Health Advice: Victoria's Secret Angels' Pregnancy Fitness

By Katie Sotack

With each Victoria's Secret fashion show, we're brought a parade of beautiful bodies strutting down the runway with toned arms and killer legs. These Angels are no stranger to a fit lifestyle even while pregnant. Models like Gisele Bündchen and Behati Prinsloo don't miss a beat because of their baby bumps. The Victoria's Secret Angels are here to prove fitness is an achievable lifestyle no matter the circumstance.

Angels follow strict health advice to be runway ready with a baby on board. How can the average expecting mother use their fitness tips to stay toned?

Regardless of the situation, fitness requires dedication and an inner drive. Once you have that it's all about knowing where to start. Following the Victoria's Secret Angels' routines and tricks will give your pregnancy a healthy boost. Here are the health tips for a pregnant celebrity workout and diet.

1. Start before pregnancy: During a sit down with your doctor, they're likely to say it's bad form to lose weight while pregnant. Not to mention the time to try strenuous workouts belongs before pregnancy in order to avoid stressing your baby. Being fit while carrying is about maintaining rather than achieving. This requires some planning on your part. If a fit pregnancy is important to you, begin a routine before you start trying.

Related Link: Product Review: Try Peloton and Be Your Best Self

2. Angel's workout: The models follow a strict body sculpting routine. For the first six weeks of training exclusively engage in cardio like swimming, dancing, or running. In the following six weeks focus on interval workouts which involve building muscle. The trick to a lean muscle is keeping the weight low and the reps high. The ratio should be twenty minutes of cardio to 15-20 weight reps, alternating back and forth throughout the workout.

3. A colorful plate: Angel mummies don't count calories as restricting can affect milk production and thus the development of your baby. Rather, pre-, post-, and during pregnancy fitness is about making healthy choices. Your meals should be colorful. Pile on the bright veggies to match with a white protein like chicken or fish. Carbs are essential as well, just lower the portion size and keep it brown (as in whole wheat/grain).

4. Post-pregnancy: To lose weight post-delivery, it's recommended to begin with leisurely walks. Anything harder than that should be preceded by medical clearance and be relatively low impact. Move onto water aerobics for cardio before adding light weight lifting. Respect where your body is and know it won't spring back to its pre-pregnancy levels immediately.

5. It's their job: While working to emulate an Angel body during pregnancy it's important to realize your limitations. For Victoria's Secret models it's their literal job to sculpt and tone their body while making sure to eat right. But for the average person getting to the gym for hours and knowing exactly what to eat is challenging. Not to mention the pregnancy cravings and fatigue. Give yourself leeway to have an ice cream cone every once in a while.

Exercising will only make you stronger and will help you recover faster after giving birth to your new little one. This celebrity mom looks amazing. You might be interested in these fitness tips for working out after having a baby if you want your pre-baby body back.

In these fitness tips, find out how working out will benefit you after having a baby!

Exercise after having a baby is recommended because you'll heal faster and build your strength while toning your muscles. Not only will it physically help you heal, but you'll be in a better mood and have more energy when exercising. Physical activity relieves stress and helps you to lose weight, which leads to you becoming a fitter and happier version of yourself. Cupid has some fitness advice to help you decide on a workout routine after having a baby:

1. Abdominal exercises: When you are a new mom, you'll want to start out with low-risk exercises such as abdominal bracing. For this exercise, pull in your lower tummy towards your spine and brace for a few seconds. These can be done three to four times a day in reps of eight to twelve. Stop working out if you experience any pain. Physical activity is beneficial, but not if you push your body too hard too soon.

2. Pelvic floor exercises: Another low-risk option for new moms are pelvic floor exercises. You can sit and lean slightly forward while keeping a straight back. Squeeze your pelvic muscles for a few seconds. Do these in reps of eight to twelve.

3. Walking: Walking is another great way to exercise after having a baby. You can walk on a treadmill, or put your new son or daughter in the stroller. Take a nice walk around the neighborhood. Not only is it a good and safe exercise after childbirth, but it will get you out of the house for some sunshine. It's also a fantastic mood booster!

4. Swimming: You'll want to avoid high impact workouts. Swimming is an ideal way to exercise post-childbirth. You can exercise without any of the impacts you'll experience with something like running. You'll have fun in the water, too!

5. Rest after your workout: When you're a new mom, rest seems like something impossible to come by with a newborn who isn't on your schedule. It is important to take a few moments after a workout to rest because it can help replenish your strength and leave you feeling rested and restored.

Celebrity Workout: Take Leg Day to the Next Level like Jessica Biel

By Bonnie Griffin

These days there are so many different diets and workout programs around it can be hard to choose one that will work for you. Well, Jessica Biel keeps her legs toned with the most intense celebrity workout, doing a variation of skater squats. According to Shape.com, Biel “is known for taking leg day to the next level.”

Fitness Trend: Want to up your leg game? Turn up your leg day like Jessica Biel in her celebrity workout.

Maybe you don't have a trainer to push you to do ten sets of six intense skater squats to keep your legs toned like Jessica Biel's, but you can turn up your leg day right from home. Remember, when you are building muscle, your body can get strained, so it is important to space leg days at least forty-eight hours apart to give things time to heal. You don't want to end up burning off the muscle you just worked so hard to gain. Here are some great leg workouts that will keep you sweating and have your legs looking like a celebrity's in no time.

1. Goblet squats: This squat is one you can easily do at home. According to LiveStrong.com, you want to spread your feet wider than your hips, and sit back until your thighs are even with the floor, then come back up. Better yet, add in a dumbbell or kettle-bell and hold it chest height as you squat. Don't have your own weights at home? No problem. Grab a gallon of water or the laundry detergent and put your strong leg game to work. For best results, try to complete at least three sets of ten reps and rest thirty seconds between each rep.

2. Walking lunges: Walking lunges are challenging enough that no extra weight/resistance are required to put your legs through a great workout. However, if you feel like the lunges are too easy, or you feel like you want to push yourself a little more, grab that gallon of water again and hold it up to your chest with each lung you take. You should keep your feet hip-distance apart, and step three to four feet forward with one leg and bend the other knee. Rise up and step forward to lunge, then repeat.

3. Step up: The step up workout can be easily done from home. Grab a small bench or chair that is no more than twenty-four inches from the ground. Lift one leg and step up, step down, and repeat with the other leg going to the top of the chair first. If you want to add some extra "gain" to your workout, grab your dumbbells or gallon jug of water one more time.

Squats, lunges, and stepping up are all great ways to tone your legs and really take your leg days to all new heights. Let us know your favorite leg workouts in the comments below!

Celebrities are always showing off their fitness methods and are eager to share new ideas!

Dying to learn how to get the perfect beach body this summer? Check out these awesome celebrity workout tips!

1. Mix it up: When you first start working out, you tend to stick to the things you know. You go running every day, or you spend all your time lifting weights. Singer Ellie Goulding says the key to her workout is mixing up her routine! Spend one day at the gym doing cardio, another day go try boxing, and a different day lifting weights. As long as you have variety, you will never get bored.

2. Update your diet: One of the simplest and most effective ways of improving your health and fitness is to enhance your diet. Cut out unhealthy things like sugar and sweets and add more protein to your meals. Performer Calvin Harris achieved this when he showed off his daily breakfast. Each day, he makes a mouth watering, egg white omelette with smoked salmon and spinach. His routine is a perfect example of how you can eat well and still have it be delicious!

Celebrity Workout: How to Drastically Lose Weight Like Jonah Hill

By Melissa Lee

Although this mega Hollywood actor has had his fair share of weight fluctuations throughout the years, Jonah Hill has recently been spotted looking fitter – and thinner – than ever. Hill, who has considered himself to be a victim of “yo-yo dieting”, reportedly sought help from his 21 Jump Street co-star Channing Tatum. Tatum apparently pointed him the right direction and helped him find a team of nutritionalists and personal trainers so Hill could finally lose the weight in a healthy manner. After dropping at least 50 pounds, Hill is Hollywood’s newest fitness inspiration.

Check out some of these celebrity workouts and fitness tips to shed the pounds off just like Jonah Hill!

1. Alcohol hurts: Before his weight loss journey began, Jonah Hill was no stranger to binge drinking, beer being his favorite beverage of all. After meeting with a nutritionalist and attempting to find a way to drink beer and still lose weight, he ultimately saw the effects it was having on his body. “It’s so annoying because if I don’t drink beer, I get really, really thin. Then when I drink beer, I get a little bigger,” Hill says. The lesson here? Either learn to indulge in alcohol every now and then, or ditch the empty calories altogether.

2. Say goodbye to those nasty cigarettes: As if anyone needed anymore reasons to dislike cigarettes, here’s another one: you can gain anywhere from five to ten pounds from quitting. People tend to substitute food with the lack of nicotine they’re receiving, but you’re better off altogether by quitting, despite the reported weight gain. Treat your body with respect and finally say goodbye to any remaining packs you may have.

3. End the battle with yo-yo dieting: Hill himself has expressed his frustration with yo-yo dieting – otherwise known as losing weight quickly and then gaining it all back. A recent study in the International Journal of Obesity reported that yo-yo dieting can serve some severe damage to your cardiovascular system, along with potentially increasing your risk of diabetes and heart disease.

4. Plan your grocery trips: Food shopping can tend to be an intimidating activity when you're trying to lose weight, but here's a way to help make the process a little bit easier. Make a list of items that you need (and be sure to stick to it!), and go food shopping after you've eaten a healthy breakfast. This way, you aren't particularly hungry while shopping, which should prevent you from stocking up on unnecessary snacks.

5. Chew: While this tip may sound a little ridiculous, trust us when we say it's not! Try your best to chew each bite at least 40 times when eating a meal. In a recent study, it was found that people that chewed their food more than twelve times ate less than those that didn't. It's even believed that chewing longer can lead to a more satisfied feeling.
