How can you deal with a breakup online?

Cupid's Advice:

Osbourne used technology to communicate her feelings with her friends and fans. However, the web is a public forum that must be approached with care. Here are some of Cupid's tips on dealing with a breakup on the Internet:

1. Personal boundaries: In an avenue that basically has no barriers, it's important to have your own limits for the amount and content of the information you put out on the web.

2. Censorship: There are certain things that shouldn't be mentioned in a public setting. Avoid any of the "B" words: boys, breakups, bosses, bank accounts, and bodily functions. Add any others you feel necessary, but basically, if you wouldn't talk about a topic to a group of people you don't know, don't put it online.

3. Be true to yourself: You have the ability to create a whole image for yourself online. This means you also have the ability to recreate your online identity after the split. Revamp your profile, or tweet some inspirational quotes. Keep yourself positive and moving forward, even if it's just online.

How can you maintain the honeymoon stage through the first year of marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

The first year of marriage can be the hardest, especially once the actual honeymoon is over. Even if it's rough, you can make it through as a couple and a family by keeping the spark alive, and keeping things special.

1. Survive PHD (or 'post-honeymoon depression'): It isn't easy to come back to the real world after spending a vacation in paradise with just you and your mate. Ease back into your routine, and remind yourselves that just because the trip has ended, doesn't mean the passion has to fizzle, too.

2. Pick a date night: You are getting settled into your new life together, which often means doing a lot of tedious errand running and paper filing. Schedule dates together once a week. Get out of the house and be a couple on the town.

3. Celebrate the small things: Once you're married, everything can become a 'first' again – make each of those firsts count. Have friends over when you are completely moved into your new place. Start a new tradition for your first holiday season as a married couple. In short, start making new memories together.

Can you come back from a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Filing for divorce is a huge step that should not be taken lightly, especially when both parties feel it is necessary, as in King and Southwick's case. However, Cupid has some advice for couples who wish to give their marriage a second chance in making it work.

1. Put each other first: Though not everyone can leave their job for their family, King made a conscious decision to to announce his desire to make his marriage and family a priority. In order to give love another try, both people need to put that chance first in their lives.

2. Spice things up: When revitalizing a marriage, take some risk. Try something new on your date night... or revisit an old haunt to relive good memories. Remember what your relationship was like in the beginning, whether you're creating new sparks or reigniting old passions.

3. Don't hold a grudge: Obviously, something drove you to the brink of divorce, and those issues need to be addressed. More importantly, don't hold past actions against each other in the future. Take advantage of the fresh start.

Eddie Cibrian's Privacy Plea After Infidelity Goes Public

Now, Cibrian is requesting privacy for himself and his family, telling E! Online, "I can't change the past and I'm truly sorry that people got hurt long the way, but not everything reported in the media is reality and continuing to rehash things publicly only makes it more difficult for everyone to heal." He would like to focus on his two children from his former marriage.

What drives people to cheat?

Cupid's Advice:

The reasons behind cheating are different for everyone. See if the following ring true for you:

- 1. Feelings of inadequacy: Some people start feeling like they don't measure up next to their partner, whether it's in terms of salary, work position, or even within your shared inner social circle. Resentment may set in, which can be a factor in why people cheat.

2. Mixed emotions: Your relationship still has that spark, but are you still searching for something more? Figure out what's missing in your partnership that's causing you to focus your attention elsewhere.

3. Lack of self-love: Sometimes, it really is you, and not the other person. Take yourself out of the relationship to figure out what you want before you end up cheating.

Is LeAnn Rimes to Blame for Cheating?

In the latest issue of People, LeAnn Rimes says she has only herself to blame after cheating on her husband of seven years, Dean Sheremet, with Eddie Cibrian. “I did one of the most selfish things that I possibly could do, in hurting someone else,” but the 27-year-old singer added that she doesn’t regret the outcome. Rimes and Cibrian, 36, became friends on the set of Northern Lights, a Lifetime movie they starred in together. Although both were married to others during filming, they found themselves falling in love. Rimes and Cibrian are currently in a committed relationship, and their respective divorces will soon be final. For couples who have seen the worst and have lost faith in themselves or their mates, how can you get your life back on track?

Cupid’s Advice:

Rimes is on her way to forgiveness. She has taken steps to bring her wrongdoing into the public eye, accepted responsibility for her actions, and understands that it will take time for everyone involved to heal.

1. Be honest with yourself: If there are problems in your relationship, take matters into your own hands, and talk to your significant other before you chat it up with someone else.

2. Take the next step: After discussing the issues that lead you to think of others, you should figure out how to work on the problems in your relationship together. As a team, you may find success.

3. Take time out: Working out kinks and complications can be draining. Set time aside to unwind from the stress involved. Whether this time is spent as a couple or alone, is irrelevant; you need to decide what works best for the two of you.
