

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Arie Luyendyk Jr. Proposes In a Dramatic Finale Episode

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor finale aired on Monday! Spoiler alert: Arie Luyendyk Jr. proposed to Becca and left Lauren heartbroken. This season of The Bachelor showcased Arie's indecisiveness and abundance of love for many girls! Becca was clearly ecstatic with this result, but Lauren said she felt "betrayed" and "extremely confused" because Arie led her to believe that she was the one. That being said, she didn't have to be confused for long, because Arie had a change of heart, broke off his engagement to Becca, and then begged for Lauren's forgiveness! Now, the new official celebrity couple Lauren and Arie are looking for a new start!

In celebrity news, Arie is probably going down in history as the worst Bachelor ever. What are some ways to know you're sure you're ready before proposing to your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard to imagine how your feelings would conflict if you were in the same position as Arie. Nevertheless, marriage is a big commitment and you need to make sure you truly love this person before you embark on this incredible journey of marriage. Here are some things that can help you focus your mind and determine whether you're ready to propose or say "yes" to a proposal:

1. You've allowed yourself to be vulnerable: Before you devote yourself to a lifetime commitment, you need to make sure that your partner has seen every beautiful aspect of you and your personality. You're not worried that one day your partner might realize some insecure that you have and then not want to be with you anymore. You know you're ready for marriage if you have been comfortably vulnerable with your partner and they truly know what makes you, you.

2. Your happiness is their happiness: Whenever anything good happens in your life, the first thing you think to do is call your partner because you know they will be just as happy as you are. Form yourself a relationship where you can share good times and bad and you can be confident that your partner will equally experience all of these emotions with you.

3. If you couldn't have an amazing ceremony, you'd still marry: You need to make sure that it is truly your partner whom you want to marry, not the idea of your wedding ceremony. Sometimes when you get to a certain age, you may feel like it is time to settle and have this amazing wedding ceremony that all of your friends have already had, but please make sure that your partner is who you want for the rest of your life. Your soulmate is in this world and it's just a matter of when you find them!

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Meghan Markle and Prince Harry face a potential danger: being a target. According to EOnline.com, former Head of Royal Protection and Chief Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police Service Dai Davies said: “History has a habit of repeating itself. In the last thousand years, there hasn’t been a King or Queen that someone hasn’t tried to murder.” In addition, it cost $33 million to protect Prince William and Kate Middleton at their celebrity wedding in 2011 – one of the most pricey security operations. Undercover police, investigations to avoid terrorist attacks, snipers, and an extensive search for explosives hiding in any place you can think of were all part of that price. Harry and Meghan’s protection plan for their big day could possibly cost more than William and Kate’s – yikes! What makes them a bigger target is Harry’s active military status in Afghanistan, plus the hate letter containing anthrax (an infectious disease caused by the bacteria Bacillus anthracis) aimed at Meghan. As we can see, the royal fam needs all that protection. We wish this beautiful couple the best of luck!

Royals have a dangerous element to their celebrity weddings. What are some ways to keep drama from infecting your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want our wedding day to be perfect, or at least close enough to it. We plan ahead to try to create this perfect day, but there's more to it. Cupid has some ideas on how to keep your wedding day as stress and drama free as possible.

1. Stay organized and delegate when needed: If you plan ahead, like most of us do for our wedding day, then you're off to a good start. But maintaining everything organized is the tough part if things don't go accordingly. And let's face it, many times things don't go according to plan. And don't be a total control freak either. It is your wedding day, but you need to learn to pass down tasks when necessary. Communicate properly and trust in your close friends and family to help you get the wedding you deserve.

2. Adjust your guest list and seating arrangements properly: This may not be the case for everyone, but sometimes we need to take more consideration in who will be on the guest list and who will be seated with who for more than just the typical reasons. Do certain people not get along or have drama with one another? Then make sure they are seated far away from each other! And take any other actions necessary to keep drama from going down on your big day.

3. Meditate: On your wedding day, you should meditate. It's an exciting day, but also stressful because you obviously want it to be magical. Try meditating one to three times that day to keep you calm and grounded. We know you don't have tons of time, so five to 10 minutes each time should do the trick. It's worth it!

Celebrity Wedding: Amy Schumer Marries Chris Fischer in Surprise Wedding

By Carly Horowitz

Amy Schumer and Chris Fischer tied the knot on Tuesday! According to EOnline.com, the celebrity wedding took place in a private waterfront home in Malibu. Schumer and Fischer only went public as a celebrity couple two days before their wedding via an Instagram post of them kissing. Although, rumors of Schumer and Fischer being together have been stirring around since November. Some individuals whom were in attendance at the celebrity wedding were Jennifer Lawrence, Jake Gyllenhaal, Jennifer Aniston, Larry David, Judd Apatow, and David Spade.

This celebrity wedding was a surprise! What are some benefits to making your wedding a surprise?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding is a very special occasion. Sometimes, it can make it even more special if you celebrate it in an intimate, surprising manner! Here are some good aspects regarding surprise weddings:

1. There is less pressure: When you are planning a surprise wedding, there won't be any expectations of how it should go. The guests or the public in general has no idea what to even expect since it is a surprise. Therefore, your wedding doesn't have to live up to anything crazy.

Celebrity News: Prince Harry Asks Ed Sheeran to Perform at Royal Wedding to Meghan Markle

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Prince Harry has made a special request for Ed Sheeran to perform at his celebrity wedding to Meghan Markle. According to UsMagazine.com, the royal celebrity couple will tie the knot at noon this upcoming May 19 at St. George's Chapel in London. We are not sure at exactly which part of the wedding Sheeran will perform during. Rumor has it that Elton John may possibly perform at either the celebrity wedding ceremony or reception as well, as it has come to our attention that John rescheduled some performances that were originally during the weekend of the celebrity wedding. What an exciting array of singers!

In celebrity news, Prince Harry & Meghan Markle will be having some very special music at their wedding. What are some ways to incorporate music in your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The goal is for your wedding day to be as magical as possible. The incorporation of music can help that dream become a reality! With all of the hustle and bustle of planning a wedding, the little details of adding music into certain spots can be overlooked. Luckily, Cupid is here to remind you of some cool ways to incorporate music into your wedding:

1. Don't forget about pre-ceremony music: You want to get your guests in the wedding mood right when they walk in the door. Play some background music while your guests arrive to help set the mood for the ceremony. Choose some of your favorite love songs or some instrumental pieces that you genuinely enjoy!

2. Choose dinner music wisely: In order for people to converse over their meal, the music that is played during the meal portion of your wedding should not be the craziest. Set the mood with some Indie songs if that is something that you are into! Or go with the classical wedding music during this time.

Related Link: Royal Celebrity Wedding: Princess Eugenie Is Engaged to Longtime Boyfriend Jack Brooksbank

3. Live music!: Live music is always a great idea at the wedding reception. Search for a band or group that is good at performing the type of music that you wish to have at your wedding. Remember that the music really sets the tone for your wedding. If you are having trouble figuring out which music will go best during certain parts of your wedding, don't be afraid to consult with your closest friends or even the bartender or whoever you have chosen to perform the live music- everyone will have unique ideas! Maybe even browse through Spotify to help brainstorm about what type of music would be best. Overall, the music that will really be overpowering on your wedding day is the sound of your loving heart which beats for your partner.

After their celebrity wedding in Venice, Italy in 2014, things have been spectacular. The celebrity couple greeted their twins Alexander and Ella this past summer and seem to be doing great.

This celebrity couple is no doubt going strong. What are some ways to make your partner feel valued?

Cupid’s Advice:

It is always important to make your partner feel loved and special. It is especially meaningful to keep up this effort as the years go by in your marriage. There are many ways to make your partner feel valued, and there are different ways for different people. Cupid is here with some suggestions on how you can make sure your partner is feeling as if they are on cloud nine:

1. Tell them how much you appreciate what they do: It can sometimes become routine that you just expect your partner will do certain things like make dinner, take out the trash, or pick the kids up from school. But how often do you take the time to verbalize how much this means to you? Even for just little everyday things, tell your partner how much you appreciate what they do. Gratitude is the best attitude!

Are Nikki Bella & John Cena Calling Off Their Celebrity Wedding?

By Karley Kemble

Uh oh, there could be another celebrity couple calling it quits! In a newly released trailer for season three of Total Bellas, Nikki Bella and John Cena are shown sharing an emotional moment together, with Bella asking Cena, “So, we really want to call this off?” According to EOnline.com, the celebrity couple could very well be talking about canceling their upcoming celebrity wedding. Cena and Bella have been together since 2012. We’ll have to tune into the episode to see how it pans out, which unfortunately isn’t until later this spring!

Things aren’t looking great in terms of John & Nikki’s upcoming celebrity wedding. What are some reasons to call off your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, things don't go according to plan. Relationships end, engagements are called off – that's just the way it goes. Check out Cupid's advice:

1. You're having major problems: It's normal for any relationship to have their share of differences. However, there is a difference between a small tiff and frequent blowups. If do not feel there will be any chance at reconciliation or forgiveness, perhaps you should consider breaking off your engagement.

Jack Brooksbank proposed to Princess Eugenie earlier this month in Nicaragua. They had an official engagement photoshoot yesterday morning, according to Eonline.com. Both the parents of Princess Eugenie and of Brooksbank seem to be overjoyed with the upcoming royal celebrity wedding. Best wishes to this celebrity couple in their future ahead.

There's another royal celebrity wedding in the works! How do you know when you're ready to marry your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage isn't to be taken lightly, so you want to make sure you're really ready to make the commitment. Cupid has some advice:

1. You make long-term plans together: If you and your significant other have discussed long-term subjects like how many children you want to have, and your plans are similar, then that is a good sign that this person may be a good life partner for you.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: What Makes a Marriage Strong?

2. Your friends and family like your partner: It is always beneficial if your friends and family think highly of your partner. Your friends and family are the people who know you best and if they think that this person is right for you, then they probably are. Although, don't get too hung up if one of your friends or family members does not particularly like your future spouse- some people just don't get along. If you love your partner and trust them, you don't need every single person's approval.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Alum Rachel Lindsay Reveals the Most Awkward Part of Finding Love on Reality TV

By Jessica Gomez

Bachelorette alum Rachel Lindsay opened up about the most awkward part of finding love on a reality TV show, according to EOnline.com. And, it's not necessarily what you would expect. Lindsay got engaged to Bryan Abasolo in 2017 on the finale of her Bachelorette season. The celebrity couple do not have a definite date for their celebrity wedding as of yet, but what Lindsay believes is the weirdest part of the process is the moment the show is over and the cameras stop rolling. "I tell people the most awkward day is the day the cameras go off. Not even your first date. It's like, 'I've been proposed to.' It's this amazing experience. And then they're like, 'That's a wrap.' Like, show's done, and then you're just standing with each other," the bride-to-be explained. "And once we got past that, everything else was a breeze... Because you don't know if the person is really the same person they showed you on camera – and I think that's what's scary."

This celebrity news shows that there are awkward moments even when it comes to finding love on TV. What are some ways to reduce those awkward moments on your quest to finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Oh, the journey of finding love, how wonderful and scary it can be. Alas, not to worry, Cupid has some advice on reducing awkward moments that could be avoided with a few steps:

1. Don't rush: Take things at a good pace – not too fast, not too slow. When rushing into things, we often miss signs that we should be looking out for in order to avoid making the mistake of further pursuing a relationship or to avoid certain awkward moments. Things should happen in their own time and not be rushed by you or the other person. Love isn't a race, it takes time. You need to learn the way the person is and the way your new relationship is in order to avoid negativity and awkwardness. After that, then the trust needs to roll in, which is why taking things steady is many times a good idea.

Related Link: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Couple Carly Waddell & Evan Bass Reveal Name of Baby-to-Be

2. Don't try too hard: Impress others, but don't stop being yourself. Pretending to be someone you're not is bound to end in an awkward moment. It's important to put energy into trying to putting your best foot forward and being the best version of yourself. However, in the process, make sure to stay true to yourself. Don't let your mind roam too far, causing you to act out of desperation. It's understandable to maybe not want to be your whole, total self – just remember to not stray away from what really makes you you. Insecurities can easily pop up when you're playing a role that isn't like you.

3. Don't worry: Like said before, love and relationships take time. Sometimes certain concerns creep up on us and we become worrywarts. The unknown can be terrifying, and you may not feel completely comfortable because of that. However, don't let unvalidated feelings take over. Get to know the person without judging them from past experiences you've had that have nothing to do with them. As time passes by, you will also build emotional intimacy, which should ease the worrying due to having a more open relationship with one another.

Celebrity Wedding: Michelle Williams Is Engaged to Andrew Youmans

By Carly Horowitz

It's official! Latest celebrity news reveals that even though Michelle Williams has made great efforts to keep her celebrity relationships and life in general on the down-low since the death of the father to her daughter, Heath Ledger, multiple sources have confirmed that Michelle Williams is engaged to Andrew Youmans. According to UsMagazine.com, Williams has been sporting a heart-shaped diamond ring over the past two months, but has brushed off speculation. Now, this celebrity wedding has been confirmed. We have another celebrity wedding to look forward to!

Michelle Williams has kept her upcoming celebrity wedding news under wraps. What are some reasons to keep your relationship on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are usually between two individuals. It gets complicated sometimes when other people try to interfere. Sometimes it's beneficial, but other times it's better to just keep your business between you and your significant other. Cupid has some reasons why you could be keeping your relationship on the down-low:

1. Not everyone will be happy for you: The public may judge as people are getting into relationships very soon after the end of a previous relationship. As long as you are happy with your partner, that is all that matters and you don't owe reasoning to anyone else.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Kellan Lutz Confirms Engagement to Girlfriend Brittany Gonzales

2. Less people will interfere: Sometimes you just need time for yourself. By keeping your relationship on the down-low, you can minimize unwanted opinions about how you are conducting your life. Guidance is great, but true personal growth comes from making your own mistakes from decisions within.

3. The breakup is easier: When getting into a relationship after previous tragic events in life, it is sometimes harder to keep a steady relationship. Instead of having multiple people trying to keep up with your status, it is easier to just do your own thing and if relationships end, less gossip will arise because many people won't know about it in the first place.

By Jessica Gomez

Ricky Martin has tied the knot with Jwan Yosef, according to EOnline.com! "It feels amazing... He's my husband. He's my man," Martin told E! excitedly. The celebrity couple is planning a big celebration and plan on living “la vida loca” with their guests by aiming to party for days straight! “The typical three-day party, the dinner, the rehearsal, the party, and the recovery,” Martin said. Congrats to the married couple!

This celebrity wedding was very low-key, but the paperwork has been signed! What are some reasons to keep your wedding festivities under the radar?

Cupid’s Advice:

Celebrities are not the only ones that would want to keep their wedding under wraps. Cupid has some ideas as to why you may want to keep your wedding on the down low:

1. You just don’t want people in your biz: This can happen whether you’re famous or not. Some people are really private about their lives and want precious moments like these to be kept within closed doors at first. So don’t take offense, some people are just real private about their business!

Celebrity News: Prince Harry Says Meghan Markle's Christmas Is the 'Family She's Never Had'

Cupid's Pulse
★ Celebrities. Love. Opinions. ★

By Rachel Sparks

In this celebrity news, Meghan Markle had the perfect Christmas! Prince Harry told BBC that Markle blended in perfectly with the royal family and mastered the curtsy for the Queen. According to People.com, the royal celebrity couple wanted to invite the Obamas, close friends of theirs, but the British government is worried about the ramifications. President Trump, not likely to be invited, has yet to see the Queen himself. Despite all these worries, Prince Harry was happy his wife-to-be blended so well with his family for Christmas just before their royal celebrity wedding!

This celebrity news has us feeling happy for the royal couple. What are some benefits to inheriting another family when you tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Meeting future in-laws and siblings is stressful for a lot of people. We want to impress them, but not too much. We want a great relationship with them, but not so much so that there's no privacy. It's a delicate balance, but let's not forget that there are many benefits to inheriting new family. Here's Cupid's relationship advice:

1. They can help: In-laws, like parents, want to get involved in your life, especially when there's grand-children involved. Whether it's babysitting, offering financial advice, or a place to stay, in-laws are yet another addition to your support network. They should help you rest easy!

Celebrity Baby: Ali Fedotowsky Says She Could Go Into Labor During Family Wedding

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity baby news, Ali Fedotowsky is nervous about the possibility of going into labor at her brother-in-law's wedding, according to Usweekly.com. "My doctor keeps telling me that there's a chance because Molly was eight days early and with your second baby you tend to be even earlier than the first one. So she's like, 'Look, be prepared for that water to break. There's a chance that could happen,'" Fedotoswky said. The Bachelorette alumni is currently expecting her second child in May with her hubby Kevin Manno. The celebrity couple are planning their celebrity wedding, which will be Fedotowsky's second time walking down the aisle.

Even celebrity babies don't always enter the world in a convenient manner. What are some ways to plan for your child's entrance to the world? Cupid has some baby advice:

Cupid's Advice:

When nature says it's time, it's time and there's no fighting it. We can never be fully prepared to become a parent, but there are steps to take and to-do lists to complete that will make your life that much easier when your baby decides it's time. Read Cupid's parenting tips below:

1. Create a birth plan: Some people want to do a home birth, while others want to give birth in a hospital, some want a natural birth, some don't. Talk to your doctor about the best birth plan for you. It's good to have a plan and know what to expect.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle's Official Wedding Date Revealed

By Karley Kemble

Mark your calendars, everyone! We have a date for Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's highly anticipated royal celebrity

wedding. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple will exchange their vows on Saturday, May 19, 2018. The Kensington Palace released their official announcement via Twitter last Friday. The palace also confirmed that the ceremony will be held at St George's Chapel in the Windsor Castle. Prince Harry and Markle announced their engagement last month, and have been together since last year. We seriously can't wait until May to tune into this celebrity wedding!

This royal celebrity wedding has an official wedding date we can all anticipate! What are some ways to decide what time of year to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Picking your big wedding date is a very important detail to figure out! If you're having trouble deciding when you want to celebrate your big day, see what Cupid has to say:

1. If the season fits: It may seem like a no-brainer, but picking a season is an easy way to narrow down your options. Maybe you prefer cold weather rather than warm – you've already crossed all the months in the summer seasons out! Pick what's best for you and your partner is the key here.

2. Consult your family: Perhaps you and your partner hold family closest to your hearts. If so, perhaps reaching out to them for some advice would be helpful. You certainly don't have to plan your wedding day around them, but working with them will help you keep peace of mind!

3. Singling out the days that don't work: If all else fails and you're still in a bind, start crossing out the days on the calendar that are absolute no-no's. If you're a busy professional, then your busiest month probably isn't the best choice for you. Big holidays might be other dates to avoid – unless you can get your save-the-dates out well enough in advance.

How did you settle on what time of year to get married? Let us know below!

Celebrity News: Meghan Markle Will Attend Christmas Church with Royal Family

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Meghan Markle will officially be joining Prince Harry and the royal family for Christmas, according to UsMagazine.com. “You can expect to see The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, Prince Harry and Ms Markle at Sandringham on Christmas Day,” said a Kensington Palace spokesperson. Markle does not have family in the UK, but the Royals are practically her family now due to the celebrity couple’s engagement. They are currently planning their royal celebrity wedding!

Megan Markle is adapting to royal traditions. What are some ways to combine holiday traditions with your partner’s? Cupid has some advice!

Cupid’s Advice:

Adopting another person's traditions can be hard, especially if you and your partner aren't into the same things. It could be religious traditions that drive you nuts, or maybe your partner is a Scrooge, but transitioning from just your family's holiday traditions to your S.O.'s is hard. Read Cupid's advice to help you and your love have a stress-free holiday:

1. Be flexible: A consensus is ideal, but many times we have to compromise or make certain sacrifices. Plans can also be modified to accommodate both parties. Do what you can do, but remember to accept what you may not be able to change. Also, don't forget to keep a positive mind!

Celebrity Getaway: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Plan Vacation Ahead of Wedding

By Rachel Sparks

We're just as excited for the royal celebrity couple as they are! The royal celebrity wedding plans are moving along at lightening speed. Meghan Markle, a Protestant, is making plans to get baptized and confirmed at the Church of England. The televised wedding ceremony and reception are set to take place in Windsor Castle. According to UsMagazine.com, amidst all of the wedding planning, the happy couple are planning a celebrity getaway somewhere sunny, set to come back refreshed for their 2018 wedding!

This duo is heading for a celebrity getaway pre-wedding! What are some benefits to a pre-nuptials getaway?

Cupid's Advice:

The wedding season is all about you and your partner, so enjoy the time celebrating your partnership. Sometimes, though, wedding planning gets stressful and you need to reconnect with your partner to remind yourselves of the joy for this season. Here's Cupid's relationship advice for your wedding planning:

1. Reconnect: Amidst all the stress of wedding planning, it's easy to start getting frustrated with your future spouse. During these times arguments can start, creating doubt (cold feet) before the wedding. Taking time away to reconnect with your spouse will solidify your relationship and help remind you both why you're getting married.

3. Create a video: Who doesn't love watching proposal videos online? Videos are fun because you can bring your own creative flair to the cinematography and final edits. You have complete creative control over everything, so you can personalize the video any way you please! Videos have an inherent vulnerability, so it'll really set the tone when you finally pop the question!

Tell us about your proposal! We'd love to hear about it!

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle's Wedding Venue and Date Revealed

By Karley Kemble

In just under six months, Prince Harry and Meghan Markle will be saying “I do!” According to UsMagazine.com, the couple’s royal celebrity wedding will be held in the extravagant St. George’s Chapel at Windsor Castle in England. The chapel is a popular venue for royal weddings and services; Prince Harry was even baptized there as an infant. With the new year quickly approaching, there is much planning to do for this celebrity wedding; as the ceremony will be sometime in May 2018! We can’t wait for this celebrity couple’s big day!

This royal celebrity wedding is the talk of the town right now! What are some ways to decide on a wedding venue?

Cupid’s Advice:

The venue is a very important piece of your wedding puzzle!

Check out these tips straight from Cupid to help you figure out where to exchange your vows:

1. Finalize your bottom line: Before you settle down on your location, it's important to have a budget. Talk with your partner about how much you're willing to spend, and make sure you have some wiggle room for overages. Doing this will help organize and prioritize the important elements of your dream venue!

2. Pick your date: Picking the date of your big day is another determining factor when deciding where your wedding will be. There should be some synchrony between the two! If you've always dreamed of a beach wedding, it's probably best for a summer date. This will also help give the venue coordinators out when you go to book the location; they can't help you out if you don't have a day in mind!

3. Think about your needs: Having a rough estimate of how many guests you plan on inviting is a smart thing to consider. If a venue has a maximum capacity of 200 people, that doesn't necessarily mean it'll fit 200 people comfortably! Additionally, you should also have an idea of how you intend on using your spaces. If you want your ceremony and reception to be in the same place, make sure there's enough space for those things to happen!

How did you pick out your wedding venue? Tell us below!

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry Asked Meghan Markle's Mom for Permission Before Engagement

By Rachel Sparks

The royal family is all about tradition, and Prince Harry is no exception. According to People.com, Prince Harry asked his fiancé's mother, Doria Ragland, her permission to marry Meghan Markle. Markle is very close to her mother, saying that she is both nurturing and fun. Prince Harry knew that Ragland's answer would have a huge impact on Markle. We're excited to see this celebrity wedding in a few months!

This royal celebrity wedding engagement came only after permission was granted. What are some benefits to asking your partner's parent for permission before an engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Popping the question is full of nerves and excitement. There's the pressure to do everything right and make sure it's perfect because it sets the tone for your future as a couple for the rest of your lives. However you plan your engagement and wedding speaks to who you are as a couple, so sometimes we may want to forgo traditions. There are benefits to sticking with the old practices. Here's Cupid's relationship advice to guide you through your wedding season:

1. Respect: You may not be all that traditional, but sometimes it's worth considering how others may feel. If you don't ask your partner's parents for permission, will they be upset? A wedding is about you and your soon-to-be-spouse, but it's also a representation of your marriage, consisting of compromise, family, and respect. You may not care about traditions, but your partner's family (and maybe even your partner) could care. Show you respect them by sticking with the tradition. It sets a great tone and relationship for the rest of your life with your partner's family.

2. Support: No, you don't ask for permission with the hopes of having financial support during the wedding. Sometimes parents can't help pay for things. Including them in the process from the beginning opens up the doors to opportunities for support. They may have ideas, may help decrease the stress, might have money or a space for the wedding. Whatever it is, parents often do want to support their families, so make sure you don't distance your future in-laws by forgetting about them in the very beginning. Ask them for permission and you might get rewarded.

3. Sense of belonging: Ultimately, marriage is about family. Not everyone has a huge family or a close one, but at the end of the day, family is the group of people you're stuck with. Asking permission before proposing creates a respectful, open, and vulnerable relationship with your new family members. It's nerve-wracking but worth the new love and support you'll receive.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: It's Official! Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Engaged

By Rachel Sparks

This celebrity news has us absolutely bouncing! The royal celebrity wedding is finally official. Prince Harry and Meghan Markle announced their engagement through Kensington Palace and opened up about their plans to live in Nottingham Cottage. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple has received much support from their family. The happy couple met in July 2016 and their wedding is set for spring 2018.

There's officially a royal celebrity wedding in the works for Spring 2018! What are some ways to decide on the time of year you'll get married?

Cupid's Advice:

At some point, we've all thought about our dream wedding. What will you wear? How many people will watch you walk down the aisle? Will you walk barefoot in the sand at some destination wedding or will you keep it traditional? With all of these decisions, have you decided what time of year to celebrate the special occasion? Here's Cupid's relationship advice to help you plan your future wedding:

1. Your favorite season as a couple: Did the two of you meet in the spring and every blooming blossom reminds you of your love for each other? Or do you both absolutely adore the golden hues of autumn? Whatever the reason for your choice of season, find a time of year that makes you both happy. Remember, your wedding is for you.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Source Says Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Engaged & Will Have a Summer Wedding

2. Wedding photographs: Great photographs are all about lighting. When you think about what time of year to plan your wedding, think about how light changes throughout the year. If you're in the north wanting a winter wedding, besides the cold, you should consider that the sun sets very early compared to the rest of the year. Natural lighting is the best kind of lighting for photographs, so if you want the best pictures to remember the day by, take special consideration into when your wedding will be.

3. Invitation accommodations: When you're planning to have a lot of people come to your wedding, you have to consider other people's schedules. If you have a lot of family with children, September weddings may have to be nixed out of the planning because of school schedules. Consider the people you're inviting; if you want a lot of people to come then you need to choose a time most convenient for as many invitees as possible.
