Maria Shriver Seeks Advice After Arnold Schwarzenegger Affair

By Dr. Judy Kuriansky

After 25 years of marriage to Maria Shriver, Arnold Schwarzenegger revealed that he had been hiding a love child from the public. Arnold's behavior is a serious insult – and the ultimate betrayal – to Maria, especially having this affair in her household and keeping it a secret for so long.

It will take a long time for Maria to rebuild trust in any relationship, and we now have a deeper understanding of her request on the web. Uncertain transitions in life can be traumatic. As stated in a video shared on YouTube, Maria says, “As you know, transitions are not easy. I'd love to get your advice on how you've handled transitions in your own life. It's so stressful to not know what you're doing next. People ask you what are you doing and then they can't believe that you don't know what you're doing.”

Maria is reaching out to others for advice on how to transition to the next phase of her life. For many women, Maria's outreach is reassuring. For a public figure to express that her future is unknown is both a positive and comforting example for those experiencing similar turmoil.

Maria now has the opportunity to stand for the empowerment of women by respecting herself, having a high self-esteem, trusting her independence and not tolerating bad behavior.

Dr. Judy Kuriansky is a world renowned radio advice host, clinical psychologist, certified sex therapist, popular lecturer, newspaper columnist, author of many books, including The Complete Idiot's Guide® to a Healthy Relationship and saw Arnold and Maria's love bloom firsthand at their engagement party. To help Maria and women everywhere, she has offered three suggestions to handle transitions in life:

1. Dream big: Allow yourself time to be quiet and meditate. Think about your ultimate dream. Do not add qualifications or possible inhabitants. Let your mind run free. Imagine without any hesitations.

2. Re-focus your energy: Try out the following exercises:

- Picture your future by drawing a matrix. Put yourself in the center and tasks you are completing now in bubbles around you. Look at those tasks and think of how you could turn them into a substantial activity focus.

- Host a gathering of friends. Have each of them brainstorm something that you are good at, or what you could be doing in your next stage of life. When you do this, be sure to write down all of the suggestions.

- Browse a college course brochure. Look for something new that you've always wanted to learn, but never had the time.

3. Anxiety into action: Transitioning can translate to both stress and excitement. Once you accept the stress and anxiety, you will gain the courage to face the unknown.

Cupid Exclusive: Jaimie Hilfiger on Old Hollywood Romance

By Vicky Sullivan of Aspiring Socialite

Supermodel Jaimie Hilfiger, niece of famed fashion designer Tommy Hilfiger, has been seen around town wearing the latest in fashion – which includes old Hollywood styles. During L.A. Fashion Week, she wore a light pink cocktail dress complete with old world-inspired lace and Edwardian beadwork designed by Sue Wong to the designer's My Fair Lady Champagne Brunch/Fashion Show at The Cedars, the former historic Hollywood home of silent-screen icon Norma Talmadge, which was purchased by Wong in 2004. Hilfiger's most recent project is being the face of boyfriend Igal Dehan's jewelry line, Cuffs of Love, worn by celebrities like Kim Kardashian, the Hilton sisters, and Stevie Wonder.

Hilfiger took time to speak exclusively with Cupid's Pulse about love, dating and celebrity style. For hopeless romantics intent on experiencing the romance and chivalry of old Hollywood, this young model reveals how to glam up your love life simply by bringing back nostalgic designs and genuine class:

What do you like best about old Hollywood styles?

Old Hollywood has inspired so many recent styles, with high-collared fitted outfits and of course, hats. Kate Middleton has taken a lot of her style from old Hollywood and My Fair Lady inspirations. There is just so much one-of-a-kind craftsmanship that goes into these fashions.

How do you incorporate the romance of old Hollywood into your everyday life?

My boyfriend, Igal Dehen, is from Paris so it's always a romance movie in my house. At the height of old Hollywood, men had a lot of manners and courted women with the utmost respect.

Do you feel that wearing these soft, glamorous styles evoke old-school romance?

Yes, you're absolutely treated differently. When you present yourself with class, you're treated with class. People also tend to take you more seriously in classically beautiful styles.

How has being from a famous family affected your dating life?

You have to find someone who doesn't care either way and is there for you. They must be successful in their own right and aren't looking for a free ride.

Besides a man, what is your favorite accessory?

Diamonds are a girl's best friend.

What tips can you give our readers on how to get ready for a date?

The day of the date you should wake up early and go to the gym. Make time to talk to your girlfriends that day. Wear something hot, but not slutty. It is very important that you're comfortable in what you wear, or you won't be comfortable on the date. Don't be exactly on time, because chances are he won't be. But don't be any more than 10 minutes late, because otherwise you look like a diva.

How do you dress for a casual vs. formal date?

No matter if the date is casual or formal, you should always be comfortable in what you're wearing. Always ask what you're doing first so you know what to wear. Even if you're wearing heels to a fancy dinner, you should bring along a pair of flats in your purse in the event that you take a walk on the beach after dinner.

What other dating tips and advice can you give us?

Don't text or be on your phone while on a date. Be polite and ladylike. Always say "please" and "thank you." Remember that 90 to 95 percent of the time he's more nervous than you are.

Cupid thanks Jaimie Hilfiger for her time! For more on Hilfiger, visit her website at www.JaimieHilfiger.com, Facebook page and follow her on Twitter: @JamieHilfiger.

Cameron Diaz and A-Rod Are Happy Family with His Kids

In honor of their on-again romance, Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez took A-Rod's two children to Busch Gardens amusement park in Tampa, Florida. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress looked incredibly motherly holding hands with the baseball star's two daughters Natasha, 6, and Ella, 2, from his previous marriage to Cynthia Rodriguez. It looks like this couple may have hit a home run in the kid department after they rekindled their romance in November. Cameron Diaz was also seen bonding with the girls late last year on a family trip to Mexico.

How can you bond with your new partner's kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Bonding with a new partner's children can be one of the most magical and most difficult parts of a new romance. Here are some tips:

- 1. Show respect: Though you may be very excited about getting to know your new partner's children, it's always important to respect their boundaries and their previous relationships with both of their parents. The last thing you want to do is trash your partner's ex in front of the children or get in the way when your partner wants to spend quality time alone with his or her children.

2. Come bearing gifts: It's never a good idea to try to buy someone's love. However, kids love getting gifts. It makes them feel important that you thought of them. Also, getting them a little something you knew they have been wanting or would like shows that you are making an effort to get to know them.

3. Go on a date with the kids: Cameron Diaz and A-Rod had the right idea when they took the kids to an amusement park. Dating someone with children is a completely different playing field, so expect a mix of sophisticated dinners and dates with the kids at Chuck E Cheese.

Cupid’s Advice:

If you and your mate are headed toward a breakup, it’s not too late to try to save the relationship. Cupid has some ideas on how to work on a troubled relationship:

1. Make the grand gesture: When you or your partner just can’t get what you want from the other person, it's time to make the grand gesture. For example, if your mate thinks you're afraid of commitment, maybe it's time to ask him to move in.

2. Communicate: Lack of communication is one of the most common reasons for a breakup. Make sure you are both comfortable sharing your thoughts and feelings with each other.

3. Do little things: Sure, the big things are important, but a little goes a long way. Try doing small things like cooking dinner or buying your mate flowers. They'll appreciate it more than you know.

Is it important that your partner understand you all the time?

Cupid's Advice:

Though no one can ever understand another person 100% of the time, if you listen to and love your partner, you should be able to come close:

1. Listen: The more you listen to your partner the more you will understand them.

2. Know their likes and dislikes: Once you know what your partner likes and dislikes, you should be able to predict how they will react in certain situations.

3. Be understanding: In the event that you don't understand each other, don't make a big deal about it. Just decide if it's something you're willing to live with, and go from there.

Cupid's Advice:

There was once a time you shared your life with your now-ex. It may now be over, but keeping things civil between your ex and your new partner is crucial. Cupid offers a few tips to do just that:

- 1. Don't cling to the past: It all starts with you. Don't continuously talk about your past relationship. Your mate will not appreciate it, and his or her dislike for your ex will deepen.
 - 2. Reassurance: Reassure your current partner that things are completely over with your ex, so he or she won't feel threatened.
 - 3. Spend time together: It might seem awkward at first, but attend an event with your partner and invite your ex and his or her new mate (if there is one) to be there, too.

Is it a date if you go out in a group?

- 1. Being a couple doesn't mean being exclusive: There are things that couples should exclusively share, but enjoying the company of others while out on a date can actually bring you closer as a couple.

1. Instant gratification: If you are one of those rare people who can get over a breakup immediately, the more power to you.

2. Waiting too long is unhealthy: If a month has gone by and you still haven't gotten over your ex, you may want to consider seeking professional help.

- 1. Get away for a while: Though vacations may seem like a temporary solution, they may be just what you need to spark a permanent reconciliation.
- 2. Listen: Take a break from your own fighting words to listen to your partner's concerns, thoughts and feelings. Try to understand things from his point of view. Sometimes understanding is the key to resolving important issues.
- 3. Look at the big picture: Your drama may be comprised of a series of small fights centered around a big problem you are not confronting. Figure out the heart of the matter, and then focus on that instead.

Forbes: What Do Powerful Celebrity Women Really Want From a Relationship?

By Krissy Dolor

Forbes may be a money magazine, but that doesn't mean that they don't love celebrities, too! Last week, the magazine reported on a recent study conducted by the University of Abertay Dundee in Scotland, which found that as women earn money and financial independence, their attraction to good-looking, older men increases. In addition, these women hold a man's looks to a higher standard. The university has dubbed this "The George Clooney effect."

Previous studies have found that women care more about whether or not a man can provide for them, while men were more attracted to lookers. This new study showed that when a woman's income increases, her taste in men change.

"We'd assumed that as women earn more, their partner preferences would actually become more like those of men, with a tendency towards preferring younger, more attractive partners rather than those who can provide and care for children," said lead researcher Dr. Fhionna Moore, a psychology lecturer at the University of Abertay Dundee.

“However, the preferred age difference did not change as we’d expected – more financially independent women actually preferred even older men. We think this suggests greater financial independence gives women more confidence in partner choices, and attracts them to powerful, attractive older men.”

Forbes analyzed 12 celebrity couples, posing this question: What is each woman in the celebrity couple attracted to? They say that Angelina Jolie, as one of the highest-earning women in Hollywood ($20 million), wants a hot, older man. Hubby Brad Pitt is 12 years older than the starlet. Think Demi Moore’s marriage to Ashton Kutcher is part of the cougar effect? Think again. She told Harper’s Bazaar she does not like the term – and Kutcher’s Twitter presence seems to garner enough fame on its own. We can even look at Ellen DeGeneres, who earned $55 million last year, and is married to Portia De Rossi – a woman 15 years her junior.

In addition to the UK study, lead researcher at dating site eHarmony, Gian Gonzaga, said in the Forbes article that high-earning women are attracted to successful men who have established careers – and typically, these men are older. “In the data I’ve seen, women always want higher earning men,” said Gonzaga. He also said, “the Cougar thing is likely a myth.”

Well, there you have it: money only begets more money. If only there were a slew of George Clooney and Brad Pitt look-alikes up for grabs...

Taylor Swift is Single and Scared of Being in Wrong Relationship

Country crooner Taylor Swift has dated her share of A-listers, including Joe Jonas, John Mayer, and Twilight's Taylor Lautner. The singer is now connected to the always handsome actor Jake Gyllenhaal. However, according to the December issue of Allure and Us Weekly, America's sweetheart is terrified of being in the wrong relationship. "I used to think there were all these rules for making people like you," said Swift. "I was filled with advice! I'd tell my friends things like, 'Don't accept that apology! That isn't sincere!' or 'He hung out with his ex-girlfriend? Get rid of him.' But love is never that simple." How do you know if you're in a bad relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

If you think you're in a bad relationship, you probably are. Here are a few signs that it may be time to move on:

1. Just friends: If you're starting to feel that you and your partner were better off as friends, the feeling is probably mutual. Friends with benefits may be fun for the time being, but it's not a replacement for a relationship.

2. Nothing in common: It's fun to date someone who has a unique hobby or interest that you know nothing about. Learning new things can keep a relationship exciting. However, if their interests and priorities are keeping you apart more than together, your relationship may be doomed for failure.

3. Clashing values: Personal beliefs on issues such as politics, religion or even finances are possible deal breakers. Beware of these relationship red flags.

Cupid's Advice:

For some, the fastest way to mend a heartbreak is to fall in love again. But before you jump back into the dating pool, figure out why you left it in the first place. Cupid has some things you may want to consider:

1. Are you ready to date?: If your friendships, finances, professional life and/or emotional health are still bruised from your breakup, you should work on recovering before you bring someone else into your life.

2. What do you need to work on?: Like relationships, breakups are rarely one-sided. Consider what personality flaws or bad habits you brought to the table in your last relationship and work on fixing them.

3. What are you really looking for?: Many people end up dating the same type of person over and over again. Decide what qualities you actually want in your next partner, and actively seek out people with those traits.

Cupid's Advice:

While it's important to take time to mourn the end of a marriage, you can't stay single forever! Cupid has some advice on how to know when you're ready to date after a divorce:

- 1. You're okay being alone: Don't jump into a rebound relationship right after a divorce. Take time to grieve, and get used to being by yourself before you start dating again.
 - 2. You have a support group: You shouldn't go through a divorce alone. Lean on friends and family when you're feeling low. They can also help you decide when you're ready to enter back into the dating world.
 - 3. You're healthy: Often people turn to alcohol or food to help ease the pain of a divorce. Make sure you don't overindulge too much, and wait until you're healthy before you start seeing someone new.

Despite their recent split, Wood says she’ll always have affection for Manson. “I’m always gonna love that guy. He’s a genius, he’s an amazing artist, we’re still friends. Some things just aren’t meant to be.”

What are the benefits of dating someone much older than yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

While Marilyn Manson and Evan Rachel Wood's father-daughter relationship is a little out of the ordinary, there still are benefits to dating someone much older. Cupid has some ideas about why you should try going out with someone in a different age bracket:

- 1. Learn something: If the person you're dating is much older, they probably have a lot of life and love experiences that you haven't. Take the opportunity to learn everything you can from your older and wiser partner.
- 2. Show me the money: Not to be materialistic, but if you're with someone who is considerably older than you, chances are they have had the time to accumulate a bit of cash. Enjoy the fruits of your mate's labor, and let them treat you!
- 3. Better with age: Maturity comes with age, so dating someone older inevitably means less video games and fart jokes. And that's a good thing.

How can you keep a long distance relationship alive?

2. Make the most of your time together: When you finally reunite with your long distance partner, make sure to drop everything and really spend some quality time with your mate. Always decide when you will see each other again when you part so you will have something to be excited about.

3. Compromise: There may come a time where the logical thing to do to is for either you or your partner to make the move to be together. If you decide that neither of you can give up your lives where you are, perhaps you can meet in the middle and do every other weekend or half the year in each place.

What are some benefits of being single?

Cupid's Advice:

For some people, living the single life is rough. And seeing all your friends pair off while you sit at home on a Friday night can be like a slap in the face. Living la vida single, however, can actually be one of the best times of your life:

1. Miss Independent: When you're single, you only have one person to answer to: yourself. You can go out whenever you want, go where you want and see whatever movie you want sans compromising. Take time to enjoy not having to answer to anyone else, and be selfish.

2. Life lessons: Sometimes when life isn't so pleasant, and you don't have anyone to turn to for help, you have to forge ahead and go at it alone. But in the end you'll be so empowered that you accomplished a seemingly impossible task all by yourself that you'll soon realize you don't need anyone and that you are capable of doing anything.

3. More money, less problems: You don't seem to realize how much extra money you spend in a relationship until you're not in one anymore. With all the extra cash you now have, save up and buy yourself something fabulous. Splurge on a ridiculously expensive pair of shoes or a designer dress you may only wear once for no particular reason.

How can you persuade your spouse to be more supportive?

Cupid's Advice:

Unsupportive partners can put a strain on any relationship. Cupid has some tips on how to make your way through it:

1. Understand: You need to understand why your partner is against your decision. Try to find out what benefits he or she sees by choosing the opposite standpoint. Ask lots of questions to help you figure out why they are against the situation, then address their points.

2. Weigh options: You might find that your partner's point of view has a lot of reasoning behind it, so don't just dismiss them because you don't like it. Try to find an in-between so that you are both happy with the outcome.

3. Be honest: Don't lie, exaggerate, or go behind your spouse's back to get what you want. If it's a big decision, such as going back to school, your partner will find out eventually, and will be even more upset you lied.
