Expert Relationship Advice: Is Getting Hitched Irrelevant These Days?

By David Wygant

Take a look at all of the celebrity couples out there that don't make marriage a priority in their relationships and love: Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick, Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux, Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell. Does that mean that you have to do what these famous couples do? Per my expert relationship advice, no one should ever follow the example of a celebrity. A celebrity is just someone who happens to have lucked into a career – who had enough talent, timing, connections, or serendipity. Look at Kardashian, for instance. Her lack of talent is painfully apparent, but her mother is an absolutely brilliant marketer. She was able to get a terrible reality TV show on the air and capture the public's morbid curiosity...and the rest is history.

Related Link: Why Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick Don't Need to Get Married

Expert Relationship Advice About Marriage

You need to stay on the path of your own life and follow your heart. Marriage is something that is definitely, in today's day and age, different than it's ever been before. As a relationship expert, I find that most people who get married these days don't have the patience to stick it out. And why is that? Because the word "commitment" doesn't mean what it used to. When people used to get married, it was "for life." The term "'til death do us part" was used because people got married very young and died young too, so death was usually what parted them.

I can't tell you whether to get married or not, and I can't tell you whether it's irrelevant for you. My expert love advice is simple: You need to search deep inside and ask yourself, "What do I want out of life?" Do you want to get married? Do you want to have children? Do you want to raise a family? You have to decide what you want to do based on who you are as a person, not based on the story your parents passed on to you and not based on the expectations of others or some fairy tale you heard as a kid. After all, marriage is not for everyone.

Related Link: Bristol Palin Cancels Celebrity Wedding

I've met a lot of young people who have no interest in getting married. As a matter of fact, they have no interest in having a family. All they want to do is enjoy life. Marriage is great, but it takes two people to grow and learn, step outside themselves, and be willing to love somebody unconditionally. If you don't have that in a relationship and you're not willing to be vulnerable or to make sacrifices, then my expert relationship advice is that marriage is irrelevant for you.

If you take two self-absorbed individuals and throw them into a relationship and love, you have two people who are afraid to work on themselves, and the marriage will never last. Think about what you really want because, at the end of the day, this journey of life is all about you. Write down how you want to spend your time. Write down how you feel about marriage, children, etc. And then date accordingly. You'll find plenty of people who feel the exact same way as you!

Rumored Celebrity Couple Taylor Swift and Calvin Harris Kiss and Hug at 2015 Billboard Awards

Rumors have been floating for ages about a new celebrity relationship for Taylor Swift. Finally, fans have their answer! This past weekend at the Billboard Music Awards, Taylor hugged and kissed her new celebrity boyfriend, Calvin Harris, before going up on stage to accept her award, reported E! Online. It looks like we have a new celebrity couple in town!

Cupid's Advice:

Relationship advice comes from left and right these days, and it may seem obvious as to what is best for you. But, if you're not sure how to open up to the public about your new relationship, take some tips:

1. Facebook: Living in a digital age, this one might be obvious. But, if you want to reach the highest amount of your friends at once, why not announce on Facebook?

Dating Advice: How to Get Out of the Friend Zone

By Molly Jacob

You go to the movies together, you grab lunch all the time, and you two know each other's secrets. You want to take your friendship to the next level of relationships and love, but that's all you are – just friends. Sound familiar? If so, you may be stuck in the “friend zone.” Being in the friend zone means that you are romantically interested in someone who just views you as a friend.

See what dating advice Cupid has to help you get out of the friend zone!

1. Evaluate your relationship.

If you two are friends, there must be a reason why you two get along. You probably have similar interests or senses of humor, so you could have a chance of finding love in your friendship. But really take a look at your friendship and figure out why your romantic interest only views you as a friend. Does he talk to you about all the other girls he finds attractive? Does she tell you in great detail about all the dates she's been on? He or she may simply view you as a confidant, not someone they could imagine themselves dating. Dating advice: show how you can be more than just a friend! Show your friend a different side of yourself; it's always good love advice to show your best self to those you want to pursue.

Related Link: When It's Best To Keep It in the Friend Zone

2. Say how you feel.

This may be the hardest but also more important part of getting out of the friend zone. You may think you've been dropping hints here and there that demonstrate your affection, but you can't assume that your friend knows about your crush unless you tell him or her yourself. Let your friend know that you have been thinking of them less as just a friend recently and more in the area of relationships and love. Once you admit your feelings, give your friend plenty of time to process your love confession because it may be a shock to them.

3. Be your own person.

So you've admitted your feelings to your crush and you're giving them time to process this change in your relationship. Don't let that stop you from living your life! It's known love advice that people are attracted to others who seem to be having fun with their lives, instead of waiting around and being clingy. Go hiking with friends and go out to eat downtown instead of just waiting by the phone for your friend to call you. Show your friend that you have your own life, and that they'd be lucky to be a part of it!

Related Link: David Arquette Says That He's Entered the Friend Zone with Courteney Cox

4. Accept your friend's feelings.

As much as you want to take this friendship to the next level, you two may just not be meant to be. Don't be upset if your crush doesn't want to date you – you may not be their type or they might not be looking for a relationship at all. Devote your romantic energies pursuing other people in your life and look for relationships and love elsewhere. Dating advice: don't get hung up on just one unrequited love. They're probably missing out by not dating you!

'American Crime' Actress Gwendoline Yeo on Relationships and Love: "You Have to Have Similar Hearts"

By Sarah Batcheller

Gwendoline Yeo captivates audiences with her ability to capture the essence of every character she plays. She is best-known for her roles on Desperate Housewives, Broken Trail, and most recently, ABC's American Crime. While her comedic virtue keeps fans coming back, it's her knack for expressing deep human emotions that is truly unforgettable. The Singapore native is an outstanding example of a female actress whose undeniable talent demands reverence. In addition to her television roles, she has crafted her own one-woman show that reminds us all about the power of inner strength. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Yeo opens up about the representation of women in the entertainment industry, her booming career, and, of course, all things relationships and love!

American Crime* Star Discusses the Role of Women in the Entertainment

Industry

The actress believes that the entertainment industry should always work to increase the number of empowered female roles, particularly when it comes to women of color. During her time on Desperate Housewives, she recalls the ways in which the media would miss the point and celebrate women for things other than their acting talent. “I remember that there was a cover story about Eva Longoria saying something like, ‘Mexican Latina Explosion!’ Eva was like, ‘What explosion? It’s just me,’” she says.

Related Link: Eva Longoria Says She’s Not Angry About Ex Tony Parker’s Affair

She explains the importance of a diverse representation in the TV world by saying, “You’ve just got to keep working at diversity. I do think that many networks are trying to get there. American Crime is such a diverse show, and ABC as a network has such a diverse roster.”

She then adds, “It’s also not just about being in front of the camera. It’s important for people to want to be behind the camera directing and writing these roles. With all of that being said, I don’t think I work any less than other actresses. I’ve been very fortunate, and half of the roles I have booked have not been race specific. I still believe that talent and authenticity win in a room.”

As far as the behind-the-scenes work goes, the Desperate Housewives veteran explains that women are often times harder on her, but she describes that as “a joyful challenge” because, all-in-all, they understand each other.

Yeo is currently working on transforming her one-woman show, Laughing With My Mouth Wide Open, into a screenplay. The show details the true story of her journey from abuse and suppression to freedom and happiness, and her goal is to connect with her audience through art. “I feel that, often times, when you expose yourself, people are actually very accepting because everybody has their own shame about things,” the actress-turned-producer explains. “I really wanted to impact younger women. I had a lot of women come up to me, and while none were very vocal, I think they were like, ‘Wow, I learned something.’”

She continues, “I wanted to prevent people from getting into situations where they feel compromised. Whenever people are victimized in certain ways, they always wonder, ‘Did I cause it?’ But I don’t feel that’s the case.”

Gwendoline Yeo Gives Relationship Advice to Fans

Although there was a time when her parents disagreed with her career choice, Yeo changed their minds when she realized that acting gave her a sense of wholeness. “In any family, you want stability for your children. When we came over to the states, my dad was making twenty to thirty thousand a year, and my mom sold sewing machines at five dollars an hour. All the while, they were putting us through Catholic school. They were doing their best, so I felt indebted to them,” she candidly shares in our exclusive celebrity interview. “Eventually, though, they came around completely. When I found a sense of self-esteem through acting, they had to respect it.”

Of her desire to act, she reasons, “Some people choose the art of creativity because it makes them process things and it makes them more stable people. There’s nothing more important than emotional health.”

Related Link: 5 Pieces of Love Advice From Celebrity Couples in Long-Term Relationships

Sharing her best relationship advice – a tip that applies to both family relationships and romantic partnerships – Yeo says, “I think that when you are your authentic self and when you’re moving with a purpose – I think that’s the gift that God gave me, to make people feel less alone and entertain people – people cannot deny your self-confidence. People respect it.”

When it comes to sharing her life with someone special, the actress offers sound knowledge on how to balance love with a busy career. “It’s something that I still struggle with! When you are a successful woman, I think communication is important. You have to be able to communicate, navigate, and not be selfish. You’ve also got to realize that any time is quality time. It doesn’t have to be something romantic. If you have four hours, just kick it!” she insists. “I also think you have to have similar hearts. Whether it be a passion for creativity, giving, or kids or even a racial connection, there needs to be an anchor. Whatever that ‘thing’ is – that centripetal force.” While she hasn’t had a celebrity relationship and prefers to keep her love life private, she does believe that “kindness, authenticity, and manners” go a long way.

Jennifer Lopez Makes Celebrity Ex Casper Smart Her

#ManCrushMonday

By Maggie Manfredi

These exes are definitely more hot than cold! According to UsMagazine.com, Jennifer Lopez made her celebrity ex, Casper Smart, her “#ManCrushMonday” on May 11th. The sexy superstar captioned the Instagram photo, “#MCM @beaucaspersmart #lovethispic #HandsomeBear.” The celebrity exes ended things in June 2014, but have been spotted together on multiple occasions since the public dissolution. No official report on if the celebrity couple is back together at this time.

Rumors are swirling that these # celebrity exes are back together! What are some things to consider before reconciling with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Back and forth with an ex can be emotionally draining. Here are some way to decide if reconciling is right for you:

1. How did things end: Reflect back to your break-up. Was there a lot of turmoil and chaos leading up to the inevitable end or was it peaceful and friendly? This alone might be a good indication if it is a good idea to try again.

Related Link: J.Lo's Ex Seeks Revenge on 'American Idol'

2. Fun verses drama: Cupid uses the scale 70/30 to measure the worth of a past relationship and love. Fun, love and happiness together should be the 70 percent. Arguments and hardships would make up that 30 this should hopefully be the max. If you feel like bad times outweigh the good then you should maybe rethink getting back together.

Related Link: Celebrity Trademarks Offer Dating Advice For Singles

3. Future is bright: Look into your future, do you see your ex as a potential life partner sharing important milestones that you wish to live out. If certain steps (having children, getting married, moving in together etc.) were holding you back in the previous relationship, how can you be sure this time will be any better? Be sure to have open and honest communication before making any sudden movements.

Famous Couple Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie: When is it Time to Seek Help?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Famous couple Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's celebrity marriage has been reinvigorated by couples' counseling. Although things are on the mend now, there was trouble in paradise less than a year after they tied the knot. Not only did Brad see ex Jennifer Aniston alone, but he also didn't accompany Angelina to the Critics' Choice Awards in January. After months of fighting, they decided to seek the help of a therapist.

Now they plan to always keep counseling in their lives, because they say it has transformed their marriage and helped them fall in love with each other again. And they are not alone.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden have enlisted some outside support after just five months of marriage, as they work to put a strong foundation beneath them. This proves that it is never too early to get help.

Related Link: Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston Are Scheduled at the Same Film Festival

The secret to having a lasting relationship and love life is to not let the anger and resentment build up to the point where it drives you apart. A lot of people don't realize that a lasting union is full of angry and questioning feelings which go hand in hand with the adoring ones, not unlike a seesaw. I call them "love you, mean it" and "hate you, mean it" moments, which I talk about in my book What About Me? Stop Selfishness From Ruining Your Relationship.

Related Link: Brad Pitt Confirms Celebrity Wedding with Angelina Jolie Will Happen 'Soon'

It is natural to shift in and out of these emotions. The challenge is to make sure the positive ones always balance the negative ones so that they don't consume you. The goal is always to continue to or to get back to loving and feeling connected to your partner. What happens, though, when that becomes more and more difficult to do, and you aren't able to get past the anger anymore? How do you know when it is time to bring in a trained professional to help you sort out the issues?

Even in today's sophisticated age, people are often reluctant to air their marital problems with an outsider, especially when it comes to sexual troubles. There are many reasons for this which include feeling embarrassed, the fear that you think something is really wrong with you or your partner, the concern that you will be told there is something wrong with your relationship that is unfixable, or maybe you do want to go but your partner doesn't. There are also those people who think that because the idea of divorce hasn't come up things can't be that bad, so you don't really need help.

It is terrific that Brad and Angelina realize and appreciate that they have a big relationship, sometimes even bigger than the two of them, and they were able to seek assistance from a counselor who can help them deal with their issues. The same is true for Cameron and Benji. You certainly don't have to be a celebrity to have issues that can weigh down your relationship and start to interfere with the love you share, but they are good examples to follow. If you are resisting therapy, try to shift your way of thinking. Know that there isn't anything wrong with you or your partner, but there is something in your connection that warrants finding help and relief. Allow your fears to propel you forward instead of holding you back. Your seeking help is not a sign of weakness in any way, but rather a measure of strength, courage, and commitment to your relationship. It proves that you care enough to not give up and find what it takes to make things better.

Keep in mind that making a relationship successful is work. If you don't do that work now, you will have to do it later either by taking your marriage apart or learning to live with unhappiness. Why not spend that energy working to find a way to stay together and live happily? A therapist can help a couple learn to communicate and identify the problem areas in their relationship, so that they can learn how to compromise and put the pieces back together. Brad and Angelina seem to be doing just that. They appear strong and are a positive testimony to the value of knowing when to get help and getting it. Hopefully the same will be true for Cameron and Benji.

Cupid's Advice:

It's not only celebrity wives who get praised; all partners should! When you've been in a relationship and love for a while, it can be hard to think of new ways to show your partner that you appreciate them. Here is Cupid's love advice on showing thanks to your beau:

1. Pen and paper: With sending a quick email or text becoming the new norm, hand written letters are becoming obsolete. Break out the stationary set, and write your partner a sweet love letter, including how much you appreciate them. This small gesture can meant a lot.

Relationship Expert Shares Must-Dos for Career Women

By Sandra Fidelis

What's a driven career woman to do when she's looking for a relationship and love life while simultaneously balancing the demands of a busy professional life? Some say that dating is like having a second job, but your journey to love doesn't have to feel like a burden.

Relationship Expert Shares Must-Dos for Career Women Looking for Relationships and Love

Hilary Duff, star of the series Younger, is now a single celebrity mom after her separation from husband, Mike Comrie. Duff is in the process of reviving her acting career after taking some time off to start a family. But now that she's back on the market as a single celebrity and career woman, what can she and other singles like her do to meet a great guy? Sandra Fidelis, a relationship expert, says that there are four must-dos for a career woman to find love again:

Related Link: Expert Love Advice: What to Do If Your Job Intimidates Your Partner

1. Expand your social circle – It may be difficult for you to expand your social circle. Maybe you have a great set of friends and co-workers that you hang out with on a regular basis and there are no eligible men available. Well, if you're not meeting many any bachelors through your current circle of friends, you should find ways to branch out and do activities or join clubs where you don't know anyone. This is the best way to increase your opportunity to meet Mr. Right.

2. Focus on self-care – It's easy to get caught up in the rat race and let your self-care routine fall by the wayside. Taking care of yourself, mind, body and spirit will make you much more attractive to men and you'll look and feel great. Hilary Duff recently showed off her toned body in Shape magazine where she talked about how she stays in shape by switching up her exercise routine. Take a hint from this single celebrity! Your self-care routine should definitely include some regular exercises that you find enjoyable. In addition, yoga, meditation or regular massages are great ways to unwind and connect with your magnetic feminine energy.

Related Link: How to Balance a New Relationship and Love with a Booming Career

3. Take part in activities you enjoy – You can expand your social circle and meet new people by taking part in activities you love. If you're a busy woman whose main focus is work, you'll be able to connect with other like-minded people (including men) and it will also allow you to cultivate a richer and more enjoyable life – which makes you a more attractive woman.

4. Try online dating or work with a matchmaker – Many women cringe at the thought of going online to meet a partner, but if you're a busy career woman looking for a committed relationship and love life, going online or hiring a professional to introduce you to potential matches may be an effective way to meet people you may never have the chance of meeting otherwise. Take Duff for example, it's recently been reported that the starlet took to Tinder. Although many think it's a fake account (and it may very well be), celebrities are no strangers to using a more discrete method such as a matchmaker and "outsourcing" their dating search. You might consider getting online or outsourcing your love life too if your career demands make it hard for you to meet great men.

Bruce Jenner's Ex-Celebrity Wife Reacts to ABC Special

By Jessica DeRubbo

Bruce Jenner left it all on the table in the recent ABC special where he confirmed the truth about his gender identity. In the highly anticipated 20/20 episode with Diane Sawyer, the Olympic athlete discussed his transition from male to female. According to UsMagazine.com, his ex-celebrity wife, Chrystie Crowover, was by his side during the airing of the special. Crowover spoke to Good Morning America on April 27th about her thoughts on his transition, saying, "It was just kind of surreal. It was great because the family was together and that's what I'm most proud of." Jenner told Sawyer that Crowover was the first to know about his gender identity issues. “Understandably, I was speechless. I didn’t really know what to say. I was really pleased that he shared that intimacy with me, that he trusted me with his deepest darkest secret.”

Bruce Jenner kept his gender identity a secret from celebrity ex-wife Chrystie Crownover for quite some time. What are some reasons to keep a secret from your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes keeping a secret is good in a relationship and love, while other times it can destroy a good thing. Cupid has some reasons to keep a secret from your partner:

1. It would unnecessarily hurt them: If by keeping a secret, you’re avoiding hurting your partner, sometimes it’s okay to do so ... of course depending on what that secret is. For instance, if your partner asks if she looks heavy in a white pair of skinny jeans, it’s probably in your best interest to avoid affirming the concern. This type of secret doesn’t hurt your partner; whereas telling her may hurt her feelings.

Related Link: Find Out Why Kris Jenner Is ‘Livid’ at Bruce Jenner

2. It has nothing to do with them: If you have a secret that does not affect your partner, then you may want to simply keep it. Perhaps a secret pertaining to your family comes out; it’s not your responsibility to enlighten your partner unless you want to do so.

Related Link: Kris Jenner Officially Files for Divorce from Bruce Jenner

3. It's someone else's secret: If a friend tells you something in confidence, you're not obligated to tell your partner. In fact, it's probably best not to do so, as things like that easily spread. If the secret doesn't affect them and is someone else's secret to tell, don't feel bad about keeping your partner in the dark.

Brooke Burke-Charvet Talks Red Nose Day in Celebrity Video Interview

Celebrated for over 25 years in the UK, Red Nose Day has been a day dedicated to raising money for underprivileged children and families. On Thursday, May 21, the event will take off for the first time in the United States and include a night full of comedy, music, and fundraising that will help 12 charity organizations lift children and young people out of poverty, both in the U.S. and throughout the world. Burke-Charvet decided to partner with Walgreens for this fundraiser because she likes that “it’s really about children and young families.” Just buying the red rubber nose for one dollar at Walgreens will have an impact: “That money is going to go and make a difference for a lot of different causes – the Boys and Girls club of America, United Way, Feeding America,” the actress says.

As the mother of four children herself, she understands that teaching her celebrity kids generosity and charity is an important lesson. The model reveals that leading by example is the best way to teach your children that hard lesson. “It’s really interesting for them to be able to see it and understand it,” she shares in our celebrity video interview. “You can teach them to be generous and to give.”

Of course, fans remember the health scare that Burke-Charvet faced after being diagnosed with thyroid cancer in 2012. Now, she says, “Everything’s good. My health is perfect.” Her experiences and health issues have helped her recognize that “there’s somebody else somewhere who’s struggling with similar issues.”

Hollywood Couple Blake Lively and Ryan Reynolds Battle for Daughter’s First Word

By Meranda Yslas

New celeb parents, Hollywood couple Blake Lively and Ryan Reynolds are competing to see what will be their baby's first word. As told in People, the Gossip Girl actress has heard her celebrity love, Reynolds, teaching their daughter to say 'Da-da.' Wanting to make sure 'Ma-ma' is the first word, she joked, "The word 'Da-da' is banned in our house."

It seems that even Hollywood couples squabble about their kids! What are some ways to compromise with your partner when it comes to parenting?

Cupid's Advice:

It isn't only Hollywood couples who get in tiffs about parenting styles, almost all parents are known to do things a little bit differently than their partners. To make sure you two are on the same page when it comes to raising your little ones, here is Cupid's relationship advice about making compromises:

1. Create a list: If your partner does something in his parenting style that you don't agree with or you find ineffective, sit down with him or her and compile a list of these actions. They can do the same thing, and if you both list a similar action, it can be something you both can work on eliminating.

Related Link: ‘Sons of Anarchy’ Star Theo Rossi is Expecting Celebrity Baby with Wife Meghan McDermott

2. Don't make someone be the bad guy: It is very common in a couple that one will be the 'nice' parent, who lets their kids eat ice cream before dinner, while the other one is labeled the 'mean' parent, who enforces the rules and puts the kids in timeout. Rather than creating this tension, make sure to share the responsibility of who has to discipline the kids.

3. Let the little things go: You will drive yourself crazy trying to control every aspect of you and your partner's parenting style. The little things, like you saying bedtime is 8:00pm while your partner says 8:30, shouldn't cause you to stress.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Bobby Flay, Robert Pattinson and Miley Cyrus

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with hot relationship gossip, including a celebrity marriage coming to an end, a famous couple finding true love, and a pop star who won't be settling down any time soon. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love lives!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Celebrity Couples

Bobby Flay and Stephanie March: It looks like the celebrity marriage of Chef Bobby Flay and actress Stephanie March is going up in flames. On television, Flay seems like a nice guy, especially when he's standing behind the grill wearing an apron. On the flipside of that, I have only heard negative things about him that make him sound like a real douche (for lack of a better word). Therefore, some of the claims about him from March are no surprise. If memory serves me right, she left acting to help him with his restaurants.

A "close source" to him says he's heartbroken about his celebrity divorce. When I look at this relationship and love, it looks like he can't get out of it soon enough. Word on the street is that March is not happy with the prenup. Of course, she isn't! When you're in love, money doesn't matter as much, but when the love is over, you want to take them for all that you can. That doesn't make her a bad person; it makes her human. I see other female energy around Flay. I'm not saying he has a mistress, but maybe he put his utensils in someone else's kitchen, if you know what I mean.

Related Link: Bobby Flay Helps January Jones After a Hit-And-Run Accident

Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs: Word on the streets is that singer FKA Twigs and actor Robert Pattinson are engaged. One thing's for sure: Pattinson never looked so happy until this whirlwind celebrity romance. If you look back at some of his photos when he was with Kristen Stewart, he looked a bit miserable.

This famous couple is on a roll and won't be slowing down anytime soon. They are both equally invested in their relationship and love, and I see them going to the chapel and getting married soon. Pattinson knew that she was The One immediately. When a man finds what he is looking for, he doesn't waste time. They could tie the knot by the end of this year. There is also a bit of baby energy swirling around these two. Within the first year of their celebrity marriage, a little girl just might show up.

Related Link: April Fools? T-Pain Says Famous Couple Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs Are Engaged

Miley Cyrus Will Not Announce Celebrity Engagement Anytime Soon

Miley Cyrus and Patrick Schwarzenegger: Where do I begin with this celebrity relationship? It seems like Patrick Schwarzenegger has been spending more time with his "friends" than with Miley Cyrus. Does he only know women? I don't see this relationship ever getting serious. If it does, Cyrus will always be questioning what he is doing with his so-called friends. It's not that Schwarzenegger should stop having women friends, but does he have to always look so cuddly with all of them?

Schwarzenegger doesn't seem to want to settle down at all, and Cyrus isn't ready to be married with kids either. They have a relationship that is kind of like the ones you may have had in high school, where the loves lines are always kind of blurry.

For now, the two of them are getting what they need from each other: some fun and frolic. No need to wait for a celebrity engagement announcement from them. This will fizzle out sooner rather than later. The next guy Cyrus dates will be a long-term relationship. As for Schwarzenegger, until he falls in love, he will go through girlfriend after girlfriend.
