According to US Weekly, Burnham's wedding dress was a stunning sleeveless gown with floral embellishments. photo even featured a hint of the baby bump! They expect their celebrity baby in June. How exciting for them both! They have been waiting for their special day and it sounds like it turned out perfect.

The ‘Bachelor’ alum celebrity wedding was stunning! What are some ways you can have an equally glamorous wedding without the cost?

Cupid’s Advice:

You can have your own themed wedding too! Even if you haven’t chosen a wedding planner, Cupid thinks these ideas are super fun and cost-effective:

1. Don’t be afraid to geek out: Are you a Star Wars and Legos fan? If you’re going for a galactic-themed wedding, use Legos to make your wedding cake topper. If you or your future spouse have Legos from the Star Wars Line, you can have tons of fun sorting through bricks and mini light-sabers together to make a cake topper that represents you both. You can also have your hair done like Princess Leia on your special day!

2. Go for `something simpler: Okay, so maybe you don’t want to take your wedding theme off of Earth. Instead, you want your own Twilight inspired wedding. You don’t need to spend an arm and a leg on candles and lace for the bride and groom table. Go to a craft store and buy some lace to put across the table and, if you live in a rural area, let nature be the backdrop for your wedding photos.

3. Be a bargain shopper bride: You don't have to have the most in-style wedding dress right now for your special day. Absolutely make sure you love it before you buy it, but make certain you're aware of your budget and don't shy away from a deal. Also, keep the bridesmaids in mind if you're going to buy their dresses. Dress shops are bound to have dresses on clearance as long as your girls are willing to be flexible. The shoes don't even have to be from the dress shop either. Discount shoe stores sometimes have buy-one, get-one-free: take advantage.

What justifies telling your ex about moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

Even though you might feel it's not their business, there may be times you need to let your ex know that you're moving on. What reasons would justify telling your ex about the details of your new relationship?

1. You're still friends: Not all relationships end completely with social media and number-blocking. In some cases, you might decide to stay friends with your ex. Maybe you work together or have the same circle of friends and don't want to cause tension or strife. Letting them know you're moving on before anyone else can soften the blow.

2. You have children: Whether you are just starting to date again or are ready to propose to an amazing new person, you're going to want your ex to know. You will want your child(ren) to meet them, since the person you're in a relationship with is now a big part of your life and theirs. Letting your ex know before anyone else that you're moving on will help prevent any potential arguments and will protect your child's well-being.

3. You want to let them down easy: Maybe you've tried telling your ex that you're moving on, but it's had the opposite effect; they think you actually want to get back with them. It's totally okay to let them know that you're moving on, but make sure you let them down easy. If you want to maintain the friendship with them eventually, they need to know that you have met someone else; potentially leading them on could turn disastrous later.

What are some other reasons you might justify telling your ex that you've decided to move on?

We're inspired by the unconditional love that is felt between Jack and Ally. It can be tough when you love someone that has personal demons that they are trying to deal with. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to support your partner in their time of need:

entice their behavior.

Celebrity Interview: Ashley Iaconetti and Jared Haibon Talk Wedding Plans and Dating Tips

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Known for her tears on season 19 of The Bachelor, seasons two and three of Bachelor In Paradise, and season one of Bachelor Winter Games, Ashley Iaconetti never gave up hope for her happy ending. Jared Haibon was known for being on season 11 of The Bachelorette, and seasons two and three of Bachelor in Paradise. The two originally met on season two of Bachelor in Paradise back in 2015, and three years later are happily engaged.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Iaconetti and Haibon about their relationship, their partnership with NET10 Wireless, and what their future holds for their celebrity wedding, kids, and careers.

Celebrity Interview with Ashley Iaconetti & Jared Haibon: Wedding

Plans, NET10 Wireless, and Dating Advice

Iaconetti, star of the Ben and Ashley I Almost Famous podcast, is known for wearing her emotions on her sleeve; it's one of the many traits that makes her so lovable! When asked about her ability to share emotions so easily, Iaconetti confesses, "I have so much confidence that I don't care about being vulnerable and tearful. I embrace it." That confidence is what motivated her to pursue Haibon relentlessly. "The connection between us was super special, and I didn't think it was worth giving up on." Iaconetti says of Haibon's original rejection, "There were times I thought we were just going to be friends, but we had such a strong friendship that the relationship just came naturally."

Haibon, who was hesitant about pursuing a relationship with Iaconetti at first, shares that the couple were just friends after their brief stint in paradise; they didn't actually start dating until 2018. "I think that's the one thing that is misunderstood about Ashley and I," Haibon says. "We never dated before this year. People say to us that they are happy we got back together, but there was no getting back together. We were never together until now." When asked how he came to realize that he wanted a relationship with Iaconetti, Haibon says, "There was a reason why Ashley and I were best friends. We had this wonderful friendship that I was so unwilling to let go of." When asked, "Why now?" Haibon admits that when you lose something it sometimes makes you realize that you can't live without somebody, referring of course to Iaconetti's relationship with Kevin Wendt, her ex-boyfriend from Bachelor Winter Games.

Before the two lovebirds dated, they kept in touch with the help of technology. "When Ashley and I were just friends, we kept the communication open. I know that I used a lot of data during this time," he laughs. It's a good thing, because Iaconetti was in L.A. and Haibon was in Rhode Island. Haibon reflects on the beginning of their relationship saying, "We talked almost every day and that was only because we have these phones at our disposal." That's why the celebrity couple partnered with NET10 Wireless this season to make digital-age dating easier in the hopes everyone will find love likes theirs. Iaconetti explains, "[NET10 Wireless is] now giving customers, for a limited time, double data and the unlimited plan is starting at $35, which is great, especially if you're in a budding relationship that needs the help of face time or texting." Haibon adds, "The promotional deal is only running until the end of the year, so you have until December 31st."

Speaking of Rhode Island, we couldn't end the conversation without talking about this pair's upcoming wedding plans. "I got lucky when Ashley and I got engaged," Haibon notes. "[Ashley] didn't really have any sentimental feelings to anywhere in the world that she wanted to get married." So, it was an easy decision that the couple will be tying the knot in the state where Haibon grew up. "I'm from there, my family and friends are there, so we were able to go wedding venue shopping a couple of months ago." The couple confirmed that they found a venue. "I think it's safe to say that it will be in Newport," Ashley slips while Haibon says, "Or Westerly," trying not to give too much away.

Many fans from Bachelor Nation are curious to know whether the wedding will be televised, but the couple says it is highly unlikely. "We may share it with Bachelor Nation in our own way and our own control, but right now we aren't televising it."

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Reality TV Star Becca Tilley on 'The Bachelor' Finale: "Well, I Read the Spoilers!"

Speaking of Bachelor Nation, we had to know if longtime fans Ashton Kutcher and Mila Kunis would be coming to the wedding. Haibon and Iaconetti previously met Kutcher and Kunis at a Dodgers Charity event this past summer, and Iaconetti said, "They are going to be invited," while Haibon chimed in, "Whether they come or not is out of our hands."

The pair is eager for their future together. We played a little game with them, asking how many kids they each want. They both answered simultaneously, "Two or three." It seems like we'll have another Bachelor family in our midst! The Bachelor in Paradise alumni also discussed how they're quite content in L.A. right now and will continue living there for their foreseeable future.

Jared and Ashley have such a great love story, and it is filled with hope for other singles. "There are a lot of guys out there like myself who have insecurities and doubts, and are afraid of commitment, but also afraid of disappointing the person they are with," Haibon says. "I think Ashley does give a lot of hope to women, but personally I think our story as a couple gives a lot of hope to not only women but men as well."

lavish ceremonies on the beach, in the mountains, all the way across the ocean in Italy and perhaps even at city hall with no one around.

Rings are a big part of the culture of a celebrity marriage. This isn't a surprise. It can be fascinating to stare at engagement rings. It can be just as riveting to look at wedding rings. Engaged couples of all kinds regularly hire professional wedding planners to assist them with their big days. Celebrity weddings are often high-end affairs with impressive guest lists, stunning surroundings, and high-end design components. That's the reason that it makes complete sense for celebrities to recruit professional assistance. It's not exactly a small feat to put together a successful wedding for an individual who is in the public eye. It can be particularly tough to orchestrate a strong wedding for two famous people. Celebrities tend to work with wedding planners who have amazing track records and well-known client bases. These professionals are often based in large cities like Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, and London.

Wedding planners for celebrities often have difficult jobs on their plates. They have to select the ideal venues, first and foremost. Celebrities are like anyone else in that they can be rather fussy about the venue selection process. Some celebrities prefer the idea of venues that are comparatively intimate and small. Others like the concept of venues that are larger than life. Celebrity wedding planners have to strike a delicate balance. They have to be able to locate venues that are simultaneously “deluxe” and private. Fortunately, there are venues all over the planet that fit this description. Some celebrity couples tie the knot inside of rustic farmhouses that are located in picturesque New England. Others kick off married life in five-star hotels situated in the heart of energetic Manhattan. There are always many interesting choices accessible to diligent wedding planners.

Food is a major part of any wedding. Wedding planners for celebrities naturally have to make arrangements that pertain to menus. There are quite a few credible and widely known catering businesses that are suitable for five-star weddings. They specialize in all kinds of cuisines, too. A celebrity affair may include main dishes from France, Italy, Mexico, India or Japan. It may include appetizers from Thailand, Sweden, Peru, and Germany, as well. Highly regarded event catering businesses serve everything from Cajun to Chinese delights.

Peace is a rare thing for many people who are in the public eye. That’s the reason that some of the most prominent celebrities are so protective about their engagement and wedding plans. Some celebrities refuse to reveal their plans with regard to their honeymoons. People often have to speculate about their trips. The media made a lot of guesses that related to the honeymoon schedule for Prince Harry and Meghan. They didn’t depart for their honeymoon immediately after marrying.

Planning a beautiful and private celebrity wedding does take a lot of arranging, but when planned correctly, it is an amazing time for them and a time for the rest of us to dream about their special day.

Cupid's Advice:

In some cases it's hard to see an ex with someone new. As hard as it can be, you have to keep it together. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy when your ex moves on with someone new:

1. Try not to look!: With social media taking over, it can be hard to avoid finding out about an ex and their new partner. As much as you may have the urge to lurk, don't look. Whether you broke up on good or bad terms, it will hurt the same when you see it. As long as you keep lurking, the more upset and angry you will get. Don't do it to yourself.

2. "I don't want to hear it": While your friends may think they are doing you a favor by telling you your ex's every move, you have to tell them that you don't want to hear it. Constantly hearing about your ex won't help you heal and move on. A good idea is to have a conversation with the people closest to you and have a mutual agreement on not bringing up your ex. This combined with fun with your loved ones will help you have a smooth and healthy healing.

3. It's not a competition: When seeing your ex with someone else, your first instinct may be to go out there and just jump into something with someone else. Bad idea! Keep your cool and take your time with getting back on the dating scene. Don't go out and hurt someone else to make your partner jealous. Not only will you hurt someone else, it will only hurt you more. Keep calm and work through it. Sometimes it gets worse before it gets better.

Cupid's Advice:

As time flies by in a relationship, it's normal to consider marriage. You may ask yourself, "When is the right time?" Cupid has some advice on ways to know you've been dating long enough to get engaged:

1. Are you ready?: Getting engaged is not only telling the world that you are ready to take the next step, but it's also letting each other know. Marriage is a big commitment and takes a lot of work. Although weddings are glorified with all that goes into it, after it's all said and done, you and your partner are now bound together. Have a serious talk with your soon-to-be spouse about the topic. While the amount of time you've spent together is a factor, more important is making sure you are both ready.

2. Knowledge is power: When dating, you get to know just about everything you need to know about your partner. Make sure you know, understand and can accept your partner for who they are. It's not uncommon for people to get married and then realize that their partner either changed or started doing things that they've never seen or realized. If you are confident that you know your partner and can accept their flaws, then it sounds like you are just about ready.

3. Timing: Timing is everything when it comes to engagements. While for some, dating for a few months is considered a long time, others need years. If you are still working out important kinks in your relationship, it may be a little early to get engaged. Relationships are constant work but if you feel like you have put the time and effort in and you are ready, than why not? It's kind of like retirement; sometimes you just need the time in order to reap the benefits.
