

Celebrity News: 'Honey Boo Boo' Stars Mama June and Sugar Bear Exchange Vows and Celebrate with BBQ

By Andrea Surujnauth

Mama June and Sugar Bear, stars of Honey Boo Boo, exchanged vows in an extremely unique wedding ceremony that was all their own. Wearing a camouflage wedding gown, the pair marched down the aisle in the backyard of their Georgia home. According to People, the low key ceremony was followed by a family barbecue. "The day was very special mostly because my girls were able to take part in it," says June. "I felt like it was important for them to see this moment and celebrate my love for Sugar Bear." June also spoke about how she managed to keep her big day within her budget. "My sister baked the cake, and we spent most of the money on barbecue," says June. "We stayed true to our roots and made the focus on the family and my commitment to Sugar Bear. You can definitely plan an event on a budget!”

What are some ways to tailor your wedding reception to your personality?

Cupids Advice:

How can you make your wedding reception all your own? You want your personality to shine through for all your guests to see. Cupid is here to help:

1. Spice up your invitations: Put your own spin on your invitations. They don't have to be plain and formal. If you and your partner are more of a comical couple, go for some humor instead!

2. Activities: Your big day does not have to be traditional with just dancing and picture taking. Come up with some fun activities that they can do like writing notes in a guest book!

3. Personal decorations: Add your personal touch to your reception decorations. Ask yourself, if I was home throwing a party, how would I decorate?

Celebrity News: Keira Knightley Ties the Knot with

James Righton in Low-Key Ceremony

By Jessica

Conigliaro

On Saturday, May 4, actress Keira Knightley married Klaxons keyboardist James Righton. The couple kept the day very low-key, UsMagazine reports. They exchanged vows in an intimate ceremony in the south of France before just a dozen or so of their closest friends and family.

What are some ways to keep your wedding low-key?

Cupids Advice:

Marriage has always been one of your life goals—but the wedding part, not so much. You were never the type of person who enjoyed having the spotlight on you. Cupid here to give you some advice on how to make your wedding day more low-key:

1. Keep it small: You decided to spend the rest of your life with the man you love—who's to say you have to share that moment with hundreds of people. You want your wedding day to be shared amongst the people that matter most to you. Invite 40 of your closest friends and family and avoid that big wedding you've always dreaded having. This way, you won't have to make small talk with distant relatives you barely know, or haven't seen since you were a baby.

2. Short dress: Wearing a big and tiered wedding dress was never how you envisioned walking down the aisle. Save yourself the pain of putting on the overly laced dress and find something you are more comfortable in. You may even decide to wear an off-white dress, or one that has a bit of color in it. Ignore the typical wedding rules and find something that suits your personality—after all, it's your big day!

3. Backyard wedding: After looking at countless venues, you can't seem to find a place that seems right for your big day. They all seem too big and don't have the right feel for you. Skip the hassle of looking around for a location and consider having the party right in your backyard. You grew up there and have so many memories—why not add one more? Your guests will love the homey feeling associated with your wedding—and so will you.

How do you know if your partner is ready to get married?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting married is a serious matter in your relationship and your life. When you are thinking about marriage, you need to make sure you and your partner are ready for the next step. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Love: Is your love stronger than the gods, mountains, and nature altogether? Does your love heal wounds, hearts, and souls? Does your love make you and your mate grow more as a person, and as a couple? If you answered yes to these, you and your mate are ready to get on board to the marriage train. If you are doubting your love you have for your partner, or your partner has for you – you may not be ready.

2. Finances: Does your partner have their finances in check? Are they independent and strong? It is essential that your mate is ready to join into a combined relationship where financial situations are more than important. It is necessary for your partner to have a strong financial standing in order to take the next step, which is marriage.

3. Trust: Does your mate trust you with everything involving their life? It is essential that your partner does not keep secrets from you. It is one thing to keep secrets in a relationship, it is another to do it while married. You need to make sure trust is in the air before you put a ring on it. If you don't believe your mate trusts you, they may not be ready for the big step in their life.

Celebrity Couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux Push Back Wedding Because of Celebrity Ex Brad Pitt

By Meghan Fitzgerald

Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux's celebrity wedding plans are slightly delayed due to her celebrity ex Brad Pitt and his current fiancé Angelina Jolie. UsMagazine reports that famous couple "Brangelina" are planning upcoming nuptials, and Aniston didn't want her own wedding to conflict with theirs. According to NY Daily News, "She does not want her day associated with them." The Hollywood couple considered moving the date up, but Theroux didn't want to rush it.

Aniston postponed her wedding because of her celebrity ex. What are some ways to keep the thought of your past relationship from ruining your current one?

Cupid's Advice:

It's no surprise that Aniston didn't want her big day associated with her celebrity ex! It's important that an ex doesn't interfere with your current relationship, especially when it comes to your wedding. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to forget the past so that you can have a better future:

1. No communication: The simplest solution from keeping your ex from ruining your current relationship and love is ending all forms of communications with them. It isn't always easy, but it is possible. Work through the urge to call, text, or message them. By not allowing any opportunities for them to enter your life, it makes it more difficult for them to have a negative effect on your current relationship.

How do you know when it’s time to call it quits in your marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

It is difficult to determine when to call it quits on your marriage. It could be countless fighting, lack of the love you once had. It can be whether or not you feel comfortable in your marriage. It can be anything that you feel is wrong in your relationship. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Love is gone: In some cases pertaining to relationships, it is possible to lose the love you once had with your partner. If this has happened in your marriage, don't ignore the feeling and confront your mate about your thoughts. It will not make the scenario any better if you are pushing your thoughts away. Talk to your partner about calling it quits on your marriage.

2. Emotional abuse: Are you being emotionally or physically abused by your partner? If you are, this is a strong sign you should call it quits on your marriage. It is not in any way a healthy relationship if you're being abused by the one person who shouldn't be hurting you. Marriage isn't supposed to cause harm on you, so collect your bags and get out of it.

3. Unfaithfulness: Have you or your partner been unfaithful in your marriage? If you answered yes to this question, you should probably consider calling it quits on your marriage. Along with emotional and physical abuse, it is not a healthy scenario if you or your mate possess the quality of unfaithfulness. So re-evaluate your life and your marriage, and see if your marriage needs to end.

What are some little ways to show your partner you care?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the essentials to being in a relationship is to show your partner how much you care about them. There are numerous little ways you can do this with. Bringing home their favorite Thai food for dinner, doing the laundry, taking out the garbage, surprise them with flowers. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Mixed CD: Making a mix CD for your significant other is one of the best ways to show your partner you care. Include "your" song, their favorite songs, songs that have meaning between the two of you, or songs that remind you of your mate. Put the mixed CD in a handcrafted case, and express how much you love them through the descriptions and title.

2. Cook dinner: An easy way to show your partner how much you care for them is to make them a home cooked dinner. Surprise them with a romantic dinner of their favorites. Include a fine wine, appetizers, a full meal, and a dessert. Play the mixed CD you made for them and enjoy a low key dinner for two. Put in that extra effort to create a meal for your mate.

3. Cute texts: Surprise your partner with cute texts throughout the day. Text them in the morning wishing them a great day. Text them goodnight love. Send over a quick text of how much you love and care for them. Text them how you feel about them, and express your emotions through text messages. Your partner will realize how much you care for them by the texts they send over.

How are little ways you've shown your partner you care? Explain below.

What are some ways to include your parents in your nuptials?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your parents love you. At times, their love is constraining and stressful and unwanted. However, they put you on this planet and you should attempt to include them as much as possible in your nuptials. Cupid has some advice:

1. Toast: It is easy and simply to include your parents in your nuptials by dedicating a special toast to them. Nothing is more meaningful to your parents than telling them over all your friends and family how much you love them. Your parents will be honored that you took the time out of your special day to write and make a speech for them.

2. Memorable gift: The most memorable gift you can give your parents on your wedding day is a picture frame or a photo book. Either gather pictures of you and your parents and compile them into a book. Or round up pictures of you and your fiancé and put them together. Your parents will be able to look back on the day their child got married. And also be able to show your pictures off when visitors come around their home.

3. Family heirloom: Something old, something new, and something blue. It is a common wedding expression and is followed by couples everywhere. With something old: include a piece, jewelry, clothing, anything that has meaning in your family. Your parents will recognize how much you care for them by keeping the tradition in the family. The bride can even copy or replicate your mother's wedding gown.

Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Says It 'Feels Right' to Wear Engagement Ring and Be Committed

By Andrea Surujnauth

Miley Cyrus recently opened up to Elle UK about her engagement to Liam Hemsworth. The couple got engaged a year ago. “We have a house together and dogs. It just seems right to be wearing this ring and to be committed,” Cyrus said. “But we keep our relationship low-key and don’t talk about it any more.” According to UsMagazine, Cyrus has decided to keep her personal life and relationship to herself and away from the spotlight. “We were too nice to the world and gave them too much insight – into my life and my puppies and my house – and I just don’t feel they get that privilege any more,” Cyrus explained. “Like on my Twitter, I’m much more . . . not conservative, but you don’t see a picture of my dogs. You don’t get that personal stuff any more.”

How do you know when you’re ready to get engaged?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting engaged is a huge step in a relationship. You love the person you are with, but how do you know whether or not you’re ready for that step? Cupid is here with some ways to help you decide:

1. You enjoy every moment: If you enjoy the ups and the downs with your beau then you are ready for the long haul. Marriage is not always exciting and fun so you know you are ready for an engagement if you are happy with your partner no matter if you are having a bad, boring, or sad moment together.

2. No more dating: If you are ready to burn that little black book of yours, then you are ready to be tied down. If you feel that your honey is the only one for you and no one else could make you happier, then you are ready for that step towards holy matrimony.

3. Future plans: If the two of you are already planning for a future together, you are ready for that proposal. You two see a future together and are making plans together so you are both serious enough about the relationship to take this step.

What are some ways to support your partner's style choices?

Cupid's Advice:

Your boyfriend has a very distinctive style and is proud of it. You want to show him how much you love his unique taste in clothing. Cupid is here to show you how:

1. Embrace their style: Your boyfriend has always loved wearing denim jackets and tight jeans. Now that he is working a lot, that style isn't exactly an option anymore. Encourage your man to wear the clothes he likes on the weekends. This way, he doesn't feel like he had to give up his own style for his job.

2. Compliment them: After your partner gets a new haircut, he is unsure if he likes the way it looks or not. Let him know your opinion. If you like the way it came out, reassure him of that. Your love will value your opinion over everybody else's.

3. Tell your friends: You're out with some friends and your partner is wearing a new outfit that you just love. Rave to your friends about it—your man will love hearing you compliment him to your friends. By doing so, you are letting him know how attracted you are to him—which will make him feel even more loved.

What are some ways to make your wedding unique?

Cupid's Advice:

The day you have been dreaming of since you were a little girl is finally nearing. You want to make your wedding day as special and memorable as possible. Cupid is here to give you some unique wedding ideas to make the day even better:

1. Pick a song: While walking down the aisle, choose a song that holds a special meaning to you and your fiancé. The first song you danced together to, a song that represents your love for each other, or even just a song you both enjoy listening to. By doing so, you will be creating an even more special moment to share for the rest of your lives together.

2. Embroidered ring pillow: Before sending your ring bearer down the aisle, surprise everyone by having a meaningful quote from your vows embroidered or needlepointed onto the pillow. Every time you look at the pillow, you and you love will remember those beautiful, sacred vows, keeping your love strong and timeless.

3. Guilty pleasure station: You have been dieting for months, hoping to look great in your wedding dress. Well, the day is here and you look amazing—now it's time to indulge! Set up a 'guilty pleasure' food station at the reception. Serve chicken finger, macaroni and cheese, potato skins—all your favorite guilty pleasures. All of your guests will love the cute and unique idea—and their stomachs will enjoy it too.

PerezHilton reported that Rimes, 30, tweeted about her evening, saying, "Beautiful anniversary, low key and lovely. Thx for all your sweet well wishes." The cake read, "If you break down, I'll drive out and find you. Happy 2nd anniversary."

What are some surprises you can plan for your anniversary?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning for any anniversary can be pressure-filled situation. Throwing a surprise in there does not make it any easier. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Dinner date: Does your partner love to get dressed up in their favorite Ralph Lauren dress and hit the trendy bar down the street? Or the Swedish night club three blocks down? If they enjoy these things, they will enjoy going out to dinner for your anniversary. Surprise your mate with a romantic dinner on your anniversary and top it off with a trip to their favorite night spot.

2. Bubble bath: Who doesn't enjoy a soothing bubble bath with the love of their life? For your anniversary, plan a romantic champagne filled bubble bath with your partner. Leave a trail of rose petals from the door to the bedroom, to the bath. Have two bottles of champagne by the side of the tub. Add smoothing music, or your mate's favorite music as they walk in the door.

3. First date: Recreate your first date with your partner for a surprise anniversary. It will show your mate how much you care and love them. It will show your beau that you fully remember your first date and are willing to recreate it for an anniversary. Do everything you did on the first date and sit back for the results.

Star-Casted Romantic Comedy, 'The Big Wedding'

By Meghan Fitzgerald

The Big Wedding has a vamped up cast, including Diane Keaton, Robert De Niro, Susan Sarandon, Robin Williams, Katherine Heigl, Amanda Seyfried and Topher Grace. This new romantic comedy directed by Justin Zackham is about a modern family attempting to remain sane for the weekend of Alejandro (Ben Barnes) and Missy O' Connor's (Amanda Seyfried) wedding. Don (Robert De Niro) and Ellie Griffin (Diane Keaton) are a long divorced couple who are playing "happy" for their adopted son's wedding. Alejandro's biological mother is also in attendance, after deciding to fly halfway around the world. Not only does she not approve of divorce, but she also doesn't know that Alejandro's foster parents are adopted. The Griffin family tries to keep their cool as they are bombarded with the past, present and future throughout the weekend.

Should you see it?: This movie will be one for the books. One that people will remember for years to come. With this cast, how could you not see it? How do you avoid wedding chaos?

Cupid's Advice:

It seems that wedding chaos is inevitable if your family is the slightest bit dysfunctional. Any wedding malfunctions are common, even if it seems drastic and not normal. To keep the slight malfunctions from turning into complete chaos, you need a leader. A person to put everyone in line, to keep calm and organized. Cupid has some more advice on this:

1. Keep the bride calm: As much as men can say they have equal part involvement as the bride, they're wrong. Most women have been thinking about their wedding since they were young. They have been checking over the table arrangement, moisture of the cake, songs played at the reception....all since day 1. They know their wedding like the back of the hand, and if a slight problem occurs; the bride must remain calm.

2. Unwanted guests: At some wedding, unwanted guests may arise. Ex-husbands, old friends, abandoned family members; they all could pop in at any moment. With these unwanted guests showing up at your perfect wedding, chaos may loom. The best thing to do here is stay perfectly calm, and have a responsible and unbiased adult exit them out of the venue. No chaos if there are no unwanted guests.

3. Caterer/flowers: Check in with your caterer constantly days before your wedding. Make sure they have the right times, addresses, and menu. Chaos will emerge if there is no food at the wedding. The same thing goes along for flowers. It is necessary to keep in contact with your florist and be aware of what you ordered, how much you ordered, the colors, and anything else essential.

A source said, “Gretchen always does everything out of the box, so no one is too surprised she was the one who proposed. She really wants kids with Slade, so that was a big motivator.”

What are some unique ways a woman can propose to a man?

Cupid’s Advice:

Even though it is not as common for a woman to propose to a man, there are still numerous ways to carry it out. Let your creativity flow and think about your mate when you have the proposal in mind. Cupid has some tips:

1. Take it back: When proposing to your beau, keep in mind all of the times you've had together. Travel back in time to your first date, your third anniversary, or your first Christmas dinner together. Make it memorable by sharing emotions, feelings and events you have attended together. This is a laid back and creative way to show your partner how much you love them.

2. Stand tall: You are proposing to your man, so this is not the norm and this whole event is unique. When asking your partner to marry you, remain confident. Don't back down, and do not stray away from what you want to do. Stand tall.

3. Don't rush: When preparing to propose to your man, do not rush it. It is essential that you plan out the proposal just the way he would like. If he is more low key and mellow, plan something personal. If he enjoys extravagant parties and surprises, put your back into it and plan the proposal to the ground. It doesn't have to be perfect, but it does have to be heartfelt.

How do you support your partner through an unplanned pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Unplanned pregnancies are obviously surprises. They are not expected nor are they always easy to handle, so it's important to have a support system. Cupid has some advice:

1. Family: Your partner is going to need support through their unplanned pregnancy. Family members tend to dish out a lot of stress, as they tend to smother the mom-to-be. They want to know every single detail of the pregnancy and don't expect you to keep secrets. It's important to stand by your partner to block some of this onslaught.

2. Every step: Be by the side of your mate through every step of the pregnancy. Attend doctors appointments, and put pictures up on your fridge. Talk to your family about every aspect of the pregnancy and be the person people go to for help. Be the rock to your partner's pregnancy.

3. Lend your shoulder: Because unplanned pregnancies are unexpected, your partner may be on an emotional rollercoaster each and every day. You may not be able to do anything to change the situation, but you can certainly lend an ear (or a shoulder) and be someone they can confide in.

Sharon Osbourne Says She's 'Devastated' by Ozzy's Drug Relapse

By Andrea Surujnauth

Sharon Osbourne recently spoke out about her husband, Ozzy Osbourne's prescription drug and alcohol abuse problem on an episode of her talk show The Talk. "Everybody knows he's been struggling with this his entire life and I never knew that he was using prescription drugs," she said, according to UsMagazine.com. "I knew he was drinking occasionally, but I didn't realize to what extent. It's our business – we're dealing with it. We're not getting divorced. However, am I happy? No. Am I upset? Yes, I am – I'm devastated right now. He's been using alcohol and prescription drugs for the last year-and-a-half...and he has been in a very dark place. That's true. It's very true. It's a disease that not only hurts the person that has the disease but it hurts the family," she continued. "It hurts people that love you and we're dealing with it."

How do you help your partner fight an addiction?

Cupids Advice:

Your partner has a serious addiction and you want to help them get over it. How can you do that? Find out below:

1. Tell them to quit: Tell your partner that you want them to stop. Tell them you want them to get help, and let them know you will be there for them throughout the process.

2. Be supportive: Find out what you can do to help them quit. Ask professionals what steps you should take from whatever program your sweetheart chooses to go through. Be there for them to show them you believe in them and you have hope for them. Don't let them give up on themselves.

3. Remove stressors: Try to remove any stressors or triggers that will make them run back to their addiction. They are at a delicate moment in their lives so they need to be treated with care.

Find Out About Katherine Russell Tsarnaev, Boston Marathon Bomber's Wife

By Andrea Surujnauth

Katherine Russell grew up in Rhode Island and went to college at Suffolk University in Boston. She was from a Christian household and graduated top in her class from her high school. Her plan was to join the Peace Corps, but all of that changed when she met Tamerlan Tsarnaev, according to People. Now, she is known as the Boston Marathon Bomber's widow. It all started when she went to a nightclub and one of her girlfriends introduced her to Tsarnaev. She dropped out of school, converted to Islam, and married Tsarnaev in June 2010. She moved in with his parents and his brother. The couple gave birth to a daughter, but the birth date remains unknown. After giving birth, Katherine worked long hours as a home health care aide while Tsarnaev stayed home and took care of their daughter. "She really loved the work," says a family source. "I think it was the one thing she could do separately from him." Katherine's attorney states that she was unaware of the plans of the bombing.

What do you do if your partner does something of which you don't approve?

Cupid's Advice:

You love your man and you always thought the two of you had a future together. Then, one day, he does something that is against your values and morals. What should you do? Cupid has some advice:

1. Why: Try to listen to why your partner did what they did. Listen to their reasoning and see if they had a legitimate reason for making the move that they did. If they did something that is forgivable, then try to see it from their point of view. If what they did is not forgivable, you need to reconsider the person you are with.

2. Talk to him: Tell them you do not approve of what they did. Let them know it is not acceptable in your mind and they can not do things that you are uncomfortable with. If they love you, they will respect that you don't approve and they won't do it.

3. Leave: Do not stay with them if they are doing something that is really against your beliefs and is not willing to refrain from doing it for you. Your comfort, beliefs, and self respect is much more important than being in a relationship.

Katy Perry Calls Divorce From Russell Brand a 'Very Tiny Elephant'

By Meghan Fitzgerald

UsMagazine.com reports that a year after her divorce, the 28 year-old singer, Katy Perry is now more comfortable talking about her past relationship. According to Hollywood Reporter, Perry stated, "It's a very tiny elephant . . . It's like a little Tchotchke now," referring to her divorce. "The Big D – you can say it." Since her split with Brand, Perry has been in an on-and-off again relationship with John Mayer.

How do you cope with the aftermath of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Coping with the aftermath of a split is not always the most graceful or welcoming thing to do in life. Although it is not an ideal situation, it is best to pick yourself up and move on. Of course moving on is one of the hardest aspects of life. But you can make it work, and eventually you will. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Get rid of belongings: So you just had a split from your partner, what is the next step you might ask. Get rid of everything they ever gave to you. You will never be able to even begin the coping process if you are frequently seeing him all over your room, and your house. Either give their belongings back, or be a dramatic rom-com and burn it all. The burning part releases some repressed emotions so if that's you, go purge.

2. Stay busy: Make sure you keep yourself busy with anything besides thinking of your split. Call your parents. Call your friends. Make lunch plans and follow them. Don't stay inside day and night. Get there and experience life. Even if your life may seem like it's over, it is not. Do not be a hermit, go and be with other people. Always try to be with other people after a breakup.

3. Rebound: You just went through a breakup, go and rebound it up. Of course it is not really healthy, and you may feel crappy about yourself afterwards. But you will get your mind off of your ex. This rebound relationship is a distraction from your life and thoughts about your past relationship. It's a quick fix, and something fun to do while your heart is trying to mend together.

How do you tell your partner you want a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Obviously it is not easy to tell your partner that you want a divorce. There are no shortcuts, or easy paths to take to try and beat around the bush. When telling your partner you want a divorce, you need to be honest and completely upfront with your partner. If you're not, your life could get messy. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Straight up: If you are going to tell your mate straight up if you want a divorce, don't hesitate or back out. You can not beat around the bush, you need to be honest and tell your partner what you're thinking. Be sensitive and thoughtful when telling your beau that you want to split up. Whatever you do, do not stray away from your decision because your mate wants to stay together.

2. Let the law speak for itself: If your relationship is on the rocks so much that you haven't been speaking to your spouse at all, it might be appropriate to have the divorce documents speak for themselves.

3. Leave a note: Write out what you want to say to your partner, and leave it behind. This may not be the best case scenario in certain situations. However, if you are in a abusive or unhealthy relationship and this is the only way to get out. Do it. Pack up all of your stuff, leave a note, and leave that life behind. If you are with someone who does not love you or wish to be with you every second of the day, leave. And never come back.

Celebrity News: Scott Disick Discusses Having to 'Relive' Fights on TV

By Andrea Surujnauth

Having your whole life broadcasted on national television can turn out to be a real struggle especially in Scott Disick and Kourtney Kardashian's case reports UsMagazine.com. Having their love quarrels filmed for the whole world to see can be trying to their relationship even months after the actual fight took place. "That, I will say, is one of the real downsides of the whole television thing," Disick tells Ryan Seacrest during an interview on Ryan Seacrest With the Kardashians: An E! News Presentation. "Just when I think we've worked through something, and we're finally moving forward, a rerun will be on, and I'll be upstairs, and she'll call me," he continues. "Like, 'Hey, so I kinda forgot to say I hated you for this one other thing.' And I'm like, 'What? I have to relive this again?'" These lovebirds have been together since 2006. And how is their relationship going now? I would say we're decently happy," Disick tells Seacrest. And what about the wedding bells? "I think if it's not broke, don't fix it. You know what I mean?" he said. "I feel like I used to want to get married more than she did. And then, being that she was always so not interested, I've decided not to be." Kardashian and Disick are parents of son Mason, 3, and daughter Penelope, 9 months.

How do you forgive and move on after a fight?

Cupid's Advice:

After having a fight with your beau, you may still feel angry. You still love them but the words from the fight are still ringing in your ear and you can't get over it. How can you just forgive, forget, and move on? Cupid is here to help you do just that:

1. We are humans: Realize that fact that everyone is human and we all make mistakes. If the fight was over a minor issue that can be overlooked, then let it go by telling yourself that your sweetie is entitled to one or two mistakes. As long as your partner knows that it is wrong to do it again, no need to hold a grudge.

2. Part problems: Do not keep thinking of the past. If your honey made a mistake in the past that caused a fight, remember, you chose to stay with them and forgive them so you can not keep tormenting them about what they did. Just forget about what happened in the past and look towards the future. As long as your partner doesn't keep doing the crime, stop punishing them.

3. You love them: While in a fit of anger, remember why you love your sweetie. This will calm you down and realize that the fight does not matter to you as much as your love for them.

How do you deal with your partner's busy work schedule?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your partner can't get enough of one another. So how do you handle their busy schedule? You want to be able to see them as much as possible so how do you pull that off if they are always busy? Cupid is here with some advice for you:

1. Communicate: If you can't physically be there with your partner, show them you are thinking of each other by sending each other flirtatious text messages throughout your day. This way, although apart, you will know that you are on each other's minds.

2. Free time: When the two of you finally do have free time to spend together, make the most of it. Do not spend your time sitting on the couch. Get up and do something together. Have fun with your sweetie and make each other feel special during this time.

3. Eliminate distractions: While spending time with your love, make sure you give each other all your complete attention. Put away the cell phones and refrain from answering any work related calls and emails. Enjoy being together without all of the work stuff.

The couple was released in bonds after a few hours of incarceration and they are awaiting a pending court date.

What are some ways to support your partner who broke the law?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner made a mistake and did something stupid. Now they are in trouble with the law. Cupid has some advice:

1. Court dates: Attend court dates with your beau and make sure they know you are there for them and they are not alone. People make mistakes and nothing is worse than feeling like you lost everything over a stupid mistake.

2. Keep them out of trouble: Make sure your sweetie gets help for whatever problem they had that caused their run in with the law. Get them whatever help they need in order to avoid the problem happening again.

3. Do not encourage: Their best way to support a rule breaker is by not encouraging the rule breaking. Make sure you make it clear to your sweetheart that it is not OK for them to break the law again.

"She's got the whole thing in her head and I trust her explicitly."

What are some ways to compromise on wedding details?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your fiancé have been dreaming up the perfect wedding. Now that it's time to get the ball rolling, you realize you don't see eye to eye on every detail. Cupid's here to help you compromise plans for the big day.

1. Pick your battles: Your soon-to-be husband wants to have a live band, opposed to a DJ at your wedding and you think it might be a little tacky. Your love seems so committed to the idea and really seems to want it for the wedding. If you don't have a deep concern over an issue, let your partner have his way. It clearly means a lot to him. In return, he will let you have your way with other disputes you may come across while planning.

2. Try new things: Your love wants to invite his friends from college that you never met before to the wedding. At first you are horrified by the idea of having strangers at your wedding. Think it through—these people are probably important to your man and should be there for his special day. Perhaps get to know them before the wedding.

3. Ask other's opinions: If you and your fiancé are in a huge argument over the color scheme of your wedding ask other's opinions. Go to your mom and his mom—to make it fair—and see what they think. A fresh perspective may be all you two need in this situation.
