

Beauty Trend: The Best of Spring Hairstyles

By Megan McIntosh

Spring is all about rebirth and renewal. After a harsh winter of keeping your hair and body covered, it's time to let your hair down. There's no better way to step into Spring and Summer than by sporting a new hairstyle. Every new season, old hair trends come back into play. You'll see them on everyone from the locals to celebrities on TV and in movies. This Spring, some hair beauty trends have made a comeback on celebrities like Zendaya and Chrissy Teigen, but it's clear it's all about making the cut.

With a new season, comes the time to cut into a new hairstyle. Cupid has many new Spring hairstyles for you to debut with a bang.

It's not always easy to make the cut when it comes to your hair. Sometimes it can be hard to even give yourself a trim. But it's clear that snapping off some inches is the trend this season, so what better way to build that confidence than to emulate the most confident of stars?

1. Sweeping bangs: Sweeping bangs are so named because they're not as harsh or as much of a commitment as full-on bangs. They're all the fun of a fringe with none of the regret. Because these bangs are able to sweep to the side, you can have bangs on the days you want and go without on the days you don't. It's clear though, bangs are here to stay this Spring.

2. Get blunt with a bob: Blunt bobs have made a comeback this Spring season. There's something sophisticated yet wild about this look. You can rock this hair cut in the office or a night on the town. Jenna Dewan and Sarah Paulson make it look easy, but just make sure that the blunt bob you go for fits your face shape and jawline.

3. Curly with a bang: Some people think it's impossible to rock bangs with curly hair. Stars like Zendaya and Natasha Lyonne have been all about the curly bangs this season, and they've been doing it well. The key is finding the right stylist who can work with your curl pattern to find the bangs that fit perfectly.

4. Groovy baby: Looks like the 70s are making a comeback this Spring with a shaggy look. Celebrities like Chrissy Teigen make this hairstyle look carefree and easy with textured layers. No doubt it took careful planning and moose distribution to create this messy look, though. This layered cut can also make your hair look fuller if you have thinner hair.

Parenting Advice: Cooking Fun with Your Kids

By Megan McIntosh

There comes a time when your kids want to be involved in what mom or dad is doing in the kitchen. They want to bake their own cake or fry their own eggs. Whether you decide to start small or let them help you with a whole meal, it's easy to have some cooking fun with your kids! Celebrity parent and model Chrissy Teigen recently made a special menu for celebrity baby Luna, and Jennifer Garner routinely cooks healthy meals for her kids. Like them, you can also have your kids join you in the kitchen!

Parenting Advice: Cooking with your kids can be a fun and educational experience that lets you have some quality time together, too!

Here's some exciting advice to start cooking in the kitchen with your kids:

1. Find some kid-friendly menus:

Find some fun menus that the kids can easily follow with you. Try to make character pancakes with fruit and nuts as decorations. Put together a yummy snack mix, which is simple and should keep the mess to a minimum. There are a variety of kid-friendly menus, but you can even create your own like celebrity parent Chrissy Teigen did when Luna turned out to be a picky eater.

2. Start small:

If your child wants to be involved in a the preparation of a grown-up meal, give them something small to start with. Let your child mix the spices, or let them toss some ingredients into a salad. This gets them excited to be involved in the kitchen, but keeps their little hands safe. Help them create something healthy but simple, like Jennifer Garner and her granola recipe.

3. Let them be a little independent:

Once your child is a little older, you can let them be a little more independent in the kitchen. Let them create their own snack mix rather than following a recipe. Let your child create recipes that have three ingredients like banana pancakes or dunkaroo dip. Let your kid make dessert while you focus on dinner with them making banana oat cookies or peanut butter fudge. Keep it seasonal by making popsicles in the summer and hot chocolate in the winter.

4. Keep it age appropriate: Though we encourage independence with our children, it's very important to keep it at level with their age. If they're a little younger, you'll want to keep them away from sharp objects and doing more activities like mixing and squeezing. As they get older you can incorporate more difficult tasks such as cutting with a blunt blade or cracking eggs. Eventually they'll be able to help you out in the kitchen so much that you'll get a chance to relax a little quicker.

Travel Tips: Learn Your Rights as an Airline Passenger

Interview by Mara Miller

It's important to know your rights as an airline passenger when you fly frequently. Even A-list passengers run into unpleasant situations when jetting off on celebrity vacations. In some situations, you may be traveling with pets or run into restroom issues on the plane. You may even be denied boarding. In these travel tips, we have partnered with AirHelp to get some answers to our questions.

Check out travel tips from AirHelp on how to make the most of your passenger rights:

1. Many airline passengers aren't aware of the rights they have when they fly. What are your rights if you are denied boarding?

In a recent survey, AirHelp found that 92% of U.S. travelers don't know their rights, which extend to when they are traveling abroad. Specifically, passengers' rights if they are denied boarding are dependent on their situation, but the main regulations that protect passengers in these instances are EC 261 and U.S. National law.

EC 261 is a European law that covers travelers flying to Europe on an EU airline, or out of Europe on any airline, including for U.S. citizens. In cases of denied boarding, passengers can be eligible to claim up to $700 each, as long as they did not volunteer to give up their seat in exchange for vouchers or perks.

Under U.S. national law, U.S. travelers are entitled to compensation for up to $1,350 if denied boarding as a result of an overbooked flight, depending on the value of the ticket fare and ultimate delay in arrival to their final destination. If travelers find themselves in situations like Mayim Bialik, where she was denied boarding on a domestic flight and did not volunteer to give up her seat, they may be eligible for compensation, in addition to re-routing to their destination on an alternate flight.

In all situations at AirHelp, we recommend holding onto boarding passes and other travel documents, and immediately requesting compensation. You should also hold onto receipts for expenses incurred because of the disruption. You may be eligible for reimbursement from the airline.

Related Link: Travel Tips: 5 Pointers for Traveling by Train in Europe

2. If an airline loses your luggage, what do you do? Are you entitled to compensation?

Earlier this year, Matt Damon made headlines when his luggage was lost and he had to borrow someone else's suit. Additionally, last summer, Rihanna's makeup artist lost her luggage and her celebrity beauty supplies. In these situations, and for many other passengers who experience similar issues, travelers can file for compensation from the airline.

In the United States, travelers are protected by two laws when it comes to luggage problems, including U.S. national law and the Montreal Convention. U.S. national law covers travelers on domestic flights, and the Montreal Convention covers travelers flying internationally. In either case, the amount of compensation is based on the value of the baggage and should be negotiated with the airline. Under U.S. national law, the maximum compensation is $3,500 and under the Montreal Convention, the maximum is $1,525. Airlines will work to keep costs down by paying depreciated value for things and not covering certain types of items at all like jewelry and electronics, so it is important for passengers to know that they are entitled to compensation by law, and not just based on an airline's goodwill.

A passenger's right to compensation extinguishes if they don't bring an action within two years under the Montreal Convention, but there are also other time constraints passengers should be aware of. Damages to luggage need to be reported within seven days of receipt, and we advise travelers to take photos of their luggage before leaving the airport to prove that damages happened while the luggage was in an airline's care. Complaints about delayed luggage should be filed within 21 days, and passengers must notify the airline if their luggage is missing before leaving the airport and fill out a Property Irregularity Report (PIR) detailing the contents of their lost baggage. If a passenger's luggage doesn't arrive within 21 days, it is considered lost, so after this period there is no time limit for complaints.

Related Link: Travel Tips: 5 Ways to Live Like a Nomad While Traveling Abroad

3. If your flight turns around mid-flight and doesn't make it to its destination, what are your rights?

If your flight does not make it to its final destination, your rights to compensation are dependent on the circumstance. If your flight is eligible under EC 261, as long as your flight isn't turned around because of "extraordinary circumstances" like weather, terrorism, air traffic control restrictions, or political unrest, you could be entitled to up to $700 in compensation per person if you arrive at your destination with delays of more than three hours. This means that if your flight turns around like Chrissy Teigen's did and it was eligible, you could claim compensation.

Related Link: Travel Tips: How to Plan Your First Getaway Together as a Couple

4. A broken toilet on a plane can be a huge inconvenience. What can you do as a passenger if this happens?

If a broken toilet causes a flight disruption, travelers should check for eligibility under EC 261. Specifically, if a delay is caused by a broken toilet, passengers are entitled to compensation under EC 261 as this is considered a technical error. However, in cases when toilets become unusable just before takeoff, such as if they are caused by a sick passenger, it is often beyond the airline's control, and therefore travelers aren't eligible under EC 261.

5. What are your rights when it comes to traveling with pets?

Animal lovers don't have to skip their vacations, as long as they make themselves familiar with individual airlines' pet rules. This is especially important in light of recent tragedies. If you wish to travel with your furry best friend, at AirHelp, we advise you to research the airline's rules. For example, some airlines only allow assistance or guide dogs to travel in the cabin. Others base their paw fees on your pet's size and weight, plus their carrier's measurements. When making the decision of whether to bring your pet along, you should consider: the size of your pet; the pet carrier; pet/dog carrier fees; the temperament of your four-legged friend; and the airline's overhead bin space availability.

6. Are there different rights for disabled passengers? What are they?

Airlines cannot refuse to accommodate passengers with disabilities; in fact, they are required by law to make sure accommodations are available. This is because of the Air Carrier Access Act (ACAA), a law which makes it illegal for airlines to discriminate against passengers because of their disability. Airlines are also required to provide passengers with disabilities many types of assistance, including wheelchairs or other guided assistance to board, deplane, or connect to another flight; seating accommodation assistance that meets passengers' disability-related needs; and assistance with the loading and stowing of assistive devices.

7. When it comes to frustrating delays, what are some useful hints that passengers can apply?

Below are some tips that travelers should consider when flying to have the best chance of a smooth, disruption-free experience:

- Fly during off-peak days or times to avoid the largest crowds at airports. The late night flights are often the least crowded, which means that your flight may be less likely to be overbooked, and your wait time at security will be shorter.
- Use the free AirHelp app to check for compensation eligibility and flight disruptions while on-the-go. The app provides travelers with information about compensation eligibility when travelers enter their information.
- Leave extra time for traveling to and from the airport. No matter when people are traveling, they should anticipate traffic near the airport. Schedule extra time for driving, and be sure to leave ample time to get through lines at security in case of large crowds. If it is easy, travelers can also consider public transportation to eliminate parking fees and cut costs.

- Pack light or only use a carry-on to skip baggage claim. With larger flights, waiting for luggage can take a lot of extra time at the airport. For short trips, travelers may consider using only a carry-on item, as long as all items fall under TSA requirements.
- Bring chargers and extra entertainment for the airport. Sometimes, flight disruptions are inevitable, so consider packing an extra phone charger and book to take on the flight.
- Know your rights for flight disruptions, as you could be eligible to claim compensation. If you are flying within the U.S. and you are denied boarding due to an overbooked flight, you may be eligible to claim 400% of the one-way fare to your destination in compensation, of a value up to $1,350. Also, for flight cancellations or lengthy delays, if you're flying to the EU on an EU airline, or departing from an EU airport, you may be eligible to claim up to $700 per person in compensation under European law EC 261.

8. Is there a time limit on submitting a claim?

Under EC 261, passengers can file claims for up to three years after the disruption.

Parenting Tips: How Your Kids Can Benefit from Audio Books

By Megan McIntosh

There's something about hearing a story that makes it a little more exciting than just reading it. When someone tells you a story, it leaves room for you to focus on imagining the characters and learning the vocabulary. Celebrity parent and model, Chrissy Teigan reads aloud with her daughter Luna and the benefits from reading aloud are many. But when you don't have the time, or when kids want to be a little more independent, children can really benefit from audio books.

Parenting Tips: Reading aloud and using audio books can be a great benefit to your kids and give them a little independence!

Here are some helpful tips to start using audio books to help your kids with vocabulary and reading:

1. Do it together: it's always a good idea to introduce your child to audio books with them. You can help them with the cues and help them follow along with the words in the book. You can even review vocabulary words they may have learned.

2. Try to keep it close: Use books that you've already read aloud to them previously. This way they're already familiar with the story and can more easily follow along when you're not present. Once they've adapted more vocabulary from the audio books or you've summarized the story beforehand, then you can move on to more difficult and new books.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: How to Keep Your Kids Motivated Throughout the Rest of the School Year

3. Let them multi-task: Just like it can be hard for kids to sit still in class, it can be hard to sit still and listen to a story. Let them play with a toy, draw a picture, or even eat a snack while they're listening to their audio book. This increases their love of reading while teaching them to multi-task.

4. Utilize your resources: There are so many sources for audio books. Use websites like Overdrive and Hoopla to access your local library without needing to take the drive. Audible is an app with audio books that you can access on your phone.

5. Have fun: Don't stress if your child doesn't understand every word in a book; if the story is interesting to them, let them listen anyway! If a child isn't feeling an audio book, no need to push it. Move on to the next audio book that sparks their interest in vocabulary and story telling.

Celebrity Baby News: Chrissy Teigen & John Legend Welcome Second Child

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity baby news, celebrity couple Chrissy Teigen and John Legend welcomed their second child, a baby boy, into the world on Wednesday. Teigen took to Twitter to announce the news, tweeting, “Somebody’s herrrrrrre!” along with several baby bottle emojis. Her “All of Me” singing hubby retweeted the news soon after. According to UsMagazine.com, Teigen revealed her pregnancy in November 2017 with the help of her and Legend’s first child, Luna. Teigen posted an Instagram video where she asks her daughter, “Luna, what’s in here?” as she points to her belly, to which Luna responded “BB!” The now mother of two captioned the clip, “it’s john’s!”

This celebrity baby news means that Chrissy and John’s daughter Luna now has a baby brother. What are some ways to prepare your first child for the birth of your second child?

Cupid's Advice:

The more babies, the merrier! But, your first child might not think so! Here are Cupid's tips for preparing your little one for the birth of their new sibling:

1. Talk to your child: Once the pregnancy is official, it's important you let your child know what's going on. No matter what your little one's age is, it's important to explain what's going on. Explain that a baby is coming and that your youngster is going to be a big brother or sister. Tell your kid what to expect from the infant so they won't be too scared by imminent crying and smelly diapers. Letting your child hear the news early on will give him or her time to accept it and get excited.

2. Spend some quality time: Before your second bundle of joy comes along, make sure to spend lots of special time with your first born. Set special "dates" with your child to fun places like a park, children's museum, the zoo, arts and crafts studio, or other fun spots. Giving your kid special alone time before becoming a big sibling will ensure he or she does not feel forgotten.

3. Gift giving: When it gets closer to the new baby's due date, help your first child in making or picking out a gift for the new baby. This way, your child will start to feel a connection with his or her new sibling. In return, pick out a gift for your first tot that you can say is from your new little angel. This can help your current child feel appreciation for the new baby.

Celebrity Baby News: Pregnant Chrissy Teigen Reveals Sex of Baby No. 2

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Chrissy Teigen revealed the sex of baby number two with husband John Legend, according to UsMagazine.com. And ... it's a boy! Teigen made the announcement via Instagram, during the 2018 Grammys in New York City. She posted a photo of herself on the red carpet at Madison Square Garden, holding her baby bump in her silver Yanina Couture dress – with the caption: “mama and her boy.” What an elegant and cute way to break the celebrity baby news! Congratulations to the celebrity couple!

Spoiler alert! Chrissy Teigen revealed the sex of her celebrity baby-to-be. What are some reasons to find out the sex of your baby before he or she is born?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the earliest decisions you make during pregnancy is whether or not to find out the sex of the baby. Cupid has some advice as to why you would want to find out whether your baby is a boy or a girl:

1. Decorating the nursery: You can go with neutral colors (white or yellow) if you'd like, but many people like to go traditional (pink or blue). A nursery is a place you want to have done and prepared by the time your baby arrives. Therefore, you want to finish it early, well before the due date. When deciding on decorating options, you may be one of those parents who would want to take the sex of your baby into consideration, so be sure before making final decisions.

2. The baby shower: Again, you can go with neutral colors for the decorations of the celebration. And you can choose unisex gifts as well. However, when creating a registry, you may need to know the baby's sex in order to choose the items you want or need to add onto the list. Also, you may not want to keep your baby shower attendees in the dark when they're celebrating and showering your bundle of joy with presents – the suspense may make them go nuts, you never know!

3. Choosing a baby name will take longer: And it would be harder, too. You can save yourself half the time by finding out the sex of your baby – And also save yourself half the hassle. Imagine not knowing, therefore having to choose both a boy name and girl name. It's already hard enough coming to an agreement with your partner. Since choosing a baby name together can sometimes be a struggle for many couples, so knowing the sex of the baby can avoid further frustrations for sure!

Celebrity Baby News: Chrissy Teigen & John Legend Are Expecting

By Rachel Sparks

The latest celebrity news is all about the next celebrity baby! Celebrity couple Chrissy Teigen and John Legend just announced baby number two! After having trouble and finally having baby Luna through IVF, the couple is excited to expand their family. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple has a male embryo on ice to add a little boy to their hopes of a large family!

This celebrity baby news is a very happy occasion. What are some ways to keep your baby news under wraps until you're ready?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as having a baby is, sometimes we want to keep the announcement under wraps. Whether it's because of a difficult pregnancy or you are trying to raise the anticipation, keeping things under wraps can work in your favor. There's more than just a baby bump to think about hiding until you're ready to share the news. Check out our parenting advice to get you through your pregnancy secrets:

1. The new diet: Once you find out you're pregnant, your diet is going to start changing. It might be that you've eaten junk food most of your life and need to start a healthy streak, or the pregnancy and morning sickness are limiting your eating desires, but at some point people will notice. Tell a white lie and say you're starting a new diet.

2. Doctor or dentist: You're going to be going to a lot of doctor appointments, but how are you going to hide them all? The only time women go to the doctor a lot is if there is something wrong or they're pregnant. If you're telling another white lie, fudge the facts and instead of yet another doctor visit, say you're going to the dentist or optometrist.

Celebrity Baby: Chrissy Teigen & John Legend Share Baby No. 2 Plans

By Karley Kemble

John Legend and Chrissy Teigen are talking baby number two! According to EOnline.com, Teigen and Legend are hoping to have another celebrity baby very soon. Teigen has been very vocal about her struggles with infertility and their choice to have their first child, Luna, through frozen embryo transfer. In a recent magazine interview, Teigen said that the celebrity couple had 20 embryos from the start, though only three were genetically “normal.” Both Legend and Teigen have both said they definitely want to have their second child, which Teigen has confirmed will be a boy “in the near future.” We hope to hear news of a celebrity pregnancy soon!

Hopefully there will be a celebrity baby on the way for Chrissy Teigen and John Legend soon. What are some ways to support your partner through fertility issues?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes having a child does not always happen according to plan. If you or somebody you love is coping with infertility, Cupid has some ways to help during the difficult and emotional times:

1. Validate their feelings: A common mindset of people who struggle with fertility is to blame themselves. They have more than a right to be upset, so make sure they know it’s okay to feel what they’re feeling. It’s also important that they know they are not alone and their infertility issues are not their fault.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: John Legend Opens Up About Fertility Struggles with Chrissy Teigen

2. Learn: Infertility is kind of a taboo subject to talk about, so you might be in the dark about the details and latest information. Sit down at your computer and take some time to research the subject. Keeping up to date will show you care and will help you empathize with them a lot better.

3. Know what and what not to say: We often default into saying phrases that we've heard, and think are helpful (i.e. "just relax" or "you can always try another way"). In almost all cases, these words will hurt more than help. It's much more calming to ask your loved one "how are you doing" or "how can I help" because you're thinking of their feelings rather than trying to fix the problem. Most times, people just want somebody to listen to them.

Love & Libations: Autumn Date Night Ideas Inspired by Celebrity Red Wines

By Yolanda Shoshana

Pumpkin spice isn't the only thing that arrives during Autumn. The season brings in the cold weather, making it the perfect time to snuggle up to your boo and enjoy some red wine to keep you warm. It's been said that red wine is an aphrodisiac for love. According to Euripides, the Greek tragedian who was a wine connoisseur, "where is no wine there is no love."

Here are some celebrity reds and date night ideas to enjoy during the crisp and cold months:

LVE Cabernet Sauvignon, Raymond Vineyards

Soul singer John Legend has a collection of wines called LVE produced in Napa Valley. His Cabernet Sauvignon has notes of blackberries, dark chocolate, and black tea. Can't you imagine Chrissy Teigen making a dish from her cookbook for Legend and pairing it with some of his wine? File that under relationship goals! Put on some of Legend's slow jams, sip some LVE, and make it a very romantic night.

Marilyn Merlot, Marilyn Wines

You know you are an icon when you've passed away and you end up with your own wine. Marilyn Merlot is inspired by none other than Marilyn Monroe. If Monroe's sassy attitude could be put in a bottle, this wine would be the answer. It's easy to assume this wine is mainly for fun, but it's actually a high-quality wine produced in Napa Valley that's been going strong since 1981. Vanilla and tart cherries will flirt with your palate. When you are feeling extra frisky, maybe even a bit adventurous with your partner, this wine is the one.

Pinot by Tituss, PBTB Wines

If you have ever watched the Netflix hit, The Unbreakable Kimmy Schmidt, you are probably familiar with the character Titus Andromedon, played by Tituss Burgess. In season one, his character sang a song called "Peeno Noir." The song became a viral hit, which led to Burgess creating a Pinot Noir wine. The actor has said that the wine is meant to be enjoyed by all the fabulous "Kings and Queens." This fun and fruity wine is great for a Netflix and chill night or some hold me, let's Hulu.

The Director's Merlot, Frances Ford Coppola Winery

Coppola has been in the wine game for a while. His wines tend to be inspired by the art of storytelling and filmmaking, so they have unique names to reflect that. The Director's Merlot is a juicy and succulent red that is a good example of a wine from Sonoma. Coppola has probably won more awards for his wine than his films. This Merlot is perfect to enjoy while relaxing by the fire and having a nice conversation with your love.

Drew's Red Blend Pinot Noir, Barrymore Wine

Drew Barrymore is the perfect celebrity to have a wine. She knows how to have fun and live it up. She created her line of wines with the help of the California-based Carmel Road Winery. Her red blend is meant for every day sipping. Since it has notes of tobacco, spice, and fruit, it would be good paired with meat or something from a slow cooker. Long story short, when you are home for a nice, quiet meal with your partner, this is the perfect wine to choose.

Celebrity Baby: John Legend Opens Up About Fertility Struggles with Chrissy Teigen

By Ashleigh Underwood

Fertility struggles are something that no partnership wants to have to endure. While celebrity couple John Legend and Chrissy Teigen have shown off their beautiful celebrity baby, Luna, it has not always been easy to grow their family. In a recent celebrity interview with UsMagazine.com, Legend opened up about his and Teigen's fertility struggles and how it made their relationship stronger. He stated that "having a baby is a big challenge for a couple, and going through that together strengthens your bond because if you make it through [having a child], you know you can make it through anything."

This celebrity couple can make it through anything. How can you help your partner through their fertility challenges?

Cupid's Advice:

No couple wants to experience fertility issues. It can put added stress and strain on the relationship, but the key is to support one another. Here are a few ways to show your partner that you support and care for them:

1. Communicate: Fertility issues can bring about many internal struggles. It is important to talk about how you feel so that your partner can help you work through it. The last thing you want is to be on two different pages and not even know it.

Celebrity Couple: 10 Reasons Chrissy Teigen and John Legend are Relationship Goals

By Katie Gray

In Hollywood, there's a lot of lust and love in the air. Lately it seems that, sadly, marriages and relationships are falling apart left and right in Tinsel Town. This is probably due to the extra pressure and contrasting busy schedules that celebrity couples are faced with. However; our favorite celebrity couple is still holding it down: Chrissy Teigen and John Legend. They give us major relationship goals! Chrissy Teigen is a model and cookbook author – having appeared many times in Sports Illustrated. John Legend is a ten time Grammy award winning singer, songwriter and musician. He's also won an Academy Award and a Golden Globe for his music. Legend even wrote a song for Teigen, which melted our hearts: "All of Me." It's dedicated to his love, and she stars in the beautiful music video for it. This pretty pair met on the set of his music video for "Stereo" and have been in love with one another ever since then in 2007. The couple's celebrity wedding took place in Como, Italy in 2013. Their celebrity baby daughter, Luna Simone Stephens, was born in 2016. This couple is goals, whether they're lounging at home or step out on the red carpet.

Here are 10 reasons Chrissy Teigen and John Legend are relationship goals:

1. Down to earth: This couple is just like the rest of us. They are very real and genuine people, which is why they have the admiration of the country. They posted a cute candid photo of the two of them for their pregnancy announcement. You can tell just by looking at their pictures that they are down to earth. They have been open about the struggles they went through trying to get pregnant, which is something many people face and can relate with. One time back in 2015 they posted selfies at home lounging. Chrissy Teigen tweeted photos of them at 10:46 A.M. and at 2:43 P.M. in the same positions, relaxing. Just like the rest of us, they enjoy being low key at home, and sleeping in, too. Their dogs and four boxes of pizza even joined them during their entire day spent in bed! That is goals.

2. Always laughing together: This is a couple who knows that life is better when you are laughing! Whether it's in photos or videos, they are always spotted laughing and smiling together. They love to joke around and have a fun witty banter. All dressed up in formal attire, they went through security and borrowed the equipment to pose for funny pictures with it. One time Teigen even hilariously blew up Legend's spot and tweeted him about how she saw him liking her tweets, while he was in the bathroom. They posted silly videos during Thanksgiving with family using funny filters. Teigen even tweeted Legend, "John is so drunk he keeps humming 50 Cent."

3. Coolest parents at the playground: This family couldn't be happier, then when spending time together. They truly bring each other the utmost happiness. A lot of photos are swirling around of them with their baby daughter, Luna. They go on walks, to the park, take vacations and partake in fun outings for family fun. Not only are they relationship goals and parent goals – we all want them to be our mom and dad!

Related Link: Best Lana Del Rey Lyrics Inspired By Celebrity Relationships

4. Eating constantly: Food is life, and Teigen and Legend know this. Teigen released her own cookbook Cravings last year in 2016. It is made for people who want realistic recipes. And for people who want it, “spicy, salty, sticky, crunchy, juicy and oozy.” Often times Teigen and Legend will post food photos, as well as pictures and videos of themselves in the kitchen cooking it up. They say the way to someone’s heart is through their stomach, and we all agree that is true. One of their most iconic moments to date, is when Legend was eating chicken off of a tray on Teigen’s body while they were at the pool. This pretty pair has even have taken cooking classes together! What a fun date! We know we are all craving, a relationship like this.

5. Humble: Teigen and Legend are very humble and sincere. They are also incredibly proud of one another. When Legend won an Academy Award, Teigen posted proud photos at the Oscars, and selfies that night of them sleeping with the golden Oscar statue in their bed. Often when they are at award shows, the camera catches them dancing and singing in their seats together, it’s so cute! They watch sports together, in matching team apparel.

6. Love each other for who they truly are: All you need in life is, love. This celebrity couple proves that it is true. They are each other’s soulmates. Teigen and Legend both embrace one another for who they really are as people, and accept one another’s interests. During their anniversary one year, Teigen and Legend had a candlelit fancy dinner together.

She let him watch college football on his phone for some of it as a present, because she knows it means a lot to him. Even in a relationship, we still are individuals and shouldn't lose ourselves. We don't have to have all of the same likes and interests, but it's important to realize that if it's important to them, you should realize that, and then it's important to you too. Relationships are all about compromise and acceptance.

7. Family oriented: From their interviews and things they post on social media, it's apparent that they are close to their family. In life, family is always the most important thing. Teigen is very close to her mother and they both always have family over. They have family dinners and big celebrations on the holidays. These two love being parents to their baby. Legend went all out for Teigen's first Mother's Day. He had the baby in a themed onesie and captioned the photo, "To my wonderful wife, Luna and I are so lucky to have you in our lives. If our daughter can be even half as awesome as you, I will be so happy and proud. Happy 1st Mother's Day!" With Mother's Day approaching soon, we wonder what awesome surprise we can expect from them this year? Time after time, they out do themselves. We can't help but love them!

8. Loyal: The key trait of being in a relationship is to be loyal. Legend and Teigen are always on the same team, and that is very important. There was a time when people were "mom-shaming" Teigen, which is not okay. It's also sexist, so Legend stated, "Funny there's no dad-shaming. When both of us go out to dinner, shame both of us so Chrissy doesn't have to take it all. We'll split it." How wonderful is that? We are experiencing a time when women are fighting hard to have equal rights that are deserved and long overdue. This is the height of feminism and it's great that males are also on board supporting the issue, like Legend. A big issue is wage equality and also circumstances like this, mom-shaming. They score a million points in our book for the way they balance their relationship and maintain fairness!

9. Their love song: “All of Me” is a beautiful love ballad that Legend wrote about Teigen. It’s about their relationship and how much he loves her. He dedicated it to her and it is a loving homage to her. She said in an interview about the song, “I did cry when I heard it, I’m emotional, but I really don’t cry at things like that, but yeah, it’s beautiful, and live it’s pretty unreal.” The two of them even star in the amazing music video for the song. (Which is also a piece of artwork by itself.) Watching the video, and listening to the song, it’s evident that their love is true and their bond is strong.

10. Affectionate: This couple gives us goals because they know how to display the proper amount of affection. They manage to balance perfectly – not too little, not too much. Even the photo of Chrissy kissing John’s nose was perfection. You can tell when they are hanging out, they can’t keep their eyes off of each other. They literally glow. Relationships are all about affection and passion. Because if you don’t feel strongly about the person you’re with, then you probably shouldn’t be with them. It couldn’t be more crystal clear that these two are truly in love. They take mirror pictures together, dance in waffle houses in evening wear attire, and are often in their own world together – which is how it should really be!

Product Review: Everyone Wants To Be An HourGlassAngel

This post is sponsored by HourGlassAngel

By Nicole Caico

If you've heard nothing about waist trainers, that's definitely a surprise! Whether you're a new mom like Chrissy Teigen, or just a woman who desires an hourglass figure like Khloe Kardashian, HourGlassAngel waist trainers are making headlines everywhere.

Product Review Of The HourGlassAngel Waist Trainer

Waist training is one of the hottest new trends, and while it's not a workout supplement, it can help increase fitness results. HourGlassAngel.com sells two types of trainers: one to be worn during workouts and one to be worn daily, for several hours in a row. The waist trainers, or cinchers, come in a variety of colors and designs.

While many celebrities praise the results of the waist trainer, many women are weary because they don't know exactly how they work. "Waist training, by definition, is the practice of wearing a corset or waist cincher regularly to instantly slim your waist, while also supplementing a fitness goal of reducing your natural waist size," explains Ruben Soto, CEO of HourGlassAngel.com. "Some women choose to do it only when working out, because many styles like the Amia Active Band are designed to increase perspiration and maximize any physical activity. Others wear a waist trainer for long hours every day like the Amia Classic Cincher. The more you wear it, the more dramatic the results." Soto also mentions that your waist trainer should feel "snug," but if it is painful or interferes with your breathing, it should be immediately taken off and exchanged for a different size. All trainers need to be worn consistently and paired with healthy diet and exercise to maintain results.

Whether you want to bounce back after having a baby, or just improve your shape overall, investing in an HourGlassAngel waist trainer can help you reach your goal.

Celebrity News: John Legend Writes Sweet Mother's Day Message to Chrissy Teigen

By Dena Linzer

In latest celebrity news, the adorable celebrity couple John Legend and Chrissy Teigen rang in their first Mother's Day with their new celebrity baby in the sweetest of ways! According to UsMagazine.com, pictures of Teigen and the new celebrity baby flooded Instagram news feeds, with Legend's kind words of appreciation under each photo.

In celebrity news, John Legend is totally appreciating the mother of his child! What are some ways to make your partner feel appreciated as a parent?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity news is super cute! Everyone loves feeling appreciated, especially when it comes to parenting. Cupid is here to provide some thoughtful ways to show your loved one gratitude while nurturing your little ball of sunshine:

1. Show it: Instead of simply saying "thank you," go above and show your appreciation. Of course, a "thank you" is nice, but giving your partner something in return is even nicer! Tell them to relax and make dinner for them, surprise them with a special date night, or buy them accessory they've been eyeing.

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity baby has an interesting name! But deciding on a name for your new baby can be difficult. Luckily, Cupid is here to give advice:

1. Discuss it in advance: While you don't want to discuss baby names too early, it's a good idea to mention your favorites in advance. Sneak it in there with phrases like, "I love the name Jennifer" or "Blake is such a nice name" so it sounds casual and doesn't add any unneeded pressure.

2. Compromise: If you find you and your partner have two very different names in mind, take those options out and decide on something completely different. Fighting over your new baby's name is not necessary. This should be a fun discussion, not an argument.

3. Question yourselves: Ask yourselves why you like certain names and not others. Is it after a relative? Does it mean something? Figure out what attracts you to names and what your partner likes in a name, as this will help you both look for names that you both find appealing.

Choosing a name for your baby is a big deal and you and your partner might not always agree. How did you compromise with your partner? Share your advice below!

Celebrity Couple News: Chrissy Teigen & John Legend Share Romantic Snuggly Photo

By Myesha Cobb

Celebrity couple Chrissy Teigen and John Legend seemed to be really comfy and cozy together as they posted a photograph of the two of them, plus their beloved dog Penny, on their laptops and under a blanket recently. According to UsMagazine.com, the post was on Chrissy's Instagram account, which showed Legend in a robe and his celebrity love Chrissy scantily clothed until a blanket. Of course, it didn't take other Instagram account users long to realize that Chrissy was possibly naked! Some users commented about how she appeared, of course, while others asked complex questions such as, "Who is taking the photo of them?" I guess we will never know, but this celebrity relationship is clearly still strong!
