someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

In some cases it's hard to see an ex with someone new. As hard as it can be, you have to keep it together. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy when your ex moves on with someone new:

1. Try not to look!: With social media taking over, it can be hard to avoid finding out about an ex and their new partner. As much as you may have the urge to lurk, don't look. Whether you broke up on good or bad terms, it will hurt the same when you see it. As long as you keep lurking, the more upset and angry you will get. Don't do it to yourself.

2. "I don't want to hear it": While your friends may think they are doing you a favor by telling you your ex's every move, you have to tell them that you don't want to hear it. Constantly hearing about your ex won't help you heal and move on. A good idea is to have a conversation with the people closest to you and have a mutual agreement on not bringing up your ex. This combined with fun with your loved ones will help you have a smooth and healthy healing.

3. It's not a competition: When seeing your ex with someone else, your first instinct may be to go out there and just jump into something with someone else. Bad idea! Keep your cool and take your time with getting back on the dating scene. Don't go out and hurt someone else to make your partner jealous. Not only will you hurt someone else, it will only hurt you more. Keep calm and work through it. Sometimes it gets worse before it gets better.

1. Unexplained anger: Are you and your partner constantly fighting? Is there unexplained tension or anger between the two of you? In celebrity news, this duo was rumored to have been dating at one point. How do you know if a friend has the potential to be more than that?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always said that you should marry your best friend. Why not be with the person who knows what you like, can tell when you are upset and just likes you for you? Cupid has some advice on knowing if your friend has the potential to be more:

1. Views: Before you jump into turning your friendship into a relationship, explore each other's point of views. Although friendships can evolve into relationships, it is important to make sure you are both on the same page. What are your beliefs? What do you think your friend will bring to the relationship? How does your friend feel about relationships? Being great friends is different from being a couple.

2. Future plans: Discussing the future is essential. Everybody has their own plans for the future. Jumping into a relationship with someone who won't compromise their future plans with you isn't a good idea. This will bring heart break and hurt feelings later. Discuss your future; although nothing is set in stone, remember as a couple, you are supposed to grow and be happy. While compromising is great, don't compromise your whole future if that's not what you really want. Don't force it.

Celebrity Couple News: Gwen Stefani & Blake Shelton Attend Wedding Together

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton attended a wedding together this past weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, although Shelton, 41, was already a part of the wedding, Stefani was nowhere near left out. She posted a video of the bridal party dancing to her song, "Hollaback Girl," on her Instagram. When on the Ellen show, Stefani, 48, said she always thinks about marrying Shelton. This celebrity relationship has been going strong since 2015. I guess we all want to know when this celebrity dating will turn into a wedding? Stay tuned!

This celebrity couple is just like us – attending weddings and dancing together. What are some ways attending a wedding can bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Date nights are great, but attending special events like weddings helps you figure out just where your relationship is going. Cupid has some advice on how attending weddings can bring you closer as a couple:

1. Presentation: Weddings aren't like attending the annual 4th of July family BBQ. This event is family and friends seeing the two of you dressed to impress. People will see you as a real couple; your parents or even Nana may even ask, "So, when are you two tying the knot." When you get all dressed up, it just gives others another view of you and your partner. Embrace it! While it can be embarrassing at the moment, they just want the two of you to have your own special day like this one... until they get the bill that is.

2. The talk: There you are, sitting at the table watching the bride and groom dance their first dance. Right there in that moment you will think, “that will be us one day.” Eventually, you and your partner will have “the talk.” Weddings help you to see yourselves as the ones getting married, even though it is not your wedding. Talking about marriage is important because ultimately, that is why you date someone; to grow and build a future. While you shouldn't force the issue, a light discussion to see where your partner's head is at when it comes to marriage is a good idea.

3. Fun: While it is natural to consider your own wedding, this is the time to still have fun. While you might take mental notes and may secretly be planning your own wedding in your head, remember to actually enjoy the wedding. When its time to dance, have fun. You and your significant other are dressed up and looking good. Dance the night away. Take pictures, participate in the dance contests, and you know there is always that one drunk person(s). There is plenty of time to plan your day, today isn't the day. Have fun!

Nikki Bella & John Cena Are Back Together After Calling Off Wedding

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, it looks like Nikki Bella and John Cena found their way back to each other. According to UsMagazine.com, almost two months ago Nikki Bella called off her engagement to the WWE star. The deal breaker for the celebrity couple was Cena not wanting children. After six years, the pair split, but once Bella, 34, heard that Cena, 41, wanted to be “the father to her children” on television, five days later the couple were spotted together again. Sources close to the couple say the break ended up helping their celebrity relationship. Sounds like a happy ending for the WWE stars.

It looks like this celebrity couple weren't ready to call it quits after all! What are some ways to decide whether to get back together with your ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

Apparently time does heal wounds. A deal breaker for Nikki Bella turned into the very thing that saved her relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to decide whether to get back with an ex or not:

1. Evaluate: Evaluate the situation. Specifically, what was the straw that broke the camel's back? From there you ask yourself, "can it be fixed?" Sometimes when you stop and assess the situation, you find your answer. It's possible you realize your break up was over something petty and you can move forward. On the other hand, you could also recognize that maybe it's best that you part ways with your ex. While happiness is the goal in a relationship, keep in mind that you both have to be happy. It would be like going the wrong way down a one way street; after you pass the "Do Not Enter" sign, it's on you.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Don't Let Him Be the One Who Got Away

2. Compromise: You have to ask yourself if you are willing to compromise. You should never change for anyone, however, there is nothing wrong with a little negotiating. Stop and figure out where the problem is coming from. Nobody is perfect so maybe a slight tweak on both ends could help. If your partner truly makes you happy and you aren't ready to let them go, discuss a compromise. Cupid encourages you to remember, a compromise is a settlement involving two or more; both sides need to work on things to better the relationship.

Related Links: Relationship Advice: 4 Reasons To Leave The Past In The Past

3. Acceptance: This may be the hardest part of considering going back to an ex. For whatever reason you broke up, the two of you are now communicating about mending your relationship. If everything is a go, remember you are now accepting what has happened in the past and moving forward. It's like that annoying, "Terms and Conditions" box that nobody reads but just hits "accept". If you are not careful, it could come back to hurt you. You are agreeing that you will give this relationship another go. Cupid's only advice with this is to never bring up the past. Cue the "Terms and Conditions" coming back to hurt you.

There may be a new celebrity couple in Hollywood! What are some ways to keep your budding relationship on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

When entering into a new relationship, your first instinct is to show off your new reason to smile. In a time where social media runs society, it may not be the best idea. Cupid has some advice on how to keep your budding relationship on the down-low, at least initially:

1. Stay off social media: Do yourself a favor and stay off of social media! Give the relationship a chance to grow naturally before bringing in outside forces. While people will always have something to say, staying off of social media cuts out all of the chatter that could potentially ruin this new found relationship.

2. Keep it to yourselves: This new relationship should just include you and the other person. Keeping things quiet can help build the strong foundation needed for a relationship. There is no need to bring any outsiders into what you two have started building; this will also keep your relationship on the down low. Why have everyone in your business from the very beginning?

3. Deny, deny, deny: While lying is generally considered wrong, if you both agree that you want to keep things private, denying you're in a relationship could be the solution. When seen together, you can explain that you're out as friends. Granted, at some point people won't believe you, but to keep things low key in the beginning, it may help.

Here are some tips on how you can help in this occurrence:

1. Be more positive than negative: Try not to say things like "once a cheater, always a cheater" because who knows if the two will get back together. Instead of focusing on the bad, focus on the good. Remind your pal that they are so strong, you guys are going to get through this together, and you will support them no matter what.

3. Let them make their own decisions: You may have your opinions, but try to keep them to yourself and simply guide your friend or family member with love and support. But then, he later apologized for that. We then saw the pair fighting vigorously on Instagram live and Jen even took a swing at Ronnie. Taylor owned up to his shortcomings and suggested that they split because he was not happy with himself. This break-up was filmed in August 2017 and since then, the pair has actually been trying to make their relationship work, according to UsMagazine.com. On Tuesday, Taylor confirmed on Twitter that the two are indeed still a celebrity couple now and he added, "I was a mess but each day has gotten better. I'll never be perfect I know this, but I do know that I have the best partner a guy can ask for, and all I care about is being the best I can for her here on out." Taylor realized during their short split that Cartwright made him want to be a better man and he did not want to lose her. This celebrity relationship has been through many ups and down but right now they seem to be at an up!

This celebrity break-up left us with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone then go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

There's no truth to these celebrity divorce rumors! What are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn't get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

- 1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

Rumors are stirring about a potential celebrity break-up. What are some ways to decrease break-up speculation?

Cupid's Advice:

People have a tendency to be nosy. They may begin to assume things in regards to your relationship if there are notable changes on social media, or in person. Whether these changes have any truth to them, it can be annoying to have people constantly discussing these rumors. Luckily, Cupid is here with some advice on how to decrease this talk:

1. Be honest: If you don't mind people knowing the truth, then share your break-up right after it occurs. This will stop people from formulating their own conclusions as to if you and your partner have broken up and why. Let people know about your break-up, and give them an explanation to the extent at which you feel comfortable so that further rumors don't begin to arise regarding the reasons why.

2. Delete social media: After your break-up, you may want to take a break from social media anyway. Also, if you temporarily delete your social media during this time, it will decrease speculation that can form from people analyzing who you are following, who is liking your pictures, and such. Sometimes it's nice to take a break from it all.

3. Be yourself: The number one reason why break-up speculation arises is because people notice changes in individual's personalities. If you and your partner actually did not break-up but you are just going through some other personal changes, let your friends and family know so that they don't assume otherwise. If you and your partner did break-up but you don't want people to know yet, try your best to still act like yourself so speculation doesn't occur.

We'll have to be on the look out!

These celebrity exes are either on good terms as friends or may be giving their relationship another try. What are some benefits to remaining friends with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes break-ups don't end badly, and in those times you may want to stay friends with your ex. Cupid has some advice on the benefits to staying friends with an ex:

1. They know you: If you guys end on a good note and stay cool with one another, then they can give you advice. The people we date get to know us in ways others don't. This comes in handy when it comes to your new relationship, because your ex can give you advice based on your past experiences and the fact that he indeed knows you in that way. Just make sure you are not dealing with a bitter or spiteful ex – you would not want to take the wrong advice.

2. You've got history: It's a shame to let all that history go to waste if you are both decent people that get along well after the break-up. Just because your romantic relationship didn't work out doesn't necessarily mean that a friendship won't work. You never know – maybe you were not compatible as lovers, but you make great friends, and the history can make the friendly bond stronger.

3. You get closure: Becoming friends with an ex can be a path into getting over them, but only as long as you're both ready and willing to actually be friends. If you're friends, then you obviously should have let go of any resentment between the both of you. The past is in the past, and now you've got a friendship. You didn't have to lose a good person just because it didn't work out.

Celebrity News: Would Jennifer Aniston Get Back Together With Brad Pitt?

By Jessica Gomez

Former celebrity couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux's split is raising a certain question: will celebrity exes Aniston and Brad Pitt be getting back together now that they're both single? According to UsMagazine.com, Aniston and Pitt will not be rekindling their celebrity relationship after all. "Jen wouldn't consider being with Brad in a romantic way," a friend of Aniston's said. "But there is always a spot in her heart for him." As for Pitt, a source said, "Brad is sad to hear about Jen's divorce. He only wishes the best for her. However, Brad hasn't reached out to Jen, and has no plans to do so at this point."

In this celebrity news, fans are speculating about Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt now that both have gone through splits. What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether or not to get back with an ex is an important decision. It isn't always an easy one either. Cupid has some things to consider before making the choice:

1. Have you both moved on from the reason you both broke up?: Think about the reason why you both broke up in the first place. Was it for a good reason or was it circumstantial? Then, also think about whether you both have forgiven each other completely for past mistakes. If you have, then that can be a good sign – if not, then not so much. If you feel like you haven't forgiven your ex for something, then that problem will probably constantly arise during your reconciled relationship.

Related Link: Justin Theroux Found Post-Its from Brad Pitt During Jennifer Aniston Marriage

2. Do you see a future with your ex?: Why go back to an ex if you don't think it's going to be serious and no good future ahead? Think about this thoroughly – sometimes we see a future with someone, but that future comes with unnecessary obstacles and negativity. If this is the case, then it may be a sign that your ex is meant to stay an ex. Think about this while spending some time apart – it's something big to ponder.

3. What are reasons to get back together and not get back together?: Pro and con lists are good ones to make. Be fair and think about why you should get back together with your ex and why you shouldn't. Then, weigh it all. Certain things weigh more than others, so be honest and just with yourself when considering all the information. Making a list with a friend can help, as long as that friend isn't necessarily biased.

Who supports your dreams and hopes and desires, and also has those of their own. Who doesn't put a price tag on your love ... Who holds your hand when you're scared and doesn't run away ... Who loves you, not in spite of your weirdness, but because of it ... Who makes you a priority in their life, no matter what," she continued. Cupid's Advice:

There are many things that are signs showing that someone will treat you right. Sweetin was right on the money with all she said on V-Day via Instagram. Here are three signs to be optimistic about:

1. They make you feel both safe and special: Having someone that treats you the way you should be treated is a wonderful thing. Not everyone can provide that for their lover. Being comfortable with your partner and feeling like they wouldn't do anything to hurt you is a comforting feeling. Trust is what leads to these feelings.

2. They respect your differences: This is important! It's great to have things in common, that's one of the many things that build a bond. However, having differences is okay, as long as you both respect each other's dissimilarities. Variation can be good when you both have boundaries and don't judge one another. This also leads to a more open relationship, which is a good thing.

1. Be honest: It is important to be honest in a relationship from the start. This is when you're building trust, and trust is earned by being righteous and truth-telling.
