In celebrity news, Chad Johnson is publicly accusing his girlfriend of cheating in front of him. What are some ways to handle things when you find out your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

It can feel like a shot to the gut when you find out your partner has been cheating, especially if you thought you were both somewhere early in the relationship but your partner didn't have the same understanding. Cupid has some advice on how to handle things when you find out your partner has been cheating:

1. Don't publicly blast them: If there is any chance of saving your relationship, publicly announcing your partner's behavior is a sure way to destroy any chance you may have at fixing it. Slip-ups happen. Don't immediately turn them into the bad guy. Plus, it makes you look bad in the process.

2. Try to understand why it happened: Give your partner a chance to explain. Were they caught up in the moment at a party with friends? Did they not understand the grounds of the relationship? Don't let them off the hook too easily, but also don't immediately write them off.

3. Evaluate your options: Are they sorry? Was the cheating enough to make you want to end the relationship, or could you see yourself giving them a second chance? It's okay to take a step back to emotionally distance yourself from the situation until you're ready to make a decision.

Though star JoJo Fletcher has already eliminated Johnson from the competition for his bully-like behavior toward the other guys, he's not done yet. UsMagazine.com reported that in a celebrity interview with Andy Cohen on Monday, June 27, Johnson claimed that guys on the show are "acting all nice and like they're such good guys when at the end of the day, they're cheating on their girlfriends, half of them broke up with girlfriends to go on the show." In celebrity news, The Bachelorette drama continues! What are some ways to tell that your crush is still attached to a former fling?

Cupid's Advice

It's clear that Chad isn't letting go. While causing drama on a reality television show is not something people do on the regular, falling for someone who is still attached to a former fling is a pretty common occurrence. Here's how to tell if your crush's heart isn't up for grabs:

1. Wearing your heart on your sleeve: If your crush is still wearing the clothes his or her ex left behind, the attachment is probably still there. If the person you're crushing on has made no attempt to remove or get rid of reminders of an ex, take it as a warning sign.

2. Topic of conversation: If all your crush can talk about is an ex, watch out. Whether your crush is praising or bashing the past relationship, the fact that it is being frequently brought up means it's still on his or her mind.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Villain Chad Johnson Defends Bad Behavior

By Stephanie Sacco

One of the biggest villains in the history of The Bachelorette came from JoJo Fletcher's season. Chad Johnson, the luxury realtor and nobody's favorite housemate, had something mean to say about just about everyone in the house. He also threatened one or two of them. However, according to UsMagazine.com he told Jimmy Kimmel post-elimination, "At the end of the day, it is a show so things are amplified. We try to be ourselves and we try to be who we are, but at the same time, whoever you are is amplified up about a million times." In celebrity news and gossip, Johnson has been seen with an ex of one of his fellow competitors, Robby Hayes. He'll be sure to start some trouble this August when he appears on Bachelor in Paradise. We'll have to wait and see.

This celebrity news has us skeptical about Chad's sincerity. What are some benefits to avoiding the bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

The idea of a bad boy is always better than the reality. You see them in movies and books and believe that deep down they have a soft spot. Cupid is here to set the record straight:

1. Nice guys finish first: Bad boys might look nice (think James Dean), but deep down they may not always be the right guy. If you're looking for fun and no commitment, maybe you'll find that in a bad boy. However, most of the time it's just trouble. A nice guy will always treat you well.

2. Less heartbreak: A bad boy doesn't always stick around, and you need somebody who isn't going to break your heart (at least not on purpose). Find a guy who is all about you and who won't let you down. Don't settle for anything less than the best.

3. They're immature: Wearing a leather jacket or riding a motorbike isn't cool forever. After a while, it just gets old. There's nothing cool about being treated badly, and if your bad boy isn't respecting you, kick him to the curb.
