocktails, and they meet on the porch to have a romantic evening together.

The third must on the maternity expert's list is taking the normal parts of every day and making them special. This could be going to the gym together, taking a trip to the grocery store, or getting ready together in the morning. Use these seemingly ordinary daily chores to enjoy each other's presence and build on your relationship. Now that your life is busier than ever, you need to appreciate the little things.

Related Link: Make Your Relationship Count This Year

Last on the celebrity mom's list of advice is telling your love story when times get tough to "remind each other of how you used to feel." Now that you're parents, it might be hard to remember when you were both single and just getting to know each other. Think about falling head-over-heels in love with each other and why you thought your partner was the perfect person for you.

Perhaps the most difficult adjustment for new parents to make is finding time to be intimate. Her solution to this situation is, as she put it, very much like going to the gym: "Get creative, make yourself do it, and you won't regret it!" Remind yourself that you have to be intimate as a couple, even with the hustle and bustle of being parents. You have to work for it!

Not only does Pope have the busy life of a wife and mom, but she's also juggling the stress and pressure of an extremely successful career as a maternity expert. Handling it all is simple: "It's about two things. First, you have to be really present in the moment, because you don't have a lot of time to do anything. Savor any minutes that you spend by yourself, with your kids, or while you're at work. You have to be 100 percent present to feel fulfilled and know that you're getting the most out of every moment."

And second, you have to remember that life changes. The kids won't be toddlers forever, so you won't always have to deal with the messes, the need for attention, and the constant craziness of little ones. However, that also means that the positives of the toddler stage will fade. "Now, they want to play with me all of the time, but I know in a few years, I won't be cool enough," the author says with a laugh.

Related Link: Rosie Pope Welcomes Baby Girl on Mother's Day

Pope is one mother who seems to have it all figured out. And she certainly knows what's not in her future: another reality TV show. "Reality TV is crazy, and I don't think I'm that crazy!" Don't rule out a second book – or a fifth child – just yet though. "If I don't have another baby, maybe I'll write another book next year!"

For now, she's focusing on her baby clothing line, Rosie Pope Baby, which launched in February and is continuing to expand. The adorable outfits are available in a variety of sizes, ranging from newborn to two years old. "It's a real marriage between fashion and function," she explains. "I think parents will find it very practical but also very pleasing."

Kristin Cavallari is a mommy again to her second son, Jax. From the day Cavallari and husband, Jay Cutler, brought their new baby home, Cavallari says that Cutler has been “incredibly hands-on.” Jax, born in May, is now 3-months-old and just starting to smile. Their first son, Camden Jack, is 2-years-old. Cavallari said, “Camden takes a nap at one o’clock, so when Camden’s going down, Jax is just waking up to eat and play, so there’s literally no time.” However, Cavallari is not alone in juggling her two boys. She spoke of her hubby to UsMagazine.com saying, “it’s so sweet seeing him with Camden and Jax, and there’s nothing sexier than seeing your husband as a great dad. I couldn’t ask for a better partner in this situation.” Best of luck to the burgeoning family!

What are some ways to support your partner in parenthood?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. Be loose with your schedule: You never know when your partner is going to need a break. Be willing to take this diaper change even if it’s not “your turn.” A few extra moments of peace go a long way, especially with new parents.

2. Make time to be a couple: To be good parents, you need to have a good relationship with your other half. Happy relationships can die if they're not properly nurtured. So, call a baby-sitter, if only for a couple hours, and have some time for the love that brought your baby into the world.

3. Celebrate each other: You created a literal miracle together. That's amazing! With each milestone, celebrate your child and don't forget to celebrate the two people who made those milestones possible. It doesn't have to be elaborate: a card or a kiss will do, but it's something to enjoy.

Celebrity Children Who Are Just Like Their Parents

By

Laura Seaman

When you're raised in the spotlight with your celebrity parents, it's difficult not to get pulled into the industry one way or another. Take the Kardashians, for instance, with their entire family being in the public eye 24/7. Some celebrity children take these opportunities to make a career for themselves and make their parents proud. Here are three famous children who followed their parents' examples and made a name for themselves in the entertainment industry:

1. Jaden Smith, son of Will Smith and Jada Pinkett-Smith

Jaden Smith is becoming a big time actor just like his dad. Will Smith helped his son break into the business from a very young age, having his son star alongside him in The Pursuit of Happyness. Since then Jaden has gone off on his own and starred in films such as The Karate Kid and The Day the Earth Stood Still. However, he still takes time to work with the man who taught him the ropes, starring with his father in the sci-fi film After Earth. Just one look at the movie's poster of the duo side-by-side and you can see that the young Smith is just like his dad, not just in acting ability but in his looks. Jaden Smith has gone from the small screen to the Imax, and it's doubtful he'll stop there. It's been announced that he's working on The Karate Kid 2, and who knows what the young actor will do next. Whatever the case may be, he's definitely making Will Smith proud.

2. Dannielynn Birkhead, daughter of late Anna Nicole Smith and Larry Birkhead

The daughter of late model Anna Nicole Smith is showing that though her mother may be gone, her spirit is still very much alive. The adorable little girl, now seven years-old, has shown that she shares her mom's beauty and enthusiasm for fashion. Photographers can't get enough of this bright little star. The Birkhead father and daughter duo was seen at the Kentucky derby, the same place where Dannielynn's parents first met. The little fashionista later went on to model for Guess Kids, a tribute to her mother's work as a Guess girl. "For her it was something cool," her father said in an interview. "Her mother was a Guess girl and now she is a Guess girl." Of course, she was made to keep up with her studies while doing the shoot! For such a little girl, Birkhead has had a lot of work to do.

3. Connor Cruise, adopted son of Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman

Connor Cruise, the adopted son of Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman, is taking after his parents step by step and movie by movie. He has only been in two films so far (Seven Pounds and Red Dawn) but that isn't his only claim to fame. He's getting his start as a deejay with the name C-squared. Lately, though, his name has been in the media concerning the relationship with Kidman. Despite rumors that the mother and son are estranged, Cruise says that their relationship is solid. The multi-talented Cruise has plenty of his material on YouTube and iTunes for anyone who wants to support him in his career as a DJ.

How do you make your pregnant partner feel beautiful?

Cupid's Advice:

When a woman is pregnant, she's going through a lot both emotionally and physically. Sometimes it can be hard for her to keep her confidence levels up. As a dedicated partner, you should be there to let her know that she is still beautiful, she always has been, and always will be:

1. Go shopping for maternity clothes. When your partner starts to show and goes out to buy maternity clothes, so with her and tell her which ones you think look best. Give her your opinion and let her know how amazing she looks as she tries on her picks.

How can having a big family bring you closer together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a big family can be a lot to take on, and with more people comes more opportunities for family drama and toes being stepped on. However, they're your family, and sometimes it's great to have such a big support group around for you and your partner. Through the ups and downs, they're always around, and when it comes to moral support, the bigger the better. So here are some advantages to having another child:

1. You can spread the love around. In small families you might feel a bit cramped, always socializing with the same people and having the same conversations as your partner, maybe butting heads once in a while. With a big family, you can spread out and talk to many different relatives in one evening without having to hang around your partner the entire time. By the end of the night you'll both have different stories to tell each other and continue the fun.

2. You will have more role models for your relationship. With many different relatives come many different couples to share stories with. Use this opportunity to learn from their experiences and use what they've learned in your own relationship.

3. You'll get more support during tough times. Sometimes you and your partner will face rough patches, but with big families come a lot of comfort. They can talk to both of you, give their point of view, and help you fix whatever wrong. The more advice and comfort you get the better, and there's much more to go around with a large family.

Ricky Martin Admits to Wanting a 'Daddy's Little Girl'

By

Laura Seaman

Ricky Martin wants to add to his family of three and get a little girl to join him and his twin boys Valentino and Matteo (5). Martin, now a single father after his breakup with Carlos Gonzalez Abella, tells People, “I want a daddy’s little girl.” So, not only is the Latino singer looking for love in a romantic way, but in a family dynamic as well. “[Being a parent] enhances everything,” he says. “I’m only starting... I want more kids!”

How do you decide whether to have more kids with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

You might have one kid or maybe two, but sometimes it’s just not enough. Deciding whether to have more children is a big decision to make, and you can’t make it alone. So, how do you bring up the idea of having another child with your partner? What should you expect out of this conversation? Cupid is here to help the talk go as smoothly as possible:

1. Make it an open conversation. Maybe your partner doesn’t want another kid, or maybe they haven’t even thought about it.

This could be a total surprise to them, and you need to be open to what they have to say. Don't just expect to get your way!

Related: Kourtney Kardashian is Expecting a Third Child

2. Give them time. This is a decision that will most likely take more than one conversation. Don't hound your partner 24/7 or drop not-so-subtle hints all the time. They have to think about this, and it'll only stress them out more if you're always on their back.

3. Stay calm. There's a chance your partner won't agree with you, and that's okay. Don't yell or get aggressive just because you didn't get your way. Try to understand their point of view and see if you can reach an agreement. This is a joint decision, and that means their opinion is just as important.

Dax Shepard and Kristin Bell Are Expecting a Second Child

By

Laura Seaman

Kristen Bell and her husband Dax Shepard are expecting a second child! The couple already has a daughter, Lincoln, who is almost 15 months old. "The whole family is beyond excited," a rep tells UsMagazine.com. The celebrity couple has had a positive experience with parenthood so far, with Bell saying, "I love [motherhood]! She's absolutely intoxicating." She also said of her husband Shepard, "He just talks to her all the time and sings to her all day. It's wonderful."

How is raising a second child different than the first?

Cupid's Advice:

The first time a couple has a child, it is a completely new and unique experience. Until you experience it, there's no way to really understand. But now that you have experienced it, the second child is completely different. You know much more, and yet things aren't quite the same. Here are some differences that come with raising a second child.

1. You have to explain the idea of a sibling to your child. Maybe your first child is too young to fully understand, but to some extent you may have to talk to them about the changes that are happening. The process is different depending on age, but they should still know what it means to be getting a sibling. This includes sharing their toys, the house, and even your attention.

Related: Kourtney Kardashian is Expecting a Third Child

2. You will be parenting two children at once. When you were raising your first child, you were able to focus all your parenting time and energy on them. They got all of the care and attention. Now with your second child, you'll be parenting two children, and you have to learn to split that time and care between the two equally, or you could have some problems.

3. You know what you're doing... mostly. No body knows the perfect way to parent, but after one child, you have a lot more knowledge than you did last time you were raising a baby. Use what you've learned during this time and it will probably be much less stressful.

Encourages Mothers Everywhere
To Get Fit

By Shannon Seibert

Caelum is Brooke Burke-Charvet's new line of workout apparel, and it comes with the appealing guarantee to help you reach your fitness goals while staying stylish, all for under $100. Her line will be available at Nordstrom within the next week, and she will be teaching a Booty Burn class at the Nordstrom store in The Grove on May 17th. Celebrity Baby Scoop caught up with the fitness-fanatic mother of four to talk about Caelum, her inspiration for the line, and how she stays in shape.

CBS: Tell us all about the brand. It looks colorful and cozy. What inspired the various designs?

BBC: "My goal for Caelum is to inspire women to get fit and dress the part. I always say, if you are going to sweat to do it in style. I created Caelum, derived from the acronym that defines the brand: “core, active, evolve, live, uplift and motivate,” for women with active, on-the-go lifestyles. I also believe that fitness is fashion! This line was inspired by seasonal colors and current fashion trends so women can have fun when they are pulling their fitness wardrobe out of their closet!”

CBS: How do you stay in check regarding body image and staying healthy? How do you bring a healthy message home to your daughters? To your son?

BBC: “It is very tricky. Right now, my older girls are totally into fitness, which I think is great. I try to never use words like “fat” or “skinny,” and instead, I talk about being healthy, strong and getting fit. I try to lead by example, because working out is so much more than just the body. It is about mind, body, and soul as well as the benefits of choosing to be active go so much deeper than the surface.”

CBS: What’s with Hollywood’s obsession to lose the baby weight fast? What’s your best advice to new moms in the postpartum period?

BBC: “I totally believe in belly binding! I wrapped my post pregnancy belly in a belly binding sleeve I developed, Tauts, for forty days and forty nights. This totally helped support the baggy baby skin and forced me to keep my core engaged. I really truly believe this is the best natural approach to getting back in shape. I will say it takes a miracle to make and grow a baby. All women need to embrace the time and anything that happens to their bodies is so worth it, but it should not be used as an excuse. Stay healthy, stay strong and be positive... remember the pregnancy belly does not have to be forever.”

CBS: Tell us your best tips for moms wanting to get started in a regular fitness routine. What’s the key to success?

BBC: “I firmly believe you have to be stronger than your excuses. There are a lot of tips and tricks, but no real secrets. Making a commitment with a friend, signing up for a gym membership, purchasing a DVD, signing up for a workout class are all really helping and keep you honest. I also think women need to mix up their workouts, set reasonable goals and make the commitment to start. If you are not sweating, you are not working out hard enough. So push yourself to your limits, write it down and make a schedule which allows you to be as equally important as everyone else is in your life. Make fitness a priority.”

CBS: What’s your favorite way to spend Mother’s Day?

BBC: “We have a huge family with lots of mothers in it, so I do not always get the selfish me time. This year, I will be on a plane heading home from hosting a charity event, but I am hoping to have a quiet and thoughtful lunch with my mother and children that I do not have to prepare! That is my dream.
