

Celebrity Interview: E!'s 'Famously Single' Dating Coach Laurel House Says "Every Episode Has Drama!"

Interviewed and Written by Cortney Moore.

Last month, E! debuted its newest reality TV show, Famously Single, which features one of Cupid's own, Laurel House. As an experienced relationship expert, House has had the opportunity to work closely with celebrities to fix their love lives, so it was only natural that E! selected her as one of the dating coaches to bolster their celebrity cast. In our exclusive celebrity interview, House opens up about her experience on the show and the relationship advice she offered the celebrity cast members.

Celebrity Interview: Laurel House Talks E!'s Newest Star-Studded Reality TV Show 'Famously Single'

Famously Single explores the dating lives of eight celebrities: Brandi Glanville, Aubrey O'Day, Pauly D, Jessica White, Willis McGahee, Somaya Reece, Calum Best and Josh Murray. With House's expertise and guidance, each celebrity is able to examine their behavior and past experiences in order to understand why their relationships have failed. But why do celebrities often experience failed relationships in the first place? House says, "The reality is that just because they're celebrities, doesn't mean that they're really all that different when it comes to entertaining difficulties and insecurities." She went on, saying, "Anyone can relate to the dating problem the celebrities are struggling with." In her expert opinion, celebrities are relatable because their insecurities stem from fear. Their careers require them to have both public and private personas, which sometimes conflict and are damaging if revealed.

Prior to meeting the cast, House expected the celebrities to be "high maintenance or catty," but was pleasantly surprised when she was able to work with them. "They were all truly amazing human beings, with the most gigantic hearts," she says. She also expressed how delighted she was to see these stars open up and reveal their more vulnerable sides. Two celebrities who stood out in her mind when discussing authenticity and kindness were Pauly D and Calum Best, both of whom are known for their wild party sides. "There is so much more than that," she reveals, referencing who they truly are. As far as which cast member inspired her, House says it was Somaya Reece who opened her eyes. She adds, "She's been through a tremendous amount of pain and difficulty in her life, and she's overcome it more than anyone I've ever seen." House believes the challenges in Reece's life made her fragile, which is similar to the stories of many celebrities. "There is some fragility with these celebrities. Yes, they're very strong and put up strong exteriors, but that's for public consumption. They do have a very fragile and soft side, and that's the beauty of them."

Though House was able to get most of the celebrities to open up, her experience as their dating coach was not all smooth sailing. A number of the celebrity cast members gave her a difficult time at some point or another while filming. Two such celebrities were Willis McGahee and Josh Murray, both of whom she met in episode 2 during the cast's outing to a club. "I was personally very surprised by Willis's request to join him in the bathroom," House admitted when asked about the incident. Although she was surprised by his invitation, she wants audiences to understand that a situation like this isn't uncommon for a professional athlete. "In the sports industry, women are throwing themselves at you," she explains. "So while it was surprising to me, it's not a surprise that it happened. And it's not reflective of Willis as a human being because he's a really good man; it's just that he has been shown that this is the norm throughout his life as a football player." Murray's standoffish behavior towards her, on the other hand, was very disheartening. "Instead of taking the connection that we had and turning that into a conversation, he took the connection and immediately thought that I was conniving," House says about their interaction at the club. Despite Murray's harsh treatment, she understood where he was coming from. "He's the newest celebrity in the house and he's not used to all this additional attention," House says. She went on to explain that many celebs are defensive because they're unsure of people's ulterior motives.

Another challenge House faced while trying to mentor the celebrities were changed personas when the cameras were rolling. With Calum Best in particular, House's skills were tested in getting him to show his real self while the cameras were on. Aside from changing personalities, House reveals that the most challenging and fun celebrity to mentor was Aubrey O'Day. "She didn't just take my advice and do what I said. She wanted to discuss it and really come to wrap her head around it and understand the theory behind it and why," House explains in our celebrity interview. "The questions that she asked showed me that she was invested in making change and analyzing herself so she could be in a real sustainable, loving and happy relationship, which she found in Pauly D." And O'Day isn't the only celebrity who has found love through the show. According to House, Reece has also found love with a woman where there is "mutual respect and mutual adoration," which were essential pieces she was missing in her past relationships.

House hopes the other, currently single, celebrity cast members will be able to find love through the relationship advice she provided for them during the show. The piece of advice she believes is crucial to their success is having real and substantive conversations. For celebrities, she says it's important "to get away from the 'I'm a celebrity' conversation and get into the real conversation where the celebrity no longer feels like a celebrity, but feels like a normal person." Aside from valuable love advice, House assured us that Famously Single is still a reality TV show packed with entertaining drama. "Every episode has a big surprise, every episode has drama. Truly every single day I could not wait to get into that house and see what was going on." But despite having fun on set, cast members on the show took their roles very seriously. There was not a single person House doubted and she hopes viewers will see how pure everyone's intentions were. "Everyone at their core is looking for love and connection. No matter what they say, that's the desire."

Famously Single airs Tuesdays on E! at 10 p.m. EST.

Celebrity News: Justin Bieber Hangs with Selena Gomez Look-alike in Miami

By Cortney Moore

Justin Bieber is making celebrity news once more, after being spotted with model Alexandra Rodriguez, who some believe shares an uncanny resemblance to his ex-girlfriend Selena Gomez! The public watched Bieber and Gomez's rollercoaster on-and-off celebrity relationship from 2009 to 2015. However, it seems that Bieber has moved on to become a celebrity couple with Rodriguez, though they have yet to confirm whether or not they're official. According to UsMagazine.com, Bieber was seen getting very close to Rodriguez in Miami this week. Onlookers told Us that "Bieber affectionately held onto the brunette beauty's waist," which indeed sounds like this pair could actually be a celebrity couple!

This celebrity news proves that old habits die hard. What are some ways to determine your "type"?

Cupid's Advice:

When we're dating, there are always a few common traits that we gravitate towards. We often look for these traits in a partner and then call them our "type." For those who are unsure of what their type is, Cupid is here to help you determine which is best for you:

1. Shared interests: A simple and straight forward way to determine your type is by finding interests you both share. If you tend to like people who like the same things you do, then you can determine that your type must be compatible with your hobbies and lifestyle. At the very least, your type should show an interest in the things you do.

2. Similar energy levels: Another important trait in finding your type is knowing how energetic you want them to be. If you like being active then you want someone that will be active with you. If you prefer low energy activities, you'll need someone who likes doing that as well. Dating a person who has an opposing energy level from your own is not the right type for you.

3. Mutual desire: Hopefully if you're trying to get into a serious relationship, you want someone who is attracted to you the same way you are to them. Don't try to force anything that isn't there. If you're not desiring to be in another's presence then they are not your type. A relationship without desire or passion is a friendship, go find someone who can satisfy your romantic needs.

Celebrity Couple Gwen Stefani & Blake Shelton Enjoy 'Honey Moon' After Birthday Celebration

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton took a birthday trip that will give you date night envy for a lifetime. According to UsMagazine.com, to celebrate Shelton turning 40, Stefani decorated a private jet that took the couple to Shelton's farm in Oklahoma. This celebrity couple is finding new and exciting things to do together. What are some adventurous date ideas to plan for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Though most of us won't be riding a private jet for a birthday trip anytime soon, there are still many ways to keep things exciting. Date night doesn't have to be dinner and a movie. Cupid is here to help you think outside the box for your next date night:

1. Something you'd never do: If you're like most couples, there is probably something your partner loves to do that you really don't care for. Whether it's horseback riding, sports, or shopping, plan a day of that activity. Your partner will be impressed that you went out of your way and out of your comfort zone, to do something they really love.

2. Adventures close to home: Wherever you live, especially if it's in the U.S., there is a good chance that there is a park near to where you live that you've never visited. State parks in the U.S. range from beach to mountain depending on where you live, and they normally don't cost more than ten dollars. Find a place close to home that you've never been to and make a date. And, if the outdoors isn't your thing, search for an indoor rock climbing facility or even take a dance class. The definition of adventure will vary by couple.

Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Sets Record Straight About Moving Out of Nick Young's House

By Nicole Caico

Iggy Azalea used Twitter as her platform to shut down rumors about the end of her celebrity relationship with NBA player Nick Young. The celebrity couple had gotten engaged in June 2015, but, as UsMagazine.com reports, an alleged cheating scandal exposed by Young's NBA teammate D'Angelo Russell earlier this year has driven them apart. Recently, pictures of the L.A. home Azalea lives in have shown a car being towed and locks being changed. On Twitter, Azalea made it clear that she was not behind this, saying, "I never had anyone's car towed nor did I kick nick out of 'my' house. The home belongs to nick, I am the one moving. Thanks."

This celebrity news has us holding our breath a bit. What are three ways to completely detach yourself from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a messy split, two people want nothing to do with each other. The most important thing to do after getting out of a long relationship is to distance yourself from the other person. Detaching yourself from your ex may be difficult, but it's necessary. Cupid has some tips:

1. Social media detox: In this day and age, you can do everything to cut ties with an ex, but if you don't remove them on social media, they'll be popping up forever. Delete traces of the relationship from your own pages and unfriend them on all of your accounts.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Taylor Swift Caught Kissing Tom Hiddleston Two Weeks After Split

2. Cut off communication: If you're finding yourself wanting to text your ex, take the extra step to delete the contact in your phone. If you don't have your ex's number, you can't contact them—simple, yet effective. Then if they contact you at some point, you'll seem totally over it when you reply,

“Who’s this?”

3. Material things: Whether you live in your ex’s house or have photos and gifts all over your apartment, make a change. If you lived together you’ll definitely have to move out, and if you live on your own, take some time to find things from your ex and clean them out of your space. If you’re a very sentimental person and can’t bear to throw the items away, at least pack up the gifts and photos into a box and stow them away. Out of sight, out of mind.

to cope when your ex moves on with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are never fun. And, seeing your ex move on before you do can sometimes be painful. Cupid is here to help you cope:

1. Reflection: Your relationship is over now. Take some time to think about why that is. Reflect on what made you and your ex break up in the first place. Analyzing what went wrong while you were together can help you avoid repeating the mistakes that made your spark fizzle out.

2. Keep busy: Depending on how long you were in a relationship, you can find yourself feeling a bit lonely after your breakup. Don't dwell on the negatives! Engage in your old hobbies, or try to get into new ones. This is the perfect time for you to enjoy solo activities. If going solo isn't for you, make time for family and friends. Being sociable will keep you from fixating on what your ex is doing.

3. Don't stalk: Social media is a great tool, but it can also be a curse. DO NOT stalk your ex! This will only prolong your hurt. Sure, you might be curious to see what your ex is up to with their new significant other, sometimes hoping that they're not happy. Don't do this. You'll definitely come across things you wish you hadn't known. Stalking your ex is a punishment. Choose to work on yourself instead.

Kansas met Natiece on Instagram, which many wouldn't think of as a reliable platform for dating, but they made it work and began a relationship. This story isn't too unusual in this day and age. However, their story is just one of the many relationships followed on Oxygen's newest reality TV show, Virtually in Love. This show that has been a hit with audiences since its debut because it takes online dating face-to-face. Couples on the show encounter their own series of challenges, and Kansas and Natiece were no exception. With sneak peeks of their episode released by Oxygen, Kansas and Natiece have not been completely honest with each other. Will love prevail? Cupid had the pleasure of getting to know Kansas and heard her side of the story in our exclusive celebrity interview.

Virtually In Love's* Kansas discusses online relationships & provides relationship advice in celebrity interview.

It would seem that specialized dating websites are no longer the only tool for making a connection online. In an unlikely series of events, the photo sharing app, Instagram, brought Kansas and Natiece together. "Well, when I saw her, she had posted something sad," Kansas said regarding their first online encounter. "When I see people post sad things I just let them know that if they need someone to talk to, they can talk to me. And she wanted to talk, so that's what happened." Their initial interactions were platonic. Kansas helped Natiece get through a break-up she was going through, and as time went on, the pair eventually found themselves in a relationship.

Kansas, who also happens to be a Kansas state native, wasn't worried about meeting the North Carolina basketball star. She admits that she was more concerned about whether or not she could fulfill Natiece's expectations. In regard to her first reality TV appearance, Kansas said, "It was fun in a sense." However, at the same time, she was there to meet Natiece and get to know her better. "We had stuff that we wanted to talk about, and it kind of felt like we were talking to everybody." Despite the cameras following their journey, Kansas expresses gratitude at having an opportunity to share her story.

As seen in past episodes of Virtually in Love, the couples aren't only meeting each other for the first time, but they are also facing their issues head on. Online video teasers released by Oxygen show that Kansas and Natiece have been keeping secrets from each other. For instance, Natiece refrains from telling Kansas that she was engaged before and still holds on to her ring. Also, Kansas doesn't tell Natiece that she had been seeing someone else for a time, while also keeping her relationship with Natiece a secret from her mother. To shed some light on her actions, Kansas explained, saying, "I didn't know what to expect, that's why I wasn't really ready to say anything." Pertaining to the situation that involved her mother, who doesn't approve of same-sex relationships, Kansas said, "I thought it'd be better to have [Natiece] there." Kansas went on to say that having Natiece present when she talked to her mother would force her to tell the truth about her sexuality.

When asked whether or not a long distance relationship impacted her views positively or negatively, Kansas said that her experience has been both. "I've had, with dating online, good experiences and bad experiences. I think it could be very similar to dating someone in real life, except they're not there." Additionally, Kansas expresses her sadness at the tragedy that unfolded in Orlando this past week at the Pulse nightclub. "It didn't just affect the victims and their families; I feel that it affected the whole United States." Kansas also went on to express that she believes the world needs to stop hating and start loving. "We just got to figure out where to start.”

When it comes to relationship advice and online dating tips, Kansas believes it's important to do research and stay true to oneself. “If you're going to do it, go in a hundred percent because you don't know what the other person is feeling for you,” Kansas said. “You don't want to be confused in an online relationship.” After her experience on the show, Kansas stresses honesty as the best policy, but of course online daters need to do their research to avoid instances like catfishing. “Be yourself,” she advised. “If you start off being yourself there won't be any surprises.”

Keep up with Kansas and Natiece's relationship on Virtually in Love, and find out if they stayed together or drifted apart.

Now that Lamar Odom is back on his feet after a near death experience, Khloe Kardashian has decided to continue pursuing a divorce. The celebrity couple's in-progress celebrity divorce was dropped when Odom was hospitalized and in critical condition, but now Odom is dragging his feet. According to People.com, on the latest episode of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Kardashian talked about her celebrity relationship with Odom saying, "I want to have kids and maybe to be remarried one day. I need to move on, and I will be filling for divorce very soon."

This celebrity divorce has been a long time coming. How do you know when it's time to pull the plug on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all relationships work out, celebrity relationships and normal relationships alike. It is important to know when to call it quits, whether that means a break up or a divorce. Cupid has some tips:

1. Try and try again: If you both know that you've tried over and over to fix issues in your relationship, anything ranging from money to friends to communication, and nothing is getting better it may be time to consider a split. If a true effort was made and no positive changes came out of it, that is just foreshadowing for how the rest of the marriage will go.

2. Trust issues: If you have any reason to believe that your other half is cheating, that needs to be investigated. If your husband or wife cheats on you, that may be your cue to walk out the door. Such a severe break in trust may mean the end for your marriage.

3. No laughing matter: If your husband or wife develops an issue too serious to handle, you may need to consider divorce. A drug or drinking addiction, or violent/abusive behavior, may be something that is too big for you to handle. If the issues of your husband or life become dangerous to you, pulling the plug on your marriage may be in your best interest.

Celebrity News: Gigi Hadid Tweets Support for Zayn Malik After Canceled Concert Due to Anxiety

By Nicole Caico

Shortly after Zayn Malik took to Twitter on Saturday, June 11 to make a statement about missing a London performance due to severe anxiety, Gigi Hadid tweeted her support for him. Solidifying their “on again” celebrity relationship status, according to UsMagazine.com, Gigi wrote, “We are all here to support you and make each experience easier. Your talent and good heart will never lead you wrong. Love you and so proud of you always ☺ xG.” Having just gotten back together after a short split, Malik and Hadid are proving to be a perfectly supportive celebrity couple.

In celebrity news, Zayn Malik is getting support from his partner. What are some ways to support your partner through mental challenges?

Cupid's Advice:

Like a lot of people, Zayn Malik copes with anxiety. Often anxiety is a mental challenge that gets played down, but it's nothing to glaze over. Being in a relationship with someone who has anxiety takes a bit of extra work and consideration. Gigi Hadid made sure to show her support on Twitter, and there are other ways to show support for a significant other with anxiety as well:

1. Patience: The most basic, but possibly most effective, way to support your anxious significant other is to be patient. Anxiety attacks can happen anywhere at any time, and nothing could make an attack worse than being criticized for needing some time to calm down.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gigi Hadid & Zayn Malik Are Back Together

2. Get a better understanding: Take time to learn if there are certain things that trigger your significant other's anxiety. Learn what your SO needs in order to calm down from an anxiety attack and try to give him/her that when the time comes. Taking time to understand your partner's anxiety will make your significant other feel supported and loved.

3. Acknowledge their struggle: Anxiety is not the only mental challenge out there. Whether it is anxiety, depression, OCD, or any other challenge your partner may face, these steps apply. Being patient, knowing what you can do to help, and just acknowledging the fact that the mental challenge your partner faces is real and valid will help your relationship succeed.

Celebrity News: Text Experts Says Amber Heard Text Exchange with Johnny Depp's Assistant Is Authentic

By Nicole Caico

Amber Heard recently filed for divorce from Johnny Depp. The news of the celebrity divorce surfaced just before claims of domestic abuse arose. Heard claims that the celebrity relationship had been violent. According to People.com, the alleged text exchange between Amber Heard and Depp's assistant, Stephen Deuters, was analyzed by tech specialist, Kevin Cohen, who confirmed the authenticity, "On Sunday, June 5, 2016, I was asked to examine iPhone backups of Amber Heard," he said. "It was her normal routine to sync her iPhone on the computer. I forensically imaged and examined the device containing Ms. Heard's iPhone backups, and I conclude that the backups are authentic."

In celebrity news, Johnny Depp is under fire for assaulting Amber Heard. What are some ways to seek help in a violent relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Domestic violence is extremely serious. Hollywood couples are not isolated from the reality of abuse, and neither are normal couples. Domestic violence is to be treated seriously and stopped as soon as possible in any situation:

1. Tell someone you know: A good place to start when seeking help in a violent relationship is to tell someone close to you, that you trust, what is happening. Talking about the violence that you have been dealing with alone can help you come to terms with the situation, and allow the person you tell to support you.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amber Heard Files for Celebrity Divorce from Johnny Depp

2. Call a hotline: There are several domestic violence hotlines, both state and national. Either search for the hotline you would like to call, or have someone make the search and the call for you. How you choose to go about this is a personal choice varies case by case. If you or someone you know is a victim of domestic violence, here is one national hotline that you can call: <http://www.thehotline.org>, 1-800-799-7233.

Cupid’s Advice:

Long lasting relationships are hard to find. At times you may date someone and truly wonder how long you’ll be together. Cupid is here to help you determine whether your relationship will last:

1. Values: In order to make a relationship last, you need to know what your partner values. Sometimes you can tell if a relationship has an expiration date if you both value different things. Learning about what is most important for your partner to be happy is achieved by having open communication with each other.

Cupid’s Advice:

Marriage is an exciting relationship milestone, but when the nuptials are over, you might find yourself wanting to expand your family. Cupid is here to help you figure out when you should have your first child:

1. Security: A perfect time to have a child is when you are secure financially and emotionally. Children are huge responsibilities, especially when they’re infants. Making sure you can provide all that they need and deserve will help you get through this sometimes stressful stage.

Celebrity Wedding: 'That 70's Show' Star Topher Grace Marries Ashley Hinshaw

By Nicole Caico

On Sunday, May 29, Topher Grace married Ashley Hinshaw. The celebrity wedding took place in Montecito, California. According to UsMagazine.com, Grace, who starred as Eric Forman on That 70s Show, proposed to Hinshaw in January 2015 with a square cut engagement ring. This celebrity couple is now basking in post-wedding bliss!

This celebrity wedding was said to be super romantic. What are some unique ways to add romantic touches to your wedding ceremony?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is something you'll never forget, so naturally you want it to be perfect. Adding romantic touches to your ceremony makes your day all the more special and personal for you and your betrothed:

1. Words from the heart: The classic first step in customizing your ceremony and stepping up the romance is writing your own vows. Writing your own vows gives you the chance to tell your significant other how much they mean to you in front of all your friends and family, in your own words. It also gives you the opportunity to show who you are as a couple, as vows can be kept serious or you can squeeze a few jokes in there. And as a bonus, there's almost no way to mess up writing your vows, it won't take world's best writer to come up with heartfelt words for the person they are about to marry.

Related Link: Eva Longoria Marries Jose Baston in Romantic Celebrity Wedding in Mexico

2. A creative welcome: If there is space in the area where your guests will be entering your ceremony location, consider putting something there. Collages of you and your significant other from childhood, or pictures of you two together. Maybe even consider putting a small polaroid camera there and a cork board so guests can snap a pic on the way in and hang them up for you to keep. Adding a personal touch before the ceremony even begins will set a great tone for whatever is to come.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding News: Hilary Swank Is Engaged to BF Ruben Torres

3. Do away with rice: Typically at the end of a wedding ceremony, guests toss rice as the bride and groom make their way out to the car. This is yet another aspect of your ceremony that you can add a personal, romantic twist to. Instead of rice, have your guest throw something that is symbolic of your relationship. If you can both agree on a favorite flower, have guests throw those petals, or order confetti that is shaped like characters from your favorite movie. Romantic touches can be subtle!

Not everyone can afford to fly to another country for an anniversary, but just because your plans might not cost you thousands doesn’t mean it can’t be special. Cupid has some tips:

1. A trip down memory lane: Flip through wedding photos, press “play” on your wedding video, and remember your special day together. Spend your anniversary looking back on the years that you’ve spent together, and the experiences that have gotten you where you are as a couple. Surprise your mate with simple memories.

Relationship Advice: Are Your BF and Best Friend Too Close for Comfort?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Recent images of Selena Gomez with Katy Perry's boyfriend Orlando Bloom looking cozy together had people talking about whether a celebrity relationship was brewing, but the women cleared up the celebrity news, quickly promising there was nothing inappropriate going on between them. Selena took to Twitter to endorse Katy's quick response to the pictures. Katy addressed the drama surrounding the two of them, calling it a "dumb conspiracy." While Katy is clearly confident there's nothing going on with them, sometimes remaining secure in your relationship when your partner has close female friends can be challenging.

This gives us the opportunity for important relationship advice around the following question: Is there such a thing as being too close to your girlfriend's boyfriend, and is there a point when it can and does feel threatening?

When we become close to someone, our natural instinct is to share them with the other people we are close to. Eventually you want to introduce your new boyfriend to your best friend so you can proudly show them how great the other is. You might even end up spending a lot of time together as a group. Sometimes, this can lead to a separate connection between your significant other and your friend. That is all okay to a point.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Why Are Women Attracted to Unavailable Men?

However, there is a definite line that exists which defines how close the two most important people in your life can get to each other, and that is based on the fact that you are sexually intimate with your boyfriend so there is a clear element of exclusivity that should never be violated by either party. As long as the connection remains about sharing the strong feelings they have for you, it is all good. If there is ever a point when you might feel threatened or begin to doubt their intentions, then follow this relationship advice tip and start to think about putting boundaries in place. How can you tell if that time has come?

The first red flag is if you start to feel left out. If your boyfriend and best friend develop inside jokes that you are not a part of, or they find reasons to spend time together away from you – even if you are sick or out of town – it is only natural to wonder if something is brewing between them. Another indication of a problem could be if your friend is admiring you so much that she starts to dress and act like you. If it begins to appear that she almost wants to be you, which can sometimes be flattering, but usually means she is jealous of what you have and might want it for herself, you should absolutely be on guard.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 5 Ways to 'Affair-Proof' Your Relationship

The best way to gauge when and if that line is being crossed is to trust your feelings and go with your instincts. If it is all positive, and your interactions are supportive and caring, then that is exactly what love and friendship is about. But if you start to feel uneasy, uncomfortable or a sense of competition surfaces from your friend, that is a good time to start setting limits on how much time you spend together as a group, and begin to monitor what you share with your friend so you can build your own sense of identity separate from her, which is a great piece of relationship advice. By doing this, you can protect yourself and not have to worry about being betrayed by someone close to you.

In Selena Gomez and Katy Perry's situation, all is above board. With these tools in place, you can make sure it will be for you, too

Iyanya and Maria met and began dating online. Their story is just one of the many relationships followed on Oxygen Media's new reality TV show, Virtually in Love. The show takes the popularity of online dating and creates an exciting reality TV experience, where we follow young and eager couples as they progress in their relationships. Cupid's Pulse had the pleasure of getting to know Iyanya and Maria in our exclusive celebrity interview.

Virtually In Love's Iyanya Discusses Online Relationship & Provides Relationship Advice in Celebrity Interview

An unlikely place to find love, the social networking app, Instagram brought Maria and Iyanya together. "I was not looking to date anybody. I liked her humor and I thought she was attractive," Iyanya says of Maria, a 33-year-old lash stylist living in Sweden. After several months of talking through direct messenger on Instagram, the two got to know each other and soon found themselves in a relationship.

Related Link: Dating Advice: The Psychology of Online Dating

The Brooklyn native was not concerned about the distance between himself and Maria, although he resides in Brooklyn, NY and she was living in Sweden. He considered it a "low-pressure situation." At first, Iyanya did not rush into the relationship, wanting it to form organically and not feel forced. The current model, actor, and DJ had no intention of dating and was focusing on his career. But the couple instantly fit together, "It didn't take long to realize we actually enjoyed each other."

The concept of Virtually In Love is that audiences get to know a couple that has been in an online relationship while watching them as they break down barriers by meeting in person and being introduced to their significant other's friends and family. For Iyanya and Maria, they dated for four months before deciding to take their relationship to the next level and meet in person. Their initial meeting was in Brooklyn, in front of the show's cameras and they definitely felt the pressure. However, Iyanya said he was happy to finally connect with Maria face-to-face, "I felt alive," he says of their first encounter. Maria stayed with Iyanya for a week. "I loved the way she smelled," something unattainable and unknown through an online connection.

When asked if there was anything unexpected that he felt when they first met, Iyanya mentioned that Maria was shorter than he expected. But meeting in person did not change the emotional part of their relationship too much, "the vibe was always there" he said in our celebrity interview. He went on to explain that there were some big differences between talking online and meeting in person, and the emotional aspect of their relationship was online, but now in-person they introduced the physical aspect as well.

Related Link: Love Advice: What Makes A Great Online Dating Profile

When it comes to relationship advice and tips for dating online, Iyanya stresses the importance of naturally getting to know someone and not forcing a relationship. "In relationships, people tend to prematurely get together," he says. The self-described people person feels it's crucial to be true to yourself in online relationships because the truth will come out either way. "Know yourself," he advises.

Keep up with Iyanya and Maria's celebrity relationship on Virtually In Love and find out if they stayed together or drifted apart.
