Just because the Olympics are over doesn't mean you have to lose your American pride! Enjoy a romantic getaway full of fun date ideas in the Hamptons at The American Hotel!

Located on the upscale East-End, this hotel is truly a gem of history. Built in the 1700's, it is a one-of-a-kind place. During the Revolutionary War, the James Howell Inn, as it was known back then, was the stomping grounds for the British Army. However, the building that stood there originally is said to have burned down in a fire, and it was rebuilt in 1845. At that point, it was renamed The American Hotel or 'House' as it was sometimes referred to during the Whaling Era that swept through New England and the rest of the United States.

While the building may be historic, it does not rely on history to make a name for itself. With rave reviews from the likes of the New York Times, the hotel is definitely worth it. The barroom has 30,000 wine bottles in the cella, and was awarded the Grand Award by Wine Spectator. That award has only been handed out 87 times, worldwide!

Along with an award-winning selection of wines, the hotel has a famous restaurant of its own that serves, lunch, dinner, and desserts! The Hamptons offer so many food options that you should look around at other options in the area as well for a romantic dinner out on the town!

The hotel only has eight rooms, so you need to book in advance! According to the hotel's website, each one has a different character to it, as well as a unique charm! There is often a waiting list, too, so this hotel is really in demand! Be prepared to have multiple dates available.

Let's Talk, Quietly, About NYC's Speakeasies

By Josh

Speakeasies, the basic concept of hidden bars, are making a major comeback. Originally created during the Prohibition Era to hide alcoholic beverages from authorities, a speakeasy was a great locale for conversation, a date, and the only place to have alcohol at the time, making them super popular restaurants! It seems like 'vintage' is an obsession of the modern times and while that seems ironic, it is true. Vinyl is back on the shelves, among other vintage-esque things, with modern touches. That leaves a perfect opportunity for some smart business people to reintroduce speakeasies to our lives! Thankfully, if you're 21 and up, you can visit these speakeasies, and you don't even have to hide it from the cops! Taking into account all the different aspects of what makes dining at a speakeasy so unique, below is a list of some of the city's top speakeasies, for a date night, or just a night on the town!

New York's restaurant scene is always changing, but speakeasies are quietly moving to the top! You need to check these out.

Find a Broadway Star at this hidden bar @ Bar Centrale: After seeing a show on Broadway, don't waste your time waiting for a celebrity sighting. Head right to 46th, between 8th Ave and 9th Ave, to the unmarked wooden doors that lead to Bar Centrale. Inside, amidst the other speakeasy-goers, you'll find some of Broadway's best along with great food and beverages. Make a reservation as seating is limited, but it is worth the wait!

Fall in Love, Not Overboard @ The Ship: If there were awards for 'Best Modern Theme for a Speakeasy' then the choice would be easy. The Ship submerges you into a nautical theme from the second you walk in. Walk through a hallway to a dark stairwell, scoot down the stairs, and you're inside The Ship! Dim lighting sets the mood for a romantic date night, and for those looking for the full alcohol treatment, head towards the upper level of "the cruise" where a full bar awaits! Ahoy!

Related Link: Dating Advice: What Is A Man Looking For In A Woman?

Customized Alterations @ Attaboy: Stop mixing your favorite drinking at home, even it is perfectly altered to your tastes. Attaboy will alter their drinks to suit you; in fact, they even customize them just for you! Why so many alteration puns? The bar is hidden behind a sign that reads Tailors M&H Alterations, and that is how you enter this awesome speakeasy located right off Delancey St. in Lower Manhattan. Ring the bell for entry!

Smart Calories @ Apotheke: Adding a mason jar to any alcoholic beverage may have been the best type of drinking companion, that is until Apotheke came along. Located on Doyers Street, this hidden gem of a New York restaurant is full of vintage style and a scientific style. Lab-coat-wearing bartenders serve you a high-quality drink in a chemistry beaker! Yes, those things you broke in high school actually have some purpose in life. They even have a Prohibition menu!

I'm Telling @ PDT: Also known as Please Don't Tell, this speakeasy is truly unique for its entrance. In the middle of a typical hot dog restaurant is a phone, and that phone serves as your entrance into this bar. Located in the East Village, PDT is very elegant looking, and could really add some scenery to a romantic date night. The dim lighting, decor, and drinks would make for a perfect first date!

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Karaoke

Kinda Like a High School Party @ Fat Cat: High school parties, from what you can remember, made a lot of use out of pool tables, ping pong tables, and they almost always involved a basement. Fat Cat does a great job of reintroducing your high school nights when you enter this bar. Located in the West Village, this bar's atmosphere, with ping pong tables, pool tables, and more, is a great place for you to take your high school sweetheart, or any other partner. This bar will certainly make for a competitive game-date-night!

Secretly Historic @ Backroom: One cannot talk about speakeasies in the city without mentioning the truly authentic, historic Backroom. This speakeasy has been around since the actual Prohibition Era and serves alcohol like they did back then: cocktails in teacups! In order to enter, you have to get the password from their Facebook page (that's the modern touch) and then enter through a bookcase! If you have visited all the other popular restaurants on the list, this is the one you need to go to. It is perfect for a date night, or for an unique experience you can't get anywhere else!

Secretly pass along a speakeasy suggestion in the comments below!

Enjoy Cultural Infusion and Delicious Food on a Date Night to Oiji in NYC

By Josh

It is not every day that a famous restaurant gives you a unique cultural experience. However, not every restaurant is like Oiji, a new restaurant in Manhattan. A great piece of dating advice is to go on a lot of date nights, and a great date idea is definitely this cultural cuisine masterpiece in NYC's East Village.

Oiji should be on your list for future date nights, a cultural experience with unique, but yummy food!

Oiji was originally a collective thought in the minds of Brian Kim and Tae Kyung Ku, the co-chefs and co-owners of this popular restaurant. Their goal was to bring the food of Korea, where they both grew up, in a modernized fashion to new tasters. They both attended the Culinary Institute of America, and were roommates. Oiji was their dream, and now you can enjoy that with your dream partner!

Located in the East Village, this popular restaurant will excite your date night. The website for Oiji describes the seating area as intimate, but stylish and is full of unique features. An open kitchen, reclaimed wood, and large windows set the scene for your delicious trip.

The menu at Oiji is meant to be shared, a perfect place for a date night! The menu offers many traditional Korean dishes like handmade dumplings, Jang-jo-rim, and more. The dishes are priced between $8 and $29, but a ssam platter for two is only $38.

A flight to Korea will certainly cost you more than $20 a person, so Cupid definitely recommends trying this Korean masterpiece. It is not every day that you can try authentically traditional Korean food, but that is one of the many great things Manhattan has to offer. Your stomach won't be disappointed, and a good meal will make the two of you happy! Try the honey butter chips for dessert to end the night on a sweet note.

'Botched' Star Dr. Paul Nassif Launches New Anti-Aging Skincare Line

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Rebecca White

For those of us who are feeling aged, don't get enough sleep or are constantly stressed, a good skincare product always helps us look and feel better. But, with so many beauty products on the market, how can a girl even choose. That's why we were thrilled to find out that our trusted TV doc, plastic surgeon and former Real Housewives of Beverly Hills reality TV star, Dr. Paul Nassif launched a new anti-aging collection, Bio-Clock Dermaceuticals earlier this year. This skincare line is no joke. It fills your pores with love.

During an exclusive celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, the star of E!'s reality TV show Botched spoke about his new collection and shared details surrounding how his amazing beauty products will cleanse and hydrate your skin just in time for your next date night. You can even check out the famous doctor's summer beauty tips and learn how these products can cleanse, exfoliate, hydrate, and protect your skin in our product review below.

Dr. Paul Nassif's Summer Beauty Tips

As a facial plastic surgeon, it comes as no surprise that Dr. Nassif looks at skin differently than a dermatologist would. Even when he's doing a facelift, the reality TV star says he can see the loss of elasticity, collagen, and hydration. That's why his goal was to have active ingredients in his new beauty products, such as ElastaDermC, a potent form of vitamin C, and retinol which will really make your skin glow. Dr. Nassif's skincare line features all of the essential ingredients for a proactive summer, such as the gentle cleanser, detox pads, hydro-screen hydrating serum, and night beauty serum. Like the doctor says, these products will "wipe away the signs of aging." The surgeon explains how to use these products effectively this summer with his beauty tips below.

Related Link: Product Review: Express Your Love With a Chalk Me UP! T-Shirt

1. Cleanse. This is especially important during the summer because of the hot and humid weather which leads to sweat that takes longer to evaporate off your skin. The Pure Hydration Gentle Cleanser is gentle enough to remove eye makeup but tough enough to remove pore-clogging debris. Don't let that humid weather ruin your skin's glow.

2. Exfoliate. Make sure you exfoliate at the right times. Not only will it help you maintain a fresh fake tan, but gentle facial exfoliation will help create a better canvas for makeup application allowing your skin to wear less on those warm, summer evenings. The Detox Pads in Dr. Nassif's new anti-aging skincare line are shown to remove 108% more makeup and dirt than soap and water because of ingredients like retinol, glycolic acid, and salicylic acid (see image above). You will love how amazing your skin feels after a 30-second detox session with this age defying product. Remember to exfoliate the morning after a swim in the pool or ocean, not prior.

Related Link: Product Review: Find Out Why Celebrity Babies Love Lorena Canals Rugs

3. Hydrate. Stay hydrated. You may have let up on this a little since winter left the premises, but don't give it up for good. A solid moisturizing routine can do many beneficial things for your complexion. Dry skin is unhappy, damage-prone skin, so apply a product to protect it from summertime drying agents like sunburns, salt, and chlorine. The new Hydro-Screen Hydrating Serum is a lightweight moisturizer that plumps as it hydrates. "Your skin drinks this product," the surgeon said in an exclusive celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com. "This is one of the only products that hydrates your skin. Our goal is to increase hydration, luminosity, and help the appearance of discoloration."

4. Protect. Your skin is a barrier that protects you from environmental aggressors like pollution, bacteria, and moisture loss. Keeping your skin healthy helps that barrier continue to work properly. Protect your skin with products that contain antioxidants which will help repair damaged skin and prevent free radicals from doing undesirable work. The Day Therapy Energizing Creme and Night Therapy Antioxidant Night Serum will revitalize your skin, increase the effectiveness of your sunscreens, and boost your skin's defense against UV exposure. Dr. Nassif says these products work for your entire face.

These beauty products are proven to reduce dry lines, wrinkles, age spots, sun spots, and discoloration. Many of Nassif's patients have noticed that their skin returned to its natural tone after using the product line. Don't believe us? The reality star and doctor uses his own products, and at 54 years old, he looks 10 years younger.

Whether you're getting ready for your next date night or just keeping up with the latest beauty tricks, Dr. Nassif's anti-aging beauty products have you covered. Be prepared to feel the difference of the active ingredients working to help you through the aging process.

Eat a Cultured Meal by a Famous Chef at One of NYC's Future Famous Restaurants, Tapestry

By Josh

The City That Never Sleeps is one of the most diverse places in the USA, let alone the world. While that means you can try many different types of cultured food, it is often hard to find the perfect restaurant to really have that authentic meal. If you are in need of a city date night and are looking for a restaurant as one of your date ideas, Tapestry could be the perfect place for you.

Tapestry will be on NYC's list of famous restaurants soon, and the food, famous chef, and setting are easily the reasons why.

Destined to become one of NYC's newest famous restaurants, Tapestry is located in the heart of the Meatpacking District and is run by famous chef Suvir Saran, who is also the joint's owner.

Saran adds global flavors to his Indian cuisine. The famous chef's menu is rather short, but what it lacks in many options, it adds in multiple flavors. Each dish is unique and will excite your taste buds!

Celebrity Couple Gwen Stefani & Blake Shelton Enjoy 'Honey Moon' After Birthday Celebration

By Nicole

Caico

Celebrity couple Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton took a birthday trip that will give you date night envy for a lifetime. According to UsMagazine.com, to celebrate Shelton turning 40, Stefani decorated a private jet that took the couple to Shelton's farm in Oklahoma. While there, the couple took a ride on Shelton's speed boat and enjoyed the 'Honey Moon' on the night of the summer solstice. Since getting together in November 2015, this celebrity relationship has continued to blossom, as evidenced by Stefani's tweet to Shleton, ""Happy birthday to my favorite person I ever met

This celebrity couple is finding new and exciting things to do together. What are some adventurous date ideas to plan for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Though most of us won't be riding a private jet for a birthday trip anytime soon, there are still many ways to keep things exciting. Date night doesn't have to be dinner and a movie. Cupid is here to help you think outside the box for your next date night:

1. Something you'd never do: If you're like most couples, there is probably something your partner loves to do that you really don't care for. Whether it's horseback riding, sports, or shopping, plan a day of that activity. Your partner will be impressed that you went out of your way and out of your comfort zone, to do something they really love.

2. Adventures close to home: Wherever you live, especially if it's in the U.S., there is a good chance that there is a park near to where you live that you've never visited. State parks in the U.S. range from beach to mountain depending on where you live, and they normally don't cost more than ten dollars. Find a place close to home that you've never been to and make a date. And, if the outdoors isn't your thing, search for an indoor rock climbing facility or even take a dance class. The definition of adventure will vary by couple.

La Birreria is a delicious restaurant that is perfect for a date night!

New York City offers so many seasonal options, like ice skating in the winter and scenic walks in the summer. It is no wonder then that the owners behind La Birreria make the restaurant change with the seasons as well. This summer, the theme is Sabbia, which in English means 'sand.' Featuring 'cabana' seating, this pop-up restaurant will not disappoint.

To top off the brand new scenery, the menu changes alongside the seasons as well. Brand new drinks and meals accompany the changing seasons, and this summer is no exception. The Italian food dishes will surely make your mouth water for more.

Pastas, antipasti, oysters, and much more brace their menu. The menu is full of Italian favorites with delicious taste that are sure to make you and your date happy. To top off your date night, the dessert menu includes cannolis, coffee, and tiramisu.

Perhaps one of the best parts of this restaurant is the fact that it is a microbrewery as well. The adult beverage offerings include wine, cocktails, and beer. The two-page menu is full of flavors and options for everyone. You may want to have Uber up on your phone and ready to go!

Sabbia, which is in La Birreria, is seasonal only so you want to check it out soon. But, do not fear! La Birreria remains open year round, using retractable roofs to protect you from spring showers and heaters to keep you warm in the winter.

Eating American

If you're looking for more of a classic American dish, or go-to summer foods, 75 Main in South Hampton offers a menu filled with burgers, variations on a BLT, lobster rolls, and seafood dishes. Also serving up an American style menu is the East Hampton Grill in East Hampton. Their menu features a fresh fish of the day, along with crab cakes, barbecued burgers and ribs, and some salads—including a scallop salad, a blue cheese wedge salad, and the tried and true caesar.

A true dining delight can be had at Red Bar Brasserie in South Hampton. A brasserie is characterized as an unpretentious restaurant or gathering place that serves simple and hearty food—and Red Bar seems to be just that. Like most other Hamptons eateries, they feature a menu largely based on local ingredients and freshly caught fish and seafood. Their interior differs from other hot spots in that they traded in the big windows and natural light for a more low lit dining room, but outdoor seating is also available.

These restaurants are only the tip of the iceberg for the long list of spots to choose from. After looking through these menus and restaurant picture galleries, it's clear why celebs put the Hamptons on their list of travel destinations. While the dining experience at any of these eateries is sure to be worth remembering on its own, the chance of a celebrity sitting during your date night is definitely a bonus.

In fact, Watch What Happens Live host Andy Cohen owns a house in Noyac Bay and can be caught out and about in the Hamptons every summer. Sarah Jessica Parker and hubby Matthew Broderick own a place in Amagansett and spend their time in areas between the Hamptons and Montauk. Kelly Ripa and Jerry Seinfeld, two stars essential to NYC, often migrate out east during summer months as well. Scott Disick, former Long Island resident, helped bring the Kardashian family out to the east end during summer 2014 to film Kourtney and Khloe Take the Hamptons. Although Disick no longer resides in the Hamptons, his Long Island roots keep him and his family coming back for celebrity vacations.

Eating out in the Hamptons will either make you feel like a celebrity, or bring you face to face with one. For those who are looking for great date night food and the chance to rub elbows with the rich and famous, the Hamptons is the destination for both.

Celebrity Couple Miley Cyrus

& Liam Hemsworth Hold Hands on Date Night in NYC

By

Stephanie Sacco

Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth won our hearts in The Last Song and even more so when they started dating in real life. Since they cut ties, we've wanted this celebrity couple to get back together. It's finally happened! Although nothing has been confirmed, the pair was seen holding hands leaving Soho House in NYC after a dinner date. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity gossip is that Cyrus was wearing the engagement ring that Hemsworth gave her back in 2013. In celebrity news, these two crazy kids might be able to make it work after all.

This celebrity couple is most definitely on-again! What are some ways to decide whether to get back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

On-and-off relationships are sometimes unavoidable, but you never want to continue the back and forth for too long. Cupid has some ways to tell whether it's a good idea to get back together with your ex:

1. If it works for both of you: Timing is everything when it comes to getting back together with an ex. If you are seeing him often and it's convenient, give it another go. Being single at the same time might just be fate telling you to try again.

2. If it's a positive experience: As long as the two of you decide mutually that it's working and that it's doing more good than harm, absolutely get back together. But once it starts to go downhill, cut ties. Until then enjoy it while it lasts.

3. If it's changed: Don't keep going in the same circle when it comes to your ex. If he hasn't changed and the circumstances aren't any different, don't waste either of your time. When the two of you are willing to communicate and fix the relationship, that's when you know it's different.

Dating Advice: How to Make A Man Initiate The First Move?

By Joshua

Pompey

There he is, standing at the other end of the bar. He's tall. He's handsome. He's the first man in a month that has made you remember you actually have an interest in the male dating pool. He's looked over at you twice since you first arrived. The question is, how are you going to get him to make the first move? As a relationship expert, I have some dating advice. Let's take a look at a few ways to make this happen with the use of the following dating tips.

Dating Advice: Get Him To Make The First Move

1. Smile as much as possible. Most men want to walk over and say hello. But just about every man alive has had that brutal experience of being instantly dismissed the second he walks over to introduce himself. This is a fear that we all face. So make it clear that you are a friendly face and that he has nothing to worry about. My dating advice is that smiling will go a long way towards making him comfortable.

2. Go out in groups of three. When you are with just one other person, a respectful man may feel awkward attempting to interrupt the pair, or will feel too much pressure knowing he has to entertain the both of you. On the other hand, more than three people can be very intimidating. Groups of three are a perfect balance. It's not too intimidating, and when a man hits on you, your other two friends are still there to entertain each other without anybody having to feel left out.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Does A Man Really Have to Call?

3. Hold that gaze. "I think she was looking at me, should I go for it?" I've heard this phrase uttered hundreds of times in my life among male friends. Don't just look at a guy you are interested in and quickly turn away. He may not be sure, or may think the only reason you looked over is because he looked first. Hold the gaze for a solid second or two, look into his eyes, and smile. Then look away. This will make it clear that you want him to come over.

4. Wear something that is easy to comment on. It could be a necklace, a sports jersey on football night, or a funny t-shirt. Whatever the case may be, the easier you make it for a man to think of something to say without having to think of a lame pick up line, the more likely he will actually say something.

Related Link: Dating Advice: The Secrets to Attraction

5. Don't half ass it. Happy hour is one of the best times of the week to meet someone who is successful and interesting. Happy hour running straight from work looking like a hot mess is not. You never know when you will have the opportunity to meet the man of your dreams. It could be at happy hour, a social group, or just walking the streets. If you want a man to make the first move, always look your best self and your chances will improve dramatically.

According to UsMagazine.com, Jenner posted a video to Instagram demonstrating her bowling skills, while PartyNextDoor uploaded clips of the pair's time out on his Snapchat. In celebrity news, Jenner's ex Tyga also previously had a relationship with Blac Chyna, who is now engaged to Jenner's half-brother Rob Kardashian. The family's about to get a whole lot closer.

This new celebrity couple is getting creative. What are some fun date night ideas for new couples?

Cupid's Advice:

Date night should be exciting! If you're tired of going to the same restaurants and visiting the same movie theaters with your partner, try something a little more creative. Cupid is here to help:

1. Take a class: Go down to the rec center and find a pottery or cooking class. Join a book club or start one of your own. If you're both passionate in something, go for it. It'll bring you closer together.

Date Idea: Summer Nights

By Sarah

Ribeiro. Updated by Mary DeMaio

There's something so romantic about summertime. The fresh smell of flowers, the sweet salt from the ocean and all the fun and laughter. Embrace the warm summer nights this weekend with these enjoyable date ideas to do in the dark.

Top Three Summer Night Date Ideas

1. Evening picnic: Find a public park that's open after sunset, park your car at a scenic location or stay in your own yard. On this date night, bring a lantern, portable music player to set the mood, and two blankets, one to sit on and one to wrap around you if it gets chilly. Pack a simple dinner of late-night snacks, like crackers with cheese, chocolate-covered berries or a baguette and hummus. If you're in a zoned area, you and your honey can even light a bonfire and roast some marshmallows.

2. Midnight dance party: Pick an area in your yard and surround it with lights and midnight snacks, like popcorn and chips. Before the party, send your guests a playlist in MP3 format and ask them to bring their music players with them. At the stroke of midnight, have everyone plug in their headphones and hit play for a “silent disco.” You can dance under the stars without worrying about being too loud. Be sure to include a couple slow songs for a few romantic moments – especially if you have single friends who you want to set up.

3. Movie in the park: You can find park series from California to New York by checking online databases or your local paper. If the park’s too far away, look for a local drive-in theater or make one of your own. Hang a large white blanket on the side of your house, rent a projector and pop in any of your favorite movies to have a private theater in your own backyard. When the date night is over, there’s no need to go inside. Set up a couple of sleeping bags and a tent with a mesh skylight, and fall asleep in your partner’s arms while you stare at the stars.

Weekend Date Idea: Head Back In Time & Enjoy A Drive-In Movie

By Sarah

Batcheller. Updated by Mary DeMaio

We all want a relationship and love like we see in old films like Breakfast at Tiffany's, Casablanca – you get the picture. Why not plan a date night that reminds you of these movies? Catch a film at a drive-in movie theater with your beau. Drive-in movies are the perfect balance of the big screen and the great outdoors. The two of you will have your seats all to yourselves, so you can snuggle as you please. Best of all, you'll have a classic, romantic date night that you'll never forget.

Date Idea: Head to the Drive-In Movie Theater

Drive-in theaters are easy because you never even have to stand up. So, if you and your boo are torn between hanging out on the couch or getting all dressed up to go out, you can have the best of both worlds. Netflix just doesn't compare to a night like this. USA Today has described some of the best drive-in theaters in the nation, and you can always search for local ones online as well. It pays to do your research before embarking on this date idea, as you'll find which theaters are older and have a more iconic feel and which are newer with more updated features, like high-resolution screens. You'll also want to look at the movie listings ahead of time so that you can choose a film you know you will both enjoy.

Related Link: Date Idea: Throw a Classic Movie Night

To go all out, rent or borrow a convertible so that the openness creates a relaxing atmosphere. Or if you're insect-adverse, go ahead and keep the roof up. Either way, fill the car with pillows and blankets and recline your seats. Another good thing about drive-in theaters is that you don't have to sneak in snacks in your purse. Bring something homemade to munch on. You can even bring a bottle of wine and two disposable wine glasses. That way, the coziness is at 100 percent. When the film is over, you can end the date night with a midnight drive around town or stop at a local diner to really achieve that 1950's feel.

This date idea is perfect for the summertime, because it will make you feel like you're in a movie yourself. Now that you've found the relationship and love you've always dreamed of, it's time to have a date to make you feel like a star. With the summer sky twinkling above and the coolness of the night settling in, neither of you will be able to deny the romance in the air. Take this dating advice as it'll be a great way to spend quality time with your sweetheart and remind you that your love is timeless.

For added fun, make it a group date and invite other couples to come along.

If you're near a beach, watch the sunset over the ocean while enjoying a glass of Merlot. After dinner, build a cozy campfire and roast marshmallows to make s'mores. A perfect date idea for the long summer nights.

Leave the other couples at home and take some one on one time to go out dancing. You and your partner can turn up the romance by taking a class together or winging it under the moonlight. The shining stars against the dark sky provide a lovely backdrop for your evening. To make your 4th of July date extra special, our relationship advice is to try playing some sweet slow jams that tell your partner how you truly feel.

End your weekend with a bang by attending a fourth of July fireworks display. Take a trip to a nearby lake or park to view the fireworks. Buy a drink to share or a plate of carnival food. Date Idea: Enjoy The Great Outdoors With Your Other Half

By Amanda

Martin. Updated by Stephanie Sacco.

It's finally summertime, which means it's time to get active outdoors and take advantage of the hot sun. There's no reason not to spend every second outside this summer. Say goodbye to the snow and hello to the beach with these date ideas.

Date Idea: Spend Time Together Outdoors

Go to a nearby park or trail and go for a romantic stroll or a bike ride. Rent a bike on the boardwalk or walk hand in hand taking in the scenery. Remember, this isn't a race, so don't speed ahead or try to show off your skills. To be extra romantic, go for the tandem bike and make this a team effort. Either way, it's a fun healthy way to spend the weekend.

Related Link: Date Idea: Run in the Name of Love

Another way to take in the trees is to go on a hike. Instead of a casual walk, take it to the mountains. Bring a backpack and a camera and document your trip like a tourist. Have a date night at the top of the mountain and if you can't get to a mountain, find a hill. Spread out a blanket at the top and take in your surroundings with your partner by your side.

Related Link: Date Idea: Run Outta Moonlight

When you're done with your intense outdoor activities, take a break from your exercise and sit under the stars. Maybe drive to a lookout point or a camp site for a romantic dinner. Just enjoy each others company while nighttime hits and a cool breeze falls over you. Follow this dating advice and snuggle up under a blanket or borrow his sweatshirt on this weekend date idea.

Date Idea: Stroll Through the Farmer's Market

By Amanda

Martin. Updated by Mary DeMaio

Enjoy the spring weather with this weekend date idea by visiting a farmer's market with your significant other. You'll find individual vendors – mostly farmers – who set up booths to sell locally grown products.

Great Date Idea for the Warm Weather

Stroll around, smell the flowers and try all of the food samples, from the aged Gouda to the warm loaves of sourdough bread. Be inspired by what's in season and grab the ripest, red apple to snack on while walking around with your honey. If you're in the mood for lunch, you can find all of the ingredients here to make your very own picnic for two.

For this date night, pair your meal with a regional wine, and head to the nearest park. Or, buy fresh vegetables to bring home and cook up with your partner using a recipe idea from one of the vendors. Either way, you'll be trying something new and saving on the cost of the bill from an expensive restaurant.

Related Link: Date Idea: Go Strawberry Picking

No Farmer's Market visit is complete without a delicious tasting dessert. You can make a sweet treat out of the fruits you purchased or enjoy the fresh baked blueberry pies, apple tarts and lemon bars that are nicely packaged and ready to bring home and enjoy as a couple for this date idea.

Dating Advice: 5 Steps To Securing A Second Date

By Joshua

Pompey

You've met the man of your dreams. He was tall, handsome, fun, and somehow managed to avoid making you question the male species. A true dating rarity these days. You can't wait to have another date night. The question is, how do you secure that coveted second meeting once the first date is over? As a relationship expert, I have some dating advice. Below are five steps to take to ensure a second date.

Dating Advice On Securing A Second Date Night

Step 1: Send a thank you text after the date. If you had a good time, don't keep it to yourself. Text your date an hour later that you had a good time and thank him for taking you out. Men who are serious about finding a relationship will not be scared off by this. They will like you that much more if they know you have a good heart and are a kind person.

Step 2: Don't play games. In an era of unlimited distractions and short attention spans, playing games will put you on the fast track to being forgotten. These days everyone carries their phone on them twenty-four seven. Avoiding contact for long periods of time after a great date won't come across as playing it cool, it will just come across as rude or disengaged. If you like a man, do all the things you did prior to the first date. Stay interesting, fun, and don't be afraid to flirt a bit over your texts.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Does A Man Really Have to Call?

Step 3: Don't come across as too eager. There is a fine line between showing interest and acting as if you are suddenly his girlfriend. No, you don't want to start playing games. But you also don't want to start hitting up his phone around the clock asking trivial details about his life. Play it cool and just go with the flow.

Step 4: Never send a panic text. If he goes a few hours without answering your text, don't send a follow-up text that wreaks of desperation and insecurity. He may have just become busy, but that doesn't mean he is no longer interested. However, if you send an unwarranted panic text, he may just lose the interest he previously had. My dating advice: If it gets to a point where a day has passed and he clearly isn't responding, he may have simply just forgot about the text. It happens. So shoot him a new text the next day as if nothing ever happened. Don't comment on him ignoring your previous text.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Moving Your Relationship From Online To Face-to-Face

Step 5: Attempt to meet sooner rather than later. If you are asked out for a second date with a really great guy, don't put off the date because you have a yoga class or made plans to meet up with your friends later in the week for happy hour. We all get busy these days, but when you run into potential love, that needs to take precedence in your life, as nothing is more important. My dating tip: Postponing a date for more than a week for trivial reasons will quickly cause the momentum to fade.

Celebrity Interview: ‘RHOD’ Star Stephanie Hollman Says Her Life Is All About Her Family

By Mary

DeMaio

In the latest celebrity news, The Real Housewives franchise has extended to Dallas, Texas to follow the elite and extravagant social scene. In the premiere season, the women are all very open and honest with the struggles they encounter every day. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Stephanie Hollman shares her secrets of being a stay at home mom, how she balances and brings harmony to her marriage, and reveals her best relationship advice.

Stephanie Hollman Reveals Best Relationship Advice

In order to stay connected and create closeness, Hollman, and her husband go to therapy once a week. They talk and pray about anything that is bothering them. They also have date nights every Friday to catch up with each other and have some alone time. "Our kids are respectful of that, you have to make your marriage important," she says. Children can sense when everything is not okay, so it is imperative to set a good example. "Harmony in the household makes a difference in the child's life," Hollman says.

At the end of the day, it all comes down to her children and husband, which are her utmost priority. Hollman and her husband are on the board of the domestic violence agency and they really hope that their children will follow in their footsteps. "I want my sons to treat women respectfully, be chivalrous, and open doors," she says. "I feel like that is lost now. People should make phone calls, not texts." She wants her sons' wives to look at her one day and say thank you for raising such great men. "My life is my children and my family, and as boring as it sounds, it's what makes me happy."

Reality TV Star Talks About Authenticity In Celebrity Interview

New to the reality TV scene, Hollman wants viewers to walk away understanding that no one is perfect. She is a stay at home mom with a six-year-old and a four-year-old and she works hard to juggle their lives with the expectations of her husband, Travis Hollman. "I have little breakdowns, my husband and I argue. People need to see we aren't all perfect," she says. Giving up her career as a social worker to have babies, Hollman wouldn't change a thing. "I have always been the girl who never tried to do anything out of my comfort zone," she revealed in our celebrity interview.

She was approached out of the blue to do 'RHOD' and wasn't looking for it. "I wanted to see what I was made of because if I didn't do it, I would have always wondered, what if," she adds. Her friend Amanda Ward had suggested her and Brandi Redmond to the producers, saying she had two girlfriends that are really goofy and always making people laugh. Within six weeks they were cast. Hollman and Redmond had been friends 10 years prior to the show. "I don't feel like I have to try. Sometimes it takes so much effort to have a conversation. It's not like that with Brandi,” she adds. In their friendship, they are dedicated to talking everything out before it leads to a fight. “Our relationship is better than other people’s marriages,” Hollman says. The reality TV star hopes that it stays that way because she would never want to damage their friendship over a show. In terms of where she sees her career going next, the celebrity mom says that she just wants to live the journey God has for her. “If something comes out ‘RHOD’ career wise, that would be amazing,” she says. Hollman hopes to use this experience to learn more about herself.

Philanthropically, giving back has always been in her heart and she wants to be able to make a difference in the world. “I was born in a small town in Oklahoma and wasn’t raised with the luxuries I have now,” she shares. At times, her family members would struggle, but people reached out and supplied them with food when they needed it most. “I am now able to give back in a different light. I have the resources to financially make a difference for these charities,” she says. Hollman leads the charitable contribution efforts for her husband’s company, Hollman Inc., but she doesn’t work directly under him. “Bravo is very colorful. I appreciate that they have to be,” she says. Her husband is obsessed with to-do lists and when he goes out of town he writes down what needs to be done. “He is such a great provider. He doesn’t care what I spend. I think they were trying to make it like I had an allowance, but it’s not like that at all,” she says.

The Real Housewives of Dallas airs Mondays on Bravo at 10 p.m. EST.
