What are some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

When in love, you just want to shout it out from the rooftops. But sometimes it can be a good idea to keep your relationship a secret at first. Cupid is here to tell you why.

1. Make sure it is serious: Couples tend to keep their relationships under wraps at first because they want to make sure that it is serious enough to last a long time before they start telling people about it. Nothing is more embarrassing than having to tell everyone that you are no longer with your beau after only a week of spreading the news.

2. Publicity: When your relationship is public, there are many more pressures to endure. Your relationship seems to constantly be under microscope being examined by everyone you come into contact with. Every little fight is everyone's business. Keeping your relationship quiet until its ready to withstand those pressures will save you a lifetime of stress.

3. Jealousy: When your relationship is public, it can fall victim to the jealousy of others. By keeping your relationship on the down low in the beginning, you and your sweetheart will have time to build up enough trust in each other so when you do go public, those jealous outsiders won't be able to mess up what you two have.

Then the conversation changed to making fun of Handler imitating Aniston's life. "I just saw my sport's doctor backstage...and I haven't seen my yoga teacher since we went to Cabo two years ago," Aniston states as proof. All in good fun, Aniston thinks it would be nice for Handler to imitate her by also getting engaged. "Any takers?" she asked.

What are some ways to know you're smitten?

Cupid's Advice:

People who are smitten with their partner live in a completely different world than the rest of us. It's easy for them to give the benefit of the doubt in situations. They tend to focus on the positive side, with an assumption of good will. Also, they generally feel a constant sense of enthusiasm or enchantment, expressing passion and feelings of tenderness. Here's how to tell if "smitten" describes you:

1. You talk him up to your friends: If he is meeting your girlfriends for the first time and they already know everything about him, you are crazy about him. Wanting to constantly talk about your new partner to any friend that will listen is a good sign of how well your feelings are for him. You might get teased, but it's worth it.

2. You like doing mundane activities together: Another example is the thought of helping him do his laundry, clean his apartment or go with him to run HIS errands makes you giddy inside. You may be perceived as the most boring couple ever by your friends. Even so, you prefer doing this because you two are together.

3. You can't get over how handsome he is: Have you caught yourself staring at him when he's staring at the TV? Better yet, has he caught you doing that? An obvious clue that you are smitten is the overwhelming urge to stare at his beautiful face. Let's face it – you're hooked.

Chelsea Handler Trashes

Aniston

Chelsea Handler has a mouthful of expletives ready for actress, Angelina Jolie when it comes to defending new best friend, Jennifer Aniston. Us Weekly reported that while performing in Newark, NJ, Chelsea Handler did not hold back – even going so far as to include Angelina Jolie’s children.

How can you help a friend after a breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

Consoling and supporting your friend after a tough break-up is important. It’s a tough job, but if there’s anyone ready and willing, it should be her best friend:

- 1. Be patient: Going through a break-up is never easy. While it may seem to be the only topic of conversation for a while, let them express how they feel – anger, guilt, remorse, and hopefully eventually, happiness. It’s all part of the process of moving on.

2. Keep busy: After your friend has gotten everything out, get her out of the house! Go out to dinner, indulge in a shopping spree, or hit the town to remind her how many opportunities await.

3. Laugh it up: They say laughter is the best medicine. While Sex and the City's Charlotte's incident in Cabo san Lucas might not be an option, put a smile back on your friend's face.

Are Chelsea Handler & 50 Cent Dating?

The unlikely duo of Chelsea Handler and 50 Cent are rumored to be dating, reports US Magazine. The two were photographed looking romantic at a bar in New Orleans last weekend. A source confirmed the relationship and says, "It's been going on awhile... It's more of a hookup thing – whenever they are in the same town." How should you handle criticism for dating someone considered different from you?

Cupid's Advice:

An unlikely pair or not, who are we to judge? Just because the consensus is that the two of you are opposites, that doesn't mean you can't make it work. Cupid has some tips to help you block the noise and just enjoy each other's company:

1. Just the two of us: Grover Washington, Jr. had a good point in his Grammy winning song "Just the Two of Us." When it comes down to it, it only matters how the two of you feel about each other. Yes, approval from family and friends is always nice, but the fact that the two of you found something special in each other is what really counts.

2. Embrace the differences: We've all heard it a million times: opposites attract. Dating someone different can help you open your eyes to a whole new world. You can learn from each other and balance out each other's personalities.

3. Step back and listen: While it might be exciting dating someone different, you don't want to let the allure of it all shadow the fact that it might not be a great idea. If family or friends have something to say, listen, but take it with a grain of salt. An outsider looking in might be able to see something you don't.

MTV's Video Music Awards: What You Missed

By Jessica DeRubbo

Well, the MTV Video Music Awards have come and gone yet again, and the celebs in attendance this year didn't disappoint!

Some of the more notable duos walking the white carpet this year were Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez, Usher & Justin Bieber, Jersey Shore's Ronnie & Vinnie and Stephanie Pratt & Lo Bosworth, according to Hollywood Life. And, of course, there was the much-anticipated awards show participants Taylor Swift and Kanye West. After last year's debacle where West barged on stage during Swift's acceptance speech, he was on his best behavior. The two stars separately sang two brand new songs addressing last year's event, "like a pair of dueling attorneys making closing statements in front of a jury," according to Tris McCall at the New Jersey Star-Ledger.

That's not to leave out the host of this year's VMA extravaganza. E!'s popular comedienne Chelsea Handler took the podium, and the question is: how did she measure up? Here are three reviews that seem to sum it up:

1. "As the live portion of the show began, Handler turned in a moderately funny Gaga sendup, appearing amid red-lycra-clad dancers wearing a dollhouse on her head. Though, again, it felt a little like Host the VMAs Paint-by-Numbers – Gaga's both the easiest and the lamest (not to mention the most willing) target around," said Jennifer Armstrong in Entertainment Weekly's PopWatch.

2. "And then there was the awkward plight of the night's host, Chelsea Handler. She was among the worst in the show's history – purposefully out-of-touch, with brief, alarming flashes of off-color racial humor," said Jon Caramanica of the New York Times.

3. "But there was little smooching or feuding on Sunday, despite some nudging from the host. 'I want to encourage everyone to be on their worst behavior,' comedian Chelsea Handler declared in her opening monologue, a string of flat punch lines that felt a few degrees below crass," said Chris Richards in The Washington Post's Click Track.

Although the VMAs usually make for some stories full of cat fights and on-stage duels, the show was pretty tame overall this year. But with the best ratings since 2002, according to Just Jared, Chelsea Handler can't complain!
