1. Ask for help: Your friends won't know that you need help unless you ask them! If the time you have to pick up the wedding rings happens to coincide with the cake tasting you scheduled a month in advanced then asking a friend to do the former will save you some time and stress.

2. Get suggestions: There are so many special touches that can be added to your wedding that will likely get lost amidst the basic wedding plans. If the bride is a music lover then wrapping her bouquet in sheets of music instead of ribbon is a cute and unique idea. See if your friends have any ideas that you can run with to make the wedding really special.

Cupid's Advice:

Getting married can be stressful. Let Cupid help you help our your friend on their big day!

1. Bite your tongue: It's their wedding not yours; so don't insert your opinion where it is not wanted. We've all seen an episode of, "Say Yes to the Dress," where one of the bridesmaids interjects her opinion right when the bride falls in love with a dress. Don't be that bridesmaid!

2. Pick up the slack: There are a plethora of things to plan when it comes to a wedding. If you notice that your friend is forgetting certain things then give them a quick reminder. It's okay to cross the T's and dot the I's.

3. Open your ears: The months leading up to the wedding may be trying on their relationship. If your friend has any doubts then you should be there for them and be willing to give your honest opinion on the situation at hand.
