By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, there's a new celebrity couple in town! Full House star Jodie Sweetin is dating Mescal Wasilewski, according to UsMagazine.com. A source confirms that the new celebrity relationship began in November. As a Valentine's Day post, Sweetin took to Instagram a collage of photos with her beau, captioned: "Find someone who you can share this kind of love with ... Someone who doesn't just show you they love you one day a year ... Who isn't afraid to look silly when they tell you they love you ... Who doesn't judge you for past mistakes, but who wants to build a better future together ... Who builds you up and never makes you feel small ... Who supports your dreams and hopes and desires, and also has those of their own. Who doesn't put a price tag on your love ... Who holds your hand when you're scared and doesn't run away ... Who loves you, not in spite of your weirdness, but because of it ... Who makes you a priority in their life, no matter what," she continued. "Who doesn't hold you hostage with their love, but whose side you don't want to leave because you're happier when you're with them ... who makes you get shy when they look at you, because the rest of the world stops. That's the kind of love we all deserve. Anything less isn't worth it." How sweet!

In this celebrity couple news, Jodie Sweetin is moving on from a series of bad relationships. What are some ways to know you're choosing someone who will treat you right?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many things that are signs showing that someone will treat you right. Sweetin was right on the money with all she said on V-Day via Instagram. Here are three signs to be optimistic about:

1. They make you feel both safe and special: Having someone that treats you the way you should be treated is a wonderful thing. Not everyone can provide that for their lover. Being comfortable with your partner and feeling like they wouldn't do anything to hurt you is a comforting feeling. Trust is what leads to these feelings.

2. They respect your differences: This is important! It's great to have things in common, that's one of the many things that build a bond. However, having differences is okay, as long as you both respect each other's dissimilarities. Variation can be good when you both have boundaries and don't judge one another. This also leads to a more open relationship, which is a good thing.

3. They support you any way they can: Your partner should be your cheerleader. We can all use a support system, and having someone that encourages your dreams, aspirations, and decisions is a magnificent thing to have. Don't think that everything needs to be encouraged and supported, that's not the case. We do not want to support negative behavior. We do however need our loved ones to be there for us.

Celebrity Couple Tom Brady & Gisele Bundchen Kiss in Costa

Rica After Super Bowl Loss

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Tom Brady and Gisele Bündchen were spotted in Costa Rica sharing a loving kiss, days after Brady's loss at the Super Bowl, according to UsMagazine.com. He even joked about it on Instagram when he posted a photo of the couple smooching Sunday. "This Sunday's outcome is a lot better than last Sunday's! #losingstreakstopsatone," he captioned. Adorbs!

This celebrity couple isn't letting the Super Bowl loss affect their relationship. What are some ways to keep negative life events from putting a damper on your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It happens. When we are involved in negative circumstances, we tend to misplace our emotions and take out our frustrations on our significant other at times, which isn't okay. Cupid has some advice on how to get around it:

1. Remember what you're mad at: Breathe and think. It's easier said than done, but it works. When we become angry, we can lose sight of what or who we're really mad at, which can lead us to take it all out on those closest to us, like your lover. When surrounded by negativity, clear your head by taking about 10 deep breaths – in and out. Then remember that you're not mad at your partner, and that they deserve your fairness and respect.

2. Do something with your significant other: It will help take the edge off. When you create a happy place with them, then outside negativity should not be able to reach you there. Also, building positive memories is always a good thing! Be sure to remain mindful of the energy you give out in your happy place because if you're being negative, then what's the point?

3. Blow off steam: Chill with your friends. Sometimes when surrounded by the bad, we need to kick back and have some time with our friends. We sometimes also need space from our partners, so this works for both. Don't let bad energy or vibes bring you down, go and have a good time!

1. Get out of your comfort zone: When things start to feel too comfortable in your relationship, do something daring! If you and your partner love to dance, go to a new club. Celebrity Wedding: 'Bachelor' Alum Britt Nilsson Is

Engaged

By

Noelle Downey

Bring out the champagne because it's time to celebrate! According to UsMagazine.com, Bachelor alum Britt Nilsson is officially going to celebrate a celebrity wedding with boyfriend Jeremy Byrne! The celebrity couple started dating last year after Nilsson's split from Brady Toops, another alum of the hit reality TV show, The Bachelor, and shared news of their celebrity engagement via a series of Instagram posts of the ring and the couple laughing and kissing in excitement. Nilsson wrote in the caption, ""WE ARE ENGAGED!!!! I'm over the moon!!! The man of my dreams and the most godly, amazing, fun, life-giving, silly, intelligent, wonderful best friend I could ever ask for is my future husband!!!! I have been dreaming of this day forever!! Thank You Jesus!!! Woo hoooooo!!!!!! I had no idea it was coming and it was the best day of my life! I love you forever Jeremy Byrne!!!!”

This controversial Bachelor alum has said goodbye to the single life and hello to a celebrity wedding! What are some things to consider before getting engaged?

Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to getting engaged, it can be hard to know when you’re ready as a couple! Cupid is here with the top three things you should consider before popping the questions or saying yes when your partner gets down on one knee:

1. Do you have the same goals?: Ideally in a long-term relationship you two would be looking for the same things and have a similar vision of the future. If you know for a fact that your ideas of the future differ greatly but you’ve never really sat down and worked that out, definitely take the effort before you move forward with an engagement. If you’re both on the same page you can breathe a sigh of relief knowing that ring on your finger doesn’t mean you have to give up your dreams or future plans.

2. Are you ready for a forever commitment?: There’s no doubt about it, a wedding and an engagement are a huge deal, but marriage itself is an even bigger one. Ask yourself honestly, am I ready for a lifetime commitment to one person? Analyze your answer and share it with your partner. Admit if you don’t feel ready for that big step right at the moment or confess that you've thought it through and think that's a good next step to take in the future.

3. Do you both want to get married?: This one seems like a no-brainer, but you'd be amazed how many people feel pressured into proposing or to saying yes to an offer of marriage just because they never sat down and talked about their feelings toward marriage in general, and also specifically for them at some point in the future. It's perfectly possible that for either you or your partner, getting married just isn't a priority, and if that's the case, you need to have a mature discussion about it where you communicate your wants and needs effectively.

Heartbreaking Letter Before

In celebrity news, wife of late singer Chris Cornell wrote a truly beautiful, if saddening, epistle in honor of her husband. According to UsMagazine.com, Vicky Karayiannis, Cornell's wife, wrote an open letter that was posted to Billboard.com following the musician's suicide by hanging on May 17th. "To my sweet Christopher, you were the best father, husband and son-in-law. Your patience, empathy and love always showed through," she confessed. "I'm sorry, my sweet love, that I did not see what happened to you that night. I'm sorry you were alone, and I know that was not you, my sweet Christopher. Your children know that too, so you can rest in peace," Karayiannis reassured. She went on to write of her Hollywood relationship, saying Cornell was her "soulmate" and that while she is "broken" she will stand up for him always. The letter closed, "I love you more than anyone has ever loved anyone in the history of loving and more than anyone ever will. Always and forever, your Vicky." Karayiannis has stated that she believes Cornell, a recovering drug addict, may have taken too much Ativan, which caused him to not be in his right mind. "What happened is inexplicable," Karayiannis admitted, “and I am hopeful that further medical reports will provide additional details.” The celebrity couple have two celebrity children together, Toni and Christopher, as well as daughter Lillian from Cornell’s previous marriage.

This celebrity news has us down in the dumps. What are some ways to cope with the loss of your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dealing with the loss of a partner is always difficult, but here are the top three ways to get you through this difficult time:

1. Find someone to talk to: There’s no shame in finding a therapist to talk to after the emotional fallout of the death of your partner. Remember that your partner would want you to deal with this in a healthy way, so prioritize taking care of yourself. Visit a counselor and let your feelings out, even if they confuse or embarrass or anger you. Grief is experienced in a host of different ways, and by talking it out and committing to dealing with that grief, you open yourself up to eventual healing and acceptance.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Why Isn’t It Easy to Say Goodbye?

2. Reach out to your support system: If you’re struggling after the death of a partner, or any loved one, reach out to those around you that care about you and are still here. Tell them you’re not doing well and allow them to take care of you for a portion of time until you’re back on your feet. Admitting that you need help during a difficult period of your life can be difficult, and can even make you feel weak, but in actuality this proves your strength as a person who can recognize their limitations and ask for help when they need it.

3. Seek closure: Whether that means making a charitable donation to your partner's favorite non-profit every month in their memory or going through all your photos together one last time before deciding which ones to put away for now and which ones to leave up, or even taking off your wedding ring for the first time since the funeral, take steps to seek and find closure continuously, however that looks for you as an individual. Many think closure is a final state you achieve, when in reality closure is a state of being you can consciously pursue. Often finding closure is a journey, so it's important to give yourself the grace to take that journey however you need to.

The pair met and fell in love on season 3 of Bachelor in Paradise, even getting engaged at the end of the season. Chalk up another celebrity break-up for this Bachelor Nation couple. What are some pieces of advice for breaking the news about your break-up to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a new relationship, it's exciting to think about introducing your loved ones to your partner, but no one ever thinks about the potential reverse side of that. Rightfully so. But when that time does come to help soften the blow, here are some tips to keep in mind:

1. Don't be embarrassed: Love's a gamble. Breaking up can be mortifying, especially if you've had major plans and expectations. If a break-up hits you abruptly, take it in stride and know that things happen, especially in relationships. There's no reason to be embarrassed, because it's a normal part of life.

2. Be strong in your decision: Make sure this is a serious breakup and not a petty disagreement. If it's serious, give it some time before you make any major denouements. Don't let the sighs and the sad faces break you down. If you've made the decision to breakup, either collaboratively or independently, don't forget that you've already accepted that.

3. Allow your loved ones to have their feelings: Although they weren't the ones who were in the relationship, it's obvious they'll feel some sort of emotion (be it good or bad) towards the breakup, especially if they were close with your partner. Respect that and allow them some time to register the breakup.

Taylor Swift and Calvin Harris' celebrity break-up comes after over a year of dating, and according to UsMagazine.com, "Taylor Swift thought Calvin Harris was the one." The celebrity couple celebrated their one year anniversary this past March. Reportedly, they have grown apart and decided to end things for that reason. Calvin Harris tweeted about the break-up saying, "The only truth here is that a relationship came to an end & what remains is a huge amount of love and respect."

This celebrity news still has us down in the dumps. What are some signs things are headed toward the end in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No one could have foreseen this celebrity relationship coming to an end, but it is important to know what signs to look for in your own relationship that could mean you're headed for a break up:

1. Last place: If you are repeatedly put at the bottom of your significant other's list of priorities, prepare for the worst. Having your S.O. choose friends or work over you every time means that he/she doesn't consider your relationship a top priority. You deserve first place, don't settle. This shows a serious lack of effort.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Gigi Hadid & Zayn Malik Call It Quits

2. At a loss for words: When you realize that you two are having less and less to talk about it's a sign that you're growing apart. If conversations are becoming boring, or draining, it's time to rethink your relationship status.

Hanging out shouldn't feel like a chore.

3. Not the time or place: Sometimes it can be as simple as this—you're not at the same place in your lives. If you are both trying to pursue a career, or need to be close to your family, things can get in the way. Life gets complicated and if you are both dedicated to something that is pulling you away, it may be time to decide as a couple not to be a couple anymore.

Celebrity News: Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Break Up

By

Nicole Caico

In the latest celebrity couple news, after six years together, Demi Lovato and Wilmer Valderrama's celebrity relationship has come to an end. According to UsMagazine.com, on Friday, June 3, both stars posted a joint statement on their Instagram accounts that read, "After almost 6 loving and wonderful years together, we have decided to end our relationship. This was an incredibly difficult decision for both of us, but we have realized more than anything that we are better as friends. We will always be supportive of one another. Thank you to everyone who has offered us kindness and support over the years." This is a celebrity break-up no one saw coming.

In celebrity news, another celebrity couple bites the dust! What are some ways to know you are better off as friends with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you are a Hollywood star or not, love comes and goes just the same—and sometimes it's for the better. It's not always easy to see that a break-up is beneficial when it's happening, but often times it ends up as a good thing. The love you shared as a couple has the potential to turn into a stable friendship if things go correctly:

1. Identity thief: This doesn't necessarily mean a significant other stealing your credit card number. It could mean losing yourself in your relationship. If you get to a point where you feel you've taken on so much of your significant other's qualities and interest over the course of your relationship, it may be time for a break or break-up. Choosing to step back from your relationship to be friends instead will allow you to rekindle your own interests before you forget what they were to begin with.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Kylie Jenner Is Trying to 'Stay Strong' After Split with Tyga

2. No spark: At the beginning of a relationship, the butterflies come easily because everything is new, but if you're a few months in and it feels more like a few years, it may be time to turn this romantic relationship into a friendship. You two may enjoy each other's company, but without a real spark, you're headed for friendship bracelets rather than wedding bands.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amber Heard Files for Celebrity Divorce from Johnny Depp

3. Fundamental differences: In order to have a long lasting romantic relationship, certain things need to line up. You should like each other's families, have similar priorities, want to live in the same region—basic, necessary things like that. If you want to lead an expensive lifestyle and your significant other pinches pennies at every turn, or you need to live in a city and your significant other wants to live in the country—those may be an early indicators that you two will be better as friends in the future.

Olivia's opening act was a little too flashy, and she gets made fun of, then has a nervous breakdown.

Ben's one-on-one date with JoJo was adorable as the helicopter almost knocked JoJo and Ben to the ground while they were trying to drink champagne and be romantic. However, Ben made it up as he gave JoJo a kiss, while all the girls were watching from the hotel. JoJo also opens up to Ben about past relationships and love. Becca and Ben had a cute date at a chapel (maybe foreshadowing the future), and she opened up about being a virgin. Ben's date with the twins was a little strange as he had more of a connection with twin sister Emily and no connection with Emily's twin Haley, making it awkward in the sister duo. Unfortunately, not everyone can stay around and he sent Amber and Rachel home this week during the rose ceremony. Now, who do I think should stay and go after hearing all the celebrity news?

Celebrity News: What Happens In Vegas Doesn't Stay In Vegas on The Bachelor This Season

Olivia: Olivia has officially gone mad. She is extremely possessive over Ben and also gets extremely jealous when Ben is on dates with the other girls. Sorry Olivia, this is what you signed up for.

Stay or Go: She needs to go, go, go! She makes for good television, however she is crazy and I have no idea why Ben decided to let her stay.

JoJo: Her date with Ben went really well this week and I think Ben was really into her. Ben also really appreciated that she opened up about her past relationships and love.

Stay or Go: Stay. I think she is a big contender for the final rose.

Becca: Becca and Ben's date went extremely well, and it was cute it took place in a chapel. Maybe we could see them next on our feature celebrity couple page? Ben gave her a rose at the end of the date.

Stay or Go: Stay! Another contender for the final rose, I think.

Haley: Her date was awkward from the beginning, Ben went on a date with Haley and her sister and had more of a connection with Emily. Since the twins are from Vegas, Ben got to go to their hometown and talk to their mother. Ben decided to let go of Haley in front of her mom.

Stay or Go: Haley definitely needs to go. He has more of a connection with Emily, and at first being twins was cute or creepy (whatever you prefer to think) so I think that whole situation just needs to go.

We can't wait to see what happens next week, when the ladies viva a la Mexico!

The Bachelor airs on ABC on Mondays at 8/7c. Check back next

Being born into a family involved in criminal activity is nothing new for the cast of the reality TV show Mob Wives. However, the newest member Brittany Fogarty is only 25 years old and spent most of her childhood in Pennsylvania after her family was relocated when she just two years old. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Fogarty gives us the latest celebrity news about the upcoming drama on the final season of the VH1 hit and dishes about her relationship and love life.

Reality TV star Brittany Fogarty Talks About The Final Season and Dishes On Her Relationship and Love Life In This Celebrity Interview

Welcome to the show! How has it been being the newest member on Mob Wives?

It's definitely been a fun experience but also very dramatic.

Is there anything you want people to know about you before they see any of the show?

The show focuses in on a lot of the conflict and aggression. I think people should know that there is a lot more to most of us than just hostility and arguments.

Not only are you the newest member, but the youngest. Do you think this has changed the way the other ladies have treated you? For better or worse?

Absolutely. I think many of the women see my age as a threat and it's hard for them to accept the fact that someone so much younger like myself can stand my ground, form my own opinions and outwit them.

What was the hardest part about joining the show?

The hardest part for me was learning how to publicly open up about my family and personal life. I'm a pretty private person so that was a big change for me.

We know you love Drita. What do you think about her calling Karen out publicly on social media recently?

From what I see from Drita, she never really does that kind of thing on social media. So in my opinion, Drita must have been fed up with all the constant rumors and verbal attacks on her family.

What made you so close to Drita?

I just genuinely liked her off the bat. I felt she was different from all of the other women on the show in that she is the most down to earth. She never had a superior, controlling, or judgmental attitude with me unlike many of the other women.

Why did you decide to join the cast this season? Is there anything in particular that you hope to gain by doing the show?

I joined the cast because I saw it as an exciting opportunity and as a great platform. I also thought the show could use more people who don't idolize "the lifestyle."

Did becoming a part of the Mob Wives cast bring up emotions from your past?

Absolutely. Mostly emotions about my relationship with my father and what we've had to go through because of the life he chose.

Has your relationship and love life changed now that you are a reality TV star?

I'm a lot busier and I am focusing on myself and my career right now.

What would be an ideal date night for any eligible bachelors that are reading this?

I love food and being outside, so a relaxing outdoor dinner with some good conversation is always a safe bet with me. And being by a beach is even better.

What can we expect from you once this season is over?

I love fashion, so of course I'm going to continue modeling but I will be working towards moving into the design world of fashion. I'm always working on growing my jewelry business but I would like to start expanding. Designing my own collections of clothing is definitely in my plans.
