Celebrity Wedding: 'Bachelor' Alum Britt Nilsson Is Engaged

According to UsMagazine.com, Bachelor alum Britt Nilsson is officially going to celebrate a celebrity wedding with boyfriend Jeremy Byrne! The celebrity couple started dating last year after Nilsson's split from Brady Toops, another alum of the hit reality TV show, The Bachelor, and shared news of their celebrity engagement via a series of Instagram posts of the ring and the couple laughing and kissing in excitement. Nilsson wrote in the caption, ""WE ARE ENGAGED!!!! I'm over the moon!!! The man of my dreams and the most godly, amazing, fun, life-giving, silly, intelligent, wonderful best friend I could ever ask for is my future husband!!!! I have been dreaming of this day forever!! Thank You Jesus!!! Wooo hooooo!!!!!! I had no idea it was coming and it was the best day of my life! I love you forever Jeremy Byrne!!!"

This controversial Bachelor alum has said goodbye to the single life and hello to a celebrity wedding! What are some things to consider before getting engaged?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to getting engaged, it can be hard to know when you're ready as a couple! Cupid is here with the top three things you should consider before popping the questions or saying yes when your partner gets down on one knee:

1. Do you have the same goals?: Ideally in a long-term relationship you two would be looking for the same things and have a similar vision of the future. If you know for a fact that your ideas of the future differ greatly but you've never really sat down and worked that out, definitely take the effort before you move forward with an engagement. If you're both on the same page you can breathe a sigh of relief knowing that ring on your finger doesn't mean you have to give up your dreams or future plans.

2. Are you ready for a forever commitment?: There's no doubt about it, a wedding and an engagement are a huge deal, but marriage itself is an even bigger one. Ask yourself honestly, am I ready for a lifetime commitment to one person? Analyze your answer and share it with your partner. Admit if you don't feel ready for that big step right at the moment or confess that you've thought it through and think that's a good next step to take in the future.

3. Do you both want to get married?: This one seems like a no-brainer, but you'd be amazed how many people feel pressured into proposing or to saying yes to an offer of marriage just because they never sat down and talked about their feelings toward marriage in general, and also specifically for them at some point in the future. It's perfectly possible that for either you or your partner, getting married just isn't a priority, and if that's the case, you need to have a mature discussion about it where you communicate your wants and needs effectively.

According to UsMagazine.com, this celebrity news comes straight from Armstrong's Instagram, where he posted a picture of himself and Hansen, saying, "She said.... YES!!!!" First comes kids, then comes celebrity wedding! What are some benefits to having kids pre-marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

It used to be expected that marriage comes before children, however that is no longer the case in modern relationships. As a matter of fact, many have found benefits in parenthood before nuptials. Let Cupid show you how kids before marriage can help your relationship:

1. Sharing is everything: Having children teaches you how to share all over again. You're adding another life into your home and daily routine. This is similar to what many newlyweds struggle with, however with a kid you pick up on this much quicker since they absolutely depend on you for survival. Getting used to sharing your life is a trait that's definitely needed in marriage.

2. Patience is a virtue: Children aren't easy to deal with, but they provide a valuable lesson when it comes to patience. Crying babies, cleaning messes- it takes a lot of forbearance to endure such stressful situations. However, if you're able to learn patience with children, you'll be able to do the same with your spouse and hopefully avoid many arguments.

3. Knowing your roles: Becoming parents before marriage is like a crash course in "adulthood." You and your partner are given responsibilities you've never had before, and you both have to work together to ensure your child has a good life. Helping each other out to raise a kid will bring you all closer and will also show you what to expect out of marriage.

Other celebrity guests included Kate and Pippa's brother, James Middleton, and famous celebrity couple, Prince Harry and Meghan Markle.

This celebrity wedding was highly anticipated. What are some ways to add personal touches to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning the details of a wedding can be stressful, here are the top three tips on how to add a perfect personal touch to your special day:

1. Create photo center pieces: If you're looking for a sweet way to remind your guests of all you and your partner have been through leading up to the big day, feature a photo of you and your sweetheart in the centerpieces at every table and have each table guess as a group what special moment this photo is referencing. For the most fun, pick a variety of precious photos from different milestones in your relationship, like the day you met, your first date, the day you moved in together, the day you said I love you, etc. This is a great way to get your guests talking and reminiscing about their favorite memories of you as a couple and get to know each other in the process too!

2. Toast each other: Many weddings feature toasts from the maid of honor or best man, but it's rare that the bride or groom step up to the mic themselves. For a tear-jerking moment where all eyes are on you, take some time during your reception to share a special toast dedicated to your partner, and let your significant other and new spouse do the same for you as well. While you'll have already made some beautiful promises to each other in the vows, this is the perfect time to share a funny story about when you knew they were "the one" or explain all the beautiful things you know are waiting in the future for you two!

3. Ask for advice: Set up a decorative chalkboard and let your guests write their favorite pieces of advice for a happy and healthy marriage. When they're done, you can hang it up in your apartment or take a picture to always remind you of all the wonderful ways your friends and family reminded you to take care of and love each other unconditionally. This is a great opportunity not only to learn the best tricks and tips for a happy marriage from couples you love, but it's also a wonderful way to get some funny advice or crazy doodles from your single friends.

Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle Arrives in London for Pippa Middleton's Wedding

By Noelle Downey

It looks like things are getting really serious in Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's celebrity relationship! According to EOnline.com, Markle recently arrived in London and made an appearance at Kensington Palace just days before she and Prince Harry are set to attend Pippa Middleton's celebrity wedding together. This is big news for the celebrity couple, as Markle has never attended an event with Prince Harry's family before, or been photographed meeting them. Could it be this is Markle and Prince Harry's "meet the parents" moment when it comes their Hollywood relationship? It's hard to say, but either way, attending a wedding together, particularly one as high-profile as this with the rest of the royal family in attendance, is a major deal, especially given how private the pair has been up to this point. Although their relationship was confirmed last November, the two only made their first public appearance together this month, when Markle was spotted cheering Prince Harry on at a his charity polo match, and later stealing a discreet kiss in the parking lot.

This celebrity wedding marks Meghan Markle's first public interaction with Prince Harry's family. What are some ways to know you're ready to involve your family in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt about it, taking your partner to meet your family can be stressful! Here are the top three ways to know you and your sweetie are ready for that big step:

- 1. You feel secure in the relationship: You don't want to bring someone home who you're pretty sure won't be in your life by next month. If you're introducing your special someone to your parents and siblings, make sure that's just what they are; special. If you're secure in your relationship you can be sure that no matter how it goes with your family that your S.O. will do their best to be well-liked by people who are so important to you and that your family will recognize how amazing and special your partner is.

2. Marriage is a possibility: If you feel like the one you're dating might just be the one, then you should definitely consider introducing them to your family. Even if such a big commitment could be months or years down the road for you two lovebirds, establishing a relationship with your family as a couple will only make your bond stronger and help your family adjust to the idea of an eventual addition to their inner circle.

3. You've met their family: If you've already met your significant other's family, why not introduce them to your own? While taking your partner to meet your family can be scary and hard, especially if you have a complicated relationship with them, it may put a damper on your relationship if your partner feels they've been open and shared their family life with you and you haven't reciprocated. Show your partner that you trust and appreciate them by taking down your walls and allowing them to see behind the scenes of your life and upbringing.

There could be another celebrity wedding in the works! What are some ways to know you’re ready for marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

People always ask when is the right time to get married, but relationships aren’t monolithic. Instead you should ask yourself what signs show you’re ready for a lifetime partnership. Here are three relationship milestones to consider before you agree to be someone’s other half:

1. When ‘I’ becomes ‘we’: In the early dating phase, you’re content with your independence. Thinking of the future usually goes along the lines of “I’m going to do XYZ, and no one can stop me.” But the second you find yourself including your partner in your future plans it’s no longer all about you. Desiring someone’s companionship and input long-term are traits that show you’re ready for serious commitment.

2. Compromise is second nature: Marriage is all about compromise. It requires tying yourself down to one person, which can be tricky if you have differing philosophies and lifestyles. However, the ability to give and take is a relationship skill that all great marriages have mastered. If you’re able to negotiate with your significant other, then chances are you’re both ready for the long haul.

3. Don't feel like you're missing out: Cold feet can happen, but your concerns shouldn't be centered around all the potential partners you might miss out on. If you're suffering from FOMO, then you're not ready for marriage. But if the idea of coupling up with someone permanently doesn't bother you, then marriage is right for you. Your future spouse will definitely appreciate your dedication!

Celebrity Couple: 10 Reasons Chrissy Teigen and John Legend are Relationship Goals

By Katie Gray

In Hollywood, there's a lot of lust and love in the air. Lately it seems that, sadly, marriages and relationships are falling apart left and right in Tinsel Town. This is probably due to the extra pressure and contrasting busy schedules that celebrity couples are faced with. However; our favorite celebrity couple is still holding it down: Chrissy Teigen and John Legend. They give us major relationship goals! Chrissy Teigen is a model and cookbook author – having appeared many times in Sports Illustrated. John Legend is a ten time Grammy award winning singer, songwriter and musician. He's also won an Academy Award and a Golden Globe for his music. Legend even wrote a song for Teigen, which melted our hearts: "All of Me." It's dedicated to his love, and she stars in the beautiful music video for it. This pretty pair met on the set of his music video for "Stereo" and have been in love with one another ever since then in 2007. The couple's celebrity wedding took place in Como, Italy in 2013. Their celebrity baby daughter, Luna Simone Stephens, was born in 2016. This couple is goals, whether they're lounging at home or step out on the red carpet.

Here are 10 reasons Chrissy Teigen and John Legend are relationship goals:

1. Down to earth: This couple is just like the rest of us. They are very real and genuine people, which is why they have the admiration of the country. They posted a cute candid photo of the two of them for their pregnancy announcement. You can tell just by looking at their pictures that they are down to earth. They have been open about the struggles they went through trying to get pregnant, which is something many people face and can relate with. One time back in 2015 they posted selfies at home lounging. Chrissy Teigen tweeted photos of them at 10:46 A.M. and at 2:43 P.M. in the same positions, relaxing. Just like the rest of us, they enjoy being low key at home, and sleeping in, too. Their dogs and four boxes of pizza even joined them during their entire day spent in bed! That is goals.

2. Always laughing together: This is a couple who knows that life is better when you are laughing! Whether it's in photos or videos, they are always spotted laughing and smiling together. They love to joke around and have a fun witty banter. All dressed up in formal attire, they went through security and borrowed the equipment to pose for funny pictures with it. One time Teigen even hilariously blew up Legend's spot and tweeted him about how she saw him liking her tweets, while he was in the bathroom. They posted silly videos during Thanksgiving with family using funny filters. Teigen even tweeted Legend, "John is so drunk he keeps humming 50 Cent."

3. Coolest parents at the playground: This family couldn't be happier, then when spending time together. They truly bring each other the utmost happiness. A lot of photos are swirling around of them with their baby daughter, Luna. They go on walks, to the park, take vacations and partake in fun outings for family fun. Not only are they relationship goals and parent goals – we all want them to be our mom and dad!

4. Eating constantly: Food is life, and Teigen and Legend know this. Teigen released her own cookbook Cravings last year in 2016. It is made for people who want realistic recipes. And for people who want it, “spicy, salty, sticky, crunchy, juicy and oozy.” Often times Teigen and Legend will post food photos, as well as pictures and videos of themselves in the kitchen cooking it up. They say the way to someone’s heart is through their stomach, and we all agree that is true. One of their most iconic moments to date, is when Legend was eating chicken off of a tray on Teigen’s body while they were at the pool. This pretty pair has even have taken cooking classes together! What a fun date! We know we are all craving, a relationship like this.

5. Humble: Teigen and Legend are very humble and sincere. They are also incredibly proud of one another. When Legend won an Academy Award, Teigen posted proud photos at the Oscars, and selfies that night of them sleeping with the golden Oscar statue in their bed. Often when they are at award shows, the camera catches them dancing and singing in their seats together, it’s so cute! They watch sports together, in matching team apparel.

6. Love each other for who they truly are: All you need in life is, love. This celebrity couple proves that it is true. They are each other’s soulmates. Teigen and Legend both embrace one another for who they really are as people, and accept one another’s interests. During their anniversary one year, Teigen and Legend had a candlelit fancy dinner together.

She let him watch college football on his phone for some of it as a present, because she knows it means a lot to him. Even in a relationship, we still are individuals and shouldn't lose ourselves. We don't have to have all of the same likes and interests, but it's important to realize that if it's important to them, you should realize that, and then it's important to you too. Relationships are all about compromise and acceptance.

7. Family oriented: From their interviews and things they post on social media, it's apparent that they are close to their family. In life, family is always the most important thing. Teigen is very close to her mother and they both always have family over. They have family dinners and big celebrations on the holidays. These two love being parents to their baby. Legend went all out for Teigen's first Mother's Day. He had the baby in a themed onesie and captioned the photo, "To my wonderful wife, Luna and I are so lucky to have you in our lives. If our daughter can be even half as awesome as you, I will be so happy and proud. Happy 1st Mother's Day!" With Mother's Day approaching soon, we wonder what awesome surprise we can expect from them this year? Time after time, they out do themselves. We can't help but love them!

8. Loyal: The key trait of being in a relationship is to be loyal. Legend and Teigen are always on the same team, and that is very important. There was a time when people were "mom-shaming" Teigen, which is not okay. It's also sexist, so Legend stated, "Funny there's no dad-shaming. When both of us go out to dinner, shame both of us so Chrissy doesn't have to take it all. We'll split it." How wonderful is that? We are experiencing a time when women are fighting hard to have equal rights that are deserved and long overdue. This is the height of feminism and it's great that males are also on board supporting the issue, like Legend. A big issue is wage equality and also circumstances like this, mom-shaming. They score a million points in our book for the way they balance their relationship and maintain fairness!

9. Their love song: “All of Me” is a beautiful love ballad that Legend wrote about Teigen. It’s about their relationship and how much he loves her. He dedicated it to her and it is a loving homage to her. She said in an interview about the song, “I did cry when I heard it, I’m emotional, but I really don’t cry at things like that, but yeah, it’s beautiful, and live it’s pretty unreal.” The two of them even star in the amazing music video for the song. (Which is also a piece of artwork by itself.) Watching the video, and listening to the song, it’s evident that their love is true and their bond is strong.

10. Affectionate: This couple gives us goals because they know how to display the proper amount of affection. They manage to balance perfectly – not too little, not too much. Even the photo of Chrissy kissing John’s nose was perfection. You can tell when they are hanging out, they can’t keep their eyes off of each other. They literally glow. Relationships are all about affection and passion. Because if you don’t feel strongly about the person you’re with, then you probably shouldn’t be with them. It couldn’t be more crystal clear that these two are truly in love. They take mirror pictures together, dance in waffle houses in evening wear attire, and are often in their own world together – which is how it should really be!

1. Commit to a biweekly date night: When you've been together for awhile and perhaps even share a house, a car and kids, keeping the spark alive with sexy date nights and romantic getaways can seem like a thing of the past. Bring back the passion by committing to having a real night out together at least every two weeks. Get dressed up and go to a romantic, candlelit dinner or keep it casual and cuddle up in the back of a movie theater to watch a fun flick you both really want to see. Whatever you do, make sure you're both on board and looking forward to whatever activity it is you have planned, and just enjoy being together without the distractions of your other commitments.

Kate Upton Admits Fiance Justin Verlander Will Hate One Aspect of Their Celebrity Wedding

By Noelle

Downey

Celebrity couple Kate Upton and Justin Verlander have hit a minor snag while planning for their upcoming celebrity wedding – Verlander is allergic to the main decorations! According to UsMagazine.com, Upton, who announced her celebrity engagement to adorable athlete Verlander in 2016, confessed that while she wants, “a lot of flowers” and “petals already down by the time my niece, who will be my flower girl, walks down the aisle” she is also aware that this may be a bit of a struggle for her handsome soon-to-be-husband. “Justin has terrible allergies!” she admitted, “He’ll have to take any allergy pill.”

A celebrity wedding wouldn't be complete without flowers ...even if your fiance is allergic! What are some ways to make your wedding pretty without flowers?

Cupid's Advice:

Any relationship flourishes when compromises are considered. So if your special someone is sniffing when it comes to saying your vows in the midst of all that allergy-inducing pollen, here are Cupid's top three alternatives to make your special day still as gorgeous as ever:

1. Handmade bouquets: While it may sound tacky at first, it's amazing the kind of realism and beauty that can be captured by tissue paper flowers. Check out online art stores like Etsy for pretty pre-made alternatives when it comes flowers and patrol sites like Pinterest if you feel up to the crafty challenge of creating your own bridal bouquet. If you're looking for the essence of flowers without the smell, the pollen or the cost, check out tissue paper flowers, a genuinely pretty alternative that will add a touch of extra care to your already gorgeous ceremony.

2. Concentrate on lighting: If you're forgoing flowers entirely, why not focus on another vital and often underutilized way to make everything sparkle; the lighting. Using Christmas or twinkle lights to add some starry shine to your big day, or walking down the aisle via flickering candlelight are two great ways to show off your style when it comes to your wedding. Based on your venue, try floating paper lanterns or light streaming through prisms for a rainbow effect to add your own personal touch to the lighting on your wedding day. A bonus to this tactic is good lighting makes for great photos, so your wedding pictures could come out looking even more beautiful than you ever expected.

3. Rely on lace: If what attracts you to flowers is their delicate prettiness, why not try lace as an alternative? Its gorgeous spidery beauty could outshine any flower when used correctly. Use lace and sprigs of white (fake) flowers to decorate the church or other venue, then fashion some lacy roses out of your favorite delicate white fabric for your bouquet. Have your attendants carry matching ones in different shades for a special stand-out look that will be elegant and eye-catching.

And it certainly seems like Wilson fits the bill when it comes to liking her! He gushed about his wife and the mother of his child, saying, "She's everything you could ever want, honestly" and added that he had suspected for a long time that they might be a good fit. "I told somebody, 'I'm probably going to end up with Ciara,'" Wilson confessed.

This duo is too cute, and they've now added a celebrity baby to the mix! What are some ways to know your relationship is ready for children?

Cupid's Advice:

Parenting can seem like a huge, daunting responsibility. Cupid is here with the top tips on knowing when you and your partner are ready for your next big adventure; kids:

1. You're financially secure: Before you and your partner start taking the necessary steps to expanding your family tree, make sure you're in a good place financially to add a member to your family unit. After all, to give your child a wonderful life, you'll need some sort of financial security, and to be in a position where you can rest easy knowing that you'll always be able to provide for kid's wants and needs. Make sure both you and your partner are ready to make the sacrifices and do the hard work to be in a good financial position for your child's future.

2. Both you and your partner want children: This may seem like a no-brainer, but it's an important conversation to have. After all, for some having children is not even on their radar, and you don't want your partner to feel pressured into the decision to have a kid by your enthusiasm or desire for one. Sit down with your partner and make sure you're both on the same page, that you know what you want and that you have similar goals and plans for the future when it comes to your family-life.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Russell Wilson Says Fiancee Ciara is Way Out of His League

3. You can present a united front with your partner: It's never a good idea to try and use a child to "save" an already-failing relationship. If you and your partner are on the rocks, have poor communication, or a ton of unresolved issues, deal with those issues first and foremost before even considering having a kid. While it may seem like having a child would bring you and your partner together, in reality, bringing children into an already crumbling relationship is just a recipe for disaster and a lot of hurt on every side.

Hopefully this relationship will be unlike Wood's marriage to ex-husband Jamie Bell; who she was only married to for two years.

There's another celebrity wedding in front of us, thanks to mixing business with pleasure! What are some factors to consider before getting involved with a coworker?

Cupid's Advice:

Love can strike at any time, in any place. This includes your place of work. Although you may want to act on your emotions, take a moment to think of the consequences. Let Cupid be your guide in determining whether you should get involved with your coworker:

1. Know company policy: Unfortunately, dating a coworker isn't as simple as dating a band mate. Before you pursue a relationship with your coworker, you should familiarize yourself with your company's policy on relationships. You don't want to jeopardize your career for a date.

2. Prioritize your work: A new romance can be fun and exciting, but it's important that you put your job first. Keep things professional in the work space and wait until you clock out for PDA and unrelated discussions. Even if people know that you've started a relationship with your coworker, it shouldn't reflect on the job.

3. Worst-case scenarios: What happens if you both break up? Will you be able to work together like nothing happened? These are questions you need to consider before dating. If you want to take a risk, then you need to accept responsibility for whatever happens and prepare yourself for worst-case scenarios just in case.
