By Cortney Moore

Kate Upton and her fiancé Justin Verlander are making celebrity news once more with their upcoming celebrity wedding. The pair revealed in an interview with EOnline.com that they actually have not started planning their big day; but one thing they are certain of is that they will party up a storm before they walk down the aisle. “We are getting married. That’s about as much as we know,” Upton told E!. Her husband-to-be blames his busy baseball schedule for their delay in planning. However, Verlander is excited for his bachelor party and hopes to have more than one to include all his friends, “So maybe a couple? Three?” he suggested. Upton isn’t letting her fiancé have all the fun though; she’s hoping to have her bachelorette party abroad. “I really want to go to Mexico and have so much tequila!” she said. This celebrity couple sure knows how to have a good time! We’re certain their wedding will be a bash to remember.

Before this celebrity wedding comes some major partying! What are some ways to let loose before your big day?

Cupid’s Advice:

Weddings are a joyous occasion, but planning one is no joke. It can be really stressful getting everything together, especially if you’re doing most of the work yourself. Let Cupid help you find a way to unwind before your nuptials:

1. Spa day: One of the best things you can do for yourself before your wedding is to go to a spa. Splurge on a massage or a facial that will get you photo-ready for your big day. The peaceful setting at a spa will automatically make you feel better. It’s not a bad idea to invite your future spouse for a day of relaxation either.

2. Girls night: Schedule a night with your girls aside from your bachelorette party. Being around your closest friends will help you relax, and it’s a great opportunity to find out what they’ve been up to instead of keeping the attention on you. It doesn’t matter if you all stay in and watch chick-flicks or go out for dinner, just make an effort to enjoy yourself.

3. Exercise: Scheduling a few fitness classes before your wedding is a great way to let out any frustration you've been bottling up. Not to mention how great it'll make your body look in that wedding dress! Just make sure to pick an activity you enjoy, whether it be something low impact like yoga or high intensity like kickboxing.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Nick Viall Meets a Past Hook-Up on First Night

By Jessica DeRubbo

In celebrity news, the newest Bachelor, Nick Viall, had an eventful first night at the mansion. In fact, one of the women who stepped out of the limo happened to be someone he had hooked up with at Bachelor Nation's prized celebrity couple Jade and Tanner's celebrity wedding. According to UsMagazine.com, when Liz, 29, a doula, stepped out of the limo, Viall had a bit of a confused look on his face, and when she walked away to head into the mansion, he seemed thoughtful, like he was trying to figure something out. Chris Harrison took the opportunity to ask Viall about his strange look, and Viall admitted that he was 99 percent sure he'd "met" Liz at Bachelor in Paradise alums' Jade and Tanner's wedding. During that meeting, Liz had refused to give Nick her number, and hadn't spoken to him again. Drama!

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to handle running into a past fling?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward to unexpectedly run into a past fling who you haven't spoken to in a while. Maybe things ended after only one night, or maybe it was a little longer than that. Either way, Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

2. Keep it lighthearted: There's no reason to get into a drama filled or heated conversation when your fling with this person was short-lived. Obviously you've both moved on since you had your fun, so making light of things and indulging in just a little small talk before moving on is all that it takes.

3. Laugh about it: Chances are that the two of you are over any drama that existed between you by now. Sometimes laughter really is the best medicine, so joke around with your ex-fling a little bit. Things will no doubt flow a lot easier after that.

Relationship Advice: How to Compromise on Planning Your Nuptials

By Dr. Jane Greer

Matthew Lewis, who played Neville Longbottom in the Harry Potter movies, is engaged to be married to his girlfriend Angela Jones. This will be his first celebrity wedding, but her second. In fact, it was reported that they began dating shortly after she divorced her first husband. Matthew seems to have gotten the proposal right, judging from the photos of the ring and the Paris vacation during which the engagement was said to have taken place.

The relationship advice question is, will the fact that she has already had a wedding change the dynamics of, and possibly complicate, the marriage planning that lies ahead for them?

This is something that happens often when two people decide to spend their lives together. One might have gone through it all before, the big wedding and honeymoon, and the other might be experiencing it for the first time. Sometimes this can affect what each is hoping for as far as their big day goes. For the one who hasn't experienced it before, this might be something they have been dreaming about since they were a little kid. They might have family members who have looked forward to it for years, and may even have strong ideas about how it should play out. For them, the whole idea of a traditional wedding dress and all the fanfare might sound great. The other person, though, might feel they have been there and done that, they might no longer see the appeal of all the details and possible headaches that can go along with planning such a large, involved event. They might even think it would be nice to sneak away to City Hall or Las Vegas and elope. If you find yourself in this situation, how can you reconcile it?

The first thing to keep in mind is the end goal, which is to commit to each other for life. There are so many paths to take to get there, and as long as you find one you will be achieving that all-important objective. Having said that, though, people still want what they want. Make sure you are able to talk about what you each desire and hope for, and really listen to why each person is requesting what they do. Try to compromise, maybe the person who doesn't want a huge wedding or honeymoon will give in to the big day for the sake of his or her new spouse and family, but will then get to choose the honeymoon destination with the aspiration to keep it low key. Or maybe the reverse could work for you, the one who hopes for a grand occasion will be willing to tone it down but then might opt for an extravagant honeymoon.

Do your best to stay focused on what you want as a couple without giving up what is most important to you as an individual. Be sensitive to your partner's needs, and try to find a middle ground that will work for both of you. That way, each of you can be invested in their wedding.

Hopefully Matthew and Angela will be able to navigate these complicated decisions as they plan their important day. Maybe all they'll need is a little Hogwarts magic.

Shia LaBeouf Has a New

Outlook on Marriage Post Celebrity Wedding with Mia Goth

By Kayla Garritano

A changed, married man! After his celebrity wedding with Mia Goth, Shia LaBeouf says he has a changed perspective on marriage! According to Eonline.com, he chatted with E! News at the premiere of Man Down on Wednesday, November 30, discussing his recent discovery on marriage. "It's better on the other side," he admitted. "I've been lied to my whole life. You always hear these people who are all cynical, like, 'Ah, man, once you get married everything changes. But for the better though!'" One thing he's really excited about his starting new traditions while celebrating their first holiday season as a married couple.

Shia thinks things are better on the other side after his celebrity wedding. What are some ways being married can be better than just being in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships have their perks, but there's something about being married that's more special. How are you sure marriage is the right idea? Cupid is here to help with some relationship advice:

1. You're at home together: There's a difference between living together as a couple and making a home together. In a relationship, you're more likely to be visiting between apartments and keeping a toothbrush at your partner's place. Marriage helps put the aspects of your "bachelor pad" or "bachelorette pad" lives together. You're combining two lives into one house. You can have your own personal touches all while keeping yourselves in order.

Jersey Shore star Deena Cortese is officially engaged to boyfriend of five-years, Christopher Buckner, and took it to Instagram to share the celebrity news. According to EOnline.com, a few hours after the first Instagram post, saying she got proposed to on a beach in Mexico, she took a couple more shots of the bling."I felt like the other pictures didn't show how beautiful the ring was. Another Jersey Shore alum is ready for her celebrity wedding ... now that she has her engagement ring! What are some ways to pick the perfect ring for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When it's time to put a ring on it, the biggest question is what the ring is going to look like. You found the right partner, now all you need is the right ring. Here are some ways to help figure out the perfect one:

1. Sneak a peak at her jewelry: Look at the other jewelry your partner is wearing to give a sense of what they like. Is it mostly gold, are there a lot of jewels or sparkles? What is their favorite gem? Or are the jewelry pieces simple? This can give you an idea of what they prefer as to what they'd never be seen wearing.

2. Figure out the ring size: It's not the worst situation if you put the ring on your partner's finger and it doesn't fit, but it makes for a bother to bring it back and get it adjusted. Have a close friend of theirs ask about the ring size, and make sure you can find a ring in that size. It also may help narrow the ring selection when you're searching!

Budget-Friendly Tips for Holiday Weddings

By Cara Davis and Kayla Garritano

The countdown to the holidays has begun! The holiday season can be the only time of year that's simultaneously joyous and stressful. For some, this season will bring with it the event of a lifetime: a wedding. Those planning holiday winter weddings have several opportunities to save money and lessen the stress burden for themselves and their guests. You can be glamorous like a celebrity wedding, but keep it all in a budget!

These tips will be sure to give you a holiday wedding that won't break the bank!

1. Deck the halls: Most event locations will have already decked the halls for the holidays, allowing you to piggyback their efforts for a low-cost wedding. Go with Christmas hues of gold, red and green – or go for a silvery winter blitz. Strings of white Christmas lights will transform any room into a holiday paradise. Beautiful, and affordable.

2. Silver bells: Create budget large-scale ornaments as decorations using styrofoam balls. Spray-paint them and cover them in glitter. Or you can create groupings of bare branches spray-painted white and covered in silver glitter. Sounds like a winter wonderland! Paper ornaments can play as great wedding invitations or wedding favors.

3. Seasons eatings: Comfort food is a popular winter wedding choice (think soups, pasta, pot pies and mac-n-cheese). Don't shy away from cost-cutting measures like serving family-style or buffet. Consider a hot chocolate, cider, eggnog or coffee bar to which your guests can immediately help themselves (plus, you'll save hundreds by skipping the alcohol).

4. Marshmallow world: Gingerbread houses make quaint table centerpieces, as do natural greenery and berries. Cocoa mixes or cookie cutters also make inexpensive wedding favors. You can also buy a bunch of marshmallows, chocolate and graham crackers to make a s'mores kit!

5. Peace on Earth and online: Couples are increasingly using online wedding planning tools, like creating or sending save-the-date and invitations online, personal websites and online RSVP services. They are also using social media to communicate wedding details. Brides and grooms also have the option of registering online for gift cards at sites like CardAvenue.com, which is a great option for guests already overwhelmed with holiday shopping lists.

Pandora or Spotify are excellent, economical methods to pipe in some yuletide carols at the appropriate time during your reception.

Cupid's Advice:

When you're with that special someone, you're going to know you want to marry them. But how do you know when your partner is ready to tie the knot? Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Look for the hints: Your partner may drop a couple "when we get married" or "for our wedding" into conversations when they get reminded of something wedding related. They may keep the hints subtle without directly confronting you, but that's just their way of saying they see a future with you.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Miranda Lambert & Anderson East Talk Marriage and Kids

2. Talk to them: If you're not getting any hints, try the direct approach. You can ask them if they've thought about marriage, or talk to them about where they see themselves in the next 10 years. If you're not getting a clear answer, it's best to talk to them directly.

Former 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Feels 'Disconnected' from Celebrity Wedding Planning

By Kayla Garritano

Will the wedding drama ever stop? In the Tuesday, November 1 episode of Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After? Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell made another attempt at wedding planning, then quickly moved on to other things to avoid more planning. According to UsMagazine.com, the little bit of planning they did included Lauren's sister, Mollie, helping the celebrity couple with their wedding registry. Ben immediately became defensive over everything and didn't want anything that they don't need. Mollie and Lauren ignored most of Ben's negative comments and continued making the registry. As the episode continued to show them arguing and disagreeing with things such as houses and what they “don’t need,” Ben took a moment to admit to the camera, “I’m very disconnected from wedding planning.”

This former Bachelor is feeling isolated from celebrity wedding planning. What are some ways to involve your partner in wedding plans?

Cupid’s Advice:

A wedding is a joint ceremony, where you learn a lot about your partner and deal with the craziness of planning a wedding together. You want to make sure neither of you feel isolated in the planning, especially if you both want to be involved. Cupid will tell you how you can plan your wedding together:

1. Take them on the hunt: When you’re testing out cakes, or trying out the food, or picking out your wedding registry, make sure your partner is there with you. Show them the journey you’re going on, and let them experience what you’re experiencing. Your partner should be allowed to try what it is that you’re trying, and have the same opportunity to plan out the wedding that you’re both a part of.

Related Link: Ben Higgins & Lauren Bushnell Butt Heads Over Televised Celebrity Wedding

2. Let them have opinions: When you have a dream wedding in mind, you don’t want to let anyone else’s opinions in. Well, what if your partner has something to say about the situation? What if they prefer something different? Make sure their voice is heard, and that you consider what they say. You should learn to talk to each other about what you're thinking. If you don't, that may foreshadow some problems in the marriage.

Related Link: Learning to Compromise: My Way or the Highway!

3. Compromise: Marriage is about compromise, as is a wedding. You are taking two lives and melding them into one. You are creating a new life for yourself the minute you say "I do" to each other. Do something for each other that seems fair. Take something out of the wedding that you love in exchange for putting in something your partner loves, and they should do the same for you.

Cupid's Advice:

It's your wedding! You want to make it your own and give it a personal touch. You and your partner should be planning a night to remember. Cupid is here to help with ways you can personalize your wedding:
