By Sarah Batcheller

One of the happiest reality television love stories has come to an end. UsMagazine.com revealed that Cody Sattler and Michelle Money, who met on Season 1 of Bachelor in Paradise, have gone their separate ways after a cross-country move and six months of dating. Both stars took to social media to gracefully announce their split, and inform fans that they will remain lifelong friends. The single mom sweetly wrote, "Cody truly has blessed my life and the life of my daughter in more ways than he will ever know. His positive impact on Brielle is something I will forever be grateful for.”

How can you properly announce a breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

The end of a relationship can be tough not only on you and your ex but on your loved ones as well. After all, they too have grown close to your former partner during your time together. Here are three ways to gracefully share the news of your breakup:

1. Inform family and close friends first: In this case, Money has a young daughter, who spent a lot of time with Sattler. The closest people to you should always hear the news first because it will affect them the most. It’s better for those who had some emotional stake in the relationship to be able to process it before everyone else hears about it.

2. Don’t share too many details: Relationships are very personal, and that means breakups are too. If and when you announce your split on social media or in some other public way, don’t disclose any intimate details that you’ll regret having shared later on.

3. Make sure both of you are on the same page: Per the above statements, you want to make sure that you and your ex agree on who to tell and what details to reveal. You also want to agree on how and when you announce your breakup publicly. It may be uncomfortable, but it’s the last thing you’ll ever have to negotiate, so keep it amicable.

By Emily Meyer

Well, it seems like this Bachelor in Paradise couple is already on the path to a lifetime of happiness! For Michelle Money's 34th birthday, boyfriend Cody Sattler gave her the perfect birthday surprise: According to Wetpaint.com, the personal trainer treated his girl to a day at the spa. When Money took to Instagram to thank her friends and family for a great birthday, she wrote, “So many thank you’s for the amazing bday weekend!! Such a special night with great friends and family! All I wanted for my bday was for @cody_sattler to be living in #SLC and sure enough—he does!! Can’t help but feel so overwhelmed with love for the true friends of mine who have stuck with me thru thick and thin!” Money sure seems to have a lot to celebrate these days – and we couldn’t be happier for her!

What are three ways to surprise your partner on their birthday?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s your partner’s birthday, and you have run out of ideas for what to do to make their day extra special. Cupid knows it can be hard to surprise your partner year after year, so here are some ways to celebrate their big day:

1. Plan a surprise dinner: Everyone loves to be surrounded by the people that mean the most to them. Call all of your partner’s friends and family and tell them to meet at an intimate and sexy restaurant of your choice that you know your partner will love. This thoughtful surprise never fails!

2. Write love letters: You can’t go wrong by gushing to your partner about how much you love and appreciate them. Get friends and family to join in too, writing letters to your partner about their favorite memory or favorite quality.

3. Coordinate a scavenger hunt: Put the first clue in the cereal box or their sock drawer – somewhere they're sure to look first thing in the morning. After that, hide a string of notes having to do with your relationship and end with a hidden gift. Not only will it be fun, but it'll be a trip down memory lane for you and your partner!

'Bachelor In Paradise' Star Michelle Money Says, "I am the Luckiest Girl in the Whole World!"

By Ann Luther

The Bachelor in Paradise finale did not disappoint. Host Chris Harrison promised us drama, and as always, he delivered. In the end, it came down to three couples: adorable Sarah Herron and Robert Graham, solid Lacy Faddoul and Marcus Grodd, and wild cards Michelle Money and Cody Sattler. Then, Harrison rolled in with overnight date cards for the love birds, giving them time to work it out (and work it out) before the final day in paradise.

After the dates, Herron and Graham broke up and headed home. Of course, Faddoul and Grodd emerged from their room as engrossed as ever. And by a huge surprise, Money, who entered the date as unsure as one can be, and Sattler, both glowing, sauntered into the hut “satisfied” and “sore.” Money even gushed, “I have a boyfriend!”

After Money and Sattler exchanged roses, a very nervous Grodd took his girl down to the beach and proposed! Faddoul said yes, and they formally accepted each other's last roses. With intrigue and endings that happy, it's no wonder BIP has already been green-lighted for a sophomore season.

Intertwined in all the twists and turns of the episode was the internal struggle within Money to accept the love that Sattler was offering not only her but her young daughter too. The personal trainer was so sweet and patient with her as she hesitated throughout most of their time together. The Utah hairstylist said in interviews that he wasn't the type of guy she usually pursued. She also expressed feelings of being overwhelmed by how quickly his feelings progressed and how strongly he came on. It really wasn't until her last moments on camera that she decided to go all in.

Now that the season is over, everyone can see that she is elated with her man. Money's Twitter and Instagram accounts are flooded with pictures of the two of them along with her daughter. She captioned one sweet photo with, “Sooooo in love with @cody_sattler and so happy I can finally talk about it!! This man has changed my life!! I am a better woman because of him!!! I am the luckiest girl in the whole world!!” As she told UsMagazine.com, “I’ve never met anyone as amazing as Cody. I never thought someone like him existed. It’s been such a beautiful surprise.”

This got us thinking. In real life, we often end up with a partner who we never saw in our lives. We all have our types – the fellows we’re drawn to and keep falling in and out of relationships with until one day, we meet someone different. It’s always the “this one is so different” that ends up turning into “he’s The One.” So how do you know when to ditch your type and just go for it with the divergent dude? Here are three things to consider:

1. You're so over it: When the guy that is so up your alley lets you down just like all the others that came before him, it's time to mix it up. There is no need to keep torturing yourself with men just because they match your typical criteria. There are so many guys out there waiting for you!

2. You're in a slump: If you haven't been seeing anyone special for a while, it might be because you've boxed yourself in. When you look outside those boundaries, things will start to change, for better or worse. The point is: They're changing. You're getting out there and learning things about yourself that you may have forgotten because you unknowingly cut yourself off from all of those other fish in the sea.

3. He's right there: Just like Money realized, someone could be right in front of your face, begging you to see them. Maybe you friend-zoned him ages ago; maybe he even gets under your skin a little bit; or maybe you met him yesterday and automatically wrote him off. Whatever the excuse, tell that voice in your head to pipe down and leap into his arms. Most likely, he will catch you and never put you down.

What are some important factors to consider before tying the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Want to make sure you are marrying the right person? Cupid has some tips:

1. Money: Make sure to look at each other's incomes and debts collectively. As a couple, you'll need to figure out how you will pay off any debts, how you will share money in various accounts, and how much work you'll do for the lifestyle you want.

2. Discuss location: It is not going to work if you and your partner are in different locations. Sit down with your honey and discuss where you want to live and which location seems best for the both of you.

3. Your needs and wants: When marriage is in the cards, it's important to talk about family life and whether you want to start one. Are children in the equation for you? Iron those types of things out before tying the knot.
