Nothing beats a date night at a country concert, especially when the headliner is Kenny Chesney! Swift joined him on stage to sing his hit song, “Big Star” with him.

It looks Taylor Swift may drop her single status to be a celebrity couple again. What are some ways to incorporate music in your new relationship?

Cupids Advice:

Music is truly beautiful, because it effects everybody in different ways. For every problem in life, there is a solution in a song. Music and relationships and love go hand-in-hand for multiple reasons. We dance with our partners, go to concerts together, have a special song that we refer to as 'our song' and we even describe our feelings for them through lyrics:

1. Choose your song as a couple: Many couples have a special song that they identify as their song. Pick 'our song' as a couple. Then every time you hear it you will both think of each other. It's a great way to connect with your partner!

According to UsMagazine.com, his sister, Katherine Schwarzenegger, jumped to the defense tweeting that everyone needs to stop spreading hate and insists her brother wouldn't cheat on Cyrus.

Celebrity news is not always pretty. What are some ways to keep your relationship and dating gossip to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Thankfully when something goes awry in our relationships and love, it isn't blasted on social media and hitting the tabloids like celebrity news. While celebrity gossip spreads quicker, there are ways that we can keep the relationship and dating gossip in our lives to a minimum:

1. Make smart choices: Unfortunately, the kind of fun you may have as a single, just isn't appropriate anymore when you're in a relationship. Make smart choices and try to avoid body shots and excessive partying without your significant other.

2. Respect your partner: Romance all comes down to respect. If you respect your partner, ask them what they're comfortable with you doing, and abide by that, then you shouldn't give people a reason to gossip.

3. Communication: Always communicate with your loved one, so if gossip and rumors do start flying around, then they are already aware of the situation. B

y Jenna Bagcal

Wedding bells won't be ringing anytime soon for this famous couple. In the latest celebrity news, Girls Lena Dunham and Jack Antonoff from the band Fun have decided to postpone their wedding until, she says, "Everyone can get married in all 50 States." According to People.com, during her appearance on Ellen, Dunham said that a celebrity marriage would not be taking place until everyone in the United States had marriage equality.

Lena and Jack are holding off on their celebrity wedding. What are three other reasons people delay their big day?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in love, getting married may be at the top of your list of priorities. But sometimes, like with famous couple

Lena and Jack, weddings are postponed for a good reason. Cupid shares three reasons why you might put a hold on upcoming wedding plans:

1. You feel like you don't fully know your partner: Whether you've been in a relationship and love with your partner for nine months or nine years, people say that you'll know when the right time is for you to get married. While that may be true, and while you may be deeply in love, there are always new things to discover about your significant other. Before you tie the knot, make sure that you have taken a sufficient amount of time to get to know the ins and outs of your partner to ensure that you are prepared for this lifelong commitment.

2. You and your partner are not yet financially stable: Before you get married, making sure that you have enough money saved to build your life together is an important factor to consider. If you find yourself struggling financially and living paycheck to paycheck, you might want to consider postponing your nuptials. Ensuring that you have financial stability will lead to a stable marriage for you and your partner.

3. You and your partner are not on the same page: Before you say "I do," make sure that you and your significant other are on the same page. That includes topics such as, whether you want children, what your priorities are when it comes to having a career, or where you want to live when starting your lives together. If you and your significant other cannot agree on such serious topics, you two are not on the same page.

5 Celebrity Weddings We Wish We Were Invited To

y Katie Gray

When it comes to celebrity weddings, the world goes crazy to see their favorite stars tying knots in celebrity weddings. We feel like we know them since they are in the public eye. Often times, we see their relationships and love grow from the start of dating, to the celebrity engagement, to the nuptials. Typically this excitement derives from discovering the intimate wedding and reception details of those we admire, especially when it comes to learning about all of the glamour on the big day. That being said, celebrities are just like us in some respects, and they have the same framework for their weddings as we do: love and commitment. Some stars choose to go all out for their big day, and others choose a simplistic style. Whatever the case, the celebrity weddings always turn out fabulous and true to the personality of the person in question.

Cupid has compiled a list of the five celebrity weddings we wish we could have attended.

1. Miranda Lambert and Blake Shelton: These country superstars stayed true to their country roots! Their country-themed celebrity wedding fit their personalities and songs perfectly. Miranda and Blake both donned cute cowboy and cowgirl boots, there was a red pickup truck and tire swing, plus plenty of deer cutlets to eat. All of the traditional aspects were present too, including gorgeous flowers and décor that fit the theme, such as their chair wraps with vintage belt buckles. Yeehaw!

2. Prince William and Princess Kate: We had the honor of watching the royal couple say “I do” on live television, but it would have been amazing to attend it live, too! This royal wedding had 36.7 million viewers, and it even has its own Wikipedia page. The beautiful Prince and Princess tied the knot at Westminster Abbey in London, England. Following their vows, they made the traditional appearance on the balcony of Buckingham Palace. She wore a gown by Sarah Burton of Alexander McQueen, and a Cartier tiara and shoes that featured a Swarovski buckle. Such a fairytale!

Keeping Up With The Wedding would have been fabulous!

4. George Clooney and Amal Alamuddin: America's favorite bachelor and A-List movie star, George Clooney, tied the knot with lawyer and activist Amal Alamuddin. They went for a classic look, and it was pure elegance. The duo celebrated with their 90 guests at the seven-star Aman Canal Grande Hotel in September. Amal's dresses were by Oscar de la Renta and were breathtaking. She opted for natural pearl earrings with square diamonds, and included her platinum band and engagement ring for accessories. This was the old Hollywood elegant wedding, and a classic affair to remember indeed!

Robert Pattinson is committed to his relationship and love life with FKA Twigs. What are three ways you can strengthen your romance like this famous couple did?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to keep the spark alive in your relationship and love. There are many steps you can take to strengthen your romance, such as enjoying one another's company and exchanging promise rings, just like this celebrity couple did. Cupid has some tips:

1. Date night: Many couples have a date night every week, and that is a great thing. It's a time that you two can enjoy together. Also, when it's a routine date night, it gives you something to look forward to. It's good to miss your significant other, as it will make your special time together even better.

Lady Gaga: Does Her Celebrity Engagement Ring Raise the Bar?

y Dr. Jane Greer

Singer and superstar Lady Gaga got engaged to her longtime boyfriend Taylor Kinney on Valentine's Day weekend. The celebrity engagement involved Kinney giving Gaga a one-of-a-kind huge heart-shaped engagement ring that includes a T and S for their initials. We could all see it sparkling on her finger when she sang at The Academy Awards recently. It harkens back to young love when everyone would write their initials in a heart, and it's both romantic and lavish.

What Lady Gaga's Celebrity Engagement Ring Means for Other Couples

So, what does the magnitude of her celebrity engagement ring mean for everyone else – her followers and fans? Does it raise the bar, and possibly make non-celebrity couples who are now getting engaged feel that they have to do something extraordinary and unique in order to make their partner feel special?

Related Link: Latest Celebrity News: Lady Gaga Takes the Polar Plunge with Fiancé Taylor Kinney

Getting engaged is a big deal – and not just because of the ring. There are so many pieces of love advice to consider as you figure out the best way to make it exceptional for both of you. Of course, there is no denying that the ring has become symbolic of the whole event. When it comes to Lady Gaga's celebrity engagement, that has certainly been something the press has been focusing on. She and her ring are both distinctive and seem to suit each other perfectly. While that is wonderful for her, it is important to keep in mind that we are all original and rare, so what might be perfect for her won't necessarily be right for your non-celebrity couple status. Your ring can be remarkable without having to be a showstopper.

The idea that an engagement ring has to be original, handmade and/or very expensive can skew what everyone hopes for, and if those expectations are too high, you might end up missing the point of what you are actually doing – which is pledging your love to each other and agreeing to spend your lives together. I have seen many women who were let down by the engagement ring they received because it wasn't the size, style or stone they had wished for. The engagement ring speaks to commitment and endurance, and the willingness to go the distance with your partner.

With that in mind, try to keep what you envisioned realistic to the man you are with, the resources he has, as well as his interest and taste in jewelry. Just because he doesn't design it or get you as big a ring as your girlfriend may have received, that doesn't mean you are loved less. Whatever ring you receive will be testimony of his relationship and love and the desire to share his future with you. So when he pops the question and holds out the much-anticipated ring he chose for you, it can usher in excitement rather than disappointment. Keep it about for better or worse, rather than for bigger or worse.

Related Link: Lady Gaga Celebrates Celebrity Engagement with Taylor Kinney's 'Chicago Fire' Family

The bottom line is that an engagement ring does not have to be the only one of its kind, over-the-rainbow-fabulous to symbolize the love you share for each other and the commitment you are making to each other. For Lady Gaga it is a huge diamond heart, for you it might be something else, possibly not even a diamond but an emerald or a ruby. In the end, though, you both hope the ring will lead you to the same place – bringing in a life full of love and adventure together.

Even if we say we don't, we all have an opinion on what our partner wears. Take a cue from this celebrity relationship, and learn how to influence your partner's style without being overbearing:

1. Change your style, too: Make it a team effort – something fun for the both of you to explore and create. That way, it won't come off as you telling them what they can and cannot wear. A celebrity engagement is everyone's favorite vicarious event. Taking a look at UsMagazine.com, you can get a close-up of the enormous engagement ring that Jennifer Aniston is sporting. According to the latest celebrity gossip, the actress says of the impeccable rock that her fiancé and Wanderlust costar Justin Theroux gave to her, "He rocked it up...It took me a while to get used to it. I'm not a diamond girl. I'm more Indian jewelry and stuff." The celebrity couple has been together since 2012.

Whether or not you're inspired by a celebrity engagement, how can you find out what type of ring your partner wants?

Cupid's Advice:

Asking too many questions will give away the big surprise, so here's Cupid's advice on how to stealthily pick out a diamond worthy of a celebrity engagement:

1. Log in: You say: "Hey babe, I'm going to use your laptop to check my e-mail really quick!" What you mean is: "Hey babe, I'm going to open up your Pinterest account because I know that you've been pinning images of vintage-style diamond rings that appeal to you!"

2. Listen to their style opinions: If you're a guy, it's hard to listen to everything your partner says about fashion, but if you do, you can use these comments as clues as to what kind of rock they would like. Is your significant other's style more classic than trendy? She may want a round diamond. Is she super girly? Perhaps something extra sparkly will catch her eye.

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’ve made it past the first, second, and third dates, and your relationship is thriving, those somewhat taboo topics like politics and religion will inevitably come into play. With the above celebrity news in mind, Cupid has some tips on ways to compromise when it comes to religion in the relationship:

1. Understand your partner’s religion: The best way to compromise when it comes to religion in the relationship is to expose yourself to your partner’s practices. Understanding their religious choices will help you now and in the future.

Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello Are Like High School Kids In Love

y Jared Sais

Celebrity couple Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello have been all the rage since they started dating last summer. Both seem to be the latest sex symbols that men and women alike gawk over. Vergara continues to steal the spotlight in Modern Family, while Manganiello went shirtless nine out of ten times in True Blood. It would seem this celebrity romance is meant to be. But does their body language agree? I share my expert love advice about the newly-engaged pair below.

The Body Language of Celebrity Couple Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello

In the photo above, we see the happy couple hugging and cheek to cheek. Maybe it's their play on the classic song "Cheek to Cheek," written by Irving Berlin. It is also possible that these two are so in love that both just couldn't stand for any distance between them when taking such a heartfelt picture. I think Berlin sang it perfectly: "I seem to find the happiness I seek when we're out together, dancing cheek to cheek."

Related Link: Sofia Vergara Is Engaged to Joe Manganiello After Only Six Months of Dating

If you've read my expert love advice before, it's very likely you know the importance of mirroring. The non-verbal cue of mirroring is one of the tell-tale signs of attraction and interest. Mirroring is simple: Copying your partner's body language or imitating their actions and/or their tone and pitch. We do this to show we have things in common or to build a liking. We tend to like others that act like ourselves and even look like ourselves. Vergara and Manganiello are doing the same pose as one another, almost as if they were directed to do this by some high school prom photographer.

Hands are one of the most used tools in non-verbal body language. If we focus just on their hands, we can get an idea of how they feel at this given time. His hands lie flat and tight on her lower back or upper butt. This is an attraction point and lets others know you are interested in them. If someone put their hand there on you, how would you feel and react? Let's say the same person put their hand on you upper back near your shoulders. Do you get the same vibe, feeling, or sensation? I bet you don't. Additionally, flat hands are a sign of trust and commitment.

Now, let's look at her hand on him. She is touching his mid-back (just a tad on the lower side) with her palm and her fingertips. This is still a loving touch; her palm is flat on his back, reciprocating the same love and trust that he is showing to her.

Related Link: Sofia Vergara's Ex Nick Loeb Sneaks Up On Her at Red Carpet Event

A flat palm is not always what I see couples do. In other cases, you may see someone touch with just their fingertips. Touching with the fingertips is usually a non-verbal cue that adds distance and shows less affection.

What Their Smiles Say About This Celebrity Romance

Vergara's smile is one that shows 80 percent of her emotions. The actress is gleaming from ear to ear. Her eyes are wide in a natural way to show excitement. Her mouth shows true happiness, as her teeth are visible (mouth open). You can also see a dimple form at the end of her mouth, meaning that her cheek is in full "happy" mode and that a real smile has taken place. Her entire face is taking part in the action!

Related Link: Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello Celebrate Thanksgiving Together

The actor's smile is a bit less obvious. He is happy but is mainly smiling from his eyes. He does show some dimples, which is a sign that he's truly content and showing a real smile as well. This is a genuine photo of them, and they are showing real love.

Finally, there is no space between these two. That's a good sign. People in love tend to stay very close to each other. When I analyze couples, this is one of the first things I look for: the space between the two. In this photo, there is zero space, so if you're wondering how they feel about each other, it is easy to see they love each other very much. No space means more love and attraction.

This celebrity romance is just as cute and cheesy as the photo, and to top it off, we can give them the name "SoJo" to put the cherry on top of the cheesecake.

The couple, who began dating this past summer, tied the knot at her Beverly Hills home on Monday, Jan. 5, according to UsMagazine.com. It's no surprise that their big day was a star-studded affair: Guests included bridesmaids Nicole Richie and Drew Barrymore, Joel Madden, Reese Witherspoon, and Gwyneth Paltrow. We wish the newlyweds nothing but the best!

What are some perks of having your wedding at home?

Cupid's Advice:

If a big wedding at a fancy venue isn't your style, why not consider getting hitched in your own backyard? Here are some perks of having your wedding at home:

1. It's easy to plan: Getting married at your house eliminates the need to search for the perfect spot to say your vows. Sure, you'll still need to find a caterer and other vendors, but securing the location is always step one! Plus, you don't have to worry about your favorite locale being booked on the date you want.

2. You can get hitched quickly: Diaz and Madden's engagement was confirmed on Dec. 19, and less than three weeks later, they're husband and wife! If you want to make things official sooner rather than later, follow the actress's lead and plan a wedding at home.

3. There are no restrictions: A lot of venues will put a cap on the number of guests you can invite or force the party to end by midnight. Getting hitched at your house means the sky is the limit!

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Secretly Marries Girlfriend Tasha McCauley

by Whitney Johnson

There's no doubt that Joseph Gordon-Levitt's Don Jon character would be disappointed: The actor is now a married man! According to UsMagazine.com, he secretly wed girlfriend Tasha McCauley on Dec. 20 at their home. The star, who is known for keeping his private life to himself, opened to Howard Stern about his relationship, saying "I think I'm a pretty good person and a good boyfriend. Yeah, I just wouldn't want to be with someone who was disrespectful to me."

What are some benefits of keeping your nuptials under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Not every bride and groom dreams of a big wedding with extravagant bouquets, a five-course meal, and a guest list that includes everyone they've ever met. Some, like Gordon-Levitt and his new wife, prefer to keep their special day more low-key. Here are three benefits to keeping your nuptials under wraps:

1. You can make it personal: It's easy to get caught up in the festivities and start worrying about making your future mother-in-law or grandmother happy instead of focusing on what makes you and your partner happy. By keeping your big news to yourself, you'll be able to do what you want and just enjoy your time together as newlyweds.

2. You can save money: If you're trying to stick to a strict budget, remember that each additional guest costs more money. The smaller your wedding, the more you can save! Plus, with less people in attendance, you'll feel less pressure to fill the space with gorgeous (and expensive) flowers, candles, and other decor.

3. You can settle into life as husband and wife: Even if you've been together for a few years or already share a home, your relationship will inevitably change after you tie the knot. If you keep your big news private, you'll have a chance to get used to your new roles as spouses without your loved ones sharing their best pieces of (unsolicited) advice or nagging you about your thank you notes.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Helena Bonham Carter, Cameron Diaz and Chris Brown

y Shoshi

With the new year finally here, there's bound to be a lot of exciting celebrity couple news for us to digest! Here are my predictions for three pairs who are currently popular in the media:

Helena Bonham Carter and Tim Burton: After thirteen years together, Helena Bonham Carter and Tim Burton have separated. The couple actually split earlier this year, and this news is just now coming out. In what appears to be one of the more amicable splits in Hollywood, they are staying friends because they have two children together.

This separation shouldn't come as such a surprise. About a year ago, Burton was seen with a mystery blonde and accused of cheating. While he may not have been cheating, where there is smoke, there tends to be fire.

So what's next? Burton will attempt to make some movies without Bonham Carter, but that won't last for long. He will bring her back to his films. Even though they are no longer together, she is still his muse. Look for Bonham Carter to have a new boyfriend soon – a younger actor, someone who will be quite shocking. Let's not forget that, while she is quirky, she is an attractive woman. Her brilliance, beauty, and different appeal will keep the stud very interested.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden: The latest celebrity couple that is rumored to be getting married is Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden. Depending on what news source you believe, the two of them will be skipping down the aisle and having a baby as soon as possible.

This is a very interesting pair. When I take a look at their love energy, it isn't so cut and dry. It is not clear what will happen between them. This could be due to the fact that they are still trying to figure it all out. I do see problems for them down the road unless Diaz is more open to change in their relationship. She is a very independent woman. Let's just say that she is just fine without a man by her side. Some of that reasoning is because she has had no problem getting one; the issue is finding a guy that she wants to keep.

I wish this couple the best. Baby energy is circling Diaz, and she will make a great mom. Let's cross our fingers that Madden keeps Diaz interested, or this relationship may not last long.

Chris Brown and Karrueche Tran: Recently, the rapper proclaimed that he was single and went off about his ex-girlfriend dating Drake behind his back when he was in jail. It appears that it was all in his mind though. According to Drake, Tran's small bottom is not big enough for him to look at her twice. In case you didn't know, Drake loves a big booty on his woman.

Just when you thought they were finally over, it looks like Brown and Tran may be back on again. They were spotted all cuddled up at a club. One has to wonder if Brown will be able to have a healthy relationship. He has been diagnosed with bipolar disorder, which seems to be affecting some of his choices. Tran may want to stand by her man, but she's enabling him to treat her any way that he wants – which is never good!

This relationship will continue to be filled with drama. The on-and-off love will continue until Tran says “enough is enough” and moves on to get herself a new man to settle down with.

For a couple to be successful, you have to each follow your individual dreams while also setting goals together. Cupid has some tips:

Khloe Kardashian Opens Up About Dating French Montana After Split from Lamar Odom

y Courtney Omernick

Khloe Kardashian is finally speaking out about her split from Lamar Odom and her rebound relationship with French Montana. The reality star admitted she “rushed” into a relationship with Montana after her split with basketball star, according to UsMagazine.com. She went on to say that the rapper is a good person, but that right now, she needs to mourn the loss of her marriage.

How do you know if your current relationship is a rebound?

Cupid’s Advice:

After the end of a relationship, it can be tough to know what to do with yourself, especially if you were with your ex for a long period of time. It can be lonely! That being said, it’s important to begin a new relationship for the right reasons and not just so you can have companionship. So how can you tell if you’re rebounding? Cupid has some ideas:

1. You don’t care about the other person: Your new significant other makes you feel great and does all of the right things, for the right reasons, at the right time. Unfortunately, you don't feel a spark, and if they said goodbye tomorrow, it wouldn't be a big deal. If you're only in your current relationship because you like how you're being treated, but you're not interested in reciprocating, think about moving on.

2. Your eyes are always open: You want attention and the assurance that you've still got it. If you're constantly seeking the approval of members of the opposite sex, even though you're in a new relationship, you might not be ready to settle down just yet.

3. You talk about your ex with your new partner...a lot: To you, it may seem like you're just airing out dirty laundry. In actuality, you're bringing up your ex every chance you get because you still miss them and want their presence in your life somehow.

Cupid’s Advice:

How do you know when it's time to call it quits on a longterm relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship has its ups and downs, and some unfortunately come to an end after a rough patch. Cupid has some thoughts on how to know it's time to split:

1. You're not happy: It's never easy to leave a life that's totally connected to someone else. However, if you are never feeling or finding happiness within it, then it might be time to call it quits.

Mel B. Speaks Out about Husband Stephen Belafonte's Alleged Abuse

by Maggie Manfredi

If you wanna be my lover, you gotta get with my fans! According to UsMagazine.com, Melanie Brown, better known as Mel B., finally addressed the public on the rumors that her husband has been abusing her. The Spice Girls alum recently shared on Instagram, "This is for my fans havin problems with my Twitter will be back soon! I'm very good was very polly but much better now and for the record my hubby never would lay a hand on me sorry took so long but any response fuels rumors #lovemyfamily #lovemyfans."

What are some ways to keep rumors about your relationship to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

The rumor mill can be a dark place for relationships, so Cupid has some tips on how to survive it:

1. Stay off social media: If you're having a bad day or a silly fight, don't post about it. It can be easy to feel the urge to vent to your friends, but often times, it does more damage than good. Things live on in social media history, so take a deep breath and really think before posting your feelings on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram.

2. Your problems are your problems: If you don't want rumors to spread, don't give people anything to share. It's as simple as that. If you do feel the need to address them (like Mel B.), keep it simple and to the point. Don't write a novel or go into too much detail.

3. Don't sweat the small stuff: If there are silly rumors out there that are false, don't let them tear you and your partner apart. Just laugh it off because giving the rumors attention only heightens them. Remember to keep the truth in the back of your mind, no matter what lies are floating around.

Kate Hudson and Matthew Bellamy Spotted Shopping in

Aspen Post-Split

by Courtney Omernick

Who says exes can't be friends? Kate Hudson and Matthew Bellamy were spotted in Aspen this week as they were finishing some Christmas shopping, according to UsMagazine.com. The pair recently ended their relationship after a three-year engagement. Hudson and Bellamy have one child together, son Bingham.

How do you know how much space to give your ex post-split?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can have different outcomes depending on the couple. Sometimes, it's mutually beneficial and no harm has been done. Other times, one or both members are left feeling many different emotions all at once. So how do you know how much space to give your ex post-split? Cupid has listed some tips below:

1. Assess their emotions: If it was a mutual breakup and the other person also clearly thought that it was for the best, you probably don't have to give them too much space. However, if you both disagreed about the breakup and there are hard feelings, you may want to give your ex more space before you're able to be friends or hang out post-split.

2. Consider how long you've known them: If the two of you have been friends since you were teenagers and you've been dating for the last five years and if the relationship didn't end because of a cheating scandal, you won't have to give the other person too much space. But if you haven't known each other very long and it ended because you both want to go different directions with your lives, you might want to hold off on a lot of contact.

3. Blended friend group: If you've been together for a long time or if you both work at the same office, went to the same school, etc., you might have the same friends, and you may not be able to take a break from each other for long. If this is the case, you should figure out how to behave around each other as friends as quickly as possible.

'Bachelor in Paradise' Lovebirds Cody Sattler and Michelle Money Breakup After Six Months

by Sarah Batcheller

One of the happiest reality television love stories has come to an end. UsMagazine.com revealed that Cody Sattler and Michelle Money, who met on Season 1 of Bachelor in Paradise, have gone their separate ways after a cross-country move and six months of dating. Both stars took to social media to gracefully announce their split, and inform fans that they will remain lifelong friends. The single mom sweetly wrote, "Cody truly has blessed my life and the life of my daughter in more ways than he will ever know. His positive impact on Brielle is something I will forever be grateful for."

How can you properly announce a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship can be tough not only on you and your ex but on your loved ones as well. After all, they too have grown close to your former partner during your time together. Here are three ways to gracefully share the news of your breakup:

1. Inform family and close friends first: In this case, Money has a young daughter, who spent a lot of time with Sattler. The closest people to you should always hear the news first because it will affect them the most. It's better for those who had some emotional stake in the relationship to be able to process it before everyone else hears about it.

2. Don't share too many details: Relationships are very personal, and that means breakups are too. If and when you announce your split on social media or in some other public way, don't disclose any intimate details that you'll regret having shared later on.

3. Make sure both of you are on the same page: Per the above statements, you want to make sure that you and your ex agree on who to tell and what details to reveal. You also want to agree on how and when you announce your breakup publicly. It may be uncomfortable, but it's the last thing you'll ever have to negotiate, so keep it amicable.

Racing Stars Graham Rahal and Courtney Force are Engaged

by Sarah Batcheller

Yesterday, UsMagazine.com confirmed that Verizon IndyCar series driver Graham Rahal and NHRA driver Courtney Force, who have been together since late 2013, got engaged on November 27th of this year. Rahal proposed to the “lady of his dreams,” as he called her on Twitter, while on vacation in Venice, Italy. The couple is commonly known as “racing’s power couple,” and both took to social media following the engagement to express how happy they were to spend the rest of their lives together.

What are some ways to incorporate a common interest in your engagement proposal?

Cupid’s Advice:

A way to make your special day creative is to incorporate a common interest that you and your loved one shares into your engagement proposal. Cupid has some tips:

1. Pick a destination: Choose to propose at a vacation spot you both love or somewhere that is known for something you both love. For example, if you’re both “foodies,” go to New Orleans, or if you both love music and films, go to Los Angeles.
