

10 Signs That You're in Love

By Courtney Omernick

Ah, love. The subject is covered on television, in books, movies, magazines, and now, here! Sometimes, it seems that we receive an overwhelming amount of suggestions on how to love our partner's better, express our love, etc. from every form of media. But, what if you don't even know if you're in love in the first place? Never fear, Cupid to the rescue!

Cupid's Advice:

1. Everything they do is perfect: From the way they dance to how they brush their teeth in the morning, there is no flaw in any action they make whatsoever. And, you're completely smitten while watching their every single move. Seriously, this person can do no wrong!

2. They've consumed your thoughts: Can't figure out what to eat for breakfast? Finding it hard to study? If the person you're with is starting to cloud your thoughts, you might be in love.

3. You slowly retreat from society: Before your partner, it was all about your friends, family, and having "me" time. Now that you're together, you've started to spend less and less time with others and more time with your "other." It's not that you hate your friends and family, it's just that being away from your partner feels so...wrong.

4. Being with them is what matters: You could be scuba diving, at the movies, hiking, grocery shopping, or just lying in bed; it doesn't matter. As long as you have them by your side, one activity is just as great as the next.

5. You don't mind having to compromise sometimes: If you can't be flexible regarding something simple, you should probably start packing your bags. However, if you don't mind a little give and take, it's probably a good sign that you're in love.

6. You've forgotten about your ex: John who? If you're in love, you're no longer wondering about whether or not you made the right decision to break it off with your ex. In fact, the thought is the furthest thing from your mind. You might not even remember why you were with your ex to begin with.

7. You're happy...about everything: Your life feels like it's all rainbows and butterflies. Nothing can bring you down. Stuck in a traffic jam on the way to work? No problem! This only gives you more time to think about your partner.

8. You're reordering your priorities: Let's face it, you've started to put your partner's needs before your own. You might have even changed your clothing, habits, mannerisms, or values in order for them to better match your partners. Guess what? Love is in the air!

9. You feel the words slipping out of your mouth: It could happen when the two of you are simply walking down the street. Your partner looks at you, and without saying anything, you feel the phrase, "I love you" on the tip of your tongue. If those words are crying to leave your lips, it could be love.

10. You'd do anything for them: If you're in love, you generally feel a sense of empathy and think of the other person's pain as their own. Because of this, you feel that you'd be willing to sacrifice anything for the other person.

5 Celebrity Divorces That Turned Nasty

By Courtney Omernick

No one ever said that getting a divorce is fun, but imagine your divorce being in every magazine and broadcast all over the television on the evening news. With the stress and pressures that Hollywood brings, it's no wonder so many star's marriages are over before they even started. Below are five of the nastiest celebrity divorces thus far.

1. Jon and Kate Gosselin: It seems the couple was getting ready for a divorce within a few months of America meeting their eight children. Kate ended up accusing Jon of taking $230,000 of the $231,000 they had in their joint bank account. Jon denied Kate's claims stating that he only took $22,000 and that Kate is "hiding money." For this couple, there were multiple accusations followed by a denial, then a rebuttal.

2. Denise Richards and Charlie Sheen: The breakup of this power couple was one of the ugliest Hollywood has ever seen! After three years of marriage, Richards filed for divorce in 2005 stating that Sheen was unfaithful, abusive, and addicted to prostitutes. Soon after, Sheen told Richards to “rot in  hell” and called her a “sad, jobless ****.”

3. Christie Brinkley and Peter Cook: After almost 10 years of marriage, Brinkley filed for divorce after learning that Cook had an affair with his 18-year-old assistant, Diana Bianchi. During the divorce trail, there were accusations that Brinkley raided Cook’s office, scratched his face out of family photos, and copied his hard drive. Brinkley ended up paying Cook $2 million, but she got to keep her 18 properties and was given custody of their two children.

4. Liza Minnelli and David Guest: These stars were married less than two years before Guest sued Minnelli for $10 million claiming that his wife beat him so badly during rages (spurred by alcohol) that he had suffered neurological damage and had to be hospitalized. From there, Minnelli countersued and accused Guest of stealing $2 million while he produced her shows. Over the next few years, more allegations surfaced, and the pair decided to call it quits in 2007.

5. Britney Spears and Kevin Federline: While the divorce itself wasn’t so much of a disaster, the custody battle was unbearable. Spears’s breakdown involving Kevin and their two sons, Sean Preston and Jayden James happened in January 2008 when she refused to turn the boys over to Federline for a scheduled visitation. Spears ended up hiding the boys in her home for four hours until police physically removed her and put her into a medical center.

By Courtney Omernick

Just in case you've been living under a rock for the past month, Kim Kardashian and Kanye West were married in Italy in May, and apparently, the first kiss after they said their "I do's" was anything but quick. According to UsMagazine.com, on his June 15 appearance on Watch What Happens Live, Andre Leon Talley told host, Andy Cohen that Kim and Kanye's first kiss as husband and wife was "extremely long."

How do you decide the best course of action for your wedding kiss?

Cupid's Advice

A quick peck or a lasting impression, your first kiss as husband and wife is kind of important. You're officially starting a new chapter in your lives, and that's what seals the deal. So, what do you go for? Ultimately, it's a decision that comes down to you and your partner. Struggling with this topic? Cupid has some advice on how to decide the best course of action:

1. Think about your audience: Yes, your audience is going to be filled with friends and family members that adore you, so why not let loose? But, be sure to consider the actual demographics. Are there more elder individuals, kids, close relatives, friends? Think about how each demographic in the audience is going to feel about your first kiss.

2. Ask around: Know someone that has had a wedding party similar to yours? It may sound silly, but asking a question will get you an answer! Why not ask your friends, close family members, or even your parents what you should do. It can't hurt, right?

3. When all else fails, throw caution to the wind: At the end of the day, you might get too swept up in the moment, or you just might not care. Whatever you do, you have to do you. If in the moment it feels right to go with a longer kiss, go for it! Try your best to keep your audience in mind, but don't hold back so much that it turns into an awkward moment.

By Courtney Omernick

According to UsMagazine.com, Elisabetta Canalis revealed via WhoSay on June 13 that she recently suffered a miscarriage. The actress spoke about her miscarriage to followers by composing an extensive message regarding the incident. The 35-year-old wrote, "Unfortunately, life gives you...a reality that you do not expect." A miscarriage is something a woman should never have to suffer through.

How do you support your partner during pregnancy issues?

Cupid's Advice

When a couple is expecting a child, it can be one of the happiest times in their lives. Unfortunately, as Elisabetta Canalis stated, life can give you a reality that you don't expect (such as a miscarriage), and there can be issues with the pregnancy. This can be a very trying time in a couple's relationship, so, Cupid has come up with a few suggestions on how to support your partner during pregnancy issues:

1. Get informed: If your partner is having complications, it's extremely important that you learn as much as you possibly can about the issues, symptoms, etc. This means, Google will become your best friend. Watch informational Youtube videos, listen to audiobooks, join chat groups and ask questions, but most importantly, do what you need in order to fully understand the situation.

2. Be by their side: Be sure to go with your partner to prenatal visits, ultrasounds, and other doctor's appointments. This goes along with being informed. You'll be able to sympathize better because you know exactly what's going on and you can ask the medical staff questions if you don't.

3. Help your partner stay healthy: This goes both ways: physically and emotionally. When complications arise and we're stressed, we can tend to revert back to old tendencies or pick up unhealthy habits. Make sure that you monitor your partner's stress levels, and how they're fueling their body. You can make it easier for them by joining their journey and participating in healthy eating and safe exercise habits.

What are some advantages to pulling off a secret wedding?

Cupid’s Advice

Usually, when you think of two people getting married you might picture a church, large wedding dress, the guests, a bridal party, the list could go on. And, most of us might be a bit taken aback when we hear that a certain couple’s wedding didn’t provide most of, if not all of, those specific elements. But, there can be some advantages to pulling off a secret wedding. Cupid has some tips:

1. The day is actually about YOU: Everyone says that weddings are all about the bride and groom. After all, it is THEIR day, right? Let's face it; most of the time the couple is trying to meet the needs of their guests, stay within budget, and wrapped up in accomplishing whatever it takes to please everyone else that the day becomes more about the guests than themselves.

Where are three tropical paradises that make a good wedding venue?

Cupid's Advice:

With a lot of celebrities getting married in remote, tropical locations as opposed to churches and courthouses, your interest in an outdoor, luxurious wedding may have been piqued. Don't worry, we've got you covered! Below are three tropical paradises that make great wedding venues:

1. Aruba: One of the main reasons why this island makes for a great wedding venue is because of its predictable weather. Aruba presents a dry climate and it's outside of the hurricane belt, so you can expect sunshine all year round! Once on the island, specific destinations to consider are the Divi group, which is all-inclusive for families and budget conscious, or the Bucuti and Tara beach resorts for its "adults only" spin.

2. Cancun/Riviera Maya: Because of the ecological diversity in this Mexican region, there are multiple, beautiful locations for weddings beyond the beaches. The historic Mayan ruins and lush rainforests can also create a picturesque ceremony. But, if you're looking for specifics, Dreams Puerto Aventuras is perfect for families, while Secrets Capri Riviera Cancun works wonders for an adult-only, all-inclusive event.

3. The Bahamas: If you're looking for that scenic, tropical spot to exchange nuptials, The Bahamas certainly has enough of those. However, the most popular wedding destination in the Bahamas is on Paradise Island where you can find the famous Atlantis Resort. The Atlantis Resort is known to be the ideal venue for groups and families.
