By Louisa

Gonzales

Love is in the air for Josh Brolin. The Labor Day actor, Actor Josh Brolin dating assistant turned girlfriend Kathryn Boyd according to UsMagazine.com, was spotted getting hot and heavy in Rome on Sunday, February 23. The two lovebirds weren't shy about showing affection to one another while strolling around the Eternal City together. A source also says the two have dated since March of last year. Brolin previous relationship, with ex-wife Diane Lane ended last February after eight years of marriage, but looks like The Gangster Squad star has since moved on.

What are some things to consider before dating a coworker?

Cupid's Advice:

There are both positive and negatives to dating a coworker. Getting into a relationship with someone you work with can be tricky, but sometimes you can't help who you have a love connection with and you can only fight it for so long. Cupid shares some advice on things to consider before you start-up something romantic with a coworker:

1. Be ready for gossip: Once you get involved with someone you work with, be prepared to have people talk about it, especially if you're an actor like Josh Brolin. There is going to be gossip and rumors surrounding the two of you and some of it may or not be true, so you have to decide if this is something you're okay with. If you don't like people knowing about your personal life dating a coworker might be tricky. Even if you try to keep it a secret there is no guarantee it won't get out and eventually spread around the workplace.

2. You will see them a lot: The next thing you will have to consider is how will you handle seeing this person daily for a lot of hours at a time. You will potentially be spending a lot of time with them not just at the workplace, but outside as well. Think about how being in relationship with a fellow employee will affect your job and work ethics. Will getting involved with a coworker cause any distractions or get in the way of you achieving your goals? If you're both professionals and are able to handle juggling both your personal and work lives separately and together you should be fine.

3. Are they worth the risk: One of the first things you will have to look into before dating a coworker are the work rules, policies or restrictions. Whether it is or isn't allowed you have to ask yourself if you are willing to risk your job to date the person. Another important thing to think about is if things go sour between the two of you are you able to handle still working with them? If you really want to be with the person make sure you both really want to be in a relationship and are willing to potentially sacrifice your jobs.

Nelly Furtado and Demacio Castellon Have 'Healthy Tension'

By Louisa

Gonzales

Nelly Furtado has worked with her husband, Demacio “Demo” Castellon for years now, and quite well. The couple has collaborated and produced two successful albums, Loose 2006 and the follow-up Mi Plan, Spanish-language album, 2009. Castellon reportedly admitted they make a good team, but according to People, Furtado explains, just because they work well together doesn’t mean its smooth sailings all the time. The singer went on to say they have a “healthy tension” when working together and how he helps “challenge” her as an artist. The lovebirds don’t work together all the time and have separate projects according to Furtado, but they will come together this year to work in the studio.

What are some ways working with your partner can strengthen your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Working with your partner can have it’s benefits and downfalls. No matter how great your relationship is, no couple agrees on everything, especially in terms of money or work, but if you are working with your lover don’t stress too much, as there are up sides. Cupid has some advice on ways working with your partner can strengthen your relationship.

1. Spend more time together: One of the best things you’ll gain working together, is getting the chance to spend more time together. For a lot of couples trying to find time to spend with your sweetheart can be difficult because work gets in the way. If you work together you won’t have that problem, as you’ll have time to see each other often. Couple who spend more time together develop closer long-lasting bonds.

3. Challenge each other: Finding motivation to go to work is difficult sometimes, but with your significant other being there with you, it can make things easier. Plus, they will be there to push and encouraging you. Sometimes all we need is a little nudge for someone we care about to be able to reach our full potentials. They will help you to challenge yourself, because you'll want to impress them and vice-versa, thus it will make you stronger as individuals and as a couple.

'Bachelor Pad' Stars Tenley Molzahn and Kiptyn Locke Are Back Together

By Louisa

Gonzales

Looks like former Bachelor Pad stars, Tenley Molzahn and Kiptyn Locke have reunited and couldn't be happier. The couple first met and got together on the show after being runner-ups on The Bachelor and The Bachelorette, respectively, but broke up last year. Now fast-forward to now the reality stars have rekindled their flames, and according to People, have been back on "for several months now". What helped the two stars reconnect? Reportedly being out of the public eye has benefited their relationship and allowed the lovers to focus on the future. The pair's latest romantic outing was on Valentine's Day, out of the spotlight at Hotel Del Coronado in San Diego, where Locke surprised Molzahn with a gondola ride and together they oversaw the sunrise and rising of the moon. The T.V. sweethearts are excited for their second chance and Molzahn confesses marriage could be on the horizon for the two lovebirds.

What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationship don't always work out, sometimes it's for the best and other times things get in the way. Being alone can be hard and make you wish you were in a relationship, but it's not always easy finding someone right for you. What if you think you already met the person you want to be with, but it didn't work out the first time? Cupid has advice on things to consider before reuniting with your ex:

1. It's more than just loneliness: Do you really miss your ex, or are you just scared of being alone? If the only reason you want to reunite is because your lonely, that is not a good enough reason to get back together and build a chance at a long-lasting relationship. Don't make the mistake of getting back together with someone for the wrong reasons, it will only hurt your relationship with that person, especially if the two of you are still friends or close.

Related: 'Bachelor Pad' Stars Tenley Molzahn and Kiptyn Locke Think Marriage

2. There's a bright future: You need to ask yourself if you see a future with your old flame. Falling in love all over again is nice, deciding you just one last hook up is not, unless it is what you both want. Remember, no matter what you decide there's a chance one or both of you will get hurt. If there is potential for you and your ex to build a long and happy future together, by all means dive in, but make sure it's clear on both sides and that you're on the same page.

Related: Leighton Meester and Adam Brody Secretly Marry

3. It's not just a rebound: If you just got out of a relationship and are feeling sad about it, you might need more time to heal before jumping back into a relationship with someone, especially if it's with your ex. Diving right into another relationship after a break up is not always healthy, however if the reason you broke up is because you still have a strong connection with your ex lover, it could be good to give it another shot. Ask yourself is it more than just your ex being a good friend to you, by giving you a shoulder to cry on. Don't rekindle something that's not all the way there.

Robin Thicke Takes Son to Disneyland Before Split with Wife

By April

Littleton

A day before Robin Thicke and wife Paula Patton called it quits on their relationship, the “Blurred Lines” singer took his son on a day trip to Disneyland. An eyewitness told UsMagazine.com that Thicke seemed to be cheerful and was responsive to all his fans. “I asked if I could get his autograph and he said, ‘ Sure baby!’” Thicke and Patton confirmed their split in a statement Mon, Feb. 24. Sources claim the split was bound to happen, “It is not a shock to Robin or Paula, and it is something they have discussed for a long time,” one source said.

How do you break the news of a separation to a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you and your partner have come to an agreement in regards to divorce, the next course of action would be to tell the child/children the two of you have together. This step in the process of your breakup might be the toughest to go through, especially if your child may be too young to understand. Cupid has some tips:

1. Private setting: When you decide to break the tough news to your child/children, make sure to discuss it in a place where he/she will feel the most comfortable. The worst decision you could make is to tell your child about you and your partner’s split in a public environment.

2. Allow them to ask questions: Once you get the “hard” part out of the way, allow your loved one to ask as many questions as necessary. Your child/children will need some time to process the thought of not having both parents under the same roof. Don’t get frustrated. Instead, practice your patience and try your best to explain the situation.

3. Don't smother: Allow your child his/her own space. Everyone in this situation will need some time alone. When things seem to settle down a bit, ask your kid how they're feeling about the situation – including your former flame in the conversation might be a good idea as well.

5 Fun Facts About Jimmy Fallon's Wife, Nancy Juvonen

By Louisa

Gonzales

Lately, things have been especially good for Jimmy Fallon: He became a first-time dad to daughter Winnie Rose in July 2013, and last Monday, he premiered as the new host of The Tonight Show. The funny man had some big shoes to fill, taking over for past host Jay Leno, and felt pressure to keep the show's legacy alive, but he got through it with help and support of a special someone in his life: his wife, Nancy Juvonen. The couple first started dating in May 2007 and have been going strong ever since. In honor of their happy relationship, we rounded up five fun facts about Fallon's lovely lady:

1. The couple were introduced by Juvonen's good friend, Drew Barrymore: Juvonen works with Barrymore as partners in her production company, Flower Films. The two started the business back in 1995, producing small projects before working on larger films such as Fever Pitch. Barrymore and Fallon played on-screen love interests, but it was off-screen where the real romance began between the producer and comedian.

2. Juvonen is older than Fallon: Age is nothing but a number for the two lovebirds. Juvonen is seven years older than her man, but the couple has shown no signs of letting their age difference get in the way of their relationship. After all, you never know who you are going to connect with.

3. Her engagement ring is one-of-kind: Fallon proposed in August 2007 at Juvonen's family home on Lake Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire. If that wasn't enough to convince her, his choice of engagement ring didn't hurt his chances either. When he did pop the question, he did so with an original piece: a beautiful emerald-cut diamond and platinum ring, designed and created by Neil Lane. Needless to say, she said "yes"— and the rest is history.

4. They had a fast-evolving romance: Juvonen and Fallon were together for about three and half months before they got engaged. Only four months later, they walked down the aisle and said their “I do’s” in front of close family and friends. It’s the first marriage for both of them, and hopefully, it’ll be their last. The lovers have been together for nearly seven years, which is unusual for Hollywood standards.

5. Juvonen and Fallon struggled to have a baby: The couple struggled to have a baby for over five years before their daughter was born this past summer via a surrogate. Once they knew they were going to have a child, they thought it would be best to keep it a secret until the baby was born, saying it would be more “fun” and “private” if they kept the news just between the two of them.

How do you rise above a bitter breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Your mind may be running a million miles per minute and you may think the world is ending after a bad breakup, but those feelings are only temporary. It is possible to overcome and snap back even better than before. Cupid has some advice:

1. Come to terms: Understand it is a breakup – it happened for a reason. The relationship could have been toxic or maybe you all were not completely compatible. Whatever reason there may be, do not be afraid to accept it. You might even catch yourself exhaling a deep sigh of relief afterwards.

2. Treat yourself: Moping around eating ice cream and bonbons does not do any good . . . as tempting as it may sound. If your schedule permits, call a few friends and have a day/night out on the town. Whether it's a spa appointment or a chick flick movie date, have fun! If you prefer to stay home, engage in a hobby, such as reading a novel or gardening. Your mind will be taken off of the sour thought of that breakup.

Marc Anthony Says He's 'Really Good Friends' With Casper Smart

By Louisa

Gonzales

There are no hard feelings between Jennifer Lopes and Marc Anthony and the same goes for the starlet's beau. According to UsMagazine.com, Anthony recently stopped by The Wendy Williams Show on Monday, February 17th and spoke of how not only was he still good friends with his ex-wife J.Lo, but with her boyfriend, Casper Smart. Anthony also revealed he is not one to judge and said nothing, but lovely things about Lopez and her new lover saying, "anybody that means something to her means something to me". Anthony recently just got out of relationship, with ex-girlfriend Chloe Green after a year of dating, but that hasn't stopped him from believing in the possibility of finding love again.

How do you keep things civil with your ex's new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is hard, no matter if the decision is mutual, or if it ends amicably. Learning how to accept that your ex-love will eventually move on with someone new is hard. If you want to remain in your old flames life and still be friends you will have to keep the peace not only with them, but with their new lover as well. Cupid has advice on how to keep things civil with your ex's new partner:

1. Be respectful: Be kind and nice to the new beau. Take the high road, it will ultimately help you and the situation. When you meet the new significant other in your ex's life extend a hand toward them, it never hurt anyone to be nicer and it also won't mess up your chances remaining on the good graces of your ex-lovebird. If you are respectful and courteous to your ex's new partner they will most likely be that way towards you.

Related: Marc Anthony and Girlfriend Chloe Green Split

2. Know your boundaries: Remember it's over between the two of you, whether the decision to end the relationship was mutual or individual, stay focused on that. It's not about the other person it's about keeping some form of a relationship with your ex and if you want to be a part of their life you will have to accept they are with someone new. You have begun something new in your life and so have they and no matter how hard it is seeing your ex with someone new you don't want to make things more weird by over stepping your boundaries with either the new beau or your ex.

3. Don't be fake: Sometimes in attempt to mask our insecurities we will try to be something we're not by trying to act tough or overly sweet. Don't pretend to be some one you're not, because when you try to force something it will come off as fake to the other person and it will make things more awkward than it has to be. Just be yourself it will make everyone more comfortable for all everybody. Plus, since your ex lover use to date you they probably have a good sense of who you are and if you're not acting like your normal self they will pin point that right away.

What are some ways to prepare your relationship for a baby?

Cupid’s Advice:

Congratulations on your pregnancy! Now, you have nine months to prepare yourself and your significant other for what’s to come next. Cupid is here to help:

1. Friends and family: Ask some of the people who you’re close to for helpful advice. What would they recommend to buy for a newborn? What kind of parenting classes should you and your partner look into? You want to experience being a first-time parent all on your own, but there’s nothing wrong with getting a little help along the way – especially if the people you ask have been through what you’re preparing for now.

Kaley Cuoco and Ryan Sweeting Take Mini-Honeymoon at Disneyland

By April

Littleton

According to People, Kaley Cuoco and husband Ryan Sweeting took a mini-honeymoon to Disneyland. Sweeting wore a first pin and a Fantasia hat. Cuoco sported pink Minnie Mouse ears. The Big Bang Theory actress documented most of the day via Instagram. “Mini honeymoon at the happiest place on earth! @ryansweething #myhusbandisadisneyvirgin,” she wrote, along with a picture of the couple at the park.

Where are some quick honeymoon destinations?

Cupid’s Advice:

Honeymoons are a great way to spend the first moments of your new marriage with your honey. What type of honeymoon you decide to go on depends on your personality, what your partner enjoys doing and what the two of you agree on as a couple. Cupid has some tips:

1. The islands: Most couples love the idea of going on a romantic, island honeymoon getaway. You and your honey can rush off to Hawaii or another island of your choice. You can soak up some sun, learn how to surf or go shark diving. The memories you create with your partner during a honeymoon like this will be unforgettable.

Engaged couple Lauren Conrad and her fiancé William Tell celebrate their birthdays in a joint bash! People magazine reports the party took place at night at Rivera 31 at the Sofitel hotel in Los Angeles. Multiple family members and friends of the lovebirds attended the hoe-down themed party, including some of Conrad's former costars from her reality TV days, such as Stephanie Pratt and Lexie Contursi. The couple and guests went all out for the themed party, with everyone wearing mostly flannels and denim. The party itself was decorated with haystacks, blow-up ponies and wagon wheels, which took place on the outdoor patio, privately reserved by the lovers.

What are some ways to make your partner's birthday special?

Cupid's Advice:

Your lovebird's birthday is coming up and you want to make it one of the best yet. How can you show your lover just how much you care and know them on their birthday? Cupid has some advice on some ways to make your partner's birthday special:

1. Pick something specific to do: Whether you want to throw a party or go somewhere, narrow down exactly what you want to do, it will make things easier when planning. Try doing something your partner has always wanted to do, but never had a chance to do it yet, or pick and plan to do something that has to do with your lovers interest. Doing something your lovebird mentioned they wanted to do or enjoy doing, will show that you listen and pay attention to their needs and wants.

Related: Former 'Hills' Star Lauren Conrad Is Engaged

2. Do something unexpected: Want to make your significant others birthday truly memorable, try to do something surprising and unusual. Some of our most exciting days is when something unexpected happens. Doing something you don't do very often, such as taking your honey away on a specific destination, Paris or fishing, or bringing them breakfast in bed or cooking for them will surprise them in the best ways.

Whatever you plan to do, keep it hush-hush, it will sweep your sweetheart away when you finally unmask your plans for them on their special day.

3. Celebrate them: Your better half birthday should be all about them and sometimes that means sacrificing your own needs and wants to make them happy. Let's say your lovebug likes doing something, but you don't, in fact you hate it with a fiery passion. Showcase how smitten you are by sacrificing one day to do something with you partner you normally wouldn't want to, it is not going to kill you. Besides nothing shows true love like doing something just because your soulmate loves it.

What are some ways you can support your partner through pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is one of the many wonders of this world and is a special time for a couple to experience. Finding out you're pregnant can be exciting, exhilarating, and nerve-racking. For a lot of couples, it's the start of a new chapter. Cupid has advice on ways you can support your partner through pregnancy:

1. Go with your partner to prenatal doctor appointments: Both you and your partner are soon to be parents, even though only the mother is carrying the child. Show your support and let them know you are in it together, by going with your lover to their prenatal doctor visits and check ups. Experiencing pregnancy things such as finding out the baby's gender, listening to their heartbeat can be a great memory to share as a couple as well as a family. Going to the doctor's can be scary and stressful, being able to hold your lover's hand and show your love is helpful to both the mother's and the baby's health as it can help keep her calm, happy and stress-free.

Related: Former 'Bachelorette' DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Is Pregnant

2. Attend birthing classes and do research together: Signing up and going to pregnancy related classes together shows your lovebird you care and that you'll be there throughout the entire process. Many changes come with being pregnant and being prepared can help with transitioning into this new chapter of your lives. This means reading and researching on what being pregnant means, what you should do to be ready and how to make it as smooth sailings as possible. It's good to do things as a couple still because it shows the other you love them and they're not alone.

Related: 'The Fosters' star Sherri Saum is Expecting Twin Boys

3. Make sure the mother to be is as healthy as she can be: This means eating right, exercising, and keeping her away from anything that can be harmful to both her and the baby. This includes things like stress, which can weaken the immune system. Keeping the mother happy can keep her healthy and the baby. Help her stay healthy by doing it together. For example, both of you can change your diets and exercise together, you doing it too will make it easier for the expectant mother. Also, make sure your honey gets enough sleep and stays away from harmful substances such as alcohol. If you want your baby to be born healthy you both have to put in the effort.

Rekindled Flame: Jessica Szohr and Aaron Rodgers

By Louisa

Gonzales

Former lovebirds Jessica Szohr and Aaron Rodgers seem to have rekindled their flames. The duo dated back in 2011 for a short amount of time before breaking up because of their crazy work schedules and not having enough time to see each other. UsMagazine.com sources confirm the lovers got back together over the holidays after they started spending more time together again. Szohr, 28, and Rodgers, 30, were recently spotted arriving hand in hand at the That Awkward Moment film party at Lucky Strike L.A. Live bowling alley, according to eyewitnesses.

The pair was joined by Taylor Swift, who Szohr became friends with after being featured in one of Swift's videos, "22". During the evening Szohr not only squeezed in moments with her date, but some girl time as well as insiders say they overheard Swift dishing out relationship advice to Szohr in the lady's room.

What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is hard. People break up for many reasons, maybe you drifted apart, or the timing wasn't right, or you realized you just didn't click "that way". The only thing harder than learning to let someone go is figuring out if you want to give them a second chance. Cupid has some advice on some things you should consider before rekindling your flame with an ex:

1. Figure out why you broke up in the first place: Really think about the reasons you broke up the first time around. No matter what the reason was behind your breakup ask yourself if you can either forgive or live with them. If you decide you do want a second chance at a relationship there's no guarantee the things that happened before, won't happen again.

Related: Five Ways to Let Him Down Without Hurting His Feelings

2. Why do you want to get back together: Make sure the reasons why you want to reunite are your own. If the reason you want to get back together is only because your ex lover is pressuring you, or you feel bad, or if you're considering it because of your family, the relationship will most likely be doomed to fail again. No matter how noble your intentions are don't get back in relationship with someone for the wrong reasons only do it if it is truly what you want.

Related: J.K. Rowling Says Harry Potter Should Have Ended Up with Hermione

3. Take a look back at your relationship as a whole: Reflect on the entirety of your relationship between you and your ex lovebird. Think about all the things that worked and didn't work between the two of you. Make a list of the pros and cons and then once you've finished see which side has more. After you have completed analyzing and making your lists about all the things that made you a couple, you will have a clearer understanding of what you want and what final decision you should make.

It looks like supermodel Heidi Klum is back on the market. People confirmed that Klum and her bodyguard boyfriend, Martin Kirsten separated a few weeks ago, after dating for a year and half. The ex lovebirds started dating a few months after Klum, 40, filed for divorce from ex husband Seal whom she was married to for several years. A source close to Klum states that Martin, 41, was there for Klum during the difficult time after her divorce. The ex lovers may have gone their separate ways, but Klum is still grateful for the time spent with Martin and all his support. The two will reportedly remain friends, but they will be discontinuing their professional relationship.

How do you know when it's time to call it quits on a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Learning that not all of your relationships will work out and when to let go are two of the many lessons we must learn in this life. Finding love is hard and the thought of starting over and trying to find someone new can be terrifying, but should you stay in a relationship because of these reasons? What's the breaking point? Cupid has some advice on how you can tell when it's time to call it quits:

1. You're no longer smiling: If you are no longer happy in your relationship it is a major sign you might have to move on. You want to be with someone who makes you smile, laugh and feel alive, and if your partner is no longer making you feel these things you need to ask yourself if the two of you being together is the right thing. Everyone deserves to be with someone who makes them happy, and if you are arguing all the time with your lover or they make you sad more often than happy it's time to end the relationship.

2. You both have changed: As time goes by people can change. Maybe who each of you were and what you wanted when you first started dating may have changed. If you find yourselves drifting apart and heading towards separate paths, it may be time to let go of your love and move on. It's okay to like different things and do your own thing from time to time, but if you find yourselves constantly fighting about your conflicting ideals or goals, or you are fine with being apart for long amounts of time the relationship may already be over.

3. Is one more into the relationship than the other: For your relationship to work both parties have to be invested in keeping your love alive. Are you both doing your share in the relationship or are you both equally committed to each other? If one of you is pulling more weight than the other, it is a sign your romance may be fizzing out. There could be different circumstances as to why your honey is pulling away, but if you can't find a way to work it out or fix it together the relationship is doomed no matter what. It's okay to escape a toxic relationship because sometimes there is too much stress and challenges for you to overcome and be able to work it out with your significant other.

Courtney Cox Says She Wants Celebrity Ex David Arquette to Be Happy

By Louisa

Gonzales

Courtney Cox and David Arquette may have separated back in 2010, but the ex couple still maintains a positive relationship with each other. Cox, 49, even talks about her ex in a friendly way, going on to reportedly say she wants him to be happy. The once lovers have both moved on as Arquette is expecting a baby with girlfriend Chrisina McLarty, while Cox is linked to musician Johnny McDaid. Although the two have one of the most amicable splits in Hollywood, according to People, Cox still notes the difficulty of divorce. She mentions how having a daughter together, Coco, 9, helps them keep their priorities straight, as they want what's best for her. Cox also relies on friends such as Friends costar Jenifer Aniston for support.

What are some ways to remain amicable with your ex post-divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce is difficult for everyone involved no matter if the choice to separate was mutual or not. Yes, divorce is never going to be a smooth ride and it will have lots of bumps, but someday you will both move on. The biggest question after divorce is once you are no longer together romantically can you still be friends or at least stay on good terms with each other? Cupid has some advice on ways to keep the peace with your ex after a divorce:

1. Communicate: It is important to communicate often and honestly. Keeping yourselves open to speaking and sharing what's going on in your lives, even though you are no longer linked romantically, can help keep the two of you on good terms. Make sure to remain honest about your feelings and with anything else you have to say. Trust is important for any relationship and if you hide or keep secrets from each other, it could ruin whatever good feelings you have left for each other.

2. Support their choices: Whatever the future holds for both of you, whether it's moving on with some one else or doing new things, giving them your support lets them know you still care. It is hard to see you ex with some one else, there is no escaping it, but if you truly still care about them, you should want them to be happy. Being able to let your ex know or giving them a sign of approval about them moving on is a really nice gesture and can help you too move on as well.

3. Keep calm and be kind to each other: Divorce is hard for both parties, keep that in mind when you are making decisions about dividing assets. It is good to remain calm and be nice to one another, especially if you want to stay on each others good graces and want the divorce to go as smoothly as possible. If children are involved this even more important, doing what is best for your family should be the number one priority. Together you can come up with a fair agreement on how to move forward.

Emma Watson's Boyfriend's 'Second Family' Is 'Thrilled'

They're Dating

By Louisa

Gonzales

New couple Emma Watson and Oxford rugby star, Matthew Janney may not have hit the “meet the parents” milestone of their relationship yet, but Janney’s ‘second family’ already offers warm welcomes and congratulations for his new girlfriend. Janney adopted into husband and wife James and Coralie Day’s family unofficially after the passing of his biological mother Jill, who died of breast cancer in 2008, when Janney was 16. His father passed away long before that when he was just a toddler. According to UsMagazine.com, the Days reportedly shared their thoughts about the new item, recently spotted at the beginning of January in the Caribbean looking sweet and chummy on the beach. They said they’re “thrilled” the two are dating, and a source also revealed that Janney was “excited” when telling them about him and Emma.

What do you do if your partner's family doesn't approve of you?

Cupid's Advice:

"Meeting the parents" is a stressful part of your relationship as you want to make a good impression and get your romantic mate's guardians to like you. What do you do if you or fail to make a great first impression or don't succeed in getting them to like you? Cupid has some advice on what you can do if your partner's family doesn't approve of you being in relationship with their child:

1. See what your partner has to say: What does your other half think about their family not approving? Share your concern with them. Maybe they have the answers or can give you some insight about why their family didn't approve of you, after all no one knows their family better than them. Finding out what went wrong or what the problem was together can help with the two of you finding a solution or understanding.

Related: Emma Watson Is Caught With a New Man

2. Ask your lover to talk with their family: Maybe the first time meeting your partners parents didn't go as planned or as smoothly as you had both hoped. Ask your sweetie if they could talk with their family and see why they don't think you are a good fit for their child. Give your significant other a chance to talk with their family to explain and defend you as well as your relationship. It might be easier to find out why the family doesn't approve or convince them to give you a second chance by letting your honey talk to them alone.

Related: Bradley Cooper and Suki Waterhouse Go Public at Sundance

3. Give yourself a second chance: Maybe during your first meeting you were trying to be someone you weren't or you acted how you thought your partner and his family wanted you to be, which may have resulted in you coming off as fake or awkward. Your best bet is to arrange a second meeting and let them see your true personality and give them a glimpse of the positive side of you and your lovebirds union. It doesn't have to be extreme, but showing affection to your significant other and his family can go a long way. If in the end they still don't like you, don't let them phase you as the only opinions that truly matter are yours and your better half, there could be a number of reasons about why they don't approve, none of them necessarily having to do with you.

Brad Pitt Flies to Australia to Reunite with His Celebrity Love Angelina Jolie and Kids

By Brittany

Stubbs

It's a busy life for the handsome Brad Pitt. Right after the Producers Guild Awards, he hopped on a flight to Australia's Gold Coast Airport and then onto a waiting helicopter, presumably to reunite with celebrity love Angelina Jolie and their six children, as UsMagazine.com reported. Although Jolie has been filming Unbroken in Australia and Pitt has had a busy few months with projects of his own, they always make time for their celebrity relationship and family.

Following Pitt's example with his celebrity love, what are some ways to put your relationship and love before a busy work schedule?

Cupid's Advice:

In an ideal world, we would have the perfect amount of time to devote to all our priorities, but that's not the way it is; instead, life is often a constant balancing act. No matter what you or your partner have going on, even if you two are in different countries like Pitt and his celebrity love Jolie, it's always important to make sure your relationship and love never takes a backseat to your business:

1. Designate weekly "us" time: Make time to put down the cell phones or the kids' projects and just be together. Whether this means that you have a weekly date night or you spend 30 minutes chatting at the end of the day, if you are both committed to it, your relationship and love will benefit.

2. Set boundaries: Every busy couple needs to set boundaries to keep their work life from getting in the way of their relationship. It may mean ignoring business calls and e-mails once you get home each evening or only traveling for two weeks out of every month. Whatever your rules might be, set them as a couple, reminding one another that they are meant to improve your partnership as a whole.

3. Continue to work at it: No matter how long you've been together, love is something you constantly must tend to and work at. Be open to additional opportunities to put your partnership before your busy work schedule. Even if you already have a weekly date night or nightly pillow talk, look for new ways to make the most of your time together.

Celebrity Couples Who Keep Their Relationships Out of the Spotlight

By April

Littleton

Most of the famous and wealthy individuals we see on our TV screens and in the magazines enjoy having their love life on display for the whole world to see. However, there are a select few who prefer to keep their relationship out of harm's way. Cupid has a list of celebrities who manage to keep their private life – private:

1. Dolly Parton and Carl Thomas Dean: The country singer has been married to Dean since May, 30, 1996. They met at a Wishy-Washy laundromat on her first day in Nashville with his first words to her being, "Y'all gonna get sunburnt out there, little lady.” Since marrying, Dean has only seen Parton perform once and he rarely makes any public appearances with his wife. Parton and Dean have no children together, but she commented on his romantic side in an interview stating that Dean does spontaneous things to surprise her and sometimes writes her poems.

2. Beyonce and Jay-Z: This couple kept their relationship under wraps for quite a while. It was rumored that the couple began dating after collaborating together on the hit single “03 Bonnie and Clyde”. The lovebirds took it a step further by secretly marrying on April 4, 2008. When it comes to the status of their relationship, the couple have since eased up on their privacy, especially when Beyonce publicly announced her pregnancy during a live performance on the 2011 MTV Video Music Awards.

3. Morris Chestnut and Pam Byse: Who knew that The Best Man Holiday co-star was married? Well he is – and has been for 18 years now. Chestnut and his wife Pam have two children together, Grant and Paige. In an interview with Upscale magazine, the actor explained what makes their marriage successful. “I let my wife be the woman. You know? I let her be the woman... And she, in turn, when it comes down to it, she lets me be the man,” Chestnut said.

Bradley Cooper and Girlfriend Suki Waterhouse Go Public at Sundance

By April

Littleton

According to People, Bradley Cooper and girlfriend Suki Waterhouse have finally gone public with their romance. The lovebirds attended the Sundance Film Festival together in Park City, Utah. They were spotted strolling down the street, while holding hands.

When is it the right time to go public with a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Love is in the air. This may be true indeed, but sometimes, you just don't feel like sharing all of your happiness with everyone else. Keeping a new relationship under wraps for awhile is perfectly acceptable, but eventually you'll have to spill the beans to someone. Cupid has some tips:

1. You've dated long enough: If you've dated your partner for longer than five months, then it's definitely time to let the world know about your new romance. Everyone deserves their privacy and you don't have to give away every single detail about your relationship, but wouldn't you like to spill a little gossip to your best friend? Being able to confide in someone about your new honey will eventually be a necessity when you least expect it.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Are Still Friends After Divorce

By Louisa

Gonzales

Breakups are hard. Divorce is even harder. Some are nasty, while others end amicably, but even so, for some couples transitioning from ex lovers to buddies just isn't possible.

Many celebrity partners have gotten married over the years, and not all of them have worked out. However, some pairs have managed to go from being in a romantic relationship to remaining friends. Here are Cupid's top 5 celebrity ex couples who still remain friends to this day.

1. Miranda Kerr and Orlando Bloom: The pair married for three years before calling it quits in 2013. The ex couple shares one son, Flynn, born in 2011. The ex lovers may have ended their marriage, which their reps stated the split was amicable, but the family is still spotted in friendly outings together. Having a son together it makes sense the two remains more than cordial with one another.

2. Courteney Cox and David Arquette: The two got hitched back in 1999 and were together for 11 years before splitting up and then officially divorcing in 2012. The ex lovebirds have one child together their daughter, Coco. The two have reportedly stated they still remain best friends and are both fully committed to raising their daughter together even though they are no longer married.

3. Ryan Phillippe and Reese Witherspoon: The couple who tied the knot back in 1999 married young, but remained together for eight years, unusual for Hollywood standards, before ending their romance. The ex lovebirds have a son and daughter together and still maintain a healthy relationship with each other to this day.

4. Demi Moore and Ashton Kutcher: The once power couple both made headlines when they first got together back in 2003 because of their major age difference, about fifteen and half years total! Their divorce may have been one of the nastier ones, there's speculation Kutcher was unfaithful, but the ex's have both since moved on. Kutcher stated he would always cherish the time they spent together in a tweet and the pair appears to still be friendly toward one another.

Emma Roberts Is Engaged to Boyfriend Evan Peters

By April

Littleton

According to People, American Horror Story costars Emma Roberts and Evan Peters are engaged. Peters proposed to Roberts in NYC over the holidays with a pink gold and diamond ring. The lovebirds have been dating since 2012.

What are some ways to keep your engagement under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

You're newly engaged, but you're not entirely sure if you're ready to tell all of your loved ones yet. Sometimes, couples just want to enjoy the moment by themselves for a little while and that's perfectly OK. Cupid has some tips:

1. Keep it a secret: Hiding such exciting news from your friends and family can be easier said than done, but it's also the simplest way to keep your engagement just between you and your partner. Until you're ready to tell your loved ones what's going on in your relationship, keep this bit of information to yourself.

According to People, Demi Moore has a new love! Moore was seen on the beach with musician Sean Friday, 27, while in Tulum, Mexico. “They’ve been hanging out together for months and by all appearances, it seems like they’re dating,” a source said. Moore, 51, divorced Ashton last November.

What are some ways to introduce your new beau to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

Beginning a new relationship is an exciting feeling, but the one thing that can be a little stressful is when it’s time for your new boo to meet all of your loved ones. Cupid is here to help:

1. Start small: Introduce your new partner to only a select few of your loved ones when you’re first starting out. You and your significant other will already be nervous enough. There’s no need to bombard your honey’s personal space with all of your family and friends all at once.

Dwyane Wade Admits to Fathering a Child While On Break from Gabrielle Union

By April

Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Dwyane Wade confirmed to fathering a child while on a break from fiancée Gabrielle Union. "I had a time, a part in our break, in our pain and our hurt, a blessing came out of it in my life, having a son that was born healthy," Wade said in a press conference Monday evening. The basketball player and actress have been dating since 2009 and took a brief hiatus to focus on their careers. The couple announced their engagement Dec. 20.

What are three steps you should take after being betrayed by your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

You just found out that your partner hasn't been honest with you about a certain situation. Now, it's up to you make the decision to either try to mend your relationship, or call it quits. Cupid is here to help:

1. Counseling: If you want to work out your relationship, see a professional counselor with your significant other. You might also want to think about seeing your own therapist before you make any steps toward reconciliation. You'll need to figure out your feelings and if taking your partner back is really the best thing for you to do.

Drew Lachey Talks About Finding Balance Between Wife and Kids

By Priyanka Singh

Former 98 Degrees band member, Drew Lachey, recently talked with Celebrity Baby Scoop about how much life changed for the better when he became a father. The singer revealed how his two children, Isabella, 7, and Hudson, 3, learn about values from the example him and his wife set in their household. Even though the kids are his number one priority, he still manages to keep the romance alive in his marriage to his high school sweetheart. Read on for more of his interview!

CBS: How are your kids Isabella and Hudson doing? What do they like to do for fun these days?

DL: “This morning we were just throwing snowballs. For the most part, they’re just active kids. My daughter loves to perform and my son’s a little tornado. They love music and love dancing. I don’t know where they get that from. [laughs] They just naturally want to do that. They’re fun-loving, compassionate, and artistic kids. I’m sure every parent thinks their kids are the best in the world, and I’m no different. I have some great kids.”

CBS: If we ask them what kind of father you are, what would they tell us? What is your parenting style?

DL: “That’s a good question. I try to be fun but I also try to be no-nonsense. Manners are very important in our house, such as respecting and being compassionate towards other people. At the same time, you don’t have to be hard-lined with that. You can have fun and make things entertaining. I try to be a good balance. Would they say that? I don’t know. But that’s what I try to be.”

Related Link: Keith Urban Says Marriage and Family Takes Work Every Day

CBS: How has fatherhood changed you?

DL: “Over the past seven years, fatherhood has changed me completely one hundred percent. Everybody says it changes your life, but it ultimately flips your life one hundred and eighty degrees and changes it massively, but all for the better. Your values, what’s important to you, how you look at life, and how you view yourself changes. You have to take a look at yourself and see how these little eyes are going to remember you and how they’re going to imitate you and what they’re going to take away from you as they grow up. My daughter’s sees how I treat her mom and that’s how she’s going to gauge how every guy’s supposed to treat her. You want to make sure you're setting the right example for your kids."

CBS: You married your high school sweetheart. How do you keep the romance alive amidst diapers and carpools?

DL: "Luckily, my kids are out of diapers now so it makes it a little easier. It's something that every couple has to make the effort to do. You number one priority becomes making sure that your children are happy, healthy, and safe. At the same time, you have to still give each other enough attention and love to keep the marriage strong and healthy as well. Everything is about finding that balance between having time for your spouse and your marriage and also time for your kids. Calling a babysitter and going out on date night is not a bad thing. It's something that we definitely try to do. Being here in Cincinnati, we also have family that can come and help out and babysit. We definitely try and take advantage of our date nights."

Related Link: Ben Affleck Says Wife Jennifer Garner Is 'the Most Important Person to Me'

CBS: Can you tell us about your holiday plans? Do you have any special holiday traditions?

Drew: "We have lots of traditions. Luckily for us, now that we're back in Cincinnati, most of our family is here. As opposed to having to fly across country to spend the holidays with our family, we can literally just drive down the road now, which makes it a little bit easier. We're foodies, so we definitely stuff our faces for three days straight during the holidays. We have Thanksgiving, and then we have leftovers, and then we have leftovers of the leftovers. It's a big deal for us, and the Christmas holiday is huge too. Ultimately, it just comes down to spending time with family. My wife has a huge family, so it's always a fun time."

CBS: What's up next for you? Are you working on any musical projects?

DL: “Right now, I’m taking the holiday off. It’s been a busy year with the tour and all that fun stuff. I’m sure I’ll get back to auditioning come pilot season and see what’s out there. I continue to work and audition, but while I’m here in Cincinnati my wife and I teach at the school we graduated from and run our art camp, so between jobs I’m still working. There’s never a dull moment.”
