

Famous Couple Isla Fisher and Sacha Cohen Have Fun in the Sun

By Kyanah Murphy

Though September may be on our heels, there is still just enough summer left to go on a summer getaway! That's exactly what famous couple Isla Fisher and Sacha Cohen did. People.com reports that the celebrity couple were having a celebrity vacation at the French Riviera recently. In fact, Bono seemed to have agreed that there was still enough summer to go on vacation, as well as he was seen meeting up with Fisher and Cohen, albeit in an all-black suit.

The celebrity couple decided to take some time off and reconnect with one another on a romantic getaway. What are some ways to reconnect with your partner when you've grown distant?

Cupid's Advice:

Everybody can use a break from life after a while, including couples. However a vacation isn't the only way a couple can reconnect with one another. Cupid has some love advice:

1. Make a date with one another. Schedule in some time together to do an activity together. This will allow you to spend time with one another as well as get the communication process flowing again.

2. Make your partner still feel valued. With distance, you may be more critical of your partner. Try giving your partner praises instead and do special things that show you still value your partner.

3. Know when it's time for help. If the distance doesn't start disappearing, make sure to tell your partner your concerns. You may need some assistance as well, such as with counselling (which is totally OK). Even if you have to go alone, seek out help to improve your relationship.

How do you know that your new relationship isn't just a rebound?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to get over heartbreak and truly open your heart up to another partner. When you do find another relationship, how can you know that you've truly moved on and haven't just started dating this person as a rebound? Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Date them because you like them, not because you want to date. This is a common problem when you start to date again. You need to ask yourself if you truly like this person or if you just like having them around as a partner to fill the hole your last partner left. If you can't honestly answer that question correctly, maybe you shouldn't keep the relationship going.

2. Ask yourself if you could be happy without them. As important as it is to be happy with your new partner, you need to ask yourself if you could be happy as a single person. If not, maybe you need to learn how to be away from a relationship before taking your new one too far.

3. Think about why you're dating them. This might seem like the obvious way to go, but sometimes the answer to this question isn't very clear. Are you really dating them just to show off how much you've moved on? Or to get back at your ex? These are reasons showing that you clearly haven't moved on, and if your answer to that important 'why' question isn't "because I really like my partner," then yes, this is a rebound relationship.

How do you have fun with your partner on vacation?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're on vacation with your partner, you're bound to have fun no matter what you're doing. However, there are some ways to have fun on vacation that you may not have thought about! Here are some great activities to make your romantic getaway even better:

1. Get out of the tourist area and see the local shops. If you're feeling adventurous and have a reliable map, look around the more local places that most vacationers don't see. Visit that cozy little café, or explore the rustic antique shop outside the city. There are plenty of great places that so many tourists pass up just because they aren't in the travel brochure.

2. Take lessons for something you've never done before. Try out surfing, scuba diving, or something completely crazy like hang gliding. It's an experience you'll never forget, and learning to do something with your partner is a great way to build teamwork.

3. Spend a day just relaxing. Many people think that when you're on vacation you have to get going and do everything you can in the time you're there. But you're there to have fun! You can't have as much fun if you're exhausted. Sometime in the middle of your getaway, just spend a day relaxing at the hotel. Spend some time at the pool, watching movies while snuggling in bed, and just take the day to enjoy your down time together.

How can travel help keep the spark alive in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

After you have been in a relationship for a long time, things can start feel a little stale or boring. This is especially common after couples have set up a routine and are comfortable in it, but a passionate relationship needs more than that to keep things interesting. To help keep the spark alive in your relationship, try traveling. Cupid shares some advice on how it could be beneficial to keeping your romance strong:

1. It can be a new adventure: Going some place where you both have never been or have wanted to go to, could be a fun trip to experience together. Planning the trip and figuring out where you want to go can be part of the adventure and excitement. Maybe going on your dream vacation and getting away, and shaking up your normal routine can be just what your relationship needed to keep the flames going. Keeping things fresh while you're dating, means trying something new and keeping your romantic mate on their toes.

Celebrity News: Regina King Vacations in Cancun Post-Breakup From Malcolm-Jamal Warner

By Jessica Conigliaro

After her breakup with boyfriend of two years, Malcolm-Jamal Warner, Regina King was seen having some fun in the sun. The 42-year-old actress took a trip to Cancun, Mexico, according to UsMagazine. She stayed at the Villa del Palmar Resort & Spa with a group of girlfriends to clear her mind of the recent heartbreak.

What are some ways to keep your mind off of recent heartbreak?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your man have decided to call it quits a few weeks ago. You have been struggling to get over him and just want to feel like yourself again. Cupid is here to help lift your spirits after a breakup:

1. Get rid of his stuff: The relationship ended and you are still finding your exes things around your house. Now's the time to do some cleaning and remove all of his belongings from your life entirely. Having his old jacket around will only make you remember him instead of letting him go.

2. Don't stalk his Facebook: After a breakup, it is so tempting to continuously check his Facebook page to see if he is upset—or perhaps found someone new already. This is a bad idea and will only hurt you in the long run. Block your exes statuses and posts for a while so they don't constantly appear on your news feed. You'll never move on from him if Facebook doesn't let you.

3. Date someone new: You have been single for a few months now and are unsure if it is time to start dating. If you are still broken up about your last relationship ending, it might help to go on a few casual dates. You will be reminded of how much fun it can be to flirt with someone new—and who knows, you might even find a keeper.

What are some relaxing and romantic vacations to go on as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner need to get away, what better way to de-stress and unwind than a romantic vacation? Cupid has some advice on the best vacation spots to go as a couple:

1. If you like the beach: Don't try to go somewhere that is overcrowded, or the relaxation part of your vacation won't really work out. If you're looking for a private, romantic beach scene, try Islamorada, Florida. With the beautiful scenery of jungle-like plants and a clean, white beach, Islamorada has been the backdrop for countless photo shoots, and would be a great getaway spot for you and your partner.

What are some romantic couple destinations in Asia?

Cupid's Advice:

While the royal couple will be busy with public appearances and formal events, Asia is a romantic couple destination when the press is not following you. Here are a few hot spots to check out when vacationing in Asia.

1. Singapore Botanic Gardens: The royal couple has the right idea by stopping by this beautiful, serene garden. With no admission fee and hours that can accommodate almost anyone, this is definitely a romantic spot for a date. The combination of the gorgeous gazebo, luscious landscape and beautiful waterfall in the Ginger Gardens will definitely set the mood for romance between you and your partner.

2. Danum Valley: While this may not be your typical idea of a relaxing, romantic spot think again. This conservation area is filled with trails that are spectacular for bird watching, night walks or drives. The sense of adventure and wonder will make an exciting and memorable date.

3. Hong Kong: If the calm, majestic scenery that nature has to offer is not your type of spot, there is always the vibrant city life. Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux Show PDA in Paris

Celebrity lovebirds Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux aren't afraid to show a little PDA. The two have recently been spotted on vacation together in Paris where an onlooker saw them hugging and kissing at the Charles de Gaulle Airport. The onlooker told UsMagazine.com, "They got airline priority to get through customs and security, but were in no hurry. They were just so happy to be together and starting a visit to Paris as a couple." The next day, Aniston and Theroux took a romantic stroll next to the Tuileries Gardens where Theroux held out an umbrella for them to share when it rained. This affectionate couple has been together for a year since costarring in Wanderlust together.

How much PDA is too much?

Cupid's Advice:

There is nothing wrong with showing love for your partner in public, but there is a line between affection and getting a room. Here are some ways to know your boundaries:

1. Kissing: A quick kiss like Kate Middleton and Prince

Williams's wedding day kiss is an appropriate public display of affection. The longer the kiss, the more inappropriate it becomes. Don't be afraid to kiss, but do not go over-the-top.

2. Cuddling: Places like restaurants and park benches give couples a chance to cuddle in public. But, these public places should not mimic your at-home couch. Putting an arm around one another or holding hands while sitting side by side is just right. If you're sitting on top of your partner, you've gone too far.

3. Beware of your surroundings: If you're around a playground with children, even kissing could be too much PDA. Be wary of who you are with and what you are near, because you wouldn't want to make anyone feel uncomfortable or set a bad example.

How much PDA do you think is too much? Tell us below.

What are some unique travel destinations for new couples?

Cupid's Advice:

New couples dream of a getaway for some one-on-one time, but finding the perfect destination can be difficult. Here are some unique travel destinations so that your vacation doesn't fall into the 'been there, done that,' category:

1. Ice hotel in Quebec: If you have already been to Quebec, experience it like you never have before by staying at an ice hotel called the Hôtel de Glace. Your room and even your bed is made of sculpted ice, giving you and your partner a chance to cuddle in an arctic sleeping bag together to keep cozy.

2. Madagascar: Madagascar, just off the Eastern Coast of Africa in the Indian Ocean, is a perfect isolated getaway for new couples to not only relax, but to explore. Whales can be seen from the beaches, and ninety percent of its native plant life is found nowhere else in the world, giving new couples a chance to experience new things together.

3. Mosquito Bay: Mosquito Bay is a bioluminescent bay located on the shore of the island of Isla de Vieques, Puerto Rico. The bay illuminates in a bright blue light due to organisms in the water being shaken. A tour on this bay would be a magical night and a once in a lifetime experience for new couples.

What are some things to do on vacation that will bond you as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're on vacation together alone, as a couple or with your family and friends, Cupid has some ideas that are sure to strengthen the bond of your relationship:

1. Adventure: Seek the thrills that your vacation spot has to offer, whether it's something as extreme as skydiving or something a little more low key such as snorkeling. Doing something together that tests your limits or gives you a new perspective on life will create a moment that neither of you will ever forget.

2. Relaxation: It's called a vacation for a reason, so take time to relax. Enjoy a couples massage, lay out on the beach and listen to the crash of the waves against the shore, or sink into a hot tub under the stars. Having the chance to unwind will release any stress or tension you've been carrying around. It could also make you more patient with you partner, who usually has to suffer the lash of your negative energy.

3. Meditation: Remind each other why you're in love, and talk about the reasons you're crazy about them. It's always nice to have a reminder, because we can often feel like we're being taken for granted when our partners stop doing the little things. It will give you the chance to reignite the flame you felt when you first met, and could even give you the chance to share some laughs or tears.

Cupid's Advice:

There are endless ways to make a tropical vacation more romantic. Here are a few suggestions:

- 1. Go hiking: Take advantage of the local landscape, and go hiking. Many hiking trails even have waterfalls along the way.
- 2. Stargaze: Tropical islands are famous for their cloudless skies and bright stars. Lay out on the beach or on the balcony of your hotel room and look at the sky with your significant other.

3. Visit a private beach: Though popular beaches are beautiful as well, sometimes private beaches are even more breathtaking. Ask a local or pick up a tourist guide to find a less-populated beach.

Kate Middleton will not be vacationing solo for much longer. UsMagazine.com reports that Prince William will be joining his wife on the Caribbean island of Mustique later in the week. “It wasn’t set in stone because William needed to clear the week of work first,” said a source. The couple are on the island to celebrate Middleton’s mother’s 57th birthday. This will be the last bit of relaxation Prince William, a search-and-rescue co-pilot for the Royal Air Force, enjoys before being deployed to the Falkland Islands next month.

What are the benefits of going on vacation with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Though vacationing with family and friends is always fun, going with your partner can have its perks as well. Here are a few benefits:

1. Quality time: Though you can bond with your partner at home, going on vacation is an easy way to get some quality time together. You will be able to focus on each other instead of work or friends.

2. Get to know them better: Traveling with your partner can be very enlightening, especially if the two of you don't already live together. By being in such close proximity to each other, you will become more familiar with your partner's habits.

3. Easier planning: Vacationing is easier when you travel as a couple. You can book one hotel room instead of two and pay for plane tickets together instead of buying them separately.

What are some single-friendly getaways post-breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

Many people wish for a change in scenery after a tough breakup. Here are a few single-friendly getaways:

1. The family: Visiting your family is one of the most helpful ways to recover after a breakup. For some fun outside of the dating scene, try going shopping with your parents or taking your nieces to an amusement park.

2. Spa destinations: Traveling to the nearest spa/resort is a great way to relax after a breakup. Though often pricey, sharing a room at a resort with some close friends can help make the expense more manageable and the experience more memorable.

3. International locations: Take some time post-breakup to visit exotic locales that you've always wanted to see. You'll be too busy trying to decipher the language to worry about your dating woes. Bring a friend to make the trip more exciting.

Denise Richards and Charlie Sheen Bring Kids on a Winter Vacation

Charlie Sheen is spending the holiday season a little differently this year, reports People. The actor and his ex, Denise Richards, are vacationing with their daughters at an unknown tropical location. Sheen posted a photo of the family on the social networking site WhoSay with the caption, "What's better than a modern family vacation!?! love spending winter break w/ @denise_richards & my kids!"

Is it unhealthy to take a vacation with your ex and the kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Though having the family together may seem beneficial, there are some downsides to a shared vacation. Here are a few things to consider before vacationing with your ex and the kids:

- 1. Payment: Make sure that you and your ex come to an agreement about the cost of the trip. Decide if the two of you will split the cost of the hotel room, meals and outings ahead of time.
- 2. Living arrangements: Before you invite your ex on vacation, make sure you review your living arrangements. If you are planning on staying in a hotel, make sure your room has enough beds for your whole family to sleep comfortably (and separately).

3. Your feelings: If you and your ex still have a strained relationship, vacationing together is not the best idea. Your kids may love having the family together, but they will not enjoy it if you and your ex spend the getaway bickering.

The Most Romantic Hotels for Couples –and Celebrities!

To make your very own reservation, check out www.luxury-hotels.com.

1. GoldenEye Hotel & Resort (St. Mary, Jamaica)

Once owned by James Bond creator Ian Fleming, this hotel is a purely romantic experience with a celebrity twist. It is not an ordinary hotel, but instead a compound of luxurious private villas. Each of them offers its own private world, set amid spectacular tropical gardens and embellished with extraordinary comforts, amenities and service. Fleming's three-bedroom villa is particularly popular as it still contains the writer's Jamaican red bullet wood desk. This also includes three individual bedrooms (each with outdoor garden bath and rain shower), a private swimming pool and a secluded beach. During the day, you can explore the coves and at night, sit at Fleming's old desk to write a love letter – or perhaps even the next great spy novel.

2. Chateau Marmont (Los Angeles, USA)

Ever since its opening in 1929, the Chateau Marmont hotel has been a discreet movie star getaway. In addition to the private guest bungalows, the establishment comes with the popular Bar Marmont, and a see-and-be-seen restaurant. Kate Bosworth and True Blood's Alexander Skarsgard were spotted kissing at Chateau, while Lindsay Lohan and Avril Lavigne had a bar brawl here. Twilight stars Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson spent the night together at the hotel, whilst Tila Tequila and Meghan McCain were seen lunching.

The courtyard has welcomed Jennifer Aniston, John Mayer, and Billy Crudup, and the patio has been home to Eva Longoria and Christina Applegate. What are some ways to make your pregnant significant other happy?

Cupid's Advice

You don't always have to take the future mother of your child off to a weekend getaway in Hawaii, but do try to make her feel appreciated. Here are some smaller ways to do so:

1. 'Dinner's on me': Take some time to cook her favorite dinner. This will let her know just how special she is to you.

2. 'Need a foot-rub?': Do some little things for her around the house, make things easier for her while she's pregnant. She's the one carrying your child, which is work in and of itself.

3. 'Have the remote': Let her know that you're there for her and ready to listen and take care of her needs. If she wants to watch a show, hand over the remote.
