

Kourtney Kardashian Is Pregnant with Third Baby

By Laura Seaman

Third time's a charm as Kourtney Kardashian is pregnant with baby number three with her boyfriend Scott Disick. Multiple sources tell UsMagazine.com that Kourtney is only a few months along, but that she is already showing a pregnant glow. Sources say it was planned, and that Kourtney "wants to have a handful of kids." The Kardashian had said in 2012, "I need to see what it's like when I have three, but [having kids] is what life is about."

How does having a third baby change your family dynamic?

Cupid's Advice:

A third child can really change how a family works in ways that a second child does not. It's best to be prepared for these changes so that your family can properly adjust to this new addition:

1. There is now a middle child. Ah, yes, the notorious situation of the middle child. There are plenty of stories about how the middle child gets much less attention from parents. This is something every family can avoid, but many are guilty of without realizing. Of course you'll always be proud of that first-born child, and you'll dote on your new baby, but don't forget the middle child. They're just as important.

2. There's the odd man out. Three, being the odd and often uncomfortable number that it is, can create tension between the children. The two oldest might create a new bond after the baby is born and become closer than ever, which is fantastic until they start growing up and the third child is still treated like the baby sister or brother who never quite gets it.

3. There is always someone around. It might be that one kid is always hungry, or one kid is always late for a lesson, but this is to be expected for any number of children greater than one. On the bright side, this means that someone is always there to keep their sibling busy. Maybe the oldest is busy and the middle child wants to play. Instead of constantly pestering their older sister or brother, they now have a younger sibling to play with.

Kanye West Shows Off His Wedding Ring

By Laura Seaman

Kanye West, recently married to Kim Kardashian, was spotted leaving the gym with a big smile on his face and showing off his wedding ring on his hand. According to UsMagazine.com, West had just returned from the couple's honeymoon in Europe, where they visited Ireland and the Czech Republic. The couple went bike riding, visited the pubs, and saw a movie together where it was said "they were laughing and smiling together".

What are some ways to show the pride you have in your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're with the special someone, you know just how amazing they are. Sometime it's easy to forget that maybe the whole world doesn't know what you know. Here are some of Cupid's tips on how to show the world how incredible your partner is without having to scream it from the top of a skyscraper:

1. Show little signs of affection in public. Holding someone's hand or giving them a peck on the cheek while you're out on the town is a simple, romantic way to show the world that you're proud to be with your partner. Be careful not to take it too far, because too much PDA can be obnoxious.

Related: Five Ways To Get His Undivided Attention

2. Use the gifts they've given you. Whether this means wearing an accessory, using that dorky coffee mug, or listening to the mix CD they made, it means a lot to see your partner use the gift you've bought them. It means even more when they boast "I got this from my wife/husband."

3. Show your partner off to friends and family. These people mean a lot to you, and if your partner is started to really be a part of your life, it's only right to introduce them to those who care about you the most. Meeting the friends and family is a gesture that says "you mean a lot to me and I want everyone to know it."

Armie Hammer and Wife Prepare For First Baby

By Laura Seaman

The star of Lone Ranger, Armie Hammer, and his wife Elizabeth Chambers are expecting their first baby, as confirmed by their rep to UsMagazine.com. “They talk about having a couple, though they’re thrilled with one now,” says a source. Hammer had some experience with kids when he read Oh, the Places You’ll Go by Dr. Seuss at the Kids’ Art Museum Project event at Hammer Museum. “I’m practicing for when I do have kids,” he said.

What are some ways to prepare your relationship for a baby?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having a baby is a huge step in a relationship, and you’ll need all the preparation you can get. There’s no fail-proof way to raise a child, and you're bound to run into some problems, but the more you prepare for the future the better equipped you will be to handle whatever life throws at you.

1. Spend time with kids and pay attention. If you have relatives or friends with young children, it might be a good idea to babysit or go to the park with the family. Watch how the parents interact with their children and take note of what does and doesn't work.

2. Give each other tips in everyday settings. If you and your partner notice habits or behaviors that aren't suitable for children, it would be helpful to politely point them out. Be careful not to come off as rude or condescending, but be sure you both realize what kinds of behavior changes need to be made.

3. Communication is key. Make sure you're on the same page with everything, including schedules, parenting methods, and other questions that may come up over the next few years. Bringing up any possible conflicts beforehand is better than facing them when the child is already here.

Rachel Bilson and Boyfriend Hayden Christensen Enjoy Vacation During Pregnancy

By Laura Seaman

Rachel Bilson, whose pregnancy was announced just last month, was spotted vacationing in Barbados with her boyfriend Hayden Christensen on Sunday, June 1 spending some quality beach time together. She was eating what UsMagazine.com assumes to be her pregnancy craving food of orange soda and sandwiches. The couple when on a sailing lesson and soaked up the sun while pregnant Bilson wore a black bikini that showed off her growing baby bump.

How do you support your partner during pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a very big, scary, and exciting time for many women. The best thing a partner can do is be there to support them. There are many ways to support your partner during pregnancy, and the more support you give, the better the process will be for everyone involved; even the baby, when it arrives! Cupid has some advice:

1. Take time off and make sure you're there: While it's important to make money to support the baby, it's also important to take the time to support the mother. During this pregnancy, things might become difficult or confusing, and it means a lot if you're there to make things better. Your time is probably the most important thing you can give to another person, so make sure your partner is getting plenty of it.

2. Lower the stress and have some fun: Getting ready for a baby is stressful enough, and there's no need to pile on more. Try having some fun and getting away from the usual grind of life. Take a mini vacation, take her out for a nice dinner, or just spend the night together without electronic distractions.

3. Be calm and understanding: Sometimes pregnancy can really take its toll on a woman's body and stress levels. There's a lot going on, and unless you've been pregnant, there's no way you can possibly know what she's feeling during pregnancy. So just be kind and sympathetic, and don't play down the situation or say she's overreacting. It's a big deal for her, and it should be a big deal for you.

Bethenny Frankel Gives Emotional Testimony and Cries in Custody Battle

By Sanetra Richards

Bethenny Frankel opened up her heart on the court stand on Wednesday, May 28th. According to UsMagazine.com, the former Real Housewife and talk show host gave her testimony in a custody case with ex-husband Jason Hoppy, with whom she has a 4-year-old daughter with, Bryn. The couple split back in 2012 and it has been a bumpy road since. In her statement, the 43-year-old was very emotional and even broke down in tears throughout various portions. Frankel recalled on the time when she and Hoppy lived together because he was unwilling to leave: "Jason said to me, 'Get ready, we are going to war.

It's over. We're done," Frankel remembered. "He would leave the house in shambles. There would be dishes everywhere. He would pee and poop and leave it in the toilets. He would hold Bryn, and he would say, "You're finished, you're done. I'm going to ruin you." Frankel also told the court a specific instance when her ex-husband would ridicule her in front of their daughter. Frankel claimed Hoppy's taunting happened numerous times in front of her daughter, and that he often tried to get the little girl to turn against her. "He would say, 'Mommy should be Ursula the witch. She's a great witch. You be the princess, I'll be the prince, Mommy will be the witch,'" said the Skinnygirl Dish author as the tears fell. An insider tells Us, "Bethenny is trying to just keep pushing forward. She's in a good place right now."

What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex for your children?

Cupid's Pulse:

With every breakup or divorce that involves children, comes the decision to co-parent (or at least try to). However, before you and your ex can make that choice, there must be an agreement and understanding shared between the two of you. So, how exactly do you keep it civil for your child's sake? Cupid has some tips to help:

1. Respect each other: Which basically means no bashing, especially not in your child's presence, whatsoever. If you are habitually arguing in front of your child(ren), they will soon start to believe one parent is not fit – this could possibly lead to lashing out and ill behavior. On the other hand, if you and your ex are showing respect one another, your child will suspect nothing wrong.

2. Come to terms: You and your ex should face that the separation is real and the chances of you all getting back together are slim to none. You both have turned the page and are now on new chapters. No matter the circumstance, those old feelings should not interfere with your parenting.

Related: Bethenny Frankel and Jason Hoppy Ignore Each Other at Daughter's Birthday

3. Delete: Let go of the anger and resentment. You must both remember, your separation was for the best. By staying together you were ultimately putting your child's happiness was at stake. Think of yourselves as parents before exes.

Wladimir Klitschko and Hayden Panettiere Prepare Relationship For Kid

By Laura Seaman

Hayden Panettiere is pregnant! Panettiere and fiancé Wladimir Klitschko are expecting their first child, a source tells UsMagazine.com. The couple has been engaged for a year, and have been dating on and off since 2009. “I’ve lived a very big life, and I don’t feel my age, and I feel like I was born to be a mother,” said Panettiere. “Motherhood is the most beautiful, exciting thing, and there’s nothing that I feel like I can’t accomplish while having children in my life.”

How does your relationship change when you have a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having a kid is a huge step in any relationship. You and your partner are going from being a couple to being parents. You’re responsible for another life, and that baby won’t be a baby forever. It’s a lifetime responsibility, and you have to be prepared for the changes that come with it:

1. There’s less alone time and more family time. When you have a child, you need to know where they are and what they’re doing 24/7. With such a demanding new role, it’s no wonder that you and your partner will have less time alone with each other. Learn to take advantage of your time together and make the most of family time.

2. Work should take a back seat for a while. As committed as you are to your job, but have to be even more committed to your family. You can't expect one person to do all the work, so even if you're the breadwinner for your family, you need to make sure you do your part and spend time with your new baby.

3. Watch your health and habits. There's a chance that some of your previous habits weren't child friendly. For example, smoking in the house or around the baby is a big no-no. Maybe you're a bit of a slob, and you leave things around the house. There's a chance some of those things might not be good for the baby to find. Just make sure you've prepared your life to fit the new addition to your family.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Ready for Children

By Laura Seaman

There are two things Hollywood is full of: reality shows and celebrity children. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian, who have their own upcoming reality show on VH1, told UsMagazine.com that they are wanting to bring some children into the mix. “He’s the best Dad already,” said Rimes. “I have a little bit of experience with the kids now so, I feel like I wouldn’t be too crazed. It doesn’t feel like a real first, first!” Cibrian has two children with ex-wife Brandi Glanville, sons Mason and Jake. After Rimes’ comment on kids, Cibrian joked, “Look, maybe we should just get another dog and then see how that goes.” Rimes said, “Other than the reason of us wanting to work together and be home with the kids, why not have fun and poke fun at everything that’s gone on for the last five years.”

How can you tell if your relationship is strong enough to take on children?

Cupid’s Advice:

Once a couple has been together for a certain amount of time, many might start thinking about whether their partner is family material, and questions of whether or not they want kids and how many they want can start popping up in conversations. This might be one of the most important conversations you can have in life. After all, it's not just deciding to have a baby and bask in the newborn happiness. This decision will affect you for the rest of your life, and these kids are going to become adults. If you and your partner are talking about having kids, you'd better be sure you can handle them:

1. Want the kids before you have them: Maybe you've never really liked children, or you've had a bad experience with them in the past. No matter how it came about, some people just don't like being around children. This doesn't mean you won't want kids eventually, but you have to know what you're getting yourself into. If one partner wants kids and the other doesn't, a child would only create a gap in the relationship. Maybe the idea of a child seems nice, but you haven't been around kids much. Surround yourself with young relatives or babysit for a friend; get experience with children so you can be 100 percent sure you want children:

Related: When Are You Ready To Be a Dad?

2. Give them a sense of permanence: A child is a lifelong responsibility, and you should be willing to show it. An apartment that works for you and your partner might not be big enough for a child, or it might have some big safety risks. Make sure you're ready for a child to be in your life before you even plan on having one. This means buying cribs, creating a nursery, and thinking of good schools in the area. Not only will you be better prepared for a child, but you're showing your partner that you're dedicated and not going anywhere.

Related: Keep Talking to Your Kids After Divorce

3. Be ready for a big change in the relationship: A child will completely change the relationship between you and your partner, and you need to be ready for it. If you two have had the same routine for years, try making changes to your schedule and seeing how it affects your mood. Time that you spend with each other might now be spent with the baby, or trying to catch up on sleep. Not only will you be a couple, but you will be parents, completely changing the nature of your relationship. New tasks, schedules, and feelings are going to put your relationship to the test, so make sure you're ready for it.

What are some ways to personalize your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all weddings are supposed to be traditional and classic. Pick a style that matches your personality as a couple, the more creative the better. There are so many romantic and adventurous ideas, you just have to find the one that is right for you:

1. Choose a destination: If you are looking for a more personal feel in an exotic place, a destination wedding is just for you. Instead of going all-out in a local venue, a different city, state, or even country can spice things up for you and your honey. Choose a place that means something to you, like where you grew up, where you'd want to live together, or even a place you've always talked of visiting together.

2. Pick a crazy theme: Nothing says personality like a themed wedding. Put on your thinking cap and come up with an idea that fits the style of you and your man. Whether it's Harry Potter, under the sea, rustic, backyard country style or even murder-mystery, there are so many different ideas to choose from. Keep in mind that your wedding day is about you and your partner, so pick what you want, and don't take other people's opinions too seriously. P.S. Themes make the best wedding

3. Get nostalgic: Demonstrate who you are as a couple by busting out all of your favorite memories. Decorate the venue with your favorite and silliest couple-photos and memories to truly show who you are together. Try making memory boards for your guests, so they can write down their favorite memory for you and your love to read after the wedding.

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Are Married

By Shannon Seibert

The moment we've all been waiting for has arrived: The Kimye Wedding. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West began dating in April of 2012, shortly giving birth to their beautiful daughter, North West, and later got engaged. The couple married this past weekend, in grand European style. The couple spent the evening, dancing, laughing, and talking lovingly about each other according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you keep your wedding look flawless all night?

Cupid's Advice:

You're going to remember this day for the rest of your life, and you'll have thousands of pictures to prove it. It's most likely impossible for a bride to look anything but stunningly gorgeous, but if you're suffering from pre-wedding jitters, we have a few tricks for you:

1. Waterproof make up and hairspray are your new BFFs: Let's be honest, there will be tears. The waterproof make up will hold longer, and is less likely to run if a tear or two does seep through. To keep your make up and hair in place, use hair spray to set your look. Spray at least 10-inches from your face and hair, in order to maintain a level amount on each aspect part of your head. And remember, don't touch your face too often, it keeps the make up from smudging off.

2. Pull a 'Kim': It's better to be safe than sorry, have multiple back up outfits just in case something were to go wrong at the last minute. Kardashian had multiple outfits choices on her big day, providing her a sense of security. You can do the same to ensure that your special day doesn't hit any road blocks on your way to your happily ever after.

3. Spoil yourself: Today is a day about you and the love of your life, don't settle for anything less than perfect. Get your hair styled, use the best products, practice having your make up done before hand so you know what to expect. There is never too much preparation for what is supposed to be the best day of your life. So really wow your hubby-to-be and pamper yourself like a princess, after all, he's about to make you his queen.

Robin Thicke Pleads to Win Back Paula Patton at Billboard Music Awards

By Shannon Seibert

At the Billboard Music Awards, singer Robin Thicke made two sentimental pleas to win back his estranged wife, Paula Patton. Thicke, 37, first gave thanks for his wife's love and support when he received 'Best R&B Single'. Thicke later performed his new single "Get Her Back" written explicitly for Patton, according to UsMagazine.com.

What are some grand gestures you can make to win back your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

If you are absolutely certain that your ex is the one who you are supposed to be with, don't let anything stop you from your happiness. Whether it is circumstance, past mistakes, or a simple misunderstanding, if the two of you are truly compatible for each other, there is no reason that can't be possible:

1. A sincere apology can go a long way: When in doubt, start with baby steps. Words can tear people apart, but they can also bring people back together. Give your heart strings a strong tug, and tell your man how you really feel. The phrase “I’m sorry” is a good place to start, and let the rest flow. Don’t feel the need to justify every action you’ve made. Be attentive and listen to what is hurting him, and see what you can do to fix it.

2. Show that you’ve paid attention: Sometimes a big gesture is comprised of the little things. What has he been telling you all of this time that you may have overlooked? Put together a bunch of his favorite things to show that you care. Whether it’s a mash-up of his favorite music, that chocolate cake from the bakery that he can’t resist or the movie you watched together on your first date. Go out of your way to show that you’re attentive to his needs and you can give him what he is looking for.

3. Take a trip down memory lane: Sure there may have been some reasons why your relationship looked like it wouldn’t work out, but there are so many reasons that it should. Every couple has their strengths, so use yours to win back your love. Try recreating your first date, or a few tender moments you’ve been through together. Remind him of how great you were together and the feelings that you share. If you’re both adventurous, explain how this rough patch is just part of the bigger journey. If he’s more introverted, appeal to his kind and quiet qualities with a love letter.

New Couple: Cameron Diaz Is Dating Benji Madden

By Shannon Seibert

After weeks of keeping their relationship under wraps, Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden are finally out in the open. Diaz, 41, and Madden, 35 are considered “new” and “just hanging out” but the Good Charlotte singer is considered the first high-profile relationship for Diaz since her split from Alex Rodriguez in 2011. The pair have Madden’s sister in-law, Nicole Richie to thank for their introduction, according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you keep your new relationship on the down-low?

Cupid’s Advice:

When your relationship is just blossoming, it can be difficult to figure out your own feelings about that person if your relationship is highly publicized. With everyone giving you their input, and pestering you about the latest details of your love life, you may get caught up in the attention and neglect the fact that it may not even be working. By initially keeping your new relationship on the down-low, you'll be able to discover your feelings for your new beau, and find out whether or not you could really gal for this person:

1. Hold off on updating your social media status: Until you get out of the murky waters of "What direction is this going in?" you don't need to make your relationship Facebook Official. These days defining your relationship is harder than it looks, so at first you don't want to jump to conclusions about your relationship status with your man. Just keep cool, calm and collective, and once you both have your feet on the ground you can upload those adorable selfies you have on your camera roll.

2. Do a trial run: Get out of town for the day. Go to a place where there's no pressure because you won't run into anyone you know. This way you don't have to worry about awkward introductions such as wondering whether to refer to your guy as your friend, boyfriend, or anything else. Now the two of you can test the waters of what it's like to be out in public together, while still getting to know each other on a deeper level.

3. Don't make it a big deal until it's a big deal: When your friends and family inquire about your love-life, keep your answer vague. You don't want to let them in the know until there is actual information to give. It may send the wrong signals to your guy by including loved ones in your dating life. He may think you're trying to get serious too quick, and you don't want your family to get confused if things don't work out.

to UsMagazine.com, the Sum 41 frontman, 34, was recently rushed to the hospital after collapsing in his home. The rocker spoke out about experience on his website and revealed the reason behind his trip to the hospital was because of “all the hard boozing” he’d done over the years had finally caught up with him. The musician said he learned from the frightening experience and will stop drinking for good, which is something former wife, pop star Lavigne is “proud” of him for.

What do you do if your partner is abusing a substance?

Cupid’s Advice:

Harmful substances can come in many shapes and forms, but one thing is for sure they all can be dangerous. It can be scary to witness someone you love and care about experiencing a substance abuse problem, especially when you have no idea how to help. Cupid has some advice on what you can do if your partner is abusing a substance:

1. Lend your support: Giving your support to someone in need is one of the best things you can do for them. There are many ways to show your support, you can talk to them, encourage them, help them out, and simply just be there for them. It’s important from your loved one to know you will stick by them even during difficult times.

Ed Sheeran's New Girlfriend is Taylor Swift-Approved!

By Sanetra Richards

Ed Sheeran's new girlfriend is Taylor Swift-approved. According to UsMagazine.com, the 24-year-old country turned pop singer has already been introduced to Sheeran's new love interest. Although he has managed to be very discreet about disclosing too much information on his latest partner, Sheeran did tell Us that she "works for a food company – well not a food company, she works for a chef." So, how exactly did Swift get to meet Ms. Anonymous? "We went for dinner in London," said Sheeran. "She likes her." He added that the secret girlfriend is indeed Greek and can whip up "anything Greek."

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Whilst some choose to announce their new relationship right away, others choose to maintain that bit of mystery for a little while. But exactly how do you manage to keep it under wraps until you are ready to spill the beans? Cupid has some advice:

1. Lips are sealed: Before any other step, you and your new partner must agree to keep it a secret (unless you want to tell a limited number of close family and friends). However, if you really want to keep it all undisclosed, telling absolutely no one is the way to go. It is completely understandable because you and new love are fresh and wanting to see how things go before jinxing the relationship.

3. Play it cool: Try not to become too wrapped up in your partner, otherwise, people will notice. Your family and friends will begin to tell if you are becoming distant . . . and that is when the questions will begin. Balance your time with each until you are ready to announce the big news.

Where are three tropical paradises that make a good wedding venue?

Cupid's Advice:

With a lot of celebrities getting married in remote, tropical locations as opposed to churches and courthouses, your interest in an outdoor, luxurious wedding may have been piqued. Don't worry, we've got you covered! Below are three tropical paradises that make great wedding venues:

1. Aruba: One of the main reasons why this island makes for a great wedding venue is because of its predictable weather. Aruba presents a dry climate and it's outside of the hurricane belt, so you can expect sunshine all year round! Once on the island, specific destinations to consider are the Divi group, which is all-inclusive for families and budget conscious, or the Bucuti and Tara beach resorts for its "adults only" spin.

2. Cancun/Riviera Maya: Because of the ecological diversity in this Mexican region, there are multiple, beautiful locations for weddings beyond the beaches. The historic Mayan ruins and lush rainforests can also create a picturesque ceremony. But, if you're looking for specifics, Dreams Puerto Aventuras is perfect for families, while Secrets Capri Riviera Cancun works wonders for an adult-only, all-inclusive event.

3. The Bahamas: If you're looking for that scenic, tropical spot to exchange nuptials, The Bahamas certainly has enough of those. However, the most popular wedding destination in the Bahamas is on Paradise Island where you can find the famous Atlantis Resort. The Atlantis Resort is known to be the ideal venue for groups and families.

Exes Jessica Simpson and Tony Romo Don't Speak at Correspondents' Dinner

By Shannon Seibert

Jessica Simpson, 33, attended the White House Correspondents' Dinner in Washington D.C., as did her ex, Tony Romo. After their final split in 2009, both Simpson and Romo have found love, and started family roots. The singer and the Cowboy's quarterback didn't stage a reunion at the event, and were able to mingle comfortably without interacting with one another, according to UsMagazine.com.

What are some ways to keep things civil between you and your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

There is nothing more uncomfortable than being caught in a social setting with your ex. There is awkward eye contact, weird feelings and an aura of tension in the air—and everyone notices. Sometimes the best way to be civil is to fake it till you make it, and be an adult about the situation:

1. Don't speak poorly of your ex: This is someone who you were once an item with. Speaking ill of your past relationship with your ex, no matter how terrible the relationship may have been, reflects more poorly of you than it will your ex. If you are the one doing the bad-mouthing, it will only resonate as your personal level of maturity. Ex-shaming is a practice that must be stopped!

2. Be polite but don't overdo it: You want to be respectful, but you don't want to seem fake about it. By going out of your way to say 'Hello!' or approaching them without warning could send the wrong signal about your intentions. If you do happen to run into each other, smile and ask how everything is going, but don't press for details. The shallow conversation will keep the mood light, and there will be no room for disagreements to arise.

3. Focus on you: This is the time where you can be your own person, without your name being attached to his. If people ask about your ex, quickly steer the subject to something positive you're doing with your life. You don't need to get caught up in what your ex is doing on social media, with someone else or anything else regarding his business because it isn't yours anymore.

Kesha Has a New Man

By April Littleton

The pop star has been spotted around Santa Monica with a mystery man. A source told People the couple have been dating for the last few months, and met through Kesha's stylist. The singer has slowly returned back into the spotlight after her stint in rehab for an eating disorder.

How do you tell your loved ones about the person you're dating?

Cupid's Advice:

You're dating someone new and you think you're ready to let your loved ones know about it. Who should you tell first? How should you do it? The situation depends on how long you've been dating your honey, but ultimately, the decision is up to you. Cupid has some tips:

1. Family first: The best way to begin telling your loved ones about the new love in your life is by starting with your family first. Before you introduce your partner to your family, make sure they have at least some idea of what is going on and what to expect. No one likes surprises like this one.

Isabella Brewster Is Expecting with NBA Player Husband

By Louisa Gonzales

Isabella Brewster is expecting! According to UsMagazine.com, it was recently announced on Sunday April 13th that Brewster and husband, NBA star Baron Davis, are going to have a child. The news was made public in an Instagram pic when the former CAA agent wished a happy birthday to her "Love, Husband and Baby Daddy." This exciting news comes just three months after Brewster and Davis said their vows in January and almost seven months after Brewster's older sister and Fast & Furious starlet Jordana Brewster had her son Julian with husband Andrew Form.

What are some factors to consider when you want to have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding to expand your family is both a challenging and rewarding experience. There are a lot of new lessons and teachings that comes from having kids, so before you do so, there are many things you need to think about. Here are some factors to consider when you want to have a child:

How do you decide the right time to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is considered to be a big milestone and significant moment in a couples relationship. Deciding if you are ready to take that next big step and get hitched comes at different times for every person. Cupid has some advice on how to decide if it's the right time to get married.

1. It's something you both want: If you and your partner have discussed the topic of marriage before, chances are you are both thinking about it. Another thing you hopefully discussed when it came to marriage, is if it's something you can both potentially see in your future. Getting married is a big deal, so to make sure you are both ready and be sure to talk about it and see if your views and ideals on marriage are the same and if not if you can work through them.

Jamie Chung and Bryan Greenberg Show Some Poolside PDA

By April Littleton

Jamie Chung and her new fiancé Bryan Greenberg attended this year's Coachella Music and Arts Festival together. "They were hugging from the side and holding hands while sitting on neighboring floaties in the water," an insider told People. "They would often give each other forehead kisses. They were cute."

How do you show the one you love you care?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to show the person you care about how much they mean to you. You don't want them to feel unappreciated, or alone in a relationship. You don't have to spend an incredible amount of money to prove your love and loyalty. After all, it's the little things that count. Cupid has some advice:

1. Spend some time: Make an effort to spend as much time with your significant other as possible. Take the initiative and plan a few dates – especially if your partner is always the one who ends up setting up the activity schedule.

Actor Andrew Dice Clay Files for Divorce

By Louisa Gonzales

Andrew Dice Clay and his wife, Valerie Silverstein have decided to end their marriage after four years. According to People, the legally named Andrew Silverstein, actor filed for divorce in Los Angeles Superior Court and have been separated since March 18. Dice Clay, reportedly said in a statement the divorce not only ended amicably, but was also the best thing for their relationship. He went on to say the term “marriage” was only adding unnecessary pressure to their relationship and now the two have more “love” and “respect” for each other than ever before, they even celebrated their divorce at the restaurant Craig's in West Hollywood.

How do you keep unneeded pressure out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no question all relationships need work, but they should also be fun and not that hard. When you want to make someone happy, especially your partner, it can be easy to get lost in unnecessary drama or let yourself freak out about something more than what you should. Cupid has some advice on how to keep unneeded pressure out of your relationship:

1. Don't focus too much on trying to please them: It's true every couple has to each put in time and energy to make a relationship work, but that doesn't mean you have to devote all your time and energy to them. Focus less on trying to please them, because it will just force situations and that can make your significant other feel uncomfortable or it can come off as desperate. Just relax and focus on being yourself around them, after all they already fell for the 'real' you.

2. Don't Hold onto resentment: If you're mad or have issues don't keep them bottled up inside, because if you do it will just continue to build and build until you explode. Talk out your problems right away so you can avoid having a big fight. If you're not fine don't say you are, the only way for your honey to help you out or for you to work out your problems is by letting them know you have an issue.

3. Don't put them on a pedestal: It can be hard to live up to people's expectations enough as it is, and you especially don't need it from your lover. We shouldn't have to change to please our sweethearts, nor should you think your other half is perfect or can do no wrong because the truth is no one is. Don't put too much pressure on the person you are with, it will only make things harder for the both of you.

What are some ways to grow a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

After a break up it can be hard sometimes to put yourself back out there, especially if your last relationship ended badly. Part of life is accepting sometimes you have to move on, life always keeps moving forward. So, why not be open to finding someone new and trying your hand at love again? Cupid has some advice on some ways to grow a new relationship:

1. Be open to love: The only way to be able to get back in the game, is to let yourself be open to playing and in this case in the game of love. Don't let past failed relationships weigh you down, because if you don't let them go you won't be able to move on. Remember, the end of one thing is the start of something new and the same can be said for love.

'Mad Men' Star Kevin Rahm Is Expecting a Baby Girl with Wife

By Louisa Gonzales

'Med Men' star, Kevin Rahm wife is pregnant. According to UsMagazine.com, Rahm and former 'Housewives' star Amy Lonkar are expecting their first child together, a baby girl to be exact. The daddy-to-be shared the news on his twitter on April 5, in the form of photo that read, "Amy Rahm 'The Surgeon' and Kevin Rahm 'The Actor' Starring together in It's a Girl! Coming this September." The couple got married back in April 2012 and are both "excited" and "terrified" about the news.

How do you prepare your relationship for a first child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby can be a happy time for you and your partners relationship, but it can also be hard, stressful and at times challenging, especially if it's your first child. Just think of having a baby together as just another journey or adventure in you relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to prepare your relationship for a first child:

1. Read up and research all you can: There is no secure way to foretell and predict all the changes that will happen in your relationship, from pregnancy, so all you can do is prepare. The best way to make your way into the known, is to talk to others who have experienced having a kids before friends or family, read baby books or attends classes, etc. Even though everyone's experience can be different receiving advice from others can be helpful.

How do you manage a big family?

Cupid's Advice:

The bigger the family, the more responsibility you have. You'll need to make sure you have all the proper accommodations for a large number of loved ones. Cupid has some advice:

1. Communication: Many situations can go wrong when you have a big family. Make sure everyone stays on the same page – at least most of the time. You'll have to go out of your way to maintain communication between each and every one of your loved ones, but that's the price you may pay when you have your own personal football team.
