Celebrity News: Demi Lovato Says 'Manly' Boyfriend Wilmer Valderrama 'Loves So Hard'

By Stephanie Sacco

Demi Lovato seems to have found “the one.” In celebrity news, Demi Lovato and Wilmer Valderrama are still going strong. According to UsMagazine.com, this celebrity relationship has lasted for six years. Lovato had nothing but good things to say about her man, saying, “When I dated white guys, it wasn’t as passionate as my relationship with Wilmer. Maybe that’s just Wilmer. But I do believe that Latin people are just more expressive, more passionate with their emotions.” She added, “He’s very manly, and he can be stubborn like Latino men can, but he’s protective and he cares so much and loves so hard.” This duo are proving that long-term relationships can last.

In celebrity news, Demi Lovato is totally smitten. What are some ways to keep the spark alive in your long-term relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Long-term relationships can get dull or tedious and can even provoke thoughts of break-ups. It’s important to keep the spark alive. Cupid is here to help:

1. Surprises: Plan surprise dates for your partner or cook a meal for them without their knowledge. Send flowers to your partner’s place of work. Keep them on their toes.

Celebrity Couple News: Why Jay-Z Didn't Accompany Beyonce to the Met Gala

By Cortney Moore

Beyonce Knowles-Carter pulled out all the stops at the 2016 MET Gala! Sporting a form-fitting nude latex Givenchy dress embroidered with dazzling pearls, the soulful songstress turned heads as usual. However, audiences couldn't help, but notice that husband Jay-Z was missing in action, especially after recent celebrity couple news reports that are questioning their celebrity relationship. After Beyonce's visual album Lemonade was released, speculation of the couple's longevity arose due to the album's theme of infidelity. According to a source from UsMagazine.com, though, Jay-Z did not attend the gala simply because "He's done it before," and "There's just no big reason for him to go."

There is no big celebrity couple drama going on here! What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Drama is fun to watch, but experiencing it can be exhausting! There are times when drama is inevitable in a relationship though. Cupid is here to offer some relationship advice that will keep your love life drama-free:

1. Open communication: Being able to speak with your partner openly about issues that arise in your relationship will allow you both to tackle your problems head on. A lack of good communication will only let unspoken issues fester into something far uglier in the future.

2. Let it go: Most of the time, drama that comes up just isn't worth addressing. If outside forces are trying to disrupt your relationship, it might just be best to ignore it and let it roll right off your back. As long as you and your partner are alright with the status of your relationship, forget what others have to say.

3. Don't give up: If you wish to have a successful relationship, it's important to stay united. Drama can be toxic. Even if you and your partner are currently upset with each other, don't just throw everything away. The best relationships take work.

Relationship Advice: Making Marriage Work Like Beyoncé

By Dr. Jane Greer

During the premiere of her new visual album Lemonade this past weekend, Beyoncé shared very personal moments between her and her husband, Jay-Z. The celebrity couple have had their share of marital rough patches. The challenge of a successful marriage is making it work with all of the elements of difficulty that arise, whether that be finances, children, in-laws, infidelity, or whatever else might bring a bump in the road to a relationship.

Beyoncé is addressing this important aspect of how much work goes into a marriage in this new album, and she is carrying on with the effort to make her bond with Jay-Z better and stronger than ever.

Beyoncé and Jay-Z share a celebrated personal and professional celebrity relationship, but you don't have to build an empire with your partner to make it worthwhile to preserve what you have together. Even so, this idea of having to work and put effort into a marriage or relationship is often frowned upon, and gets a bad reputation because it takes on this connotation of being a burden, a chore, or a responsibility. It's as though people think if it isn't easy, then it's better to just call it quits and get out.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: What Beyoncé's Body Language Says About Her Love for Jay-Z

When Ben Affleck so famously said that marriage takes work, it was like he said something awful, instead of something positive. It reminds me of a couple that came to see me a few years back. Things were difficult between them, and the husband didn't really want to be there. He asked, "Why should I have to work at it? If it's so much work, then we must be in a really bad state. So, why not just end it?" I said, "Okay, you can make that choice, but keep in mind then you are going to have to put the work into dismantling your marriage." I went on to highlight all the effort that would take – dealing with the divorce, splitting up their assets, finding a new place to live, starting to date again. And then, if he was lucky enough to find someone he liked and wanted to spend time with, he would have to hope that he got it exactly right that time so he wouldn't find himself having to work on that relationship one day. He looked at me and said, "Okay, let's work on the marriage." He could finally see that there was no guaranteed easy route, and as I pointed out, nobody gets a pass, so it was worth it to him to try to take his marriage to a higher ground.

Related Link: What Can We Learn From Celebrity Divorces?

So, how do you begin to work on your marriage or relationship? The most important piece of relationship advice I can offer you is communication. So often there are misunderstandings and one person can become defensive or take something personally, which is not meant to be that way at all. Without talking about it, on both ends, people can begin to feel disappointed and alone. I have one patient who was dating a woman he really liked. Their first few dates were great, but on the fourth date he avoided kissing her goodnight and anything else that would go along with that. She was clearly upset, withdrew and didn't take his calls for several days. He was clueless about why this was happening, and didn't understand what had prompted her cold shoulder. He started to think he had been wrong about her; who needed to date a woman who changed her mind so suddenly? So, I encouraged him to talk to her, rather than just respond to what seemed like a negative situation. I told him that since he saw this as a promising relationship, he might as well ask her what was going on. When he did, she told him the truth, that she felt bad and unattractive when he didn't kiss her the other night. And then it all became clear to him. The truth was, he had eaten a whole clove of raw garlic at dinner, he didn't realize it until it was too late, and he was self-conscious about his breath. She had no idea about the garlic, so she thought he was rejecting her. Once he told her why he hadn't kissed her, she completely understood and even laughed about it. What they went through is a prime example of a couple doing the work. Without being open with each other, their relationship could have skidded off the track. Instead, I am happy to report they are very much in love and planning to move in together.

It is so basic really, but so important. The crux of any relationship is being able to speak to your needs and real feelings in a way that doesn't carry blame. The hope is that you will each understand what the other person is experiencing. Once you are able to do that, you can put your heads together to find common ground and compromise, eventually realizing that the whole of your connection rises above each of your individual needs. Working on it means being willing to challenge yourself, to push yourself past your comfort zone, to be willing to be open, sometimes trying something new and different, which is not always easy. It means not reacting to the other person, but checking things out with them first. It means being willing to struggle with uncertainty and tolerate the frustration that goes along with waiting for changes to happen, and not knowing if they will. It is about balancing your hope for the future against your disappointments of the past, so you can continue to persevere together.

In the end it is that world and life you have built together that will fuel the effort it takes to do the work that makes it work. The art of problem-solving with your partner takes creativity and brainstorming, and makes you closer because you each feel cared about and supported, which is worth its weight in gold. It can be as valuable as anything else Beyonce and Jay Z create together.

Relationship Advice: 5 Ways To 'Affair-Proof' Your Relationship

By Jess Brighton

Romantic relationships are often the most significant relationships we cultivate throughout our lives. We invest massive amounts of time, emotion and trust to build an intimate connection and history with the person we care about. Over time, our relationships (and even celebrity relationships) seemingly take on a life of their own. We become just as protective of it as we are of those we love. My role as a relationship coach is to help couples to protect what they have spent years building together, and help them maintain or rebuild a fulfilling and meaningful relationship. I'm asked all kinds of questions about relationships.

The two of the most common questions are 'why do people have affairs?' and 'what can be done to safeguard a relationship from an affairs?'

People often have affairs because they've grown apart as a couple, are dissatisfied with the relationship and are no longer getting what they need from their partner. Once this happens, it becomes difficult to be open and ask for what they're missing. They often end up trying to find this missing piece with another person. On my website, I discuss ways to 'affair-proof' your relationship. On occasion, I'm asked if I really have a solution that guarantees a partner won't cheat. Although I don't have a magic potion or pill to keep your partner from cheating, I do have some valuable relationship advice that will help significantly reduce the risk of an affair in your relationship. Normally, I only offer these principles in my workshops, but I want to share them exclusively with Cupid's Pulse readers. So here they are in no particular order: the five principles to help you 'affair-proof' your relationship:

Develop A Positive Mindset.

A positive attitude will get you a long way in your life, and the same is true in your relationship. How you view your relationship and partner is a major component of a happy and successful relationship. This is because you are the common denominator to everything that happens to you in your life. When you're unhappy or negative, so is your mindset. In this case, the way you interpret and respond to everything and everyone is with negativity. I suggest you start a new daily ritual. First thing in the morning, think of one thing that you are grateful for in your life. This will force you to think positive and eventually shift your mindset from negative to positive.

In addition to developing a positive mindset, you need down time to relax and relieve stress. I use the example of an engine to explain the importance of down time. We power through life every day with meeting deadlines, challenges and obligations. Just like an engine needs scheduled maintenance to remain running at peak performance, we too need to schedule down time to maintain our busy lives. To help you maintain your positive mindset, you need to take time to do things that bring you happiness.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How to Deal with Heartbreak

Communication.

Effective communication in a relationship includes the exchange of messages through verbal and nonverbal means as well as active listening. Both partners will be more willing to talk about issues when they know they will actually be heard. In addition, it's important to be aware of your tone when you are speaking. Phrases such as 'why do you do this' or 'you never do that' are aggressive. The person being spoken to will feel they're under attack. Instead, rephrase your statements and use 'I' instead of 'you'. Now you're simply expressing your feelings to your partner and not attacking or accusing anyone of a negative action.

Don't Ditch The Dates.

Remember when the two of you first met? It was all wine, flowers and romance. Your time together was magical and you couldn't get enough of each other. Fast-forward to today, and it's a bit of a different story. The wine, flowers and romance have since been replaced with apple juice, deadlines, and exhaustion. Your time now is mostly in passing and spent discussing who will be taking which child to which practice. When you do get 'couple time' the last thing you want to talk about is the two of you or your relationship. These days, 'couple time' consists of planning the week and discussing work, bills and family issues. And what about your sex life? Neither of you can recall the last time you had sex and the times you did, it was routine and took some serious advanced planning.

We naturally become preoccupied with our busy lives, and your romantic relationship often gets neglected. When you stop being intimate and making time for each other, your relationship begins to resemble a roommate situation. I suggest being proactive by planning regular date nights. Even if its once a month, taking time out as couple will help you maintain your intimate connection. Go out, have a few glasses of wine, hold hands, make eye contact and talk about what you love about each other and what brought you together in the first place.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Spa Day at Home

Be Unconditional With Each Other.

Being unconditional with your partner doesn't mean you're a doormat and willing to tolerate anything in your relationship. It does mean that you appreciate the person at a core level and accept the traits, passions and interests that make them who they are. This is easier said than done. Yes, you're a couple, but you're still two separate people with different views, values and preferences. At some point, you'll upset one another. In this instance, setting boundaries and being honest and open to compromise will assure you remain unconditional and maintain the healthy balance in your relationship.

Don't Try To Change Your Partner.

When the two of you first met, you had instant chemistry and could not get enough of one another. Your time together was romantic, carefree and lighthearted. Your relationship progressed and eventually you took the next step and moved in together. Over time, the newness of your relationship wore off and you settled into day-to-day life. Early on in your relationship, you overlooked little things about your partner that were slightly irritating. These days, it's a different story and those once small annoyances are now a big deal and hard to ignore. Trust me, something you find to be slightly annoying early on will only become more annoying and problematic down the road. Maybe it's a bad habit, an annoying best friend, or a philosophical difference. Whatever the case, the chances of your partner changing for you are very slim. The more you try to change a person, the more defiant they become. The best approach is to determine early in your relationship what you can live with in and what's a deal breaker.

So, there you have it Cupid's Pulse readers, the five principles to protect your relationship from an affair. With this knowledge, along with your commitment and teamwork as a couple, you can have the relationship of your dreams! Maintaining a healthy relationship isn't easy, but it is certainly worth the effort after all of the years and emotions that both of you have invested.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Live Modestly

By Katie Gray

When celebrity couples are humble and genuine, we feel more connected to them and admire them even more. Whether they have simple lifestyles outside of work, stay low key by avoiding the public eye, or live in an average sized home, we love celebrity couples who live modestly. Our favorite stars in celebrity relationships are more down to earth and endearing when they're living modestly, although they have so much success. We can all take relationship advice from these celebs!

Cupid has compiled a list of five celebrity couples who live modestly:

1. Sarah Jessica Parker & Matthew Broderick: One of the cutest celebrity couples in Hollywood, for years, has been Sarah Jessica Parker and Matthew Broderick. The actors married in 1997 in a celebrity wedding and have three celebrity babies together. Although Parker's character, Carrie Bradshaw, on Sex and the City was super into spending money on designer clothing, Parker opts for dressing her kids in Gap clothes and hand-me-downs. Although she has a net worth of almost $100 million, this celebrity relationship is genuine, which is likely why their marriage works so well!

2. Princess Kate & Prince William: We all love the royals! Prince William and Princess Kate are living a fairytale, however; they opt to live modestly, too. The proud parents of two even opt to do their own grocery shopping! Also, Kate Middleton doesn't have a set fashion stylist, instead choosing her own outfits and choosing to re-wear an outfit from time to time. Even when you're royalty, you can enjoy the simple things in life!

3. Kristen Bell & Dax Shepard: Kristen Bell is famous for playing Veronica Mars and being the voice of Gossip Girl. She is also known for loving coupons and the sales at Bed, Bath & Beyond. That's right; she and actor husband Dax Shepard, enjoy buying things on sale just like the rest of us! Their celebrity wedding was at the courthouse and only cost them $142 dollars. It's the little things in life that mean the most!

4. Mariska Hargitay & Peter Hermann: The Law & Order SVU actress, Mariska Hargitay, has garnered the reputation of being humble and down to earth. She and her actor husband, Peter Hermann, are also modest when it comes to finances. They put most of their income in savings for the future and have said they want to be good role models for their children, so they live as if they don't have a lot of money. Although they earn a swell living in the entertainment industry, they enjoy living low key and showing their children how the working class does it. Props to them!

5. Jay Leno & Mavis Leno: Jay Leno, the former star of The Tonight Show With Jay Leno, and his wife Mavis Leno have been married for years and choose to live quite modestly. Although he made millions on his late night talk show, they don't spend much of his earnings from that. A big portion of the income that finances their lifestyle actually comes from his stand-up comedy paychecks. A big round of applause to the Leno family for keeping it successful and simple!

Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Ditches Engagement Ring, Says She's Still Together with Nick Young

By Cortney Moore

In puzzling celebrity news, 25-year-old Australian rapper Iggy Azalea revealed that she is still in a celebrity relationship with fiancé Nick Young. Azalea and Young's relationship has been plagued by a celebrity cheating scandal in the past few weeks, where a recording of Young bragging about his infidelity was leaked. On April 18, Azalea took to Twitter saying, "For the record, I haven't broken up with Nick. We are together and I would love to be given a little (a lot) of privacy on the matter." According to UsMagazine.com, Azalea was spotted three days prior not wearing the engagement ring Young got her, but the rapper insists that they are together and trying to figure out their relationship.

This celebrity news has us scratching our heads. What are some ways to re-establish trust once it's broken in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Broken trust can be devastating to a relationship, especially when infidelity is involved. If seeking to continue a relationship where trust was broken, proceed with caution and care. Cupid is here to help you navigate this delicate situation:

1. Take note: Sometimes in a relationship, one person isn't even aware they have broken their partner's trust. Take note that we all have different ideas and expectations of monogamy. Were you or your partner clear on what you wanted out of this relationship? Is broken trust a repeated offense? Taking notes will help you figure out what you expect out of a relationship and determine if your values align with your partner's.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Wears Engagement Ring in First Outing Post-Nick Young Scandal

2. Talk it out: Communication is key in any relationship. Though it may be difficult to speak about what hurt your relationship, it is necessary to come to an understanding. Not talking about exactly what broke you or your partner's trust is a disservice to both of you. It will not make either of you feel better about the situation. In order for you and your partner to feel secure in the relationship again, you and your partner need to understand the gravity of your actions.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 5 Ways to Restore Trust in Your Relationship

3. Further your bond: For trust to be re-established in a relationship, you must focus on your connection. Doing activities that promote bonding may help relight a lost spark and remind you both why you chose to be together in the first place. Being with the one you love should not be a miserable experience, so focusing on enjoying each other's company again is the best way to get through this difficult time.

Dating Advice: 10 Ways to Use Social Media to Snag Your Crush

By: Josh Ringler

Social media is becoming one of the best ways to snag your crush. The following pieces of relationship advice will not only help your love life, but will also help you woo your love interest! Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and Snapchat can be useful tools in improving your friendship and turning that crush into a relationship! They aren't just mediums for celebrity relationships or for celebrities to show off. Check out the following dating advice, and get ready for romance!

These pieces of dating advice will help you turn your crush into a relationship. If you want your chances at love to improve, read Cupid's tips below!

1. Show off your talents: Social media is a great way for your mom to show you off to the world, but it does not have to be just for those annoying family members (Sorry, Mom!). Social media is usually the first thing a person will do to find out information about you, and you want to make sure your profile is full of good photos or posts that show off your smarts, skills, and good looks. Photos that show off what you can do can really help to make them realize what a catch you could be. An important dating tip is to realize that what's online is the first indication of what others may think of you, so make sure it fosters the right impression!

2. Flirting: Flirting is usually the first step in solidifying a relationship and making a friendship simply more than two people talking. Whether it is just by posting cute tweets, or putting nice things on Facebook, your crush will definitely appreciate the public compliments. That being said, make sure to minimize the amount of “cuteness” you put out publicly, especially if you're unsure of how she/he feels about you.

3. Play “tag”: We have all been tagged in posts about “three friends who will always be there for you” or in “tag the friend you would want to do this with” posts. These posts are a great way to show that your crush is on your mind. Tagging him or her in a post is a cute way to publicly flirt. They will appreciate that you were thinking about them, and that will make them happy. Happiness is one of the keys to snagging your crush!

4. Use your personality: Another great thing about social media is the ability to talk about what you are passionate about with a community of other people. Whether it is politics, sports, entertainment, or even social issues, there is almost certainly a hashtag that you can use. That being said, it's important to think about who will see what you say. Your future employers, educators, and your crush will definitely be interested in what you have to say, so here's a good piece of dating advice: be careful! Curse-fueled rants about almost anything will not help your chances.

5. Show what you are interested in: Liking a page/photo or re-tweeting a promotional tweet can be tell-tale ways to figuring out what your crush is into. Don't become your crush and like everything they do, but for example, if you notice your crush is really into a specific sports team, ask if they would like to go to a game with you. If they really want to go see a new horror movie, maybe that could be your next date. While you don't want to seem like a stalker, talking about a tweet or post can keep a conversation interesting.

6. Work the camera right: You can, and should, untag yourself in embarrassing photos to make your profile look as good as it can be. Photos are the easiest way to show off your crush, and vice versa, so the better your photos are online, the better your chances.

7. Use the "Like" button: Don't be the one that likes everything your crush posts or likes online, but at the same time, don't be afraid to "like" what he or she posts once in a while! You should care about what they are saying, and if you like what they post, it's important to show it. Be careful about what your actions online, though. For example, if he or she posts a photo with someone who could be competition, hesitate to "like" it because then your crush could get the idea that you want to be friends and not something more. Don't let the competition get ahead of you!

8. Post things with them: People, whether they admit it or not, love to be on social media with their friends. If you and your crush go somewhere, or even take a fun selfie, don't be afraid to post it on any of your social media accounts! If you really want to snag them before someone else does, posting photos on Snapchat, Instagram, Facebook, or even Twitter, with them is a great next step. If rumors start spreading that that photo could be something more, it will get in your crush's head, sparking curiosity.

9. Out with the old & in with the new: Clean up your profile. We all have embarrassing photos and posts from our awkward middle school days and apps like Timehop happily remind us of our past. Cleaning out these photos to not only better represent how you act and look currently, but also to show off the best side of you. You want your profiles to show off your best qualities, and 30 photos of Starbucks coffee may not be the best representation.

10. Snapchat Streak: Odds are if they are your crush, they are also high up on your Snapchat best friends list. Maybe they are even #1, which by the way, is a great way to use social media to get them to be more than a crush. Snapchat streaks are great ways to show others that you are friends and snap each other often, and it is also a cute way to have a reason to snap if you need one. It is a great way to become #1 in their heart by being #1 on their Snap!

Relationship Advice: Why Are Women Attracted to Unavailable Men?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Actress Scarlett Johansson revealed to Cosmopolitan that years ago, she was in a celebrity relationship with someone who was forever unavailable, and that was when she hit “rock bottom.” She described him as “so attractively unavailable.”

Her story raises the question, why are women attracted to men who are unavailable? What is it about the “chase” that is appealing to us?

Check out this relationship advice.

Whether you are in high school dealing with a boyfriend who you feel loves you too much, or you're a movie star with people constantly asking you out, or you are recently divorced and getting more calls than you ever did, but none of them seem right, you might be in that funk so many people find themselves in where the men who are interested strike you as unappealing availability-wise, but the ones who won't commit are "attractively unavailable," as Scarlett described her one-time boyfriend. Sometimes the guy who wants to commit to you and does not hide his feelings is equated with the good and nice guy, as opposed to the one who says he will call, but doesn't, and who instead is seen as the romantic bad boy. For some reason, the fact that the guy likes you so much makes you question his confidence and desirability. You might ask, why is he available in the first place? If he were more secure and attractive, wouldn't he be taken by now?

Related Link: Relationship Advice: When to Stop Wearing Your Wedding Ring

There are also the possible elements of a challenge or a competition. If someone pulls away and becomes seemingly less interested, then you might feel the need to try to get them back. It can become more about having their love than actually sharing the love with them. Or, if that someone begins to give another woman attention, you might feel jealous and try to take that focus away from the new love interest and return it to you.

Related Link: Four Changes You MUST Make to Avoid Falling Prey to the Unavailable Man

So why do so many woman choose the undependable, withholding man over the one who is ready to profess his love to them? In terms of family dynamics, there is the question of what you did and didn't get growing up from family members, especially mothers and fathers. On the one hand, it may be that you are constantly trying to get what is out of reach. On the other hand, you might be more comfortable with less commitment and emotion in a relationship. That constant chase can also become a vehicle for your self-esteem and believing you are better and greater if you are able to attain the unattainable. In other words, if you can convince a man who is not eager or willing to commit to do so, then you must be extra special, and this can set you on a journey that does not have a happy ending.

If this sounds familiar, and you are constantly chasing your man, or not sure when he might call or ask you out again, it could be time to look at it from a different vantage point and turn it inside out. Why spend your efforts trying to get someone's affection that at best will be inconsistent and leave you wanting more, when you can instead choose someone who will be dependably loving and offer you a true sense of fulfillment? The goal is to feel valued, cared about, and loved for who you are and what you do, the qualities you already possess, rather than having to prove your worth to a guy who is not looking to ever really be fully involved with you. Overhaul how you are going about seeking happiness and security. If you are lucky enough to be with a good guy who does nice things, accept it and believe that you are worth it. Look to reciprocate and build on a relationship with someone who is able to give you the closeness and companionship you are looking for. Try to stop seeing that as boring, and instead see it as rewarding and positive. In many ways it is like developing a new muscle. Do your best to stop flinching and being turned off by nice behavior, and begin to welcome and appreciate it so that you can feel good about yourself, rather than not.

It's important to be aware of these things, if, in fact, there is a pattern in play and you are continually choosing partners who can't be there for you, so you can make better choices in the future. Ultimately you want to strive to try to feel like a winner because of the things you can have, not for half-heartedly getting the things you can't. It looks like Scarlett has finally been successful at that.

Celebrity Baby News: Blake Lively & Ryan Reynolds Are Expecting Second Child

By Brooke Crawford

Celebrity baby news has us gushing over one of our favorite celebrity couples. Blake Lively and Ryan Reynolds are expecting their second child. UsMagazine.com shares that this famous celebrity couple is beyond excited to welcome their second child. Lively expressed that she looks forward to having a large family and that she believes each member will have an effect on the family as a whole. This pair seems like they are ready to take on their second child in their journey of parenthood!

This celebrity baby news has us jumping for joy! What are some ways to prepare your relationship for your second child versus your first?

Cupid's Advice:

The decision to have a second child comes with a lot of added responsibilities. Cupid has some parenting advice to help with the new bundle of joy:

1. Teamwork: Caring for children takes time, patience, and a lot of teamwork. Make sure that you and your partner have open lines of communication about how to tackle parenthood. Picking up each other's slack will help things run smoothly, especially when you're talking two children instead of two.

Celebrity Weddings: Lindsay Lohan Is Not Engaged, Rep

Says

By Jasmine Igwegbe

The rumor mill is churning! Things between Lindsay Lohan and her boyfriend Egor Tarabasov are getting serious, and a celebrity wedding may be right around the corner. In latest celebrity news, the celebrity couple are not engaged as various media outlets had been reporting. According to People.com, the pair are, “moving in together to a bigger place, and they seem to be getting more serious.” Dating Tarabasov has made a positive impact on Lohan’s life. She parties less and is participating in activities such as cooking classes with her girlfriends. Lohan, “has been happy staying out of the public eye. She likes staying in and flying under the radar and staying out of trouble.”

There may be another celebrity wedding in the works soon, but not quite yet! How do you know when you're ready to get engaged?

Cupid's Advice:

When you realize you want to spend the rest of your life with someone, you want that life changing question to be asked as soon as possible. Cupid has some relationship advice than can help you determine whether you're ready to get engaged:

1. You feel good about yourself: Without your partner, you are strong and a-okay. Your partner is someone you are with because you prefer to be with them and not because you need them. As long as you love yourself, you are ready to share and open up with someone you care about.

5 Celebrity Couples Where the Woman Earns More Money

By Katie Gray

Celebrity couples typically have a steady income. Whether they are in the film, music or fashion industries, they are making some serious money. With that money, they are able to donate to charity, go on luxurious vacations and have lavish celebrity weddings. Some couples even have celebrity babies, which they of course dote on! Although there is wage inequality still happening in the world right now, sometimes the women do earn more in their celebrity relationships!

Cupid has compiled five celebrity couples where the woman earns more money than the man:

1. Gisele Bundchen & Tom Brady: This celebrity couple is arguably one of the best looking couples in the world. Gisele, a supermodel and former Victoria's Secret angel, earns an average of $45 million a year. Her football husband, Tom, has a four year contract with the New England Patriots worth $72 million. There is no shortage of cash for this pair. However; Bundchen does earn more than her male counterpart. Woman power!

2. Julia Roberts & Daniel Moder: Actress Julia Roberts was the highest paid actress in the world in the 90's and early 2000's. The Oscar winner set a record in 2003 when she was paid $25 million for her role in Mona Lisa Smile. Her estimated net worth is well over $100 million, and she's also been on People Magazine's list of "50 Most Beautiful People in the World." Her cinematographer husband Daniel Moder, met her on the set of her film The Mexican in 2000. They wed two years later on her ranch in Taos, New Mexico. They have three celebrity babies together.

3. Jennifer Aniston & Justin Theroux: Jennifer Aniston will go down in history as an icon for her role as Rachel Green on the hit sitcom Friends. She's also starred in countless romantic comedies. Her estimated net worth is $150 million. She married fellow actor, Justin Theroux in 2015. However; she is the breadwinner in the relationship and has a higher salary! You go girl!

4. Beyoncé & Jay-Z: Everybody's favorite celebrity relationship in the music industry is hands down Beyoncé and Jay-Z. They both have successful careers as music artists and sell out shows. They dated before having a gorgeous celebrity wedding and having their celebrity baby, Blue Ivy. It's been reported that Beyoncé has been earning $40 million a year and Jay-Z is making $38 million a year. It seems as though Bey is slaying and earning slightly more! But one thing is for sure, they have no shortage of cash in this celebrity relationship!

5. Jessica Simpson & Eric Johnson: Jessica Simpson first rose to fame as a singer from Texas. Then, she went on to become a successful businesswoman with her Jessica Simpson fashion line, a Weight Watchers deal and was a Fashion Star host. Her brand is a billion dollar brand. Her athlete husband, Eric Johnson is a former NFL star who played for the San Francisco 49ers and the New Orleans Saints. Although professional football players earn good money, this celebrity mama is earning more. They have two celebrity babies together: a daughter, Maxwell Drew and a son, Ace Knute.

Scarlett Johansson Says She

'Hit Rock Bottom' in Celebrity Relationship

By Brooke Crawford

According to UsMagazine.com, Scarlett Johansson shared how she hit an all time low recently. During her May 2016 exclusive celebrity interview with Cosmopolitan, Johansson shared that she dated someone who was perpetually unavailable. She went on to say that she found herself going to lengths that made her feel as though she had become a different person. Johansson gave relationship advice by sharing that after the realization sets in that you can't stoop any lower, then it is time to cut off the problem. Johansson's former celebrity relationship is a prime example of how things can easily get out of hand.

It seems this celebrity relationship didn't have staying power. What are some ways to know you've hit rock bottom in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all relationships are meant for the long haul. Cupid has some relationship advice about how to know when you're at the end of the rope:

1. You don't recognize yourself: A very big sign that you have hit your rock bottom is when you have compromised who you are so much so that you do not recognize who you are anymore. When you begin to say and do things that do not match your core beliefs or morals, it is time to do a self check in to assess if you have hit your lowest point.

Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Talks Nick Young Scandal on 'Ellen,' Saying 'We're Good'

By Brooke Crawford

During a celebrity interview with Ellen DeGeneres, Iggy Azalea discussed not only her plastic surgery controversy, but also the recent cheating scandal drama surrounding fiancé, Nick Young. According to UsMagazine.com, Azalea confirmed that her relationship is drama-free and the celebrity couple are still going strong. March was a chaotic month for the pair due to a teammate releasing a video featuring Young admitting to cheating on his fiancé. Despite all the negativity surrounding the incident, the Australian rapper composed herself well. But, for all we know, this celebrity interview could have been staged.

This celebrity news has us skeptical. What are some ways to deal with allegations that your partner has cheated?

Cupid's Advice:

When you are in love, to find out your partner is cheating can be a hard pill to swallow. Sometimes those accusations are false, but sorting that out is a tough task. If they are not cheating and you accuse them, it creates a new problem in the relationship. Cupid is here to give you a little relationship advice to deal with infidelity allegations:

1. Change in behavior: Although a change in the way your partner acts is not absolute evidence that your partner is cheating, it can alert you that there may be a reason to look further into things. People go to great lengths to hide their betrayal. Attempt to recall any unusual behavior that is suspicious or concerning. This could be cause to approach your partner about the possibility of cheating.

2. Address the accusations: There is no need to sit and wonder whether or not your loved one is being unfaithful. If you feel there is a reason to bring up the question, then flat out ask your significant other about whether or not the rumors are true. The hope is that you can open up the conversation to discuss the situation at hand.

3. Seek help: Sometimes, in order to pinpoint a problem, it takes the help of a professional. Find a local marriage or relationship counselor and discuss the suspicions or allegations of infidelity. Even if your lover is not cheating, the doubt you have is also something of concern. Discussing the underlying issues and building trust as well as confidence in one another will help with future situations in the future.

Learning that your partner could be cheating is never an easy experience. How did you know if the rumors were true or not? Share your experience below!

Celebrity Interview:
Hollywood Triple Threat
Sugith Varughese Discusses
New Role In 'The Girlfriend Experience'

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Mary DeMaio.

In the latest celebrity news, the famous Steven Soderbergh film turned television series, The Girlfriend Experience, premiered on Starz last night, April 10th. Fortunately, we had the chance to interview Indian-born Canadian actor Sugith Varughese, who plays Tariq Barr, the managing partner of the law firm where Christine works. For those who don't know the plot, Christine (played by Riley Keogh, daughter of Lisa Marie Presley) is a legal intern by day and a high-end escort "girlfriend" at night.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, Varughese opens up about the show, the casting of his character, and his long-term relationship off-screen.

Celebrity Interview: Sugith Varughese Talks Acting Experience

Being in the business for more than 20 years as a scriptwriter, actor, and director, Varughese thought he'd seen it all. However, one of the biggest surprises came about after his audition for The Girlfriend Experience. "I went in for a three-line part as an East Indian businessman who's on the phone with his wife in Bombay just before he's about to hire one of these escorts," he explains. "I used an Indian accent for that part." His agent called soon after and said that he "didn't get that role." Instead, they cast him for a major role in the series, one intended, he says, for a strong white male character. "The producers had a new vision and even changed my character's name to reflect my background," he adds.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Flesh and Bone' Star Karell Williams Talks Relationship Advice, Saying, "Be True, Be Real, Be Vulnerable"

For Varughese, it was important that Barr has tremendous confidence, power and status. "Here is a guy who is Indian-American and a managing partner of the biggest patent law office in Chicago," he says. "He didn't get that job because his dad owned the firm. He's going to be somebody who had to be twice as good as everyone else to get where he got."

Even the way his character dressed was significant to the actor, who noted that he spoke with the costume designer and tried to make Barr's suit more distinctive. "It was a great opportunity to bring a lot to the performance because the part wasn't already laid out like a regular television show," he says. In fact, he didn't even know what was going to happen to his character until the week of shooting. "We didn't get the scripts in advance," he shares.

Given the most recent controversy with the Oscars and the trending hashtag #OscarsSoWhite, there is clearly a problem in terms of recognizing diverse film-making and acting talent. Varughese believes that many of the nominees who should have been on the Oscars stage weren't there. "I think that the industry itself is changing, but I don't know if the recognition side of the industry has caught up," he says in our celebrity interview. "It is important that the people who are doing it and being successful at it are acknowledged as much as anyone else."

Actor Reveals His Best Relationship Advice

In terms of celebrity relationships, it's no surprise that dating an actor can be tough. Jealously, competition, and conflicting work schedules aren't easy to handle. Depending on the person, finding that balance can be a bit of a struggle. Luckily for Varughese, his long-term partner doesn't work in show business. "The balance is all on my part, and it is up and down," he says. "She is able to keep things on a more even keel."

Staying true to yourself, he says, is the most important relationship advice he can give. "The world is divided between us and them," he explains. "It's important to emphasize the values that you want in your life in order to make sure that your partner measures up and is consistent with your principles or convictions." Varughese shares that he and his significant other couldn't be more different in terms of personality, career, and background. However, the one – and most important – thing they have in common is their core values, including family and love. As a result, they don't have many conflicts. "If you have the same values, you have a shot at making a relationship work," he says. "If you don't have the same values, but you're both actors, I don't know if it will work out.”

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Understand What You Don't Want

As for what's next, Varughese recently finished shooting a pilot in Vancouver – and it was another part that was originally cast for someone completely different. “It's an exciting time for actors of diverse backgrounds,” he says. “There is now a chance to come into your own and not be judged by ethnicity but by your abilities.”

You can keep up with Varughese on Twitter @SugithVarughese. Tune in for The Girlfriend Experience on Starz!

New Celebrity Couple News: Source Says Selena Gomez Is Hooking Up with Pal Charlie Puth

By Jasmine Igwegbe

It's an amazing feeling to find someone who understands you and loves you for who you are. In latest celebrity news, Selena Gomez and Charlie Puth may soon take it to the next level and become a celebrity couple. According to UsMagazine.com, Gomez is into Puth and he hangs out with her because he believes that she gets him unlike others. Previously, Puth shared his first impression of Gomez stating, "I was very floored by how well she handled herself and how mature she was. It's nice to get to know the actual person and finding out she's an interesting person...I'm happy that we're friends." This celebrity friendship may turn out to be one of the best celebrity relationships.

There may be a new celebrity couple in Hollywood! What are some benefits to being friends first?

Cupid's Advice:

You may have a strong desire to be in a meaningful relationship. Keep in mind that building a friendship first can make the relationship more solid than rushing into one. Cupid has some advice on why being friends first is beneficial:

1. You'll build a better trust: Within a friendship there is more openness and honesty. You are less worried about being judged by your friend than your partner. You feel comfortable being who you are, whereas in a relationship you tend to keep your guard up to prevent any heartbreaks.

Are Former Celebrity Couple Courteney Cox & Johnny McDaid Getting Back Together?

By Cortney Moore

In exciting celebrity news, Courteney Cox was spotted with her ex-fiance Johnny McDaid on Easter Sunday. This celebrity couple split in Nov. 2015, but according to a source from UsMagazine.com, the pair may have reignited a spark after spending time with each other recently. A representative of Cox said, "They really care about each other and they are spending time together," in regards to the celebrity relationship.

We're excited to see if this former celebrity couple will reconcile! How do you know whether to give your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard getting over an ex, and sometimes you just don't want to. Depending on the reason for the break-up, it might not be a bad idea to give it another shot. Cupid is here to offer dating advice on whether you should get back together with your ex:

1. Ask questions: Before contacting your ex to declare your undying love, you need to ask yourself the tough questions and figure out why you want to be with this person. Did things end badly? Will things be different this time around?

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple News: Selena Gomez Spotted at Justin Bieber Concert After Kissing Post

2. Make a move: Once you have decided whether or not your ex is worth pursuing, reach out to them. This is the only sure way to find out if their feelings are mutual. If they feel the same way it can be the start of something new.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Love the Second Time Around

3. Evaluate the situation: After contacting your ex, make a judgement call on whether it is safe to resume a relationship. Are they still the same person you broke up with? Is there room for compromise to make this work? You need to be absolutely sure of your decision to avoid wasting anymore time on the same person.

Celebrity Wedding News: Hilary Swank Is Engaged to BF Ruben Torres

By Jasmine Igwegbe

Marriage is all about the love. In celebrity wedding news, Hilary Swank and her tennis coach boyfriend, Ruben Torres, are happily engaged. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity

couple disclosed their engagement on Instagram on Tuesday, March 22. American actress and producer, 41, Swank said on Snapchat, “Went on a hike and this happened! I am so happy to share with you all, the engagement to my dear Ruben. #Engaged.” Swank has a beautiful and gigantic vintage rock on her finger that she displayed in her snap with her soon-to-be husband Torres by her side in athletic apparel. The celebrity couple have been in a celebrity relationship since 2015.

There’s another celebrity wedding in the works in Hollywood! What are some ways to make your marriage proposal personal and unique?

Cupid’s Advice:

A marriage proposal does not carry any special requirements such as what one should wear, the time it should take place, or even the location. You have full control of your marriage proposal, so why not make it a personal and unique one? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Pop the question with a unique ring: Make it more personal, and get creative with the engagement ring. Swank received a green vintage ring from Torres, which added a personal touch. Step out of the box, and be creative with it!

Relationship Advice: 4 Ways to Break Up with Your Partner In the Nicest Way Possible

By: Josh Ringler

Breaking up is not the easiest thing to do. It may hurt your heart to do it, and it will most likely break the heart of your soon-to-be-ex as well. While calling off your relationship and ending your current love life isn't the easiest, it is important to do it in a nice way if at all possible. Almost everyone knows of those celebrity relationships that ended in tears and celebrity divorce, or those celebrity couples who have remained friendly after all their heartache and drama subsides. The same is true for us "normal" people. Use the following relationship advice pointers to make a difficult decision a little easier for both you and your partner.

These pieces of relationship advice will help you to make ending it a little less heartbreaking. If you are considering breaking up with your partner, take a look at how to do it nicely below.

1. Do it in person: A great piece of relationship advice is to do anything that is of importance in person. Whether it is initially getting the relationship going, or ending it, doing so face-to-face will only make the situation better. Look at some former celebrity couples like Jennifer Aniston and John Mayer, or Taylor Swift and Joe Jonas. Those celebrity break-ups were initiated by a text message or a phone call. They did not end well, and if you want yours to end well, do it while you can see them, be there to comfort them and talk through any heartache they may be experiencing.

2. The date and place matters: There are definitely some key dates and places where breakups should never occur. Anniversaries, birthdays, holidays, and times of death in one's family are not times to call things off. If you want to stay friends, or if you just want to be as nice as possible, save it for some other time. If they are on a vacation or doing something important like starting a new job, you should consider waiting if it is possible. Some places should be off the table, too. You shouldn't break their heart in public, if possible, and you should try to do it in a place where the memory won't "haunt" them. Their bedroom, for example, is probably not the best option.

3. Ease into the conversation: Reality TV stars make break-ups look overly dramatic and super painful. Heartbreaking moments are typically over-dramatized, but they don't have to be that way at all. Instead, ease into the conversation about the future of your relationship. Conversations like this will never be easy, but easing into the conversation will make it more bearable. A good piece of relationship advice is to keep the communication open, and that should continue even if things are about to end.

4. Be honest: While this piece of relationship advice goes along with open communication, it truly is important to remain honest and open when deciding to call it quits on a relationship. If you want to break up, but remain friendly and on good terms after, follow this piece of relationship advice and remain honest. That being said, it's important to not take that to an extreme and be brutally honest. Say what you need to, but no need to get into the gory details. While breaking up is difficult to do, the conversation and how it goes is essential to determining the future of your friendship.

5 Pieces of Relationship Advice You Can't Live Without

By Josh Ringle

In every relationship, there comes a time when you need someone else's advice or opinion to get things to work again, or to move the relationship along. If that's you, you've come to the right place. There are plenty of tidbits of relationship advice a variety of people can offer you. However, most relationships are unique and not just one piece of advice will do the trick. If your relationship is dying, use some or all of these pieces of advice to heal it.

These pieces of relationship advice will make your relationship stronger and more successful. Check it out!

1. Communication is Key: In any relationship, it is important to keep a solid line of communication open. If misunderstandings and miscommunications are happening too often, a problem could be in this aspect of your relationship. When communication is strong, you and your partner will almost always be strong as well. If it is lacking, or if relationship problems persist, the way you and your partner communicate could be the underlying reason for those problems. Even celebrity relationships have their fair share of communication problems, so you're not alone. These types of problems can happen to anyone, but by working out any communication problems and learning how to communicate better with each other, you'll only get stronger.

2. Keep it interesting: If your relationship has been going on for a long time, the biggest fears you may have could be that it is getting too boring, tiring, or just not exciting. One of the most important pieces of relationship advice to remember is to keep things interesting and lively if possible. Whether it's a fun date night or a new restaurant, changing up your dates can only help the relationship grow. You don't have to plan big surprises, or do special things every weekend! Instead, make a list of date ideas like restaurants, Broadway shows, sporting events, or even a different type of movie theater, like a dine-in or drive-in. Creating a to-do list puts forth an exciting challenge for the two of you to complete!

3. Be unique: While remaining unique is an essential piece of dating advice, being unique is also important to the success of your relationship. You don't want to be too normal or typical. Granted, you also don't want to get too unique, but there are many ways to make life more exciting by being a little bit different, in a good way. There should always be a comfort zone, but you shouldn't be afraid to push those boundaries either. Being a little bit different will only help the communication get stronger between you two and will definitely keep things exciting. Of course, be your own person, but being unique in a new way will only enhance the relationship for you and your partner.

4. Be truthful and honest: Along with communication, trust and honesty need to be some of the strongest aspects of a relationship for it to work out. If the relationship remains honest, trust will follow. Part of creating a good relationship is forming a good team, and trust goes along with that. Without trust or honesty, the well-being of your love life could be in jeopardy, especially if you are in a long distance relationship. These traits will allow the relationship to prosper if the conditions are right and if the two of you are ready to become more serious.

5. Put the “friend” in girlfriend/boyfriend: Being a friend to your partner is a great way to keep a relationship from dying. A simple “How are you?” or “How was your day?” not only shows you care, but shows that you are actually interested in the other person’s life and want what is best for your friend. Everyone knows of that one man (or woman) who is just “too cool” for feelings. Sometimes people don’t think that being friends is an important step, but a relationship is just an upgraded friendship, with some extra benefits.

Celebrity Couple Predictions:

Katy Perry, Sarah Paulson and Gwyneth Paltrow

By Shoshi

Whose stepping out in Hollywood this time around hand in hand? Join me as I l predict the future of three new celebrity couples.

Predictions For These Celebrity Couples

Katy Perry and Orlando Bloom: Looks like Katy Perry has landed herself a Hollywood hottie. This time it's actor Orlando Bloom starring as her leading man. While it's easy to see why they would be attracted to one another, this coupling is an odd match. Perry has a habit of moving quickly in relationships. No one can ever say that she doesn't throw all of herself in, except her ex-husband Russell Brand. Since that relationship, she seems to be a "ride or die" kinda girl. In other words, all the way in. Recently, she and Bloom were spotted on vacation in Hawaii. It was officially their first outing to confirm that they are the newest Hollywood couple. While Bloom has introduced his son to Perry, this relationship does not have staying power. He will kick her to the curb once he gets bored of her. Expect him to move on from the singer to an actress with whom he will get very serious. Perry wants a stable, loving and long-term relationship. She may need an older, established man for this to happen. Moving away from a man like John Mayer and going toward Orlando Bloom is a step in the right direction. She just needs to keep looking to find the love that she wants.

Sarah Paulson and Holland Taylor: When Paulson and Taylor announced that they were the latest celebrity couple, it caused quite the stir. There hadn't even been celebrity gossip that they were dating. The lovely ladies had known each other for years before their romance blossomed. Exchanging messages on Twitter is what initiated their first date. Paulson has stated that she is absolutely in love with Taylor and their 31 year age difference isn't an issue. This is not the first time Paulson has dated an older woman. The deep love and respect in their relationship will only continue to grow. I predict that these lovely ladies will get married by the end of the year. This will give Ellen and Portia a run for their money as the hottest lesbian couple in Hollywood.

Gwyneth Paltrow and Brad Falchuk: While Chris Martin dates around, it looks like Gwyneth Paltrow has the desire to have another celebrity wedding. Could it be to current boyfriend Brad Falchuk? Hold up on the wedding invitations. There is something about this relationship that reads “not quite right.” They should end this before it becomes a big ‘ole nasty mess. Falchuk is trying to make Paltrow happy by giving into her high maintenance ways. He thinks that she can elevate him while in reality the relationship is taking him further away from who he is. Paltrow is used to getting things her way. This is a dead end. They should move on. Falchuk should call his soon to be ex-wife, maybe she will take him back. Paltrow should date around for a change, have some fun. Maybe she and Ben Affleck could go out together and revisit old times.
