Nick Young Calls Wedding Planning With Iggy Azalea a 'Nightmare'

By Dejha Carlisle

Love isn't always easy! LA Lakers star Nick Young claims, "I think wedding days should just be women's day." The basketball star believes planning a celebrity wedding takes a lot of compromising. According to UsMagazine.com, celebrity couple Young and the Australian rapper Iggy Azalea got engaged last June. Azalea tells sources it wasn't love at first sight for the pair. The two met at a pool party back in 2008, only for Azalea to leave the party early. Young and Azalea reunited years later, and have been dating ever since.

This celebrity wedding planning sounds like it has some hitches! What are some ways to compromise with your partner about wedding plans?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning a wedding can be a hassle, especially for first-timers. Cupid has tips on how you can make it as smooth as possible:

1. Organize the guest list: The toughest part about planning a wedding is the dreaded guest list. Your fiancé may not be too fond of your uncle, and some of your friends may not want to sit next to him. Be respectful at all times. Make sure the people you both invite are important; there's no need to invite a bunch of unnecessary people you barely speak to.

2. Traditional or unique: Many people dream of how their wedding will turn out, which leads to confusion in how the big day is supposed to turn out. You may want to keep the traditional roots in your marriage, such as jumping the broom or having your father walk you down the aisle. Your fiancé might like to try new things, especially if he gets bored with the old-fashioned ways. No need to get worked up over these details. You can have your traditional wedding while throwing in a bit of uniqueness.

3. The invitation: The invitation is very important, because how else will your close friends and loved ones know about your big day? The appearance of your invitation may not matter to him, which means he probably wants it to be simple and straightforward. You can compromise on the invitation by choosing a nice design that you both agree on.

It doesn't have to be anything huge or the whole thing. You can add little nods to your shared interest in small ways. If you're both into, say, Disney, you could use Disney wine glasses.

The ceremony will mimic a scene straight out of a Hollywood relationship movie, having the CEO of Generation Tux, George Zimmer, officiating the ceremony. The two finalist couples will be announced on November 16 and will both be flown to New York City to participate in the festivities by receiving couples massages, VIP tickets to the Hard Rock Cafe New Year's Eve party, and overnight accommodations at The Chatwal.

The winner of the "most romantic couple" title will be announced right before the Ball drops at midnight. They will then exchange vows in front of millions of excited Americans. After the whirlwind ceremony the newly-wed couple will go on a seven-night honeymoon at Moon Palace Golf & Spa Resort, a five-star Palace Resorts hotel in Cancun, just like the best celebrity vacations. Even the runner-up couple will get to feel like royalty as they will also enjoy a three-night honeymoon.

Not even the guests knew that Aniston and Theroux’s party was a secret wedding-to-be! What are some benefits to throwing a secret wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether you don’t want to attract too much attention or get a rush from adding the element of surprise – a secret wedding can be the right choice for you. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. No one knows: A major benefit of throwing a surprise wedding is that no one will know, and nobody has to find out if you don’t want them too. You are completely in control. You don’t have to worry about paparazzi or unwanted party crashers. You don’t have to worry about people being offended for not getting an invite or stressing over which entrée guests should choose from. It takes away the aspect of stressing over every little detail. In the end, it’s all about the bride and groom to be, because that’s all that matters.

2. More intimate: Often, if you are throwing a surprise wedding it is going to be more intimate and romantic. That is the most important component of a wedding. Focus on making your wedding special and a true celebration of love. It's not about getting everybody else's opinions, all that matters is what you want as a newlywed couple. It's your big day, not everyone else's. You have the freedom to make it perfect for you and your spouse!

3. Love is the focus: When it all comes down to it, a wedding is not about the cake or the flowers or the dress. What it truly is about is love and two people making a commitment to spend the rest of their lives together. That is what really matters. When you are doing a surprise wedding, love is at the center of attention – just as it should always be whether you throw a surprise wedding or not.

What do you do if your family isn't supportive of your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is an exciting time in your relationship and is cause for a celebration. However, it can be hard to enjoy or even celebrate when everyone you love doesn't support your relationship or the engagement. Cupid has some advice on what to do if your family isn't supportive of your engagement.

1. Ask them to give another chance: There's nothing wrong with asking your family to give your beau another chance. Perhaps their first meeting or interaction happened under bad circumstances, so try arranging for you, your significant other and your family to get together under better settings. If the people you love truly care about your happiness they should be willing to do whatever necessary to see that you will be happy.

2. Be patient: Maybe your family doesn't agree with your engagement right now, but maybe they will over time. Every relationship takes time to build, that includes your lover's relationship with your family, so let things develop on their own gradually as time passes. If you try to force a relationship between your love and family it will put too much pressure on you and them and it may seem like you're trying too hard to prove your relationship.

3. Share your love with the family: You don't have to dish out all the private and intimate details about your love life, but it won't hurt sharing little things about it. If your family can get a glimpse of the two of your's love for each other, it will help them better understand why the relationship works. So, try next time you are together with your family sharing all the ways your honey make you happy or tell them stories about some of the fun things you've done.
