We learned after Friday's royal wedding celebrations that sparks are still flying between Prince Harry and Chelsy Davy. The on-and-off couple since 2004 took part in post-wedding festivities back at the Goring Hotel with Prince William and Kate Middleton. Sources saw them leaving together at 6 a.m. "You could tell they were an item," one told UsMagazine.com. "They were acting like a couple and kissed in front of everyone." Prince Harry took part in all of the day's wedding festivities before the rendezvous, making the day as special for his brother as possible. One partygoer described Harry as "determined to put on an amazing party for his brother," saying he spent months "organizing the whole thing and thinking up jokey things that he can do for his brother. He [wanted] to give his brother and his new bride the party of the century!"

Who should you bring to a family member’s wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

If a family member’s wedding is approaching and you still don’t know who to take as your date, Cupid has some suggestions for you:

- 1. Girlfriend or Boyfriend: Have a significant other? Invite him or her to the wedding. This would be a great time for them to get acquainted with your family.
- 2. Best friend: If you’re single, bring along the next best option – your best friend. She’s met your family a gazillion times, and getting an invitation to the wedding will make her feel as if she’s part of the family.

3. Acquaintance: And if you don't have a partner or a best friend, grab an outgoing and fun-loving acquaintance. This will be a great way for you to get to know each other even better. And of course, if you can't think of anyone, go alone. There will probably be other's there solo as well.
