

Celebrity Break-Up: Jessie J Posts About 'Unhealthy Love' After Channing Tatum Split

By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Jessie J revealed details about her relationship with Channing Tatum after their split, referring to the relationship as “unhealthy love.” According to UsMagazine.com, the singer made reference to her relationship with Tatum on her Instagram Story when she included a quote about avoiding relationship timelines and emphasized falling in love at any age. The celebrity couple dated on-and-off for the past two years before officially announcing their celebrity break-up earlier this year.

In celebrity break-up news, Jessie J is seemingly speaking out about her unhealthy relationship with Channing Tatum. What are some tell-tale signs that you're in an unhealthy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

1. There's no compromise: One of the most important aspects of a relationship is the willingness to compromise. It is likely that you and your partner will not agree on everything, but when both people are willing to compromise in different ways, it allows for healthy communication and an overall healthy relationship. However, if your partner is not compromising in any way and you are constantly forced to follow their decisions, you are in an unhealthy relationship.

2. Other areas of your life are impacted: Unhealthy relationships can cause a great deal of stress and frustration when you are around your partner, but these feelings can also spread into other areas of your life. If you feel yourself getting frustrated with your other friends or work environment but are unsure why, it may be stemming from stress that started in your relationship.

3. You feel worse about yourself: The person you are in a relationship with should never leave you questioning your own worth or how much they care about you. While nearly every relationship goes through a rough patch, there should never be a time where your partner makes you feel like less of a person. This willingness to put you down shows a lack of overall respect and is likely a sign of unhealthy love.

Celebrity Exes: Jessie J Shares Sweet Birthday Tribute to Channing Tatum Weeks After Split

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Jessie J. wished Channing Tatum a happy birthday over the weekend. Just weeks after these celebrity exes called it quits, EOnline.com states that the “Domino” singer took to social media to give Tatum a big 40th birthday shout-out. “Happy 40th birthday to this special man right here,” Jessie wrote alongside a photo of Channing in the water. “I am so grateful you were born, and even more grateful that we met.” She even shared a video of him in the water with the caption, “Keep living your BEST life.”

These celebrity exes seem to be taking the high road. What are some benefits to keeping a civil relationship with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone knows how difficult it can be to stay on good terms with an ex. It’s possible, but it can take a while to get to a point where you’re both balanced enough to have some sort of friendship outside of the relationship. If you’re figuring out the pros and cons of taking the high road with an ex, don’t worry. Cupid has some love advice on the benefits that staying civil with your ex can bring:

1. Someone to confide in: No one else was apart of the relationship other than your ex. So, if you’re having a difficult time healing or moving on in other relationships, they can be the perfect person to confide in. They know parts of you no one else does, and that can be very beneficial in the long run.

2. Beneficial for the kids: If you and your ex have children together, it is very good to try and keep a civil relationship with their other parent. It can be difficult enough to split your kids up between the two of you, but it will be a lot better for everyone if you're able to still act as that family unit around your children.

3. The work environment: Sometimes, you find that splitting up can be sticky for more reasons than one. If you both work around each other, the work environment can get awkward and tense real quick. If you're able to find a common ground to stand on with an ex, it can make both of your work spaces that much more bearable. Trust me, your coworkers will thank you.

Celebrity News: Jenna Dewan Opens Up About Love, Divorce

and Healing in New Book

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, Jenna Dewan opens up about her life and journey in her new book titled Gracefully You. The actress released her a joint statement with her ex-husband, Channing Tatum in April 2018 in which they announced their celebrity divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple ended their nearly ten-year relationship on positive terms and work together to raise their six-year-old daughter, Everly. Since then, Tatum has been in a relationship with singer Jessie J, and Dewan is expecting a child with new boyfriend, Steve Kazez. In her book, Dewan shared what got her through her divorce with Tatum, stating “acknowledge your emotions and do the work. Meet with a therapist, look into breathwork, meditate, take walks in nature, and have wine with your friends.”

In celebrity news, Jenna Dewan turned to writing to help heal her broken heart. What are some other healthy avenues for coping with lost love?

Cupid's Advice:

Jenna Dewan shared her relationship advice on how to deal with and heal from a devastating break-up. She was able to move on and find peace and love again. Cupid has some advice to help you find yourself again after a difficult break-up:

1. Therapy: If you're feeling an overwhelming amount of emotion, a therapist can help you cope with them in a healthy way. Speaking to a therapist will allow you to discover how to handle intense emotions while also guiding you through this rough time so you don't have to go through it alone.

Celebrity Baby News: Jenna Dewan & Boyfriend Steve Kazee Are Expecting

 By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Step Up star Jenna Dewan is waiting for a bundle of joy to arrive, as she is expecting a celebrity baby with her boyfriend, actor Steve Kazee. This will be Jenna Dewan's second child. The celebrity parent had her first child with her heart throb co-star and ex-husband Channing Tatum. According to UsMagazine.com, Dewan's celebrity ex was crying while she was giving birth to their daughter. The Magic Mike star told the magazine, "I probably went to the bathroom four times [at the hospital] and had a crying fit. Like, I'm just like, 'I don't know what to do!'" Tatum later added that "seeing the one you love in pain makes you feel bad, Men are useless, but we are really useless during [the delivery process]."

In celebrity baby news, Jenna Dewan is preparing to welcome her second child – her first with Steve Kazee. What are some ways to prepare for the birth of your second child?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a little one into the world can be very time consuming and stressful if you aren't prepared. Having your second child should be easier, right? Not exactly! Sometimes it can be easier if you have the same gender as you did previously, especially if you have a lot of baby clothes and bottles left over. Babies have a mind of their own just like humans. They can't directly tell you how they're feeling, but you'll catch their drift once they start crying. The second can be tricky and different for everyone. Cupid has some tips and tricks to help you through this journey:

1. Don't assume this will be easy: Every child and pregnancy is different. Try to keep an open mind, especially with the second child. Even though this is the second child, there's still a lot to learn about being a parent. Also, if you aren't the one having the child, be there for your partner.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Plan To Fail and Be Okay With It

2. Don't compare the two children: When the baby is born, it's okay to assume who they look like and whose personality they might have. It is important that you try to not compare your children in the beginning stages of life. Yes, they might do some of the same things that older brother or sister do/did, but it's not a good habit to keep comparing the two. You want your baby to be their own person and not a younger version of your first child.

3. Relax: Everything will work out fine if you are less stressed. The baby will come and you'll be fine. Don't overthink anything or expect the worse. Just hope for a healthy and happy baby, because that's truly all that matters.

Celebrity Divorce: Channing Tatum & Jenna Dewan's Split

Is Becoming ‘Challenging and Emotional’

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, celebrity exes Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan are having trouble keeping an amicable relationship. According to UsMagazine.com, a source told them that the couple’s split is becoming challenging and emotional. The couple separated in April 2018 following nearly nine years of marriage. Tatum, 38, filed for joint custody of their daughter, Everly, 5, and the process is becoming very lengthy. The doting father detailed, in his hearing, how much he loves to spend time with his daughter and included the fact that he decorated her room in his rental home in a fairy-tale theme just so she’d feel comfortable there.

This celebrity divorce started out amicable, but it’s becoming challenging. What are some ways to stay rational in the midst of a split?

Cupid’s Advice:

Breaking up with someone you truly cared about and shared your life with is extremely difficult. It can put a lot of stress on you, both physically and emotionally. Here are some ways to stay rational in the midst of your split:

1. Unfriend them on social media: Keeping a close watch on what your ex is posting on social media can make what you’re going through so much more difficult. To avoid any irrational behavior that may be triggered by their social media posts, unfriend them immediately!

Celebrity Break-Up: Channing Tatum & Jenna Dewan Silence Rumors About Their Split

 By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan Tatum have announced their separation. They released this news on Instagram stating, “Absolutely nothing has changed about how much we love one another, but love is a beautiful adventure that is taking us on different paths for now.” They added, “There are no secrets nor salacious events at the root of our decision—just two best-friends realizing it’s time to take some space and help each other live the most joyous, fulfilled lives as possible. We are still a family and will always be loving dedicated parents to Everly.” Yet, rumors are still arising as to why the pair is splitting. Some say this celebrity break-up was caused by flirting and drinking. A source tells EOnline.com that these rumors are not true. “We understand that everyone is super interested in speculating on their private life and that there are people who think they have an idea of the inner life of this relationship, but it’s simply not the case,” the source says. “The media is fabricating stories and none of these accusations are remotely true. Channing and Jenna released an honest and loving statement which is the only truth.” The former celebrity couple plans to continue their lives as best friends caring for their 4-year-old daughter, Everly.

There simply isn’t truth to many of the rumors about Channing and Jenna’s recent celebrity break-up. What are some ways to communicate your break-up to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes the hardest thing about breaking-up is breaking the news to your friends and family that have rooted you on all this time. Fortunately, it is your closest friends and family, so they will understand that this is the right decision for you and respect that. Here are some ways to break the break-up news:

1. Social media: If the majority of your friends and family use social media on a daily basis, this may be the quickest, most efficient way to get the word out. You can do something similarly to what Channing and Jenna did and thoroughly explain that there are no hard feelings in order to decrease the potential spreading of rumors.

2. Talk in person and reassure that this is for the best: Maybe hold a small gathering with your friends and family and casually slip in the news over dinner. Be ready for some questions and criticism. Explain everything to them honestly and let them know that this is for the best and everything is going to be just fine.

3. Take time to tell everyone personally: If you are feeling up to it, it may be beneficial for you to take the time to call each individual person that you need to break the news to. By doing this, you will get genuine feedback and support from each person. Call your gal pals first because they will most likely be the most ready to accept the information. Then call grandma, she will be sure to give you some words of wisdom and tell you that she loves you. Try not to stress so much about breaking the news, everyone will be happy as long as they know you are on the right path to being happy as well.

Celebrity Break-Up: Channing Tatum & Jenna Dewan Tatum Are Still Living Together Post-Split

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan Tatum have announced their peaceful separation. Although, according to UsMagazine.com, the two haven't been lovey dovey in a while. "They haven't been 'together' for a while. They are best friends and still support each other and go to each other's events and live in the same house," a source said. Apparently the former celebrity couple seems to be better as friends than as romantic partners at the moment, and there are no hard feelings about that.

This celebrity break-up took us all by surprise, and the duo are still co-habiting. What are some ways to decide who will move out after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have been together with someone for a long time, moving out can be a very upsetting experience. You have come to a point where you are so comfortable with each other. How can you decide who is going to move out? Cupid has some words of wisdom on how to handle this situation:

1. Decide legally: You can go the simple route and whoever's name is on the lease gets to stay. Although sometimes, it is more complicated than that if both of you two have your names on it.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Channing Tatum & Jenna Dewan Tatum Split After 9 Years of Marriage

2. Get a counselor: You don't need a counselor just when you are working to try to make your relationship better, you can still use one once you two are officially apart. It doesn't hurt to have a professional help you decide where to go from here.

3. Don't let your emotions overtake: Have a rational discussion with your ex-partner to figure out what would make the most sense to do. Try not to become too attached to the small things. Have an open mind and realize that you now have this opportunity to either move out and start a beautiful new life in a wonderful new place, or you get to redecorate the home you are in now! Either option is an opportunity for growth.

Celebrity Break-Up: Channing Tatum & Jenna Dewan Tatum Split After 9 Years of Marriage

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan Tatum announced their separation on Instagram this past Monday. A part of the statement read, “We have lovingly chosen to separate as a couple. We fell deeply in love so many years ago and have had a magical journey together. Absolutely nothing has changed about how much we love one another, but love is a beautiful adventure that is taking us on different paths for now. There are no secrets nor salacious events at the root of our decision – just two best-friends realizing it’s time to take some space and help each other live the most joyous, fulfilled lives as possible. We are still a family and will always be loving dedicated parents to Everly. We won’t be commenting beyond this, and we thank you all in advance for respecting our family’s privacy.” According to UsMagazine.com, the pair had their celebrity wedding in 2009. They also share 4-year-old daughter, Everly, but they have made it clear that they are going to make efforts so that this separation will not affect her in a negative way.

This celebrity break-up is so disappointing to us! What are some ways to work on your marriage prior to calling it quits?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a lifelong commitment that must be worked on day in and day out. Sometimes it may get rocky along the way, but try not to give up! Here are some ways to work on your marriage before breaking it off:

1. Remember why you got married: You are going to need some motivation if you want to avidly work on your marriage during a rough time. Try your best to remember why you got married in the first place. Ponder the amazing assets of your partner and visualize the amazing wedding that you shared together. Maybe even try to do things that you used to do when you first started dating or when you first got married in order to ignite that spark again and become motivated for this improvement process.

2. Take a walk together each day: It sounds so simple yet it is so beneficial. Taking time out of each of your days to take a nice stroll around your neighborhood will give you and your partner an opportunity to discuss your feelings and further hone the bond that you have. You can talk about how your day went and then get into some serious points as to why you are needing to work on your marriage. Being in the outdoors will also help you and your partner to be more open and happy while conversing.

Celebrity Couple News: Channing Tatum Recalls 'Cruel' Proposal Tactic

 By Melissa Lee

Channing Tatum recently reflected on his plan to propose to his now wife, Jenna Dewan Tatum, which ended up being... well, pretty cruel. According to UsMagazine.com, Tatum wanted to propose in 2008 but when he thought his wife was onto him, he tried to throw her off. "I basically told her I never wanted to get married," Tatum reveals. "I told her, 'I don't believe in the institution of marriage and I don't think I ever want to get married.' She basically broke down crying." Apparently Dewan Tatum's reaction broke his heart, because he realized he had to propose sooner than later. Thankfully, she said yes, and the celebrity couple have been married since 2009.

This celebrity couple news has us shaking our heads at Channing Tatum. What are some ways to throw your partner off the scent when you're about to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're attempting to keep your proposal a secret, there are better ways to do so instead of taking your partner on an emotional rollercoaster (sorry, Channing!). Head below for some of Cupid's advice on throwing your lover off when it comes to the big proposal:

1. Stay quiet: Instead of bringing up any hints of marriage or proposing, just stay silent about the topic. This way you aren't even bringing the thought to their attention, plus it'll make it seem like you aren't even thinking about it. Don't do this for too long, though – you don't want to pull a Channing and have your partner think that you're not even interested in getting married!

2. Make it a complete surprise: Try to surprise your partner with the proposal by having them think you're doing something simple. For example, take them out on a date night and then propose at the end of the night, making it a memorable yet quaint night. You could also go on a weekend getaway and plan a romantic surprise, catching them off guard entirely.

3. Do it when they're least expecting: On the other hand, you could also propose when they're least expecting it. Make your partner breakfast in bed and pop the question just as they're done digging in. If your lover is into a more simple approach, surprise proposals would be picture perfect.

Celebrity Couple News: Jenna Dewan Tatum Explains How She and Channing Began Dating

 By Mallory McDonald

Celebrity couple Jenna Dewan and Channing Tatum have been celebrity couple goals for what feels like forever. UsMagazine.com learned what Jenna revealed to Ellen on The Ellen DeGeneres Show this past Tuesday. "I said, 'Well look, if you want to date other people and be free that's totally fine. But we're not gonna hang out and watch movies,'" she recalled to DeGeneres, 59. "'You have to figure out what you want because I want a relationship.'" Three days later Channing showed up at her hotel room saying, "He said he had the chance to be free and he couldn't stop thinking about me," she said, laughing. "He's in a sombrero, underwear and Ugg boots and said, 'Let's do this.'" The two had a celebrity wedding in July of 2009 and they've been inseparable ever since!

This celebrity couple news has us giggling, because sometimes it can take a grand gesture to show your interest in someone. What are some big ways you can show your crush you're into him or her?

Cupid's Advice:

Grand gestures are always a good idea for impressing that special dating tips for how to make your crush feel special:

1. Social media love: While this may not seem extremely grand, in this technology-filled world of dating, liking and commenting on your crushes photos and information can really notify them you are into them. Leave a heart eye emoji or a smiling face on their most recent picture.

Kissing Co-Stars: On and Off-Screen Celebrity Couples

By Katie Gray

When couples on-screen become real celebrity couples off-screen, we get extra excited. What could be better than falling in love with a movie relationship, and then learning that it is actually a reality? It's a fairy tale come true when it becomes an actual celebrity relationship! Whether the relationships last or are just a fling, it's fun while it lasts. In many cases, it's ended in celebrity weddings and celebrity babies. We can all take a cue and relationship advice from these cute celeb couples who show us love on and off-screen!

Cupid has compiled our six favorite on and off-screen celebrity couples:

1. Ben Affleck & Jennifer Garner: This celebrity couple met on the set of Daredevil and ended up getting married and having children together. They married in 2005 in Turks and Caicos and have three children together: Violet, Seraphina and Samuel. They announced they were divorcing in 2015, but they remain friends and family because of their offspring. Garner has also dated previous co-stars such as Alias co-star Michael Vartan, and she was even married to Scott Foley for three years after meeting him on the set of his series Felicity. It's true that love can be found on set!

2. Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie: Everybody loves Brangelina!

This celebrity couple met while filming Mr. & Mrs. Smith together and caused a big stir, as speculation stirred that an affair happened between the two while Pitt was still married to Jennifer Aniston. They denied it, but in 2006 they announced they were expecting a baby. The pair got engaged in 2012 after seven years of dating and married two years later in 2014 at their estate in Correns, France. Although they were trying to kill each other on-screen, they sure make it work in real life! They seem to have a happy, healthy marriage and children.

3. Barack Obama: Yes, being the President is the toughest job in the United States and puts a lot of pressure on the family. But, somehow, Barack makes keeping a marriage together look flawless. Barack always comments on how he couldn't do what he does without Michelle by his side, displays his affection in public, and makes time for his family.

4. Justin Timberlake: It's still hard to believe that this guy is off the market, but he makes the best husband! It's been said that Justin's album that was released last year is full of love songs dedicated to his wife, Jessica, and that when she's at one of his concerts, he sings them right to her.

5. Keith Urban: The country singer fell in love and married Nicole Kidman eight years ago and they have two lovely daughters together. In a recent interview, Nicole talked about how Keith is an amazing man, would do anything for her, and how he carried her physically and emotionally over the past few months while she was dealing with the passing of her father.

6. Michael J. Fox: Being a star that has battled so much, Michael always lets the press know how much he adores his wife. Michael and Tracy started a foundation to raise money for Parkinson's research and they've been by each other's side since the 80s. Michael was quoted in Redbook Magazine stating, "The best thing that ever happened to me was getting married."

7. Ben Affleck: Whenever Ben is on a talk show, you can always find him giving compliments to his wife, Jennifer Garner. And, when Ben accepted his Best Picture Oscar for Argo, he thanked her and openly talked about all of the hard work they'd put into their marriage.

8. Brad Pitt: Brad recently married Angelina, but they already have a wonderful history together. He's been by Angie's side through her scare of breast cancer, their multiple adopted children, and more. He's stated that she makes him a better person, and that he's lucky she's in his life.

9. Channing Tatum: The actor met his wife on the set of Step Up, and the rest is history. Channing can't say enough nice things about his beautiful bride and always compliments her as a mom and all-around amazing human being.

10. David Bowie: Most people would be surprised that a marriage between a rock star and a supermodel would last two decades. But, in the case of David Bowie, it has. His wife, Iman has stated that David still takes her on date nights and makes her laugh like no one else does.

Channing Tatum Divorce Rumors Untrue

 By Shannon Seibert

The world almost collapsed under the rumors of Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan's divorce. Rumors could not be more false, rest assured. The couple could not be happier since their wedding in 2009. The Step Up stars have recently been seen glowing in each other's arms, according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you keep outside pressures from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult not to listen to the opinions of your loved ones since they mean so much to you, but this is your relationship. Your relationship is between you and your partner so therefore you should focus the energy between you and your partner alone. Check out these tips for handling external pressures that may be weighing on your relationship:

1. Filter what you hear: It's definitely important to listen to what people are saying about your relationship, because there is usually an underlying truth. But people are people and they tend to exaggerate the details of most stories and conjure some pretty extensive rumors. Don't let the words of others get a rise out of you when you know your partner probably better than most anyone else. Stay strong and listen to what is said, but only do what your heart says is right.

2. Talk about it: Talking with your partner is key to a healthy relationship. Whether it's financial struggles, social issues, or any other problems, an open communication line is the best tool to have under your belt. By talking to your love about what is on your mind the both of you can work together to diminish the issues that may be surfacing. It's important to set boundaries and fully understand each other's opinions to come to a conclusion that you agree on. Together you'll emerge stronger than ever as a united front.

3. Don't stress over little messes: The more you talk about a problem, the bigger the problem gets. If you find yourself constantly bringing up a past issue it won't stay in the past. By making it relevant again you invite the stress back into your life. Also, by making a huge deal out of a little situation, such as not walking the dog two days in a row, you'll begin to pick fights with your partner. Destress by learning to sort the big pressures from the little ones, and you'll find yourself in a stronger and happier relationship.
