

Kim Kardashian's Wedding Registry Is Luxurious

Kim

Kardashian got engaged less than a month ago and is already being called a bridezilla – and the reality star's over-the-top wedding registry might be partly to blame. UsMagazine.com reports that Kardashian and fiancé Kris Humphries registered at GEARYS in Beverly Hills, a premium seller of luxury jewelry and homeware. The couple's registry included a laundry list of expensive items, including crystal napkin rings, a $175 mustard jar and $38,4000 worth of Torchon dinner place settings. Kardashian and Humphries will walk down the aisle this Halloween.

If you don't need household items, what wedding gifts should you ask for?

Cupid's Advice:

If you already have a mustard jar and are looking for unique wedding gifts that aren't household items, Cupid has some tips on what other kinds of presents you should ask for:

1. Honeymoon: Besides the reception, the honeymoon is probably the most expensive part of getting married. Now, you can use a website to ask your guests to contribute to various activities, like the flight, hotel, or food. Try HoneymoonWishes.com or SendUs0ff.com.

2. Charity: If you feel like you already have everything you need, why not use your wedding as an opportunity to give back? Have your guests make donations to a few of your favorite charities instead of buying gifts À la Prince William and Kate Middleton.

3. Renovations: You may not need a fondue set, but you might need a new kitchen. If you want to make improvements to your home without accumulating even more stuff, ask each guest to contribute to a renovation with wallpaper, new counter tops, cabinets – you name it!

Nick Lachey Serenades Vanessa Minnillo to Apologize

The hardest part about being in a relationship is knowing how to swallow your pride and make up. With his upcoming nuptials to Vanessa Minnillo, Nick Lachey told Access Hollywood his fool-proof strategy for apologizing to his future wifey when he messes up. For Lachey, this is an easy one. He gives her a taste of his velvety voice. “That’s my trump card. Whenever I screw up and I need to get back to her good graces, I sing. So far it’s worked,” he said.

What are some creative ways to apologize to your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Saying the words “I’m sorry” can be even harder than saying “I love you” in some cases. Here are some sure-fire ways to make your apologies go smoothly:

- 1. Send your apology: When you make a big display of your amends, it shows thought and sincerity. For example, send a singing telegram. A small gift and a charming note can go a long way when you’ve messed up.
- 2. Show the world you’re sorry: The internet is a powerful way to have your message heard today. Use it to your advantage by making an apology video and posting it on the web for everyone to see. This will let your partner know that you're aware of your mistake, and you want the world to know.

3. Cook: When your partner comes home, greet him or her with a nice meal set at a romantic table. Calmly state your apology without stirring up another fight. Admitting you were wrong and taking the extra time to do something special will surely ease the tension and get your relationship back on track.

Cupid's Advice:

All couples want a unique wedding. However, a lot of the 'unique' ideas have already been done. Here are a few details that you can make 100% your own:

- 1. Color scheme: Pick a color scheme that reminds you and your partner of a romantic moment you once had together. Though the colors you pick may be generic, the memories behind them will not be.
- 2. Location: For a wedding venue that is really out-of-the-box, try thinking back to your childhood. You might recall a secluded park or a spot in the woods that particularly entranced you and would serve as the perfect location.
- 3. Food: Sit down with your partner and list your favorite foods. Don't be afraid to have fun with the menu and pick a variety of foods. The eccentricity displayed by your choices will charm your guests.

get your hopes up, team Jennifer fans. Rumor has it that Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie may wed in the near future. "The kids ask about marriage. It's meaning more and more to them," Pitt told People. "So it's something we've got to look at."

Originally the plan was to wait until everyone can legally marry, but the children have changed the duo's hearts. Pitt also spoke of the parenting ways he and Jolie use to bring up their children, as well as how they get their alone time.

"Angie and I do everything we can to carve out some semblance of normalcy for them, to re-create the kinds of moments that were special for us."

How do things change once you tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a big step, and you both need to be serious about it. Cupid knows what's coming, so here's what to prepare yourself for before you tie the knot:

1. Less effort: Some look at marriage as the grand prize. If this is you, you may feel you worked hard enough to get here, so now it's time to relax. Not putting in as much time and effort to keep the relationship strong can lessen the meaning and power it once had.

2. Interest level: Forever is a long time. It's also enough time for one to get bored of the same old thing. Sometimes you're going to need to give your partner more space or spend extra time together to keep the relationship fresh.

3. Sharing and the future. There are so many important factors couples must consider before tying the knot. Prenups, living situations, and of course, children, are primary. Remember that, from now on, this person is a part of you. Make decisions together.

Newlywed Sara Rue Says She's Never Been Happier

Rules

of Engagement actress and Jenny Craig spokeswoman Sara Rue put her new hot body to use in a wedding dress recently and could not be happier. "I feel so lucky to have found someone as kind, funny and smart as Kevin (Price)," she recently gushed in UsMagazine.com. The two wed Saturday in a beach-themed affair, held at the Bel Air Bay Club in Malibu. The guest list was small, only 112 total for this "small and intimate" affair (according to wedding planner Rachel Hollis). "One of the first things Sara ever told me was that she was obsessed with butterflies and hummingbirds," Hollis spoke of the reception. "She loves specifically hummingbirds. She had this idea of a vintage inspired garden party and it evolved from there."

What are some ways to make your wedding reception unique?

Cupid's Advice:

Your big day should be everything you wished for and more, so why not change it up? Instead of the traditional wedding and reception, here are a few ways Cupid guarantees your wedding will stand out from others:

1. Themed wedding: Most feel this is tacky, but what better way to stand out? Agree on a theme with your partner and give your guests the most unforgettable wedding reception they've ever seen.

2. Top chef: Most of your guests have been to these before. They're over the traditional, cliché reception platters. Switch it up by considering a hibachi-style sushi bar or other personally-made entrées.

3. Make it meaningful: Share the amazing experiences you've shared with each other with everyone else throughout your special day. Select food and decoration choices based on what you've gone through as a couple.

How can you celebrate your wedding with family from two parts of the world?

Cupid's Advice:

Making both of your families happy can be tricky, and you'll need to compromise. Your wedding day is supposed to be one of the best days of your lives, and you'll of course want to share it with those you love. Cupid has a few ways you can make sure all of your family members and friends are included:

1. Destination wedding: This may be expensive, but why not go all out? Everyone can meet up and take a cruise through the tropics while you two exchange vows at sea.

2. The sympathy card: Guys, she's really stressed out right now, and she wants her day to be perfect. If she wants to get married in her hometown, have your family come to her. Those truly close to you will make arrangements to be there no matter what.

Choosing where to go and what to do on your honeymoon is one of the most stressful parts of the whole wedding planning process. Luckily, Cupid has some pointers on how to make those decisions a little bit easier:

1. Ask for opinions: Ask your family and friends where they think may be a good honeymoon destination for the two of you. Your friends and family know you well and will be able to give the best advice.

2. Pick one of your dream destinations: Everyone has that one place they'd love to go to, and your honeymoon is the perfect opportunity to live out that dream. If the two of you have two different ideas, compromise and pick a location that has a little of both of your destinations in it.

3. Meet with a travel agent: Sometimes travel agents have the best ideas of where to go on a honeymoon, based on good deals and unique locations. Meeting with an agent may open your eyes to a bunch of places you may not have known existed.

- 1. Do an "around the world" theme: Can't decide on what kind of food to serve at your wedding? Then choose all of them. Choosing dishes from multiple ethnicities can be fun for both you and your guests.
- 2. Recreate your first date: Even if you just went to a local diner, getting catered food from the place you went to on your first date is a great way to celebrate the beginnings of your relationship on your wedding day.

3. Go all out: If you have the budget and the taste for fine food, make your menu completely gourmet. It will be a meal your guests will always remember.

5 Celebrity Couples We Want to Reunite

By

Tanni Deb

We've all had a moment when we've stared wide eyed in utter shock at the TV screen after finding out our favorite celebrity couple has split, trying to figure out what went wrong. After all, this pair seemed to be in such a happy relationship!

There will always be famous duos that we think about months (or even years!) down the line, wondering if they'll ever reconcile. While the possibility may be a long shot, no one can help wishful thinking. With that said, here are five celebrity couples we would like to reunite:

1. Britney Spears and Justin Timberlake: The famous singers first met in 1993 on the sets of The Mickey Mouse Club and began dating five years later. They were everyone's favorite celebrity couple in the late 90's, but their relationship ended in 2002. After their breakup, Timberlake released 'Cry Me A River,' a revenge song for Ms. Spears herself. As much as everyone loved this musical duo it doesn't seem like they'll ever get back together – romantically, at least. We can hope for a musical collaboration, right?

2. Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey: Although wedding bells are ringing for both performers, who wouldn't like this aesthetically pleasing couple to reunite? The pair met in 1998 and within weeks of meeting each other, Lachey told his 98 Degrees band members Simpson would be his future bride. He proposed in 2002 and the marriage lasted for three years. Could Newlyweds, MTV's reality show which aired the couple's married life, be to blame?

3. Reese Witherspoon and Ryan Phillippe: This blonde coupling were married for seven year when they split in 2006. While they seemed to have a successful relationship, they spoke openly about having to work on their marriage, and underwent couples therapy in 2002. Despite Witherspoon's recent nuptials, we can't stop thinking of what a beautiful couple she and Phillippe made.

4. Scarlett Johansson and Ryan Reynolds: After only two years of marriage, the pair called it quits in 2010. Rumor had it that Reynolds had an affair with Gossip Girl star Blake Lively, and Us Weekly reported that he told friends Johansson “treated him badly.” Though the Lost in Translation actress has certainly moved on, we wonder if she and her ex-husband will ever reconcile.

5. Courteney Cox and David Arquette: They fell in love on the set of Scream in the mid-90s, tied the knot in 1999, had their first child in 2004 and then shocked the world when they announced their separation in 2010. However, the couple isn’t giving up, as they’re currently undergoing marriage counseling. We wish these two the best of luck!

These are just a few of the many celebrity couples we’d love to see together again. Which celebrity do you want to see back with their ex? Let us know in a comment below!

Kristin Cavallari Talks Wedding Plans With Jay Cutler

Professional party girl and former Hills star Kristin Cavallari revealed she will marry fiancé Jay Cutler next spring. She also recently spoke of let loose some exciting wedding details! “I’m trying to decide between a really small, intimate wedding or a huge, blowout party-type wedding,” Cavallari told People. “If I have a big wedding, then yes, some (cast mates) will be invited,” she says. “If I have a small, intimate wedding, it will probably just be family and really close friends.” Cavallari decided on a Monique Lhuillier gown and takes ideas from wedding magazines. She will meet with planners within the next few weeks. The former reality TV star may or not be customizing her own shoes. She and her NFL quarterback fiancé will wed at home in Chicago, Illinois, since it’s closest to their families.

How do you explain why you didn’t invite someone to your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

Weddings are expensive, and there isn’t room for everyone. However, people get offended if they don’t make the cut. Here are ways to nicely and honestly tell someone why you chose not to include them on your big day:

1. Keep it clear: Set standards and agree on them. For example, if you agree to include strictly family and close friends, don't invite someone you haven't seen for a really long time. It shouldn't be difficult to explain why you didn't invite someone if they've been a distant presence in your life.

2. Dates and children: Not everyone needs a date, and not everyone's kids should be there. Keep it to nieces, nephews and godchildren, but no more than extended family. This will cut the list drastically and avoid stress. You also don't want too many strangers around, so don't allow everyone to bring dates.

3. Don't bring work home: It's your wedding, and you deserve a good time. Don't feel pressured to invite every single colleague, especially if you don't have a personal relationship. Stick to the select few to whom you feel close.

How did you explain to people not invited to your wedding why they weren't invited? Comment below.

Dean McDermott Dazzles Tori Spelling With Anniversary Ring

Tori

Spelling's husband, Dean McDermott, surprised her on their fifth wedding anniversary with a Neil Lane antique ring featuring a pink pearl from the 1800's. What are some creative anniversary traditions?

Cupid's Advice:

Having creative anniversary traditions are exciting, but coming up with one can be quite difficult. But don't worry; Cupid has a few ideas:

1. Hers/His favorite items: What is your special someone obsessed with? Surprise her every anniversary with different varieties her favorite item (i.e. a specific piece of jewelry or part of a music box collection).

2. Vacation: Who doesn't love going on trips? He or she will definitely appreciate a vacation to can relax and de-stress.

Visit a new location each year.

3. Frames: Pictures are a wonderful way to capture memories. Why not gift your significant other with a picture of the best time you both spent together that year?

Prince William and Kate Middleton Are On Their Honeymoon

After a week of working and shopping post-wedding, the new royal newlyweds finally left on their honeymoon, reports People. Prince William, now the Duke of Cambridge, reportedly has a two week vacation from his duties with the RAF Search and Rescue Squadron, an organization with which the prince has rescued several people in the mountains of Wales. Kate Middleton, the new Duchess of Cambridge, was surprised with the honeymoon destination, though British tabloids are speculating that the couple will visit Seychelles, a collection of small islands near Madagascar.

What are some reasons to keep the honeymoon destination a secret?

Cupids Advice:

While most brides want to plan every aspect of their weddings, the honeymoon is often beyond their control. Here are a few reasons why the bride should not know of her destination:

1. Put the groom to work: While this isn't true of all couples, the bride usually takes a larger part in the wedding planning process. By assigning your fiancé one task (the honeymoon), you ensure that each of you contributes to the occasion.

2. Surprise: While the lack of information can be maddening, when you finally arrive at your destination, you'll be glad you were kept in the dark. Surprises are always fun, especially when you face them with your new husband.

3. Your stress: Getting married is stressful. By putting the honeymoon out of your mind, you can lessen the weight on your shoulders. Instead of worrying over details like transportation and lodging, you can instead look forward to the experience you will have with your new husband.

1. Take an interest: Whether it’s a record release bash or a simple dinner with co-workers, attending these events shows that you respect your partner and what he or she is doing in life.

2. Have a romantic evening: After a big business deal is closed or an important project is finished, plan a nice, romantic evening with just the two of you. It shows that you've been paying attention to what they are doing and that you're there for them no matter what.

Marie Osmond Re-Wears Wedding Dress to Re-Marry Stephen Craig

When

Marie Osmond remarried her first husband, Stephen Craig, in Las Vegas on Wednesday, guests at the wedding must have experienced a total déjÀ vu. The Donny and Marie star walked down the aisle in the same wedding dress she had the first time around! However, she did update the look a bit with a new veil and a set of chunky pearls. According to People, the actress didn't originally plan on wearing her old dress. After picking out a wedding dress, Osmond began to have second thoughts about it. It was then that she began cleaning out her garage and came across the gown she had worn at the first wedding.

What are some ideas for the “something old” part of your wedding attire?

Cupid's Advice:

Tradition has it that a bride should have something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue on her wedding day. Cupid has some suggestions as to what your “something old” could be:

1. Grandmother's jewelry: Since your wedding day is a day unlike any other, your jewelry has to stand out. See if your grandmother has anything on hand to be your “something old.”

An elegant string of pearls goes great with almost any wedding dress.

2. An old garter: If you can't locate a garter that was used in a previous family member's wedding, then go to a vintage store and pick one out.

3. A vintage veil: Though your mother looked ravishing once upon a time in her wedding dress, it's probably out of style by now, especially if she got married in the 80's. That said, if you'd like to use some aspect of you parents' wedding in your attire, the veil may be an excellent choice. Unlike dresses, veils are one size fits all.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Prepared the Kids for Their Wedding

LeAnn

Rimes and Eddie Cibrian sat down and had a very important conversation with Cibrian's young sons three days before their wedding, according to People. Because it's Cibrian's second marriage, he wanted mason, 7, and Jake, 4, to know exactly what to expect on the big day. "The kids have known we were getting married since we got engaged," said Rimes. "We explained that they were going to have two families." Cibrian chimed in, saying, "The kids come first in everything we do. We wanted to make sure LeAnn and my wedding was not only ours, but their party too. They were beyond excited to celebrate us all coming together as a family." Rimes and Cibrian took the kids' role in their future marriage very seriously, as they even went to therapy to learn the best way to communicate with them.

How do you explain a second marriage to your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not always easy to make children feel comfortable when it comes to one of their parents remarrying. Cupid has some advice on how to handle the situation:

1. Attend therapy: Take a cue from LeAnn Rime and Eddie Cibrian. If you're not quite sure how to explain a second marriage to your kids or how they may react, attending therapy as a family is a great idea. Everyone will be able to talk about their feelings in a safe environment.

2. Make it fun: A great way to get through to your kids may be to turn the situation into a game or fairy tale. Have a family game night where the kids are most comfortable and casually explain the situation. This way the children are calm and more receptive to the news.

3. Be honest: Simply be up front and explain to the kids how you two truly love each other and just because you're getting married, it doesn't mean you'll love them any less. Explain that a second marriage may be different, but different in a good way.

Mariah Carey and Nick Cannon: New Parents On Their Anniversary!

Diva crooner Mariah Carey gave birth to beautiful twins on her and Nick Cannon's third wedding anniversary. According to People, the new dad tweeted, "My wife just gave me the most incredible anniversary gift ever in life!” The happy couple received many congratulations over Twitter from Hollywood moguls such as Nicki Minaj and Alyssa Milano after the birth of a healthy baby boy and girl. They are completely overjoyed.

How do you keep your anniversary romantic when you have kids?

Cupid’s Advice:

Once you have kids, the lives of you and your partner will be forever changed. However, that doesn’t mean you can’t make a little time for yourselves as a couple, especially on days such as your anniversary:

1. Hire a babysitter: Even parents need a night off. Hiring a sitter is a great way to make time for yourself and to teach your children independence.

2. Celebrate as a family: Your kids are an important part of your life as a couple. A great way to include them in your anniversary celebration is to take a trip as a family. As long as your kids are old enough, you can always get separate rooms (next to each other, of course).

3. Have a romantic dinner at home: Providing that the kids stay asleep, celebrating your anniversary at home can be a lot cheaper and more convenient than going out.
