Cupid's Advice:

Every person is different and so is every situation, so think hard about whether someone is right for you or not. Cupid has some relationship advice on things to consider before deciding whether you're better off without someone or not:

1. Have they done unforgivable things?: Forgiving them means accepting the situation and their apology, and moving on from it. There is no point in saying you will forgive your partner, if the problem will just keep popping up in the future. So, analyze and evaluate whether what they did is something you can move on from.

Tristan Thompson Leaves Cleveland One Week After Birth of His Daughter With Khloe Kardashian

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Tristan Thompson left Cleveland. According to EOnline.com, Thompson looked happy as he boarded the Cleveland Cavaliers' team plane on Thursday. They're Indiana bound for Game 3 of their playoff series versus the Pacers. His departure is a week after True was born. Until now, he hadn't left Khloe Kardashian or their celebrity baby True's side after the cheating scandals. It was said before that Khloe may be willing to give Thompson a chance, but they're still rocky now. “Khloe and Tristan don’t have much to do with each other. She’s very angry with him and rightfully so,” said a source. “At the same time, she does want her daughter to spend time with her dad. So, she isn’t denying him that chance. But, she is cold with Tristan and keeping contact to a minimum. Tristan doesn’t think Khloe will ever forgive him, but that’s yet to be determined.” But according to another source, “Khloe wants True to have a father and very much still loves Tristan... Khloe really wants to try and forgive him, and make it work, but doesn’t know how she will be able to do that.”

It seems like Khloe is having a hard time right now. What are some ways to deal when you’re relationship is in limbo?

Cupid’s Advice:

After a wrongdoing from your partner, you will need to figure things out, which requires a lot of thinking. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to deal:

1. Give yourself space: You need time for yourself. You have a lot of analyzing and evaluating to do, so you need a clear head. Feel free to go out somewhere for some “you time” to breathe in the fresh air and think, like the park for example. Being away from your partner can do you well, not only for thinking, but also for healing.

2. Keep yourself busy: Yes, you need to take time out to think, but you also need a breather. Staying busy will help. Do whatever, just let yourself get flowed away by other things. Run errands, focus on your hobby, hangout with family and friends. You should not be obsessing over the situation which is why you need a breather from it. So, be productive, with plenty of rest time to keep yourself centered and calm.

3. Be positive: Think to yourself that whether you are able to patch things up with your partner or not, sooner or later it will all be okay. It's hard to think positive when we're going through a hard time, but it has to be done. Keeping a positive mind will result in making positive decisions and taking positive actions. We should all get into the habit of positive thinking for all aspects of our lives.

Expert Marriage Advice: Your Choice of Mate Can Make or Break Your Career

By Rachel Pace

Choosing a mate is one of the biggest choices you'll ever make. When you decided to marry your partner you probably never thought that this choice could make or break your career. It may sound extreme, but studies from Washington University in St. Louis show that your spouse's personality, namely a conscientious mate, may have a direct influence on how successful your career is. The same traits that you love in your marriage may help you professionally down the line. Choosing a wife who is supportive or a husband who encourages you to do your best can make all the difference in your success. So, choose carefully!

Here is some of the best marriage advice for your professional and romantic future. These are the top personality traits to look out for

when picking your life partner:

1. LOOK FOR... A Supportive Spouse: When choosing a mate, you weren't likely thinking about how their personality might affect your future career. After all, getting married is all about the initial physical attraction, following emotional attraction, and a strong love.

If you want someone who will be good for your career, follow this marriage advice: create a support system. This means you and your partner listen to one another, offer help, pay attention to your spouse's needs, laugh together, show love, patience, and always as a team. If you have a healthy support system at home you know that your partner will always be rooting for you through the good times and is ready to be your shoulder to lean on during the hard days.

2. AVOID... Jealousy: Marriage advice regarding jealousy usually goes a little something like this: "Jealousy is damaging to your marriage on a good day." A level of healthy jealousy regarding someone moving in on your spouse is normal. It is when jealousy moves into the realms of anxiety and control that it becomes damaging.

Telltale signs that your spouse is jealous of your career include the following: speaking negatively about your job, trying to hold you back from advancing in work, and not showing any interest in your day. Career jealousy can happen for all sorts of reasons. Perhaps your spouse feels stuck in their own profession or wishes they had more time with you. Regardless of their reasoning, a jealous spouse can hold you back from advancing in your professional life.

Related Link: Expert Marriage Advice: What I Learned About Business After Getting Married

someone who takes great care and puts effort in whatever they do and are guided by a strong sense of right and wrong. A conscientious mate, for example, would tidy up the house without being asked. These scrupulous partners are great for both your marriage, your career, and your health. In fact, a 2009 study by the University of Illinois suggests that women who are paired with a conscientious husband experience added benefits to their health. In the 2014 study "The Role of Active Assortment in Spousal Similarity" research found that women typically listed traits such as conscientiousness and agreeableness higher in the desired partner than men did. The statistic mentioned at the onset, researched by Washington University in St. Louis, followed 5,000 married couples and looked at their measures of income, job satisfaction, and the likelihood of getting promoted.

The research found that those with conscientious spouses increased their chances of higher pay, increased job satisfaction, and were more likely to be promoted. Why? A conscientious mate knows how to take care of things. They do what needs to be done to care for your children, your home, and their own professional pursuits. They do this without being asked and likely without complaint. This personality trait allows you to focus your energy and attention on work pursuits. It also allows you to recharge and relax in your downtime. This is beneficial since the more you're able to wind-down at home, the happier you will be. This good attitude then positively affects both your work capabilities and your marriage.

4. AVOID... Narcissism: You've likely met a few narcissists in your life. Hopefully, you aren't married to one. Named for Narcissus, a man who fell in love with himself and drowned in a pool of water trying to catch his own reflection, narcissism is not a quality you want in your mate. Especially if you want them to support your career goals.

Narcissism is marked by a person lacking empathy, quick to jealousy, a strong sense of entitlement, preoccupied with one's self and also their appearance, and a strong need for excessive admiration. This person believes they are special and deserve to be the center of attention. Research from the National Center for Biotechnology Information suggests that those married to a narcissistic partner will experience a decline in relationship satisfaction over time. Needless to say, a person with a narcissistic personality will not be interested in showing you and your career moves a wide array of support.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: How to Handle Heartbreak

5. AIM FOR... A balance in your Work-Life: Striking that perfect work-life balance is essential for maintaining a happy home while you pursue your career goals. When you come home, remember to leave work at the office. Your time at home is meant to be spent with your spouse, connecting, talking, and enjoying one another's company. Not answering work emails.

It's also important for you to show your partner that they are your number one priority. Even the most conscientious husband or wife can still feel left out if you've been focusing too heavily on your work. One way you can do this is by unplugging from your smart devices when you are home with your spouse. Listen when they speak, and make an effort to have a regular date night with one another. Taking care of your own needs and desires is also important for a healthy work-life balance.

Choosing a mate is important. If you want to be successful in your career and in your marriage, choose your partner carefully. Look for a partner who is not jealous, who shows patience, empathy, and is conscientious. In return, make sure you are doing your best to create a work-life balance that contributes to a happy marriage.

Celebrity News: Bella Thorne & Patrick Schwarzenegger Dish on Relationship Deal Breakers

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Bella Thorne and Patrick Schwarzenegger shared their thoughts on what makes and breaks a relationship, and it's good advice! Thorne and Schwarzenegger, who star in Midnight Sun which premiered on Friday, opened up about how their first crushes were the ones that taught them about their relationship wants and deal breakers. According to UsMagazine.com, Thorne said: "If you're dating someone that's not going to motivate you or encourage you, don't date them. You should straight up just be out of the relationship right then and there. I dated somebody and sent him a song that I recorded and he was like, 'This is honestly not very good at all. I'm sorry. I kind of hate this song. You sound awful.' I was like, 'That feels like s-t. That hurts on the inside, man.'" "It's the worst thing when you're dating somebody who is just like, 'You're sh-t.'" Schwarzenegger agrees. "I think that having a significant other is meant to make you a better person and bring out the best in you and you bring out the best in them, he explains. "It's about surrounding yourself with people that root for you and expect more from you. I think those are the types of people you want to surround yourself with." Yep, that is good love advice!

In celebrity news, 'Midnight Sun' actors Bella and Patrick talk things that make or break relationships. What are three things that can be considered a relationship deal breaker?

Cupid's Advice:

Many things can break a relationship, here are three we think are on the top of the list:

1. Cheating: Infidelity is a big one. It is a big betrayal, and it is deceitful as well. It ruins trusts, too. However, some couples are able to work through an indiscretion like cheating – but then again, many others can't. Cheating is a big deal breaker that many of us choose to not deal with.

2. Lack of trust: Cheating is not the only thing that can break trust. And sometimes, trust is just not there from the beginning either. In any relationship, it is important to have trust, if there isn't any you're headed for an extremely rocky road. Do yourself a favor, and work on this big issue before it gets worse, because it can definitely be a deal breaker.

3. No common ground: In a romantic relationship, you need to have things in common. No, you do not need to have everything or even most things in common, but you do need a base for the foundation you're building. It's okay to have differences, but after everything, you should have things in common to keep the relationship going. There isn't a choice for "inconsolable differences" on divorce papers for nothing!
