

Rumored Celebrity Couple Nick Cannon & Chilli Get Steamy on Camera for Music Video

By Jessica

DeRubbo

Apparently we're getting a glimpse into the rumored celebrity relationship of Nick Cannon and rumored girlfriend Rozanda "Chilli" Thomas. The Mariah Carey's ex and TLC crooner have been spotted together quite a bit lately, and the word on the street is that they're a celebrity couple. In fact, E! News obtained an exclusive photo of the two in a new music video for Cannon's new music video for "If I Was Your Man," according to EOnline.com. In the photo, the pair are wearing matching sleepwear, and Cannon is rapping to the camera with his open silk pajamas, while Chilli is behind him wearing matching lingerie. About the potential couple, a source said, "Nick loves how chill Chilli is. Chilli is very family oriented and into God. She is also a very spiritual person with a kind soul. She is not drama and that's important for him."

This rumored celebrity couple is going public with their romance in a big way. What are some defining ways to show your friends and family you're in a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Formally announcing your new relationship to family and friends seems a little bit too awkward and official. Cupid has some similarly defining ways to get them in the know without making an awkward announcement:

1. Ask to invite them to a family dinner: If you have a standing day you meet up with your family for dinner, ask if you can bring your partner along. Unless you specifically tell your fam that this is a platonic invite, they'll connect the dots all on their own. Plus, once you get there, make sure to do a little light PDA to bring things into focus for them. Even a pat on the leg or a hug of the shoulders will do the trick.

2. Bring them up in daily conversation: If you bring up your partner in normal conversation on a consistent basis, your family and friends will get the picture. Eventually they might ask what the deal is, but even that is better than having to make a formal announcement out of the blue.

3. Post a photo on social media: You don't necessarily need to update your Facebook status to "in a relationship," but simply posting a cute photo of the two of you on Instagram will put the message out there, especially if you're somewhat cozy in the pic. At the very least, it'll spark some conversations with your loved ones, which will make the announcement a lot more natural.

Celebrity News: Michael Bublé Talks Toll Touring Takes on His Marriage

By Cortney Moore

Canadian soul singer Michael Bublé is making celebrity news once more with the release of his first movie, Michael Bublé: Show 148, which will premiere September 27. The movie will feature performances from his latest world tour and the work that goes into producing such great shows. In an interview with People.com, Bublé opens up about the struggles he faces when on tour and attempting to balance his celebrity relationship, saying, "There's talk so much about how women are forced to try to find balance in their professional life and their family life, and the truth is, it's not said enough about men: Men have the same issue." The 40-year-old singer married Luisana Lopilato in 2011, and the celebrity couple currently has two children. Bublé went on to say that although his work can be stressful, he and Lopilato have made their celebrity relationship work. "I'm really lucky that my wife and I have decided to try and support each other in that way," he said. Aside from his long awaited movie, Bublé is scheduled to venture home this week so he can watch over the children while his wife films a movie of her own. "I wish it wasn't a struggle, but it is a struggle to find a balance. I'll never find it perfectly, but I will do my damndest to find it as best I can."

This celebrity news is refreshingly honest. What are ways to keep your career from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a career can definitely take a toll on your relationship, but it doesn't have to be this way. A successful career and happy relationship takes balance. Let Cupid help you with both of these important aspects of your life:

1. Communicate: Work can take up a lot of your time, but communication with your partner is still important. Make it a point to speak with your partner, whether it be over the phone or a quick text. Let the person you're with know that you're thinking of them.

Celebrity News: Melanie Griffith Wishes Ex-Husband Antonio Banderas a Happy Birthday

By Cortney Moore

Melanie Griffith has surprised us all with a sweet birthday message for her famous ex, Antonio Banderas on August 10. According to People.com, the starlet took to Instagram to send her loving regards, saying "Happy Birthday to my ruggedly handsome ex husband," and even adding, "Will always love you." However, Banderas had beaten her to the punch since he wrote his own special birthday Twitter post for Griffith (whose birthday is August 9) in Spanish a day before saying, "Happy birthday Melanie, A loving hug from Marbella." The former couple made celebrity news when they finalized their celebrity divorce in December 2015, after a 20 year long marriage. But as we can see through these adorable birthday posts, their celebrity divorce must have been amicable. If only all celebrity exes could be this cordial!

There's no animosity in this celebrity news! What are some ways to stay cordial with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can be sad, but they don't have to end up being nasty. It's very possible to have a civil split from an ex. Let Cupid help you stay cordial with your ex:

1. Keep to yourself: Depending on the reasons you broke up, you might be tempted to speak badly about your ex. Don't do this! Keep any negative thoughts to yourself instead of sharing them with your family, friends or the internet.

2. Refrain contact: End communication with your ex immediately after the split. This will prevent arguments and ensure that your break-up will be final. Only reach out to your ex if it's absolutely necessary, but don't talk about the past with them. There's no reason to bring up things that can lead to a fight.

Celebrity News: Ryan Lochte 'Is Not Looking for a Relationship' During Olympics

By Nicole Caico

Apparently, Olympic swimmer Ryan Lochte's game plan is to stay single. Lochte had everyone guessing about his relationship status as he posted photos of himself and Playmate Kayla Rae Reid. According to EOnline.com, a source commented on the relationship between Lochte and Reid saying, "Ryan was with a Playmate. He didn't meet her on Tinder. He is on Tinder though. He thinks she is hot, that's about it." Looks like there's no celebrity relationship here. Lochte is a single celebrity playing the field.

In celebrity news, it looks like this Olympian is holding off on a serious relationship. What are some ways to tell if someone is relationship-driven or just looking to have fun?

Cupid's Advice:

There is nothing more frustrating than misreading whether someone is looking for a relationship or just looking to have fun. Here are some ways to spare yourself the heartbreak and awkward conversations:

1. Social media: Check the person's Instagram or Snapchat account to get an idea of what they're like. If every picture is with a different girl at a different party, chances are this person is just looking to have fun.

Celebrity News: Selena Gomez Wants a 'Low Key' Guy Who Isn't 'Terrified' Of her

By Nicole Caico

Singer and single celebrity, Selena Gomez, talked about her ideal relationship for the September issue of Vogue Australia.

According to UsMagazine.com, after publicly dating Justin Bieber and being linked to Orlando Bloom, Gomez would be happy to have a low-profile celebrity relationship. In her interview with Vogue, the 24-year-old says, "I'd be so stoked with a writer or producer or actor who is low-key, but those kind of guys are terrified of me!" Gomez says she believes her single celebrity relationship will remain because, "Nobody would want to throw themselves into that situation where it was so heightened publicly, like, why would they?"

This celebrity news has us shocked that someone so successful could have trouble finding guys to date! What are some ways to attract the kind of people you'd be interested in dating?

Cupid's Advice:

Even when you're Selena Gomez, finding good guys is difficult. In order to have a successful relationship, there needs to be some level of compatibility between two people, and to find that you need to attract the right type of people. Cupid has some tips:

1. Know yourself: The first step to attracting people you'd be interested in dating is knowing what kind of people you're looking for. Evaluate what you personally need from someone you'd be dating, and only spend time with people who bring that to the table. You should also do your best to be yourself, because you'll only attract people you'd actually click with if you behave like your genuine self.

2. Birds of a feather flock together: Know what type of person you're looking to date, and go to a place where you'd find those type of people. If you're not into partying, don't go looking for your prince charming in a bar. If you're looking to date someone fit, hit the gym. If you're looking to date someone who works hard, consider someone in your work place or someone a co-worker knows.

3. Keep an open mind: While knowing what your ideal man or woman would be like is important, it is also important not to count people out because they don't check all of your boxes. Keeping an open mind and considering more than one type of person will give you many more people to choose from, and you'll attract more suitors.

Why Rihanna & Drake Haven't Made Their Celebrity Relationship Official

By Cortney Moore

Barbadian songstress Rihanna and Canadian rapper Drake are making celebrity news once more with their on-and-off relationship. The pair has been seen together on late night ventures, international concert performances and even on loving Instagram posts, but they still deny being in a celebrity relationship! Despite having years of history together, an insider from EOnline.com has told the publication, “Rihanna loves Drake, but is still not ready to put a title on them.” According to the insider, Drake has felt strongly for the singer for years now and wouldn’t hesitate to make their celebrity relationship official. “Things are great though and their connection is really strong. Things are progressing nicely,” said the insider. Fingers crossed that this amazing musical duo takes their relationship to the next level soon!

This celebrity relationship has yet to be labeled. What are some things to consider before labeling your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

“DTR,” also known as “defining the relationship,” is an important step in any coupling. Whether you’re trying to start something serious or just enjoy a fling, there has to be a conversation about what you both are to each other so you’re both on the same page. Cupid is here to help you with labeling your relationship:

1. Determine wants: Before you decide to have this specific talk with your partner, you need to figure out what exactly you want out of this relationship. Do you want monogamy? Or do you want your relationship to be casual, with the ability to see other people? Figure out what you want before you go asking your partner to change the status of your relationship.

2. Compatibility: Of course wanting to be with someone isn’t enough, you also need to make sure your partner is compatible to your lifestyle. Take into account whether you both have similar likes and dislikes, hobbies or upbringing. For a lasting relationship you need to find common elements that bond you together, if you can’t find those, maybe you should just enjoy time with each other the way it currently is.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Drake, Eva Longoria and Lea Michele

3. Ask questions: And last but not least, you need to ask questions! Your partner should have equal input on how or what the relationship will be labeled. How else do you expect to find out whether or not a relationship is worth pursuing if you have no input from your partner? Depending on the questions you ask and the responses you get, you’ll finally know for sure if you should pursue things further or run for the hills.

Celebrity News: Lauren Conrad Opens Up About Long Ago Split from Jason Wahler

By Cortney Moore

If you haven't kept up with The Hills' 10th anniversary special, here is the celebrity news you missed! On August 2, the former MTV reality cast got together to show what they've been up to since then and shed light on moments that fans were dying to know more about. In a surprising reveal, fans were shown a 2006 clip of Lauren Conrad and former boyfriend Jason Wahler meeting each other post-breakup. In an interview with UsMagazine.com, Conrad opened up about her failed celebrity relationship with Wahler. "After we went on a break from filming, it was like a couple weeks in, I finally decided to end things. We broke up,” Conrad said, “So when I saw Jason that day, it was the first time I had seen him since we had broken up. It was really hard. What made it harder was I could see he wasn’t sober.” Wahler, who has publicly struggled with alcoholism, acknowledges that he was out of control and responsible for the celebrity break-up. However, the 29-year-old television personality is now sober, and has a successful celebrity relationship with wife Ashley Slack, while Conrad married William Tell in 2014.

This celebrity news was a long time coming! How do you know whether to go public with the details of your split?

Cupid’s Advice:

Some couples breakup and get back together, break up and get back together. For this reason, many are unsure of whether to go public with their splits in fear of being labeled “on-again-off-again.” If you’ve decided that your breakup is a done deal, Cupid is here to help you in revealing details of your split:

1. Time has passed: The best and most level headed way to reveal details of your split is to allow some time to pass. This will help you determine how final your breakup is. After some time has passed, you’ll hopefully be less upset and able to speak on why you and your partner split in a calmer manner.

Related Link: Lauren Conrad Says She Felt Married Before She Was Actually Married

2. Ready to move on: Another aspect you should consider before opening up about your breakup woes, is whether or not you’re ready to move on. You may want to share details about your split, but you don't want to sound bitter or hung up on the person you ended things with. Being able to talk about your breakup without malice is also a good sign that you're ready to move on with someone new!

Related Link: Lauren Conrad Talks Celebrity Babies with Husband William Tell

3. Severity of the split: Before going public with your split, you may also need to think of how bad your breakup was. If you find yourself in a situation similar to Lauren Conrad's, you may want to stay a little more private. Be careful in the details you reveal for more sensitive topics. However, if your breakup was free of this drama you can probably talk about the split with little issue.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Offers Advice to Ex JoJo Fletcher & Fiance

By Nicole Caico

On Monday, August 1, this season of The Bachelorette came to a close with JoJo Fletcher's engagement to Jordan Rodgers. But the end of the season means it was time for an episode of After the Final Rose. The reunion, known to be a bit tense, got a bit awkward when Fletcher's ex, Bachelor Ben Higgins, weighed in on the new celebrity relationship. Seated next to his fiancé, Lauren Bushnell, Higgins addressed the new celebrity couple. According to UsMagazine.com, Higgins gave advice saying, "If you're getting criticism, you're doing something. And you're trying to make your relationship work...Just support each other, love each other, and a couple months out of it, you're going to look back and smile."

This celebrity news has us grinning a bit! What are some ways to give advice to a friend having relationship questions?

Cupid's Advice:

Friends give friends relationship advice. Knowing you have someone to help you navigate relationship issues is one of the best parts of a friendship, but it's also a lot of pressure.

You don't want to steer your friend wrong:

1. Know your friend: When giving your friend relationship advice, it is important to remember key things about them. Your job is to serve as their conscience when they're being swayed by emotions. Try to lead them to a decision they'd make on their own.

Celebrity Couple News: 'Bachelorette' JoJo Fletcher

Chooses Her Man

By Nicole Caico

It's been a whirlwind seasons of The Bachelorette, and JoJo Fletcher is finally in the arms of her true love, the last man standing, Jordan Rodgers. These two took their celebrity relationship to the next level on the season finale, proclaiming their love to each other and Rodgers getting down on one knee. He slipped the ring on Fletcher's finger and a new celebrity couple was born. UsMagazine.com reports, that despite telling runner-up, Robby Hayes, Fletcher said, "I woke up this morning wanting it to be you." Fletcher chose Rodgers to be the winner of the show and her heart.

It's a celebrity couple Bachelorette engagement! What are some ways to propose in the most romantic way possible?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity engagement was not only heartfelt, but also extremely beautiful. Even if your proposal doesn't have a set designer, there are so many ways to have it be a memorable and romantic moment. Think outside the box to create a memory that will last a lifetime:

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

2. Speak from the heart: Nothing can make a proposal more romantic than letting your true feelings out. Think about what you want to say beforehand. It doesn't have to be written out, but you should know what point you want to make. Talk about your favorite memories, and why you love each other. No matter what setting you're in sweet words will make your proposal romantic, for sure.

3. Keepsake: Whether it's a video or photo documenting the engagement or a memento you used to propose, incorporate a lasting element into your proposal plans. Create a photo album of things you've done together, make a short storybook about your relationship, or simply have someone there to take a picture when you pop the question. Showing that you put a lot of thought into the proposal is super romantic, and having something to look back on after the moment has passed will preserve the romance forever.

Iggy Azalea Clarifies Celebrity Relationship with French Montana

By Nicole Caico

Nothing to see here! After leaving together from Jennifer Lopez's All I Have show at Caesar's Palace, Iggy Azalea and French Montana were rumored to be headed for a celebrity relationship. According to EOnline.com, Azalea silenced dating rumors after the 2016 Maxim Hot 100 party saying, “No, we’re [just] collaborating.” So it looks like the rappers are not a celebrity couple after all.

Apparently there’s no celebrity relationship to be found here. What do you do in the face of relationship rumors involving yourself?

Cupid’s Advice:

Rumors spread fast, and it when a relationship rumor involves you, only you can shut it down. Here’s how to end the rumors before things go too far:

1. Ally: A relationship rumor has to involve you and at least one other person. The first step to successfully shutting down a relationship rumor without hurting feelings is to contact all parties involved and get on the same page. If each person involved is disseminating the message that there is no real relationship, the rumor should die out rather quickly.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Lindsay Lohan Acts Casual Over the Rumors Surrounding Fiancé Egor Tarabasov

2. Use your resources: Giving your most talkative friend all the correct information can almost guarantee that the rumor will get shut down. When people want the gossip, they won’t come to you directly; they’ll probably chat up your closest friend. Feed your friend the right lines and that information is what people will run with.

3. Distract from the gossip: If all people are concerned with is your rumored relationship, give them something else to talk about. Make posts on your social media accounts that are about other bigger and better things you've got going on. Hopefully people will start talking about your new job or most recent vacation instead of the supposed relationship drama.

Celebrity News: Josh Groban & Kat Dennings Break Up After 2 Years of Dating

By Nicole Caico

It's the end of the line for Josh Groban and Kat Denning's celebrity relationship. After spending two years as a celebrity couple, the two stars are calling it quits. According to EOnline.com, a source said, "It was a mutual breakup. They are still friends and care about each other, but it's not the right time for them now as a couple." Both Groban and Denning will be busy with projects this coming fall, but there is no doubt it will take some time to recover from the split.

In celebrity news, this duo is no more! How do you know when your relationship is over and it's time to move on?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are never pleasant. Even if it's mutual, like Josh Groban and Kat Denning's, breaking up always leaves someone sad. But, there is a time and place for everything after all, and it's important to know when your relationship is over and it's time to move on:

1. Changed for the worse: You know it's really time to call it quits on your relationship when you've had discussions with your partner and they make no change—or change for the worse. Every person is annoying in their own special way, and in a relationship you learn to deal with the other person. But when you have already had a few heart to hearts about needing more communication or wanting more support, and your other half makes no effort to give that to you, that's a big red flag. It's time to walk away.

2. Timing: It may sound like an excuse, but if the timing is not right, you may have to call things off. Your career is taking off and his career is, too, but they're taking off in two completely different directions. If you have to sacrifice opportunities or move somewhere, you don't want to or can't afford it may be time to call it quits.

3. Fizzling out: If the thought of spending time with your partner no longer gets you excited, or if you both don't miss each other while you're apart, it could be a sign that your relationship is fizzling out. A dip in chemistry may be no fault of either person involved, but may be a reason to walk away from the relationship to find a new flame somewhere else.

Celebrity News: Kanye West Opens Up About Kim's Nude Selfies

By Cortney Moore

This may not come as a surprise to most, but rapper Kanye West has once again made celebrity news in regards to his comments about wife Kim Kardashian and her nude selfies. In an exclusive interview with Harper's Bazaar, the celebrity couple spoke on a variety of topics, one of them being Kardashian's viral nude selfies. "I just love seeing her naked; I love nudity. And I love beautiful shapes. I feel like it's almost a Renaissance thing, a painting, a modern version of a painting," the 35-year-old rapper said. In the same interview, he admitted that he'd send nude selfies of his own to women before he entered a relationship with Kardashian. Perhaps now we know how this celebrity couple keeps the passion alive in their relationship!

This is certainly risque celebrity news! How do you know if nude selfies are right for your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Nude selfies have become increasingly popular in the dating scene and even in long-term relationships, as we've seen in this celebrity news. Though it may be fun to send a flirty text, there is always a risk in doing so. Cupid is here to help you figure out if nude selfies are right for your relationship:

1. Know your partner: First and foremost, you need to take into account who your partner is. Do you know them well? How long have you been together? Are they trustworthy and mature? These are all questions you should ask yourself before you snap that picture and hit send. You don't want this intimate part of yourself to be accidentally or vindictively leaked.

Related Link: Do's and Don'ts of Flirt texting and Sexting

2. Only do it if you want to: Sometimes a significant other may pressure you to send a nude photo. Don't let them bully you into it. The person you're with should respect your wishes if you don't want to do it, and understand your apprehension if you're unsure if it's the right time to do so. Something of this nature should be your choice alone. You don't owe anyone a nude selfie, not even a wife or husband.

3. Protect your identity: If you decide that you're ready to send a nude selfie, do so in a way that protects your identity. Your face doesn't have to be visible (you don't have to follow Kim's example). Even consider using a messaging app that provides an alternate phone number. Do whatever you can to ensure your privacy.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, “Hey, it seems like you’re interested in me, but I’m not looking to date anyone” will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don’t apologize—you’re just not interested.

We'll have to see what happens next in this duo's celebrity relationship!

This celebrity news has us getting drawn into Kardashian drama again! What are some ways to keep your relationship issues private?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt that though relationship drama between the Kardashians may be entertaining, it's not very pleasant when you experience it yourself! Plus, it gets even more taxing when those around you know your private business. Cupid has some tips to keep things between you and your partner:

1. Avoid social media: Social media is good for a lot of things, but keeping your private life private isn't always one of them. Avoid social media when you've just had a disagreement with your partner at all costs. You may be tempted to air your dirty laundry, but you'll almost always regret it in the end.

2. Keep details from your friends: Again, it may seem therapeutic to air your frustrations to those closest to you, but resist the temptation! Often times, word will get around. Other times, your friends will simply get the wrong impression of your relationship and think it's bad all the time if you complain too much and fail to tell them about all the good things to balance it out.

3. Come to an agreement with your partner: The fact is, just because you don't tell people about any relationship issues you may be having, that doesn't mean your partner won't. When you're both calm, have a conversation about some relationship ground rules. Come to an agreement that you will not speak to those around you about any relationship issue you're having, unless you agree on it.

Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Hangs with Tinashe After Split from Taylor Swift

By Nicole Caico

The drama between Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift has only just begun winding down, and already there are celebrity dating rumors circulating about Harris and Tinashe. According to EOnline.com, a source said, "They have always kept in touch, but recently more since his breakup with Taylor. Work and feeling healthy is number one for him now. He wants the storm to pass with Taylor before he can even think of dating another women seriously." It seems Harris and Tinashe aren't exactly in a celebrity relationship yet, but Swift is definitely out of the picture.

In celebrity news, it may be time for Calvin to move on from Taylor! How do you know when you're ready to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on from a relationship can be difficult, especially if you're like Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift and have a lot of lingering drama. But, change can be a good thing. Cupid has some tips:

1. Looking back: If you can reflect on your past relationship without breaking down, you're ready to move on. Being able to appreciate the good parts of a past relationship, and being able to acknowledge what you've learned from the bad parts means that you have enough emotional distance from the relationship to move on.

New Celebrity Couple? Iggy

Azalea & French Montana Get Cozy at Vegas Club

By Nicole Caico

Rappers Iggy Azalea and French Montana were spotted partying together Saturday night into Sunday morning. Are they possibly a new celebrity couple? Azalea, who recently ended her celebrity relationship and engagement with basketball player, Nick Young, was seen leaving with Montana from the Jewel nightclub at Aria Resort & Casino. According to EOnline.com, the two celebs “attended Jennifer Lopez’s All I Have residency show at Caesar’s Palace together” beforehand.

There may be a new celebrity couple in the works! What are some ways a one night fling can turn into a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

The number of people you know who ended up engaged because of a one night stand might be a very low number, but that doesn't mean a hook-up can't turn into a relationship! Here are some ways to turn your one night fling into an every night fling:

1. All about the follow up: Make sure you've got a name and a phone number, and once you, do don't be afraid to use it. Wait a day or two, then text or call your one-night-boo. Let her or he know you had a good time, and make plans to meet up again. If you don't contact your hook-up, there is no way a relationship will form between the two of you.

2. Make your intentions clear: Ideally this would have been done before the one-night festivities began, but it's never too late to define the hook-up. Let the person know that you may be looking for something long-term. Who knows? Maybe they are, too.

3. Play it cool: If you put yourself out there and the person you hooked up with isn't responding at all, drop it. Coming on too strong after a one night fling could freak the other person out. Give them some time before you get angry.

Celebrity Wedding: Miranda Kerr Is Engaged to Snapchat CEO Evan Spiegel

By Cortney Moore

Supermodel Miranda Kerr has made adorable celebrity news with her viral engagement announcement. The 33-year-old bombshell posted her creative announcement to Instagram on July 20, which showed off her engagement ring and an animated image of her accepting the proposal. The photo went along with the caption, "I said yes!!!" So who is the lucky man Kerr will be marrying? It's none other than Snapchat CEO Evan Spiegel, who Kerr has been a celebrity couple with for a year now. According to sources from EOnline.com, Kerr and Spiegel were smitten with each other from the start. "They've fallen hard for each other and are really in love," said one insider. This will be Kerr's second celebrity wedding, but a first for Spiegel. Perhaps this time around we'll be able to see a celebrity wedding live streamed from Snapchat! Fingers crossed.

There's another celebrity wedding in the works! What are some creative ways to announce your engagement to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Engagement announcements have become increasingly popular in the last few years. If you wish to make yours stand out from the crowd, check out these announcement ideas. Cupid is here to make sure your engagement announcement will be memorable for years to come:

1. Get crafty: If you really want to exercise your creative muscle, you can make your own engagement announcement to share with everyone. Break out the construction paper and glitter, or make a photo collage that creates a timeline of your relationship. Do whatever craft you like best. No matter which you pick, everyone will see the love and care you put into your announcement.

Johnny Depp Files to Keep Celebrity Divorce Proceedings Private

By Cortney Moore

Johnny Depp is making celebrity news once more with his motion for privacy in his celebrity divorce against Amber Heard. The couple surprised everyone when they ended their celebrity relationship back in May, and since then, there have been rocky court hearings. According to UsMagazine.com, Depp filed for confidentiality on July 15, with papers that state, "All documents produced by [Depp] in this action and/or any third parties subpoenaed in this action ... shall be designated as 'Confidential Information' herein." Sources close to Depp say his desire for privacy comes after Heard's request to obtain personal and financial documentation. "Amber has inexplicably refused to sign any agreement to maintain confidentiality in this action," Depp's filing claims. "Johnny is therefore asking the Court to issue a protective order." Despite Heard's claims that their celebrity relationship was abusive, Depp seems to be handling the divorce proceedings well.

This celebrity divorce is definitely going to be one for the books. What are some ways to keep the details of your divorce private?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces are never fun, especially with the court proceedings that are required for a legal separation. At times, people will ask how you're holding up and may want to know the details of your divorce. At no point are you obligated to provide an explanation. Let Cupid help you keep the details of your divorce private:

- 1. Privacy lawyers: The best way to ensure that details of your divorce will not leave the courtroom is by hiring a lawyer who takes confidentiality seriously. Find a lawyer who is good at what they do, and will put your needs first. You don't want a lawyer who will use your case to bolster their public profile.

2. Spousal collaboration: Another great way to keep your divorce private is to communicate this desire with your spouse. Working together to maintain privacy will help keep sensitive details from escaping into the public. Even if your relationship ended on bad terms, privacy may be a top priority you both can agree on.

3. Loose lips sink ships: The absolute best way to make sure that details of your divorce remain private is by keeping it all to yourself. Though you may want to talk to close friends, family, or even coworkers about what you're going through, don't let them know sensitive information. Sharing details opens the chance for rumors and changed opinions that could hurt your case, which is the exact opposite of what you want.

What are some ways to keep things that happened in your past relationship out of your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how long or short a past relationship lasted, pieces of what happened between you and your ex can bounce around in your mind for a long time after. Don't let side effects from your last relationship spoil something good you have going on now. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Cut ties: If you haven't already, cleanse your life of your ex. Unfollow your ex on social media, block them if necessary, and delete the contact information in your phone. Communicating with your ex, or seeing posts, will keep re-opening your history. In order to keep your past relationship out of your new relationship, follow an "out of sight out of mind" based strategy.

2. No deja vu: Don't bring up the topic of your ex to your new significant other out of the blue. If you're visiting a place you used to go with your ex, try to keep that to yourself. If you're in a fight and your new significant other says or does something that your ex used to do, don't point it out. The moral of the story is, you're in a new relationship with an entirely new person. Your new boo shouldn't have to feel constantly compared to or reminded of the last person you dated.

Celebrity Couple News: Leonardo DiCaprio & Nina Agdal Get Cozy on Malibu Beach

By Nicole Caico

New celebrity couple Leonardo DiCaprio and model Nina Agdal flaunted their budding celebrity relationship in Malibu on July 14. This gorgeous couple continues to give us celebrity vacation envy, as this romantic getaway in Malibu was preceded by vacations in Montauk, New York and a private Island in the Bahamas. According to UsMagazine.com, the paparazzi caught DiCaprio "as he leaned in for a full-on make-out session," but a source has said their the relationship is "super casual."

This celebrity couple isn't shy in public! What are some unique ways to enjoy a romantic vacation with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

A romantic vacation is always a good idea. Put your heads together and plot your perfect getaway. There is the perfect vacation for every couple, so find yours and enjoy it:

1. Pick your destination: You love the beach, and your partner loves the city. The first step to enjoying a romantic vacation with your partner is to pick a place you'd both enjoy. Be willing to compromise, and remember that no matter where you go, it will be new and exciting.

By Cortney Moore

If you haven't been keeping up with Rob Kardashian, then you might not be aware that he and his fiancée Blac Chyna will be getting their own reality TV show on E!, which will be titled Rob & Chyna. Kardashian posted a snapshot of himself and Chyna filming the show on Instagram. UsMagazine.com reports that the docu-series will follow the celebrity couple as they prepare for the birth of their baby. The series will consist of one hour segments and six episodes, and that there will be an hour long special documenting the birth of their celebrity baby. "Very few love stories have created as much pop culture buzz as Rob and Chyna's, and we are thrilled to see Rob in such a happy place," said E! Executive Vice President Jeff Olde about the network's newest reality TV show. "We are excited to share the next chapter in their relationship."

This celebrity couple is getting "real!" What are some ways to work on effective communication in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Communication is absolutely essential for successful relationships. Even if you and your significant other feel like you communicate fine, there is always room for improvement. Cupid is here to help you get better at communicating:

1. Make small talk: Conversations don't always have to be "deep." It's okay to be friendly and talk about lighthearted topics. This is a great way to learn about your partner's day and how they're currently feeling.

'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Chad 'Wasn't Meant to Be My Husband'

By Cortney Moore

In the latest Bachelorette celebrity news, JoJo Fletcher reflected on saying goodbye to her prospective beau Chad Johnson. According to People.com, Fletcher opened up about her celebrity relationship with Johnson, saying, "Chad Johnson was one of my top guys, but I started hearing about drama." The 25-year-old reality TV starlet was truly surprised by Johnson's behavior in the house. "When I finally saw, it blew me away," she said. Fletcher went on to say that Johnson wasn't meant to be her husband, but she wishes him the best. However, it appears Johnson isn't too broken up about the split and is scheduled to appear on the reality TV spin-off Bachelor in Paradise.

This celebrity news isn't exactly shocking. What are some ways to get rid of an obsessive ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are rough. At some point you'll get over the split and will go on with your life. Your ex may not be as fortunate and may try to cling onto the past. Let Cupid help you get rid of your obsessive ex:

1. Tell the truth: Be honest with your ex and let them know that you no longer see a future with them. Telling the truth might be hard, but it's unfair to mislead and string them along. Your ex may finally let you go in peace if they understand there's no hope for a relationship.

2. Cut them off: Another great option is to cut off all communication with your ex. This includes ignoring texts and calls. You may even need to use the block features on your phone and social media accounts. It might seem harsh, but disappearing from your ex's life is a sure way to get rid of them.

3. Move on: If for whatever reason you still want to stay in contact with your obsessive ex, another option you may have is to show that you moved on from them. If you're happily single, make sure your ex can see that. And when you're finally dating again, make sure your ex is aware of that too. A happier and busier you may deter your ex from pursuing a romantic relationship with you.

Russell Wilson Reveals 'Best Part' of His Celebrity Wedding Day

By Nicole Caico

Ciara and Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson said “I do” at their celebrity wedding in England last week. According to EOnline.com, Ciara wore a custom Roberto Cavalli Couture by Peter Dundas and there were over 100 guests in attendance. In front of many friends and family members, this celebrity couple took their celebrity relationship to the next level, and Wilson said the best part was “just to see her face and the long train she had. And then Earth, Wind and Fire took the night away.”

This celebrity wedding story has us swooning. What are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration?

Cupid's Advice:

Take a page out of the Wilson's book and plan a large wedding celebration. All of their friends and family were in attendance, and yours should be, too. There's no reason to skimp on your big day, so here are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration:

1. Lower stress: Having a large wedding celebration may sound more stressful, but it just might be less stressful. There is nothing worse than sitting down to make a guest list, deciding it's too long, and having to cross people off. Chances are if you put the person on the list, you don't want to cross them off. Planning a large wedding will save you the terrible feeling of crossing a friend off your list, and will also save you and your betrothed many arguments over the number of guests.

2. All the pieces of the puzzle: Whether a large wedding celebration refers to the actual number of people in attendance or just the general grandeur of the event, go big. Plan a budget that is within your means, but also allows you to have everything you want on your big day. Planning a large wedding celebration will ensure that every aspect will be the way you pictured it. You shouldn't skimp on your guest list, dress, food, or decor if you don't have to.

3. Party time: If there is no other reason, plan a large wedding celebration because at the end of the day, it's a party! Let loose and celebrate this new chapter in your life with all the people who are important to you. You can't have an awesome party with only 50 people, so just go for it!

Former Celebrity Couple Kate Hudson & Matt Bellamy Reunite for Son's Birthday

By Nicole Caico

On July 9, actress Kate Hudson and her rockstar ex-fiance, Matt Bellamy, joined forces to celebrate their son's fifth birthday. UsMagazine.com reports that the former celebrity couple took their celebrity kids, Ryder (12) and Bing (5), to Palace Theatre in London to see the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child play. Since calling off their engagement in 2014, Hudson and Bellamy have redefined their celebrity relationship. The two remain amicable for their children and continue to run a joint wine company, Hudson Bellamy Wines.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their differences get in the way! What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can remain as friendly as Kate Hudson and Matt Bellamy. Remaining civil with an ex isn't easy. You parted ways for a reason, and it definitely wasn't because you just loved each other too much. Though you may want to run in the other direction every time you see your ex, that won't help your children at all. Here are some basic ways to remain civil with your ex:

1. Take responsibility: Chances are that when you split from your ex, some ground rules were laid out—either on your own or in court. Follow them. Do not deviate from the schedule, and be sure to hold up your end of the deal. This will help avoid additional issues and show that you respect your ex's time with your kids.

2. Mind your business: Whether your ex is telling you about a date he or she went on, or your kids are relaying information, if it doesn't have to do with you or your children, stay out of it. You may feel entitled to weigh in, but don't do it. Staying out of your ex's personal life or love life will keep everyone's lives more simple.

3. Play nice: Maybe you two couldn't stand each other at the time of the split, but now that you've parted ways, tensions should die down. Remain polite when dealing with your ex, especially in front of your kids. If you respect each other, say "thank you" when you can, or do a favor here and there. Co-parenting will work out much more nicely.
