Celebrity Interview: SYTYCD Winner Gaby Diaz Says “I’m All Dance Before Romance”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Mackenzie Scibetta.

In a groundbreaking So You Think You Can Dance finale, the crowning champion of Season 12 was a tap dancer, the first one in the show's 10 year history! In addition to being a tapper, what makes winner, Gaby Diaz even more unique is that she is impressively only 19-years-old. The Cuban-born star received the ultimate package of $250,000 and the opportunity to join her idol, Jennifer Lopez onstage at her Las Vegas residency. This celebrity news only gets sweeter as Diaz is currently performing with the SYTYCD tour, which hits 70 cities and runs until January. We had the chance to chat with Diaz last week and in our exclusive celebrity interview, she spoke about her hectic life, her single celebrity status and how she feels about being the first tap dancer in the show's history!

Gaby Diaz Shares Inside Look at SYTYCD in Our Celebrity Interview

You recently performed for all of your family and friends in your hometown of Miami. What was that like knowing you had your loved ones there?

It was crazy! The energy was incredible in Miami. I was in tears by the end of it because I didn't want it to be over. The hometown shows are incredibly special. I learned though that you have to pace yourself during the hometown shows because you want to impress your loved ones but I went too full out in the first half and realized I needed to calm down and not kill myself.

Related Link: SYTYCD Finalist Megz Alfonso Inspires Other Dancers Saying, "Don't Be Afraid of Who You Are"

What is it like being the first tap dancer to win this contest?

I am very proud to represent the show as the first tap winner. There have been a lot of incredible tap dancers before me who helped pave the way, so I'm just really happy I was able to put tap dancing on the forefront. It was definitely time for a tap winner! I hope this makes people respect tap more as a dance style too because it's really underrated. I want people to enjoy tap just as much as they enjoy the other more popular styles.

After you got rejected during the season 12 Dallas auditions, you flew to Detroit to try out again, where you obviously made the cut. What inspired you to give it another shot?

It's always been a dream of mine to be on the show and it's never seemed like a realistic possibility until 3 of my close friends made it onto the previous season. One of my best friends, Ricky Ubeda, actually ended up winning last season so that pushed me to think "if they can do it, why can't I?" It helped that I had them prepping me and giving me advice.

What advice did Ricky give you during your journey?

He told me to take the competition one week at a time and not to get ahead of myself. The people who get caught up worrying about getting eliminated or comparing themselves to other dancers just preoccupy their mind with negativity. You need to focus on rehearsing your dances and making sure every dance you perform is in your own style.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Lifestyle Coach Laura Baron Talks Relationship Advice

How do your Latin roots play into SYTYCD?

I'm trying to get everyone to be speaking fluent Spanish by the end of the tour. I brought people from the tour over to my home to have Cuban food and Yorelis picked up some homemade food in Florida. There's definitely a strong Latin influence on this tour.

Did you ever think or know that you were going to win?

Everyone hopes to win but you never know how people perceive you and the judges are very good at not showing favoritism. Any of the 4 finalists would've been very deserving of the title so I didn't want to worry myself with the result. I was proud of myself regardless because it was a big accomplishment just making it onto the show.

Given your demanding schedule, it must be hard to balance your career with your personal life. Since CupidsPulse.com is a relationship site, we have to ask: Do you have someone special in your life and how do you balance that?

No, I'm all dance before romance. I said before I auditioned that if I'm going to do the show I need to put my full focus and full energy dedicated to SYTYCD. I didn't want to have someone that I couldn't devote the right time and energy to. It's hard to explain what I'm going through on the show to someone who's not on it. I'm so young so I've got plenty of time for romance.

Keep up with Gaby on Twitter @itsgabydiaz, <https://www.instagram.com/itsgabydiaz/> and www.facebook.com/Dance12Gaby to find out the latest! Don't forget to check out SYTYCD tours as well!

Celebrity Interview: SYTYCD Finalist Megz Alfonso Inspires Other Dancers Saying, “Don’t Be Afraid of Who You Are”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Mackenzie Scibetta.

Born and raised on Long Island by parents who were trained dancers, So You Think You Can Dance finalist Megan “Megz” Alfonso was bred for a life on stage. Known for her extravagant sneaker collection (378 and counting), Alfonso brought a unique edge to the hit reality TV show with her bold and upbeat hip-hop routines. In our celebrity interview, Alfonso told us about the determination it took to become a finalist, which started ten years ago when she auditioned for the first time and faced rejection. Determined to break celebrity news headlines with her SYTYCD performances, she remarkably auditioned for the show three more times before she was able to prove to the world that she had what it took to make it.

Cupid's Pulse Executive Editor, Lori Bizzoco, had the privilege of getting to know Megz over the past two years while she was a dance instructor for her daughter at Oceanside Dance Center on Long Island. "Megz was an amazing mentor to my young daughter," Bizzoco said. "You could see that she really liked working with kids, always giving them encouragement and helping to build their confidence."

The top 10 finalists are currently performing on tour and this month Alfonso will be making three of those tour stops in her native New York State with Huntington, Long Island being her hometown show Saturday, November 7th. The other two New York tour stops will include Brooklyn on November 10th and Buffalo on November 20th.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, Alfonso gives us the inside scoop on the show, her expectations for her Long Island homecoming tour and her ultimate goals for the future.

Long Island Star Reveals Her Struggle To Make It To The SYTYCD Finals in Our Celebrity Interview

What's the difference between the work you do on the tour and the work you did on the show?

The only difference was that there was so much more pressure to be on TV. I was being judged and didn't want to let anyone down. On the tour, we can work on our routine and make it better and better each time.

Can you tell us about your journey through SYTYCD?

I was around 18 years old when I first auditioned and I was just going for the experience. Unfortunately, I didn't make it through. The year after that, in season 2, I made it all the way to Vegas but didn't make it any further. After that, I took a two year break to work on myself to keep training and practicing. On Season 5, I auditioned again to see how I improved but I got cut again. I decided I needed a longer break to figure out who I was as a person and took time to tour with my company. When I auditioned for this season, they were more open to different looks and new styles so I think they saw something exciting in me, finally. I auditioned four times before I made it.

Did you feel like this was your year?

Yes, even before I auditioned I was saying to myself that I'll give it a shot and just see what happens. When I made it straight to Vegas I was so excited. I knew that I needed to push myself. This season, I never stopped training myself no matter what. I wanted to send a message to everyone that your dreams are always a possibility.

You're a dance teacher to many students. What is it about teaching dance and working with students that you enjoy most?

I love kids because they're just experiencing everything and are just trying to find who they are as a person. They're like sponges trying to take in everything and their smiles show it. When they start to realize they're drawn to something it's exciting to watch how hungry they are for it. I want to teach them how to find themselves as a person and to grow from their style, not just as dancers but as people.

What does it mean to be a finalist on tour?

I'm just hoping for my two favorite goals to be accomplished: being a Justin Timberlake dancer and Janet Jackson dancer. I'm also excited to go on tour to explore new areas, especially Canada since I've never been there. I love learning about new cultures.

Do you have any tips for future contestants?

Don't be afraid of who you are and don't let anyone change who you are. You want to show everyone the true love and worth of yourself.

We are a relationship site, so we need to ask: are you currently in a relationship with anyone? And how does that fall into the mix of your busy schedule?

Yes, I am currently in a relationship. I think as long as that person supports what you do and you support them, then you'll be okay. They need to know that you love doing what you do.

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrity weddings aren't the only weddings that can be amazing and personal; yours can be, too. Cupid has three tips on personalizing your wedding festivities:

1. Add a shared interest to your theme. Do you have a favorite TV show or book series? Add it to your wedding theme to give your celebration a personal touch. It doesn't have to be anything huge or the whole thing. You can add little nods to your shared interest in small ways. If you're both into, say, Disney, you could use Disney wine glasses.

2. Have a theme you'll both enjoy. We've all heard that the wedding ceremony is all about the bride. But remember, your partner is part of this, too. If he thinks Twilight is strange and really doesn't like it, making Twilight your theme wouldn't be the best idea. Make it a shared interest theme if possible instead. Something that is just really "you two".

3. Pick food and drinks that reflect you. Pick your favorite dishes and drinks for your wedding, even if they're unconventional. After all, food and drinks are playing a big role in your celebration so they might as well be some of your favorites!
